Filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3)
Registration No. 333-201992

Dear Gatherco Shareholders:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of the shareholders of Gatherco, Inc. (Gatherco), which will be held at the Gatherco Orrville Office, located at 300 Tracy Bridge Road, Orrville, Ohio 44667, on March 20, 2015, at 10:30 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time. At the meeting, you will be asked to approve and adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 30, 2015 (referred to herein as the merger agreement), that Gatherco has entered into with Chesapeake Utilities Corporation (Chesapeake Utilities) and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger of Gatherco with and into a wholly owned subsidiary of Chesapeake Utilities. This document provides you with detailed information about the merger. In addition to being a proxy statement of Gatherco, this document is also the prospectus of Chesapeake Utilities for Chesapeake Utilities common stock that will be issued to you in connection with the merger.

After careful consideration, Gatherco s board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

In the merger, each outstanding Gatherco common share will be converted into the right to receive that amount of cash and that number of shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock (together with associated rights under Chesapeake Utilities stockholder rights plan) determined pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. Subject to certain adjustments described in the merger agreement, the aggregate merger consideration payable for all of Gatherco s common shares outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be $57,500,000 minus the option merger consideration payable to the Gatherco option holders as more fully discussed below. The aggregate merger consideration payable for the Gatherco common shares at closing will be subject to deductions for certain transaction expenses paid or payable in connection with the merger, including fees and expenses of Gatherco s legal and financial advisors, to the extent that such expenses have not been paid before the closing date, and certain estimated fees of the paying agent. Additionally, the cash consideration otherwise payable to the Gatherco shareholders at closing will be reduced by an amount of cash that will be held in two escrow accounts for a limited period of time. One escrow will secure and fund the payment of claims, if any, by Chesapeake Utilities and related parties for indemnification in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, including, if applicable, certain environmental remediation costs at identified sites. The second escrow will fund the fees and expenses of the shareholder agent designated in the merger agreement. The closing payment made to the holders of Gatherco common shares will consist of (i) shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock with an aggregate market value determined as described in the merger agreement equal to 60% of the total consideration less the option merger consideration and (ii) the balance in cash. The exact amount of the closing payment that will be made in the merger for each Gatherco common share will not be determined until the closing.

The estimated aggregate stock consideration issuable in the merger is 593,005 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock and the estimated aggregate cash consideration payable in the merger is $19,932,092. Based on the assumptions that (i) the aggregate amount of the cash consideration adjustments at closing is $1,550,000 (without taking into account the deduction for the cash consideration to be held in the escrow accounts) and (ii) the aggregate amount of the option merger consideration is $7,669,769, each Gatherco common share would be converted into the right to receive approximately $1,070.10 in cash and 34.5212 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock. Based on such assumptions and taking into account the deduction for the cash consideration to be held in the escrow accounts, the closing payment for each Gatherco common share would be approximately $720.81 in cash and 34.5212 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock.

Holders of Gatherco common shares may also be entitled to receive additional cash consideration for their common shares as more fully described in the merger agreement, contingent upon whether Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity receives during a specified period of time certain revenue from the operation of any new or existing repurposed pipeline (i) that is constructed or repurposed by Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity after the closing date of the merger and becomes operational prior to the fifth anniversary of such closing date, (ii) of which at least 5% of the length is located on the rights of way owned by Gatherco as of such closing date, and (iii) that is utilized by Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity to transport oil, natural gas or natural gas liquids that originated from a specified area of the Utica Shale formation. This additional contingent consideration consists of the right of the Gatherco shareholders who received merger consideration to receive their pro rata share (based upon their ownership of Gatherco common shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger) of up to 5% of any such revenue; provided, that the aggregate amount of such additional contingent consideration will not exceed $15,000,000 in order to ensure that the merger does not lose its federal tax characterization as a reorganization (such amount does not represent either Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco's expectation of the actual amount of such additional contingent consideration to be paid to the Gatherco shareholders).

Generally, the merger will not be taxable to you with respect to the Chesapeake Utilities common stock portion of the merger consideration you will receive and will be taxable to you with respect to the cash portion of the merger consideration you will receive. Subsequent sales of Chesapeake Utilities common stock you receive in the merger will generally be subject to taxation.

Based on the estimated number of Gatherco common shares outstanding on the record date of the special meeting, Chesapeake Utilities anticipates issuing approximately 593,005 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock to Gatherco shareholders in connection with the merger. Immediately after the merger, former Gatherco shareholders are anticipated to own approximately 3.9% of the then-outstanding shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock.

Chesapeake Utilities common stock is traded on the NYSE under the symbol CPK. On February 24, 2015, the closing sale price of a share of Chesapeake Utilities common stock was $47.77.

To complete the merger, holders of a majority of Gatherco's outstanding common shares must approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. Your vote is very important. Whether or not you expect to attend the special meeting, please vote as soon as possible to ensure that your shares are represented at the meeting. You may vote your shares by marking your votes on the proxy card, signing and dating it and mailing it in the envelope provided. If you sign and return your proxy card without specifying your choice, it will be understood that you wish to have your shares voted in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. You may also cast your vote by telephone or over the Internet by following the instructions on your proxy card.

We encourage you to read the entire document carefully. Please pay particular attention to Risk Factors beginning on page 10 for a discussion of the risks related to the merger and owning Chesapeake Utilities common stock after the merger.

We look forward to seeing you on March 20, 2015 in Orrville.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tony Kovacevich

Each item in this summary includes a page reference directing you to a more complete description of that item.*

Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this proxy statement/prospectus to Chesapeake Utilities refer to Chesapeake Utilities Corporation, a Delaware corporation; references to Merger Sub refer to Aspire Energy of Ohio, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and wholly owned subsidiary of Chesapeake Utilities; references to Gatherco refer to Gatherco, Inc., an Ohio corporation; references to the Surviving Entity refer to the Merger Sub as the surviving entity in the merger; references to the shareholder agent refer to Christian S. Gerig, the shareholder agent designated in the merger agreement; references to the merger agreement refer to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated January 30, 2015, among Chesapeake Utilities, Merger Sub and Gatherco; references to we, our or us refer to Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco.

The Merger (Page 14)

We propose that Gatherco merge with and into Merger Sub, with Merger Sub surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Chesapeake Utilities and operating the Gatherco business under the name of Aspire Energy of Ohio, LLC. As a result of the merger, the separate existence of Gatherco will terminate. We expect to complete the merger in the second quarter of 2015, although delays may occur. After the merger, Gatherco's shareholders will be stockholders of Chesapeake Utilities.

Gatherco's special meeting of shareholders will be held on March 20, 2015, at 10:30 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time, at the Gatherco Orrville Office, located at 300 Tracy Bridge Road, Orrville, Ohio 44667. At the meeting you will be asked to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger of Gatherco with and into Merger Sub.

You may vote at the Gatherco special meeting of shareholders if you owned Gatherco common shares at the close of business on February 24, 2015, the record date established by the Gatherco board of directors for the special meeting. As of that date, there were 17,178 Gatherco common shares outstanding and entitled to vote. You may cast one vote for each Gatherco common share that you owned on that date.

Gatherco's Board Recommendation (Page 17)

Gatherco's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Gatherco and its shareholders and that the merger consideration is fair to Gatherco shareholders, has approved the merger agreement and recommends that Gatherco shareholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

Merger Consideration and Escrows (Page 25)

In the merger, each outstanding Gatherco common share (other than those shares held by shareholders exercising and perfecting dissenters' rights, referred to herein as dissenting shares) will be converted into the right to receive that amount of cash and that number of shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock determined pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. Each share of Chesapeake Utilities common stock has a right attached to it under the Chesapeake Utilities stockholder rights plan. See Comparison of Stockholder/Shareholder Rights Stockholder/Shareholder Rights Plan herein for a description of the Chesapeake Utilities stockholders rights plan. Each reference to shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock in this proxy statement/prospectus shall include reference to the right attached to such share pursuant to the Chesapeake Utilities stockholders rights plan.

