Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 25, 2015, OceanFirst Financial Corp. (the Company) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) by and among the Company, OceanFirst Bank (OceanFirst Bank) and Colonial American Bank (Colonial American). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Colonial American, a New Jersey state chartered commercial bank, will merge with and into OceanFirst Bank, a federally-chartered capital stock savings bank, with OceanFirst Bank as the surviving entity (the Merger).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, upon completion of the Merger (the Effective Time), each of Colonial American's common shares and Series A Preferred Shares will be converted the right to receive 0.3736 shares of the Company's common stock (the Exchange Ratio). The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustment in certain circumstances set forth in the Merger Agreement, including (i) in the event of the sale of certain designated loans above a price provided for in the Merger Agreement, (ii) Colonial American having a tangible book value below $9,655,921, or (iii) a recovery in excess of expenses prior to the closing with respect to certain litigation, as also set forth in the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement provides that all Colonial American stock options that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (Old Stock Options) shall automatically be converted as of the Effective Time into options to purchase Company common stock (New Stock Options), which New Stock Options shall be identical to the Old Stock Options in all material respects, except that (i) upon exercise of the New Stock Options, the optionholder will receive Company common stock rather than Colonial American common stock, (ii) the number of shares of Company common stock covered by each New Stock Option shall equal the number of shares of Colonial American common stock covered by the corresponding Old Stock Option multiplied by the Exchange Ratio (rounded up or down to the nearest whole share, with .50 being rounded down), (iii) the exercise price of each New Stock Option shall equal the exercise price applicable to the corresponding Old Stock Option divided by the Exchange Ratio (rounded up or down to the nearest whole cent, with .50 being rounded up) and (iv) the committee that administers the plan by which such New Stock Options are governed shall be the compensation committee of the Board of Directors of Company. In all other material respects, the New Stock Options shall be governed by the terms of the equity compensation plans and agreements under which they were originally granted.

The Merger Agreement also provides that the Company will purchase all outstanding Colonial American stock purchase warrants outstanding for a price of $0.27 per warrant. It is a condition to closing that warrants to purchase 75% of the shares of Colonial American Bank common stock subject to the warrants must be tendered, and that each holders of warrants to purchase more than 5,000 Colonial American shares must tender their warrants. Currently, there are warrants outstanding to purchase 460,403 shares of Colonial American common stock, with an exercise price of $10 per share. Any warrants not tendered to the Company for purchase will remain outstanding and be converted into the right to purchase shares of the Company's common stock, with the number of shares purchasable and the exercise price adjusted to reflect the Exchange Ratio.

Concomitantly with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Voting Agreements (collectively, the Voting Agreements) were executed by each member of the Boards of Directors of Colonial American, its executive officers and certain substantial stockholders of Colonial American capital stock. Pursuant to the Voting Agreements, among other things, such persons have irrevocably agreed (i) to vote any Colonial American common stock held by them in favor of the Merger Agreement and the Merger at any meeting of the stockholders of Colonial American called for such purpose, and (ii) to abide by certain transfer restrictions with respect to their Colonial American common stock. In addition, each party who signed a Voting Agreement also tendered their Colonial American stock purchase warrants to the Company for purchase, effective as of the Effective Time.

Anthony Giordano, Nancy Mazza and Lisa Borghese, each an executive officer of Colonial American, have each entered into an employment agreement with the Company which shall be effective as of the Effective Time.

At Closing, the Company will create a trust (the Liquidating Trust ) for the benefit of the stockholders of Colonial American immediately prior to the Effective Time (the CAB Stockholders ). The Liquidating Trust will pursue, for the sole benefit of the CAB Stockholders, certain litigation pending as of the Effective Time. Proceeds of such claims, net of the costs of recovery, will be distributed to the CAB Stockholders in accordance with the terms of the Liquidating Trust. The Company will waive all right, title and interest in any such recovery, including but not limited to recovery from any policy of insurance, related to such claims, and will have no obligation to fund any expenses of the Liquidating Trust.

The transaction has been approved by the Boards of Directors of the Company, OceanFirst Bank and Colonial American. Completion of the transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals and the approval of Colonial American's stockholders.

The Merger Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants of the Company and OceanFirst Bank, together, and Colonial American made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract by and among the Company, OceanFirst Bank and Colonial American are not intended to provide factual, business, or financial information about the Company, OceanFirst Bank and Colonial American. Moreover, some of those representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to stockholders or different from what a stockholder might view as material, may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the Company, OceanFirst Bank and Colonial American rather than establishing matters as facts, may have been qualified by certain disclosures not reflected in the Merger Agreement that were made to the other party in connection with the negotiation of the Merger Agreement and generally were solely for the benefit of the parties to that agreement. Colonial American has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice until the closing of the transaction and not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period (without the prior written consent of the Company).

The Merger Agreement provides that the Merger Agreement may be terminated in certain instances, including: (i) at any time by the mutual written agreement of both parties; (ii) by either party not in material breach if there shall be a material breach of any of the representations or warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement on the part of the other party; (iii) by either party not then in material breach if there shall be a material failure to perform or comply with any of the covenants or agreements set forth in the Merger Agreement; (iv) by either party, if the closing shall not have occurred by the Termination Date (as defined in the Merger Agreement), or such later date as shall have been agreed to in writing; (v) by either party, if the stockholders of Colonial American shall have voted against approval of the Merger Agreement; (vi) by either party if the approval of any governmental entity of the Merger Agreement transactions is denied; (vii) by the board of directors of either party not then in material breach in the event that any of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such party to consummate the Merger cannot be satisfied or fulfilled; (viii) by the Company if Colonial American shall have materially breached its obligations with by soliciting a competing acquisition proposal or failed to timely call a stockholders meeting, or if the Colonial American board of directors does not publicly recommend stockholders approval of the Merger Agreement; and (ix) by either party if prior to the approval of its shareholders, Colonial American enters into an alternative acquisition agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement).

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is included to provide information regarding its terms and does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and is incorporated into this report by reference.

On February 25, 2015, the Company issued a press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