Subject to certain adjustments described in the merger agreement, the aggregate merger consideration payable for all of Gatherco's common shares outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be $57,500,000 minus the option merger consideration payable to the Gatherco option holders as more fully discussed below. The aggregate merger consideration payable for the Gatherco common shares at closing will be subject to deductions for certain transaction expenses paid or payable in connection with the merger, including fees and expenses of Gatherco's legal and financial advisors, to the extent that such expenses have not been paid before the closing date, and certain estimated fees of the paying agent. Additionally, the cash consideration otherwise payable to the Gatherco shareholders at closing will be reduced by (i) $5,750,000 that will be held in escrow for a limited period of time to secure and fund the payment of claims, if any, by Chesapeake Utilities and related parties for indemnification in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, including, if applicable, certain environmental remediation costs at identified sites, and (ii) $250,000 that will be held in escrow to pay the fees and expenses of the shareholder agent as described below. The closing payment made to the holders of Gatherco common shares will consist of (i) shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock with an aggregate market value determined as described in the merger agreement equal to 60% of the total consideration less the option merger consideration and (ii) the balance in cash. The exact amount of the closing payment that will be made in the merger for each Gatherco common share will not be determined until the closing.

The estimated aggregate stock consideration issuable in the merger is 593,005 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock and the estimated aggregate cash consideration payable in the merger is $19,932,092. Based on the assumptions that (i) the aggregate amount of the cash consideration adjustments at closing is $1,550,000 (without taking into account the deduction for the cash consideration to be held in the escrow accounts) and (ii) the aggregate amount of the option merger consideration is $7,669,769, each Gatherco common share would be converted into the right to receive approximately $1,070.10 in cash and 34.5212 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock. Based on such assumptions and taking into account the deduction for the cash consideration to be held in the escrow accounts, the closing payment for each Gatherco common share would be approximately $720.81 in cash and 34.5212 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock. The actual amount of the cash consideration adjustments at closing may be more or less than $1,550,000 and the actual amount of the option merger consideration payable at closing may be more or less than $7,669,769, which would result in an increase or decrease in the amount of cash or Chesapeake Utilities common stock each Gatherco shareholder would receive.

The indemnification escrow will remain in place for 12 months for the purpose of securing and funding the Gatherco shareholders' indemnification obligations to Chesapeake Utilities under the merger agreement, including, if applicable, certain environmental remediation costs at identified sites. To the extent any of the escrowed amount is not subject to indemnification claims within the 12-month period following the merger, it will be distributed to the Gatherco shareholders as soon as is practicable following the end of that period. It is possible that none of the escrow amount will be distributed to Gatherco shareholders. Except for certain limited circumstances set forth in the merger agreement, the escrow will be Chesapeake Utilities' sole and exclusive remedy for indemnification claims against Gatherco shareholders.

In order to pay for the fees and expenses of the shareholder agent, including the fees and expenses of legal counsel, accountants or other third parties retained by the shareholder agent on the shareholders' behalf, an amount equal to $250,000 will be withheld from the cash consideration otherwise payable to the Gatherco shareholders at the closing. Any remaining portion of this amount will be distributed to the Gatherco shareholders after the shareholder agent's services are no longer required, which period could extend for a number of years after closing in order to address potential disputes regarding any additional contingent consideration payable to the Gatherco shareholders.

Holders of Gatherco common shares may be entitled to receive additional cash consideration as more fully described in the merger agreement, contingent upon whether Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity receives during any specified period of time certain revenue from the operation of any new or existing repurposed pipeline (i) that is constructed or repurposed by Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity after the closing date of the merger and becomes operational prior to the fifth anniversary of such closing date, (ii) of which at least 5% of the length is located on the rights of way owned by Gatherco as of such closing date, and (iii) that is utilized by Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity to transport oil, natural gas or natural gas liquids that originated from a specified area of the Utica Shale formation. This additional contingent consideration consists of the right of the Gatherco shareholders who received merger consideration to receive their pro rata share (based upon their ownership of Gatherco common shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger) of up to 5% of any such revenue; provided, that the aggregate amount of such additional contingent consideration will not exceed $15,000,000 in order to ensure that the merger does not lose its federal tax characterization as a reorganization (such amount does not represent either Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco's expectation of the actual amount of such additional contingent consideration to be paid to the Gatherco shareholders).

Treatment of Gatherco Options (Page 27)

Chesapeake Utilities will not assume any options to purchase Gatherco common shares, each referred to herein as a Gatherco option. Effective at or prior to the effective time of the merger, each Gatherco option that is outstanding and unexercised prior to the effective time of the merger (whether vested or unvested) will be either (i) exercised or terminated prior to the effective time of the merger in accordance with the terms of the Gatherco stock option plan under which it was granted and the applicable option grant agreement or (ii) cancelled as of the effective time of the merger to the extent in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (subject to the obligations of the Surviving Entity described in the following paragraph).

Each holder of a Gatherco option with an exercise price that is less than $2,798.05, referred to herein as a Gatherco in-the-money option, that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be entitled to be paid by the Surviving Entity, in exchange for the cancellation of such Gatherco option, an amount in cash (without interest, and subject to deduction for any required withholding tax), with respect to each Gatherco common share subject to such Gatherco option, equal to the excess of (i) the per share amount payable with respect to such common share, determined by multiplying $57,500,000 by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of Gatherco common shares underlying Gatherco in-the-money options and the denominator of which is the sum of the number of Gatherco common shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and the common shares issuable upon the exercise of Gatherco in-the-money options, over (ii) the per share exercise price of such Gatherco in-the-money option. The aggregate amount of consideration payable to the holders of Gatherco in-the-money options in the merger is referred to herein as the option merger consideration. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, all of the outstanding Gatherco options are in-the-money options.

Each holder of a Gatherco option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and that is not a Gatherco in-the-money option will not receive any option merger consideration or other consideration with respect to such option.

Shareholder Agent (Page 43)

From and after the completion of the merger, the former Gatherco shareholders will be represented by Christian S. Gerig. By virtue of their approval of the merger, the Gatherco shareholders will be deemed to have appointed Mr. Gerig, as agent and attorney-in fact for each Gatherco shareholder (except those who exercise and perfect dissenters' rights) for all matters relating to the merger agreement.

Tax Consequences of the Merger (Page 19)

Subject to certain circumstances described below, in the opinion of Baker & Hostetler LLP and Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, for United States federal income tax purposes, the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

Provided that the merger qualifies as a reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes, you may recognize a gain, but you will not recognize a loss, upon the exchange of your Gatherco common shares for shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock and cash. If the sum of the market value of the Chesapeake Utilities common stock and the amount of cash you receive in exchange for your Gatherco common shares exceeds the adjusted basis of your Gatherco common shares, you will recognize a taxable gain equal to the lesser of the amount of such excess or the amount of cash you receive in the exchange (other than any cash received instead of a fractional share of Chesapeake Utilities common stock). Generally, any gain recognized upon the exchange will be a capital gain, and any such capital gain will be a long-term capital gain if you have established a holding period of more than one year for your Gatherco common shares. Depending on certain facts specific to you, any gain could instead be characterized as ordinary dividend income.

For a complete description of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger, see The Merger Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Gatherco is prohibited from paying cash dividends to its shareholders prior to completion of the merger.

Chesapeake Utilities expects to continue its common stock dividend policy after the merger, but the payment of dividends by Chesapeake Utilities on its common stock in the future is subject to the determination and discretion of its board of directors and depends on a variety of factors, including cash requirements, Chesapeake Utilities' financial condition and earnings, legal and regulatory considerations and other factors.

The merger will be treated as a purchase by Chesapeake Utilities of Gatherco under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (United States GAAP).

Gatherco s Reasons for the Merger (Page 17)

For a discussion of the factors considered by the Gatherco board of directors in reaching its decision to approve and recommend the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, see The Merger Gatherco s Reasons for the Merger and Recommendations of Gatherco s Board.

Required Gatherco Shareholder Vote (Page 45)

Approval of the merger agreement and the merger requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding Gatherco common shares.

On the record date, directors and executive officers of Gatherco and their affiliates beneficially owned or had the right to vote 9,316 Gatherco common shares, representing approximately 54.2% of the Gatherco common shares outstanding on the record date. While there are no voting agreements or arrangements with any directors, officers or other shareholders of Gatherco relating to the merger of which Gatherco is aware, to Gatherco s knowledge, nearly all of the directors and executive officers of Gatherco and their affiliates intend to vote their common shares in favor of the approval of the merger agreement and the merger.

Ownership of Chesapeake Utilities After the Merger

Chesapeake Utilities expects to issue approximately 593,005 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock to Gatherco shareholders in the merger. At the completion of the merger, following issuance of the Chesapeake Utilities common stock in the merger, it is expected that there will be outstanding approximately 15,187,954 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock. The shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued to Gatherco shareholders in the merger is expected to represent approximately 3.9% of the outstanding Chesapeake Utilities common stock immediately after the merger.

Some of Gatherco s directors and executive officers have interests in the merger other than their interests as shareholders, including:

Under the merger agreement, Chesapeake Utilities has agreed to indemnify Gatherco s directors and officers against liabilities arising out of certain actions or omissions occurring before the completion of the merger.

The merger agreement also provides that, subject to certain limitations, Chesapeake Utilities will maintain directors and officers liability insurance for a period of six years after the merger is completed that provides at least the same coverage and amounts, and contains terms and conditions no less advantageous, as that coverage currently provided by Gatherco.

Following the completion of the merger, Tony Kovacevich and John Frank, Gatherco's President and Chief Financial Officer, respectively, will be consultants to the Surviving Entity, as each of them entered into a consulting agreement with Gatherco concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement that becomes effective upon completion of, and contains certain payment provisions that will be triggered by, the merger in accordance with its terms that are described under "The Merger - Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger." Gatherco's board of directors knew about these additional interests and considered them when they approved the merger agreement and the merger.

Dissenters' Rights (Page 23)

If you are a shareholder of Gatherco, you may elect to dissent from the merger by following the procedures set forth in Section 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law (the "OGCL"). For more information regarding your right to dissent from the merger, please read "The Merger Agreement - Dissenters' Rights of Gatherco Shareholders." We have also attached a copy of the text of Section 1701.85 of the OGCL as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Third-Party Acquisition Proposals (Page 33)

We have agreed that Gatherco will not initiate or solicit proposals from other parties regarding the acquisition of Gatherco or its businesses. In addition, we have agreed that Gatherco will not engage in discussions or negotiations with or provide information to a third party regarding acquiring Gatherco or its businesses. However, if Gatherco receives an acquisition proposal from a third party, Gatherco can engage in discussions and negotiations with and provide information to the third party if, among other requirements, Gatherco's board of directors determines in good faith that the proposal is or is reasonably likely to result in a proposal that is superior to Chesapeake Utilities' merger proposal. Gatherco's receipt of such a proposal or participation in such negotiations does not give Gatherco the right to terminate the merger agreement. Gatherco is required to provide notice to Chesapeake Utilities of any acquisition proposal, and Chesapeake Utilities has certain rights to match an acquisition proposal.

Conditions to Complete the Merger (Page 39)

Our obligations to complete the merger depend on a number of conditions being met. These include, among other conditions:

the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger by the holders of a majority of the Gatherco common shares;

the listing on the NYSE of the shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued in the merger;

the absence of any law or governmental order that would prohibit the merger or make it illegal;

the representations and warranties of the other party to the merger agreement being true and correct in all material respects (except for representations and warranties qualified by the words "material" or "Material Adverse Effect," which are required to be true in all respects), and the other party to the merger agreement having performed in all material respects all its obligations under the merger agreement; and the receipt of legal opinions that (based on customary assumptions and on factual representations made by Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco and subject to various limitations), for United States federal income tax purposes, the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

In addition, Chesapeake Utilities' obligation to complete the merger is conditioned upon the number of dissenting shares not exceeding 10% of Gatherco's outstanding common shares.

Where the law permits, either of Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco could choose to waive a condition to its obligation to complete the merger even when that condition has not been satisfied. We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed. Although the merger agreement allows us to waive the tax opinion condition, we do not currently anticipate doing so.

Regulatory Approvals to Complete the Merger

We do not believe that any regulatory approvals are required for completion of the merger other than those that have already been obtained and the approval of the listing of the Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued in the merger on the NYSE.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (Page 41)

We can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger, even if Gatherco's shareholders have approved and adopted the merger agreement and the merger. Also, either of us can decide, without the consent of the other, to terminate the merger agreement in certain circumstances, including, among other circumstances:

if the merger is not completed on or before June 30, 2015;

if there is a final denial of a required regulatory approval;

if there is a breach of the merger agreement by the other party, as long as that breach would allow the non-breaching party not to complete the merger; or if Gatherco's shareholders fail to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger.

Table of Contents

Also, Chesapeake Utilities may terminate the merger agreement, among other reasons:

if Gatherco's board of directors withdraws, qualifies or adversely modifies its recommendation to the Gatherco shareholders that they adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger;

if Gatherco has breached its covenant not to solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any proposal by a third party for the acquisition of Gatherco or its businesses, in circumstances not permitted under the merger agreement; or if the number of dissenting shares exceeds 10% of Gatherco's outstanding common shares.

Whether or not the merger is completed, we will each pay our own fees and expenses, subject to any termination fee payable by Gatherco pursuant to the merger agreement.

The merger agreement provides that Gatherco must pay Chesapeake Utilities a termination fee in certain situations. In particular, Gatherco will pay Chesapeake Utilities a fee of $2,000,000:

(i) if (A) any of the following occurs:

Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco terminates the merger agreement because the merger is not completed on or before June 30, 2015;

Chesapeake Utilities terminates the merger agreement because of a breach of the merger agreement by Gatherco that would allow Chesapeake Utilities not to complete the merger; or

Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco terminates the merger agreement because Gatherco's shareholders fail to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger;
and prior to any such termination, there has been publicly announced any proposal by a third party to acquire Gatherco or its businesses or an intention to make such a proposal, and (B) within 12 months of such termination Gatherco either (1) completes a transaction for the acquisition of Gatherco or its businesses or (2) enters into any agreement contemplating or otherwise relating to any such transaction or proposal therefor, whether or not such transaction or proposal is subsequently completed; or

(ii) if Chesapeake Utilities terminates the merger agreement because:

Gatherco's board of directors withdraws, qualifies or adversely modifies its recommendation to the Gatherco shareholders that they adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger; or

Gatherco fails to comply with its obligations not to solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any proposal by a third party for the acquisition of Gatherco or its businesses, in circumstances not permitted under the merger agreement.

Amendment or Waiver of Merger Agreement Provisions (Page 42)

We may jointly amend the merger agreement, and we each may waive our respective right to require the other party to follow particular provisions of the merger agreement.

Rights of Gatherco Shareholders Following the Merger (Page 47)

The rights of Chesapeake Utilities stockholders are governed by Delaware law and by Chesapeake Utilities amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws, as amended. The rights of Gatherco shareholders are governed by Ohio law and by Gatherco's articles of incorporation and code of regulations. Upon our completion of the merger, the rights of both stockholder (or shareholder) groups will be governed by Delaware law and Chesapeake Utilities amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws, as amended.

Transaction, Integration and Merger-Related Costs

The transaction was valued at approximately $59,200,000 (taking into account the amount of outstanding Gatherco debt) as of the date of its announcement. Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco also expect to incur costs of approximately $2,000,000 associated with combining the operations of the two companies, which include transaction, integration and merger-related costs (including filing and registration fees with the SEC and New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), printing and mailing costs associated with this proxy statement/prospectus, and legal, accounting, financial advisory, consulting and public relations fees). Certain of the transaction and merger-related costs will be deducted from the aggregate merger consideration payable for the Gatherco common shares at closing. Additional costs may be incurred in the integration of the Gatherco business into the Chesapeake Utilities family of businesses.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the heading Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote on the proposals presented in this proxy statement/prospectus. You should also consider the other information in, and the other documents incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/prospectus, including in particular the risk factors associated with Chesapeake Utilities business contained under the heading Risk Factors in Chesapeake Utilities Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013. See Where You Can Find More Information.

Risks Relating to the Merger

In addition to the other information included and incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, Gatherco shareholders should carefully consider the matters described below to determine whether to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the merger.

The merger may cause dilution to Chesapeake Utilities earnings per share and, accordingly, adversely impact the market price of Chesapeake Utilities common stock.

Although Chesapeake Utilities expects that the merger will be earnings accretive in the first full year of operations following the merger, this accretion may not be achieved. The current expectations with respect to the effect of the merger on earnings are based upon preliminary estimates and are subject to change. If, based upon the operation of the business following the merger, there is dilution to Chesapeake Utilities earnings per share, the market price of Chesapeake Utilities common stock could be adversely impacted.

Certain directors and executive officers of Gatherco have interests that are different from Gatherco shareholders generally that you should consider in deciding your vote regarding the merger.

Certain directors and executive officers of Gatherco may have interests that differ from, or are in addition to, Gatherco shareholders interests. Gatherco directors and officers will be entitled to continuation of indemnification and insurance arrangements under the merger agreement as described under The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger. Following the completion of the merger, Tony Kovacevich and John Frank, Gatherco's President and Chief Financial Officer, respectively, will be consultants to the Surviving Entity, as each of them entered into a consulting agreement with Gatherco concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement. These consulting agreements become effective upon completion of, and contain certain payment provisions that will be triggered by, the merger in accordance with their terms that are described under The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger. You should be aware of the interests described under The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger when you consider your board of directors recommendation that you vote in favor of the merger.

The costs to maintain, repair and replace pipeline systems may exceed our expected levels.

Maintenance and repair of pipeline assets acquired as part of the merger may exceed expected cost levels. These pipeline assets may also be subject to the risk of failures or other incidents due to factors outside of our control (including due to third party excavation near the pipelines, unexpected degradation of pipelines, as well as design, construction or manufacturing defects) that could result in personal injury or property damages. Such incidents could also result in unscheduled outages or periods of reduced operating flows which could result in a loss of our ability to serve customers and a loss of revenues. Costs incurred to maintain the integrity and safety of the pipeline assets may exceed expected cost levels. In addition, there is a risk that new regulations associated with pipeline safety and integrity issues will be adopted that could require us to incur additional expenditures in the future.

There is no assurance that Chesapeake Utilities will continue to pay dividends.

Although Chesapeake Utilities has paid dividends on its common shares in the past, there is no assurance that Chesapeake Utilities will continue to pay dividends at the same rate or at all. The declaration and payment of future dividends, as well as the amount thereof, are subject to the declaration by Chesapeake Utilities Board of Directors. The amount and size of any future dividends will depend on Chesapeake Utilities results of operations, financial condition, capital levels, cash requirements, future prospects and other factors.

Chesapeake Utilities may be unable to successfully integrate Gatherco's operations.

The merger involves the integration of Gatherco's organization and operations into Chesapeake Utilities' organization and operations. The process of integrating Gatherco's organization and operations into Chesapeake Utilities' organization and operations could cause an interruption of, or loss of momentum in, business activities and the loss of personnel. Employee workforce factors, including loss of employees, availability of qualified personnel, and work stoppages could affect the business and financial condition of the Surviving Entity after the merger. Any delays or difficulties encountered in connection with the merger and the integration of Gatherco's operations could result in the disruption of ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect Chesapeake Utilities' ability to maintain relationships with customers, suppliers, employees and others with whom Gatherco has business dealings.

The value of shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be received in the merger will fluctuate; Gatherco's shareholders may receive more or less value depending on fluctuations in the price of Chesapeake Utilities common stock.

The number of shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock issued in the merger for each Gatherco common share is fixed. The market price of Chesapeake Utilities common stock may vary from its market prices at the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and at the date of the special meeting. Because the exchange ratio will not be adjusted to reflect any changes in the market value of Chesapeake Utilities common stock, the market value of Chesapeake Utilities common stock issued in the merger may be higher or lower than the value of such shares on earlier dates. During the 12-month period ending on February 24, 2015, a recent practical date prior to the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, Chesapeake Utilities common stock traded in a range from a low of $38.57 to a high of $52.66 and ended that period at $47.77. See Summary Chesapeake Utilities Per Share Market Price and Dividend Information on page 7 for more detailed share price information.

Gatherco will be subject to business uncertainties while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees may have an adverse effect on Gatherco's retention of its employees while the merger is pending and, consequently, on the Surviving Entity's operation of the business post-merger if employees depart.

Gatherco is subject to contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

The merger agreement restricts Gatherco from taking certain specified actions, without Chesapeake Utilities' consent, until the merger occurs or the merger agreement terminates. These restrictions may prevent Gatherco from pursuing otherwise attractive business opportunities and making other changes to its businesses prior to completion of the merger or termination of the merger agreement.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, the Gatherco shareholders have agreed to indemnify Chesapeake Utilities for environmental remediation costs with respect to identified sites, which could reduce the escrow funds distributed to the shareholders.

In the course of its due diligence, Chesapeake Utilities identified sites along Gatherco's 2,400 miles of rights of way and at certain of Gatherco's facilities that may require remediation under applicable environmental laws. Pursuant to the merger agreement, the Gatherco shareholders have agreed to indemnify Chesapeake Utilities for such remediation costs if it is reasonably likely that the releases requiring such remediation occurred prior to the closing date of the merger and unless Gatherco can demonstrate that the releases requiring remediation did not arise from Gatherco's operations. Any such indemnification would be subject to the $431,250 threshold applicable to general breaches of non-fundamental representations of Gatherco, would be paid from the indemnification escrow fund and would be separately capped at $1,650,000. If Chesapeake Utilities exercises its rights with respect to this special indemnity provision, the escrow funds that could otherwise be distributed to the Gatherco shareholders after 12 months would be reduced. See The Merger Agreement Indemnification.

Financial Risks Relating to Chesapeake Utilities Businesses

Chesapeake Utilities is subject to financial risks and uncertainties. Some of these risks are discussed below. For a discussion of additional financial risks and uncertainties that you should consider, see the risk factors section of Chesapeake Utilities annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, as updated by its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2014, June 30, 2014, and September 30, 2014, all of which are incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Instability and volatility in the financial markets could have an adverse impact on Chesapeake Utilities' growth strategy after the merger.

Chesapeake Utilities' business strategy includes the continued pursuit of growth, both organically and through acquisitions. Chesapeake Utilities relies on access to both short-term and longer-term capital markets as a significant source of liquidity for capital requirements not satisfied by the cash flow from its operations. If, post-merger, Chesapeake Utilities is not able to access capital at competitive rates, its ability to implement its strategic plan, undertake improvements and make other investments required for its future growth may be limited.

Chesapeake Utilities' results of operations, cash flows and financial position after the merger could be adversely affected if it is unable to obtain adequate and timely rate relief and pricing changes to offset the effects of inflation.

Inflation affects the cost of supply, labor, products and services required for operations, maintenance and capital improvements. To help cope with the effects of inflation on capital investments and returns, Chesapeake Utilities seeks rate relief from regulatory commissions for regulated operations and closely monitors the returns of its unregulated business operations. There can be no assurance that adequate and timely rate relief will be obtained to offset the effects of inflation. To compensate for fluctuations in propane gas prices, Chesapeake Utilities adjusts its propane selling prices to the extent allowed by the market. There can be no assurance, however, that propane sales prices could be increased sufficiently to compensate fully for such fluctuations in the cost of propane gas.

Operational Risks Relating to Chesapeake Utilities' Businesses

Chesapeake Utilities is subject to many operational risks and uncertainties. For a discussion of certain operational risks and uncertainties related to Chesapeake Utilities that you should consider, see the risk factors section of Chesapeake Utilities' annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, as updated by its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2014, June 30, 2014, and September 30, 2014, all of which are incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Regulatory, Legal and Environmental Risks Relating to Chesapeake Utilities' Businesses

Chesapeake Utilities is subject to many regulatory, legal and environmental risks and uncertainties. For a discussion of certain regulatory, legal and environmental risks and uncertainties related to Chesapeake Utilities that you should consider, see the risk factors section of Chesapeake Utilities' annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, as updated by its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2014, June 30, 2014, and September 30, 2014, all of which are incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

In addition to the regulatory, legal and environmental risks to which Chesapeake Utilities is currently subject, the Gatherco business to be conducted by the Surviving Entity following the merger will be subject to regulatory, legal and environmental risks associated with its operations, including the risk of future regulation of its business and the adoption of new environmental regulations that could materially increase liability and the cost of compliance, and therefore, adversely affect the results of operations of the Surviving Entity.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus and the documents that are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus contain or incorporate by reference statements that do not directly or exclusively relate to historical facts. Such statements are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You can typically identify forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking words, such as project, believe, expect, anticipate, intend, plan, estimate, continue, potential, forecast, or future or conditional verbs such as may, will, should, would or could. These statements represent Chesapeake Utilities' intentions, plans, expectations, assumptions and beliefs about Chesapeake Utilities' future financial performance, business strategy, projected plans and objectives, including post-merger. These statements are subject to many risks and uncertainties. In addition to the risk factors described above under Risks Factors, the following important factors, among others, could cause actual future results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements:

state and federal legislative and regulatory initiatives (including deregulation) that affect cost and investment recovery, have an impact on rate structures, and affect the speed at and degree to which competition enters the electric and natural gas industries;

the outcomes of regulatory, tax, environmental and legal matters, including whether pending matters are resolved within current estimates and whether the costs associated with such matters are adequately covered by insurance or recovered in rates;

the loss of customers due to government-mandated sale of Chesapeake Utilities utility distribution facilities;

changes in environmental and other laws and regulations to which Chesapeake Utilities is subject and changes in environmental conditions of property that Chesapeake Utilities now or may in the future own or operate;

the results of financing efforts, including Chesapeake Utilities ability to obtain financing on favorable terms, which can be affected by various factors, including credit ratings and general economic conditions;

the impact to the asset values and resulting higher costs and funding obligations of Chesapeake Utilities pension and other postretirement benefit plans as a result of potential downturns in the financial markets, lower discount rates or impacts associated with the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act;

the creditworthiness of counterparties with which Chesapeake Utilities is engaged in transactions;

the extent of success in connecting natural gas and electric supplies to transmission systems and in expanding natural gas and electric markets;

the effect of accounting pronouncements issued periodically by accounting standard-setting bodies;

the ability to establish and maintain key supply sources;

the effect of spot, forward and future market prices on Chesapeake Utilities' distribution, wholesale marketing and energy trading businesses;

the effect of competition on Chesapeake Utilities' businesses;

the ability to construct facilities at or below estimated costs; and risks related to cyber-attack or failure of information technology systems.

In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the events described in the forward-looking statements might not occur or might occur to a different extent or at a different time than Chesapeake Utilities has described. The areas of risk and uncertainty described above should be considered in connection with any written or oral forward-looking statement that may be made after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus by Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco or anyone acting on behalf of either or both of them. THE MERGER

The following discussion describes certain material information about the merger. We urge you to read carefully this entire document, including the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A, for a more complete understanding of the merger.

Gatherco's board of directors has adopted and approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. The merger agreement provides for the merger of Gatherco with and into Merger Sub, with Merger Sub surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Chesapeake Utilities and operating the Gatherco business under the name of Aspire Energy of Ohio, LLC. As a result of the merger, the separate existence of Gatherco will terminate. We expect to complete the merger in the second quarter of 2015, although delays may occur.

In the merger, each outstanding Gatherco common share (other than those shares held by shareholders exercising and perfecting dissenters' rights) will be converted into the right to receive that amount of cash and that number of shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock (together with associated rights under Chesapeake Utilities' stockholder rights plan) determined pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. Subject to certain adjustments described in the merger agreement, the aggregate merger consideration payable for all of Gatherco's common shares outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be $57,500,000 minus the option merger consideration payable to the Gatherco option holders as more fully discussed below. The aggregate merger consideration payable for the Gatherco common shares at closing will be subject to deductions for certain transaction expenses paid or payable in connection with the merger, including fees and expenses of Gatherco's legal and financial advisors, to the extent that such expenses have not been paid before the closing date, and certain estimated fees of the paying agent. Additionally, the cash consideration otherwise payable to the Gatherco shareholders at closing will be reduced by an amount of cash that will be held in two escrow accounts for a limited period of time. One escrow will secure and fund the payment of claims, if any, by Chesapeake Utilities and related parties for indemnification in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, including, if applicable, certain environmental remediation costs at identified sites. The second escrow will fund the fees and expenses of the shareholder agent designated in the merger agreement. The closing payment made to the holders of Gatherco common shares will consist of (i) shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock with an aggregate market value determined as described in the merger agreement equal to 60% of the total consideration less the option merger consideration and (ii) the balance in cash. The exact amount of the closing payment that will be made in the merger for each Gatherco common share will not be determined until the closing.

The estimated aggregate stock consideration issuable in the merger is 593,005 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock and the estimated aggregate cash consideration payable in the merger is $19,932,092. Based on the assumptions that (i) the aggregate amount of the cash consideration adjustments at closing is $1,550,000 (without taking into account the deduction for the cash consideration to be held in the escrow accounts) and (ii) the aggregate amount of the option merger consideration is $7,669,769, each Gatherco common share would be converted into the right to receive approximately $1,070.10 in cash and 34.5212 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock. Based on such assumptions and taking into account the deduction for the cash consideration to be held in the escrow accounts, the closing payment for each Gatherco common share would be approximately $720.81 in cash and 34.5212 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock. The actual amount of the cash consideration adjustments at closing may be more or less than $1,550,000 and the actual amount of the option merger consideration payable at closing may be more or less than $7,669,769, which would result in an increase or decrease in the amount of cash or Chesapeake Utilities common stock each Gatherco shareholder would receive.

A portion of the cash consideration in an aggregate amount equal to $5,750,000 will be held in escrow for 12 months following the merger for the purpose of securing and funding the Gatherco shareholders' indemnification obligations to Chesapeake Utilities under the merger agreement, including, if applicable, certain environmental remediation costs at identified sites. To the extent any of the escrowed amount is not subject to indemnification claims within the 12-month period following the merger, it will be distributed to the Gatherco shareholders as soon as is practicable following the end of that period. It is possible that none of the escrow amount will be distributed to Gatherco shareholders. Except for certain limited circumstances, the escrow will be Chesapeake Utilities' sole and exclusive remedy for indemnification claims against Gatherco shareholders.

In the course of its due diligence, Chesapeake Utilities identified sites along Gatherco's 2,400 miles of rights of way and at certain of Gatherco's facilities that may require remediation under applicable environmental laws. Pursuant to the merger agreement, the Gatherco shareholders have agreed to indemnify Chesapeake Utilities for such remediation costs if it is reasonably likely that the releases requiring such remediation occurred on or prior to the closing date of the merger and unless Gatherco can demonstrate that the releases requiring remediation did not arise from Gatherco's operations. Any such indemnification would be subject to the $431,250 threshold applicable to general breaches of non-fundamental representations of Gatherco, would be paid from the $5,750,000 escrow fund and would be separately capped at $1,650,000.

In order to pay for the fees and expenses of the shareholder agent, including the fees expenses of legal counsel, accountants or other third parties retained by the shareholder agent on the shareholders' behalf, an amount equal to $250,000 will be withheld from the cash consideration otherwise payable to the Gatherco shareholders at the closing. Any remaining portion of this amount will be distributed to the Gatherco shareholders after the shareholder agent's services are no longer required, which period could extend for a number of years after closing in order to address potential disputes regarding any additional contingent consideration payable to the Gatherco shareholders.

Holders of Gatherco common shares may be entitled to receive additional cash consideration as more fully described in the merger agreement, contingent upon whether Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity receives during a specified period of time certain revenue from the operation of any new or existing repurposed pipeline (i) that is constructed or repurposed by Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity after the closing date of the merger and becomes operational prior to the fifth anniversary of such closing date, (ii) of which at least 5% of the length is located on the rights of way owned by Gatherco as of such closing date, and (iii) that is utilized by Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity to transport oil, natural gas or natural gas liquids that originated from a specified area of the Utica Shale formation. This additional contingent consideration consists of the right of the Gatherco shareholders who received merger consideration to receive their pro rata share (based upon their ownership of Gatherco common shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger) of up to 5% of any such revenue; provided, that the aggregate amount of such additional contingent consideration will not exceed $15,000,000 in order to ensure that the merger does not lose its federal tax characterization as a reorganization within the meaning of the Code (such amount does not represent either Chesapeake Utilities' or Gatherco's expectation of the actual amount of such additional contingent consideration to be paid to the Gatherco shareholders).

Each holder of a Gatherco option with an exercise price that is less than $2,798.05, referred to herein as a Gatherco in-the-money option, that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be entitled to be paid by the Surviving Entity, in exchange for the cancellation of such Gatherco option, an amount in cash (without interest, and subject to deduction for any required withholding tax), with respect to each Gatherco common share subject to such Gatherco option, equal to the excess of (i) the per share amount payable with respect to such common share, determined by multiplying $57,500,000 by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of Gatherco common shares underlying Gatherco in-the-money options and the denominator of which is the sum of the number of Gatherco common shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and the common shares issuable upon the exercise of Gatherco in-the-money options, over (ii) the per share exercise price of such Gatherco in-the-money option. The aggregate amount of consideration payable to the holders of Gatherco in-the-money options in the merger is referred to as the option merger consideration. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, all of the outstanding Gatherco options are in-the-money options.

Each holder of a Gatherco option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and that is not a Gatherco in-the-money option will not receive any option merger consideration or other consideration with respect to such option.

Shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock issued and outstanding at the completion of the merger will remain outstanding and those stock certificates will be unaffected by the merger. Chesapeake Utilities common stock will continue to trade on the NYSE following the merger under the Chesapeake Utilities Corporation name with the symbol CPK.

Please see The Merger Agreement for additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the merger, including information about the conditions to the merger and the provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement.

Background of the Merger

In August 2012, Gatherco's board of directors discussed a possible sale of all or a portion of Gatherco's rights of way. Gatherco subsequently engaged Jefferies LLC, an investment banking firm (Jefferies), in December 2012 to provide a preliminary valuation of Gatherco and its rights of way and to conduct a limited, private solicitation of potential interest in the acquisition of Gatherco or such rights of way. Gatherco also retained Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP (Vorys) to provide legal services in connection with the potential sale. The process continued into the summer of 2013. Gatherco provided due diligence materials to a number of potential purchasers, both financial and strategic, but did not enter into a definitive sale agreement with any party. Throughout the fall and winter of 2013, Gatherco, through Jefferies, continued to receive inquiries regarding a possible sale, but Gatherco focused its efforts on growing the Cooper's customer base and its existing operations.

On April 22, 2014, Mark Eisenhower, Vice President of Chesapeake Utilities, contacted Tony Kovacevich, President of Gatherco, regarding a possible acquisition of Gatherco by Chesapeake Utilities. Mr. Kovacevich reported this inquiry to Gatherco's board of directors at its meeting on April 25, 2014.

On June 18, 2014, Mr. McMasters presented the Chesapeake Utilities board of directors with an overview of Gatherco, and the board discussed a possible acquisition of Gatherco. Over the following two weeks, Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco, with the assistance of their respective counsel, negotiated the memorandum of understanding and term sheet.

On September 2, 2014, the Chesapeake Utilities merger and acquisition committee held a meeting at which the committee reviewed the terms and conditions presented to the committee of the proposed memorandum of understanding and term sheet. The committee authorized management to proceed with negotiation of a transaction with Gatherco based upon such terms and conditions.

On September 4, 2014, Gatherco's board of directors met to review the proposed memorandum of understanding and term sheet. Vorys addressed the significant terms point by point, as well as the proposed timing and process leading up to a shareholder vote and closing, and, together with Mr. Kovacevich, addressed questions and comments from the board. Following the discussion, the board approved the proposed memorandum of understanding and term sheet.

On September 5, 2014, Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco executed the memorandum of understanding and term sheet.

On September 10, 2014, the Chesapeake Utilities board of directors held a meeting at which management gave a presentation regarding Gatherco and the status of activities related to the transaction. The board then granted the merger and acquisition committee the authority, in accordance with Chesapeake Utilities' bylaws, to exercise all of the powers of the board to, among other things, (a) approve the merger and the merger agreement, and (b) take any and all other actions as the committee may determine appropriate with respect to the merger.

From September through December 2014, the parties and their counsel exchanged and negotiated multiple drafts of the merger agreement. Chesapeake Utilities visited Gatherco's headquarters and field operations on several occasions throughout this period to conduct due diligence, and the parties held several teleconference meetings as well as an in person meeting between Messrs. Kovacevich and Eisenhower and their respective counsel.

On December 29, 2014, the Chesapeake Utilities merger and acquisition committee held a meeting and adopted and approved the merger agreement in substantially the form presented to the committee and the execution thereof and approved the merger.

The board then ratified its prior grant of authority to the merger and acquisition committee to exercise all of the powers of the board to, among other things, (a) approve the merger and the merger agreement, and (b) take any and all other actions as the committee may determine appropriate with respect to the merger, and ratified all other actions taken by the committee with respect to the merger, including the approval of the merger and the adoption and approval of the merger agreement.

On January 15, 2015, the Gatherco board of directors participated in an update teleconference meeting with counsel. Vorys updated the board on the status of discussions with Chesapeake Utilities and addressed the proposed indemnification provisions with respect to sites identified by Chesapeake Utilities in its due diligence that might require environmental remediation. The proposed indemnification constituted a subset of the indemnification provisions approved by the board at its December 29, 2014 meeting. The remainder of the substantive provisions in the merger agreement remained in the form previously approved by the board.

On January 22, 2015, Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco substantially completed their negotiations and the merger agreement.

On January 30, 2015, following completion of certain additional due diligence and final agreement as to the terms, the merger agreement was executed and delivered by Gatherco and Chesapeake Utilities.

Gatherco's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendations of Gatherco's Board

The Gatherco board of directors has determined that the merger with Chesapeake Utilities under the merger agreement is fair to, and in the best interests of, Gatherco and its shareholders. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and to recommend approval and adoption of the merger agreement to its shareholders, the Gatherco board of directors consulted with management, as well as its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following:

the challenges facing Gatherco as an independent natural gas gathering pipeline company and the Gatherco board of directors' belief that merging into the organization of a larger corporation will benefit shareholders and customers in that Chesapeake Utilities is better positioned to respond to economic and industry developments and should be better able to capitalize on new opportunities in existing and new markets;

the substantial premium that the merger consideration to be paid by Chesapeake Utilities represented as compared to the Gatherco share value immediately prior to the execution of the merger agreement;

the merger will provide Gatherco shareholders with immediate liquidity with respect to the Gatherco common shares exchanged for cash;

the merger provides Gatherco shareholders with greater liquidity with respect to the portion of their Gatherco shares to be exchanged for Chesapeake Utilities common shares in the merger because Chesapeake Utilities shares trade on the NYSE;

the long-term interests of Gatherco and its shareholders, as well as the long-term interests of Gatherco employees, customers, and the communities served by Gatherco;

the future cash dividends anticipated to be received by Gatherco shareholders after they become Chesapeake Utilities stockholders;

the structure of the merger and the terms of the merger agreement, including that the merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

the fact that Chesapeake Utilities intends to retain Gatherco's employees and maintain the existing management relationship with the Coop; and the ability of the Gatherco board of directors to consider and potentially take limited responsive action with respect to an unsolicited offer from a qualified bidder.

The Gatherco board of directors also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors in deliberations concerning the merger, including:

the costs associated with the negotiation process and the special meeting of shareholders, and other transaction-related costs;

the risk of a decline in the market price of Chesapeake Utilities shares prior to and after the consummation of the merger;

acceptance of the change in the ownership of Gatherco by the customers and other parties with which Gatherco conducts business;

whether the premium that the merger consideration to be paid by Chesapeake represented, while substantial, was sufficient to warrant Gatherco's losing its independence; and the loss of Gatherco's independence as a separate corporation and the potential impact to Gatherco employees.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Gatherco board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but, rather, includes the material factors considered by the Gatherco board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the Gatherco board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors.

After considering the foregoing and other relevant factors and risks, and their overall impact on Gatherco's shareholders and other constituencies, the Gatherco board of directors concluded that the anticipated benefits of the merger outweighed the anticipated risks of the transaction. Accordingly, the Gatherco board of directors approved the merger agreement and the merger, and recommends that Gatherco shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the merger.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following discussion (including the limitations and qualifications set forth therein) is based on the opinion of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP received by Gatherco and the opinion of Baker & Hostetler LLP received by Chesapeake Utilities, in each case, in connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this document is a part.

This discussion addresses the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Gatherco common shares. The discussion is based on the provisions of the Code, existing and proposed U.S. Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and judicial decisions, all as currently in effect and all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect) and to differing interpretations. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under laws of any state, locality, or foreign jurisdiction, or taxes other than income taxes (for example, estate and gift taxes). This discussion also does not address the tax consequences of transactions undertaken prior to or in connection with the merger, including the exercise of options.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions;

a trust that (i) is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and the control of one or more U.S. persons or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income taxation on its income regardless of its source.

Holders of Gatherco common shares who are not U.S. holders may have different tax consequences than those described below and are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the treatment to them under United States federal income tax laws and non-United States tax laws.

This discussion applies only to Gatherco shareholders that hold their Gatherco common shares as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code, and does not address all aspects of U.S. federal taxation that may be relevant to a particular U.S. holder in light of its personal circumstances or to U.S. holders subject to special treatment under the United States federal income tax laws, including:

mutual funds, banks, thrifts or other financial institutions;

pass-through entities and investors in those pass-through entities;

insurance companies;

retirement plans;

tax-exempt organizations or pension funds;

dealers in securities or currencies;

traders in securities that elect to use a mark to market method of accounting;

persons that hold Gatherco common shares as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other risk management transaction;

regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;

persons who are not U.S. holders;

shareholders whose Gatherco common shares constitute qualified small business stock as defined in Section 1202 of the Code;

shareholders who exercise dissenters' rights; and shareholders who acquired their Gatherco common shares through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan.

If a partnership (or other entity taxed as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes) holds Gatherco common shares, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and partners in such a partnership should consult their tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

In addition, this discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax U.S. federal estate or gift tax, or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger. THE ACTUAL TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO YOU MAY BE COMPLEX AND WILL DEPEND ON YOUR SPECIFIC SITUATION AND ON FACTORS THAT ARE NOT WITHIN OUR CONTROL. YOU SHOULD CONSULT WITH YOUR OWN TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER IN YOUR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF THE ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX AND ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN AND ANY OTHER TAX LAWS AND OF CHANGES IN THOSE LAWS.

Tax Consequences of the Merger. Based upon the facts and representations contained in the representation letters received from Gatherco and Chesapeake Utilities in connection with the filing of their opinions with the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, it is the opinion of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP and Baker & Hostetler LLP, that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and accordingly, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger will be as follows:

no gain or loss will be recognized by Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco as a result of the merger;

the tax basis of the assets of Gatherco in the hands of Chesapeake Utilities will be the same as the tax basis of such assets in the hands of Gatherco immediately prior to the merger;

the holding period of the assets of Gatherco to be received by Chesapeake Utilities will include the period during which such assets were held by Gatherco;

a gain (but not loss) will be recognized by U.S. holders of Gatherco common shares who receive shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock and cash (other than cash received instead of a fractional share of Chesapeake Utilities common stock) in exchange for Gatherco common shares pursuant to the merger, in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount by which the sum of the market value of the Chesapeake Utilities common stock and cash received by a U.S. holder of Gatherco common shares exceeds such U.S. holder's basis in its Gatherco common shares and (ii) the amount of cash received by such U.S. holder of Gatherco common shares (except with respect to any cash received instead of a fractional share of Chesapeake Utilities common stock, which is discussed below under "Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share");

the aggregate basis of the Chesapeake Utilities common stock received by a U.S. holder of Gatherco common shares in the merger (including fractional shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will be the same as the aggregate basis of the Gatherco common shares for which it is exchanged, decreased by the amount of cash received in the merger (other than cash received instead of fractional share interests in Chesapeake Utilities common stock), and increased by the amount of gain recognized on the exchange, other than with respect to cash received instead of fractional share interests in Chesapeake Utilities common stock (regardless of whether such gain is classified as capital gain or as dividend income, as discussed below under Possible Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend); and the holding period of Chesapeake Utilities common stock received in exchange for Gatherco common shares (including fractional shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will include the holding period of the Gatherco common shares for which it is exchanged. If a U.S. holder of Gatherco common shares acquired different blocks of Gatherco common shares at different times or at different prices, any gain (or loss) will be determined separately with respect to each block of Gatherco common shares, and the cash and shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock received will be allocated pro rata to each such block of stock. The U.S. holder should consult its tax advisor prior to the exchange with regard to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular Chesapeake Utilities common stock received in the merger.

It is a condition to Gatherco's obligation to complete the merger that Gatherco receives a written opinion of its counsel, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, dated as of the closing date, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to Chesapeake Utilities' obligation to complete the merger that Chesapeake Utilities receives an opinion of its counsel, Baker & Hostetler LLP, dated as of the closing date, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions will be based on the assumption that the merger will be completed in the manner set forth in the merger agreement and the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, and on representation letters provided by Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco to be delivered at the time of the closing. Those opinions will also be based on the assumption that the representations found in the representation letters are, as of the effective time, true and complete without qualification and that the representation letters are executed by appropriate and authorized officers of Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco. If any of the assumptions or representations upon which such opinions are based is inconsistent with the actual facts with respect to the merger, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

In addition, neither of the tax opinions given in connection with the merger or in connection with the filing of this registration statement will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service. Neither Chesapeake Utilities nor Gatherco intends to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, and consequently, there is no guarantee that the Internal Revenue Service will agree that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Taxation of Capital Gain. Except as described under Possible Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend below, any gain that U.S. holders of Gatherco common shares recognize in connection with the merger will constitute a capital gain and will constitute a long-term capital gain if, as of the closing date, the U.S. holder's holding period for the relevant Gatherco common shares is greater than one year, and otherwise will constitute short-term capital gain. A long-term capital gain of a noncorporate U.S. holder is generally subject to tax at preferential rates.

Possible Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend. In some cases, if a U.S. holder of Gatherco common shares actually or constructively owns shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock other than the shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock received pursuant to the merger, the gain recognized by such holder could be treated as having the effect of a distribution of a dividend under the tests set forth in Section 302 of the Code, in which case such gain would be treated as dividend income. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon the particular circumstances of a holder of Gatherco common shares, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, holders of Gatherco common shares should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of these rules and potential tax consequences of the merger to them.

Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share. A U.S. holder who receives cash instead of a fractional share of Chesapeake Utilities common stock will generally be treated as having received such fractional share and then as having received such cash in redemption of the fractional share. Gain or loss generally will be recognized based on the difference between the amount of cash received instead of the fractional share of Chesapeake Utilities common stock and the portion of the U.S. holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis of the Gatherco common shares exchanged in the merger that is allocable to the fractional share of Chesapeake Utilities common stock. Subject to possible dividend treatment (as discussed in more detail under Possible Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend above), such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for such Gatherco common shares is more than one year at the effective time of the merger.

Reporting Requirements. A U.S. holder of Gatherco common shares receiving Chesapeake Utilities common stock as a result of the merger is required to retain records pertaining to the merger. Each U.S. holder of Gatherco common shares who is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return and who is a significant holder that receives shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock in the merger will be required to file a statement with such U.S. federal income tax return setting forth such holder's basis in the Gatherco common shares surrendered, and the market value of such shares exchanged in the merger (with basis and market value determined as of the time immediately prior to the merger). A significant holder is a holder of Gatherco common shares, who, immediately before the merger, owns at least 1% of the total combined voting power or value of the outstanding Gatherco common shares, or has a basis of $1,000,000 or more in Gatherco common shares, immediately prior to the merger.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Payments of cash to a U.S. holder of Gatherco common shares may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%) unless the U.S. holder provides proof of an applicable exemption satisfactory to Chesapeake Utilities and the exchange agent or, in the case of backup withholding, furnishes its taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. A Gatherco shareholder who does not provide its correct taxpayer identification number may be subject to penalties imposed by the Internal Revenue Service. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Accounting Treatment

Chesapeake Utilities will account for the merger as a purchase by Chesapeake Utilities of Gatherco under United States GAAP. Under the purchase method of accounting, the total consideration paid in connection with the merger is allocated among Gatherco's assets, liabilities and identified intangibles based on the fair values of the assets acquired, the liabilities assumed and the identified intangibles. The difference between the total consideration paid in connection with the merger and the fair values of the assets acquired, the liabilities assumed and the identified intangibles, if any, is allocated to goodwill. Gatherco's results of operations will be included in Chesapeake Utilities' results of operations from the date of acquisition.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, upon completion of the merger, all rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation by Gatherco existing and in effect on the date of the merger agreement in favor of current and former officers and directors of Gatherco as and to the extent provided in Gatherco's articles of incorporation and regulations, will be assumed by Chesapeake Utilities in the merger and survive the merger and remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

The merger agreement also provides that for a period of six years after the merger is completed, Chesapeake Utilities will maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance that provides at least the same coverage and amounts, and contains terms and conditions no less advantageous, as that coverage currently provided by Gatherco, provided that the annual premium therefor is not in excess of 150% of the last annual premium paid as of the date of the merger agreement.

Consulting Agreements with Gatherco Management

Upon the closing of the merger, Tony Kovacevich, Gatherco's Chief Executive Officer, and John Frank, Gatherco's Chief Financial Officer, will cease being employees of Gatherco and will become consultants to the Surviving Entity as the successor to Gatherco. Each of Mr. Kovacevich and Mr. Frank executed consulting agreements with Gatherco in connection with the execution of the merger agreement, which agreements will become effective upon the closing of the merger.

Pursuant to his consulting agreement, Mr. Kovacevich will provide to the Surviving Entity consulting services related to operational matters for at least 120 hours per month for up to one year after the closing of the merger. In addition, Mr. Kovacevich will be subject to non-competition covenants for a one-year period and non-solicitation covenants for a five-year period following the termination or expiration of his consulting agreement.

During the term of the consulting agreement, the Surviving Entity will pay Mr. Kovacevich a monthly retainer commensurate with the compensation he was paid by Gatherco at the time of the merger. At the end of the term of the agreement, the Surviving Entity will pay Mr. Kovacevich a bonus payment equal to 12 aggregate monthly retainer amounts, payable in 12 monthly installments. The Surviving Entity and Mr. Kovacevich may mutually agree to extend the agreement on the terms described above or otherwise agreed upon by the parties.

Pursuant to his consulting agreement, Mr. Frank will provide to the Surviving Entity consulting services related to accounting and administrative matters for at least 120 hours per month for up to six months after the closing of the merger. In addition, Mr. Frank will be subject to non-solicitation covenants for a five-year period following the termination or expiration of his consulting agreement.

During the term of the consulting agreement, the Surviving Entity will pay Mr. Frank a monthly retainer commensurate with the compensation he was paid by Gatherco at the time of the merger. At the end of the term of the agreement, the Surviving Entity will pay Mr. Frank a bonus payment equal to six aggregate monthly retainer amounts, payable in six monthly installments. The Surviving Entity and Mr. Frank may mutually agree to extend the agreement on the terms described above or otherwise agreed upon by the parties.

Restrictions on Resales by Affiliates

Chesapeake Utilities has registered its common stock to be issued in the merger with the SEC under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). No restrictions on the sale or other transfer of Chesapeake Utilities common stock issued in the merger will be imposed solely as a result of the merger, except for restrictions on the transfer of Chesapeake Utilities common stock issued to any Gatherco shareholder who is or becomes an affiliate of Chesapeake Utilities for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. The term affiliate is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act as a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, Chesapeake Utilities or the combined company, as the case may be, and generally includes executive officers, directors and shareholders beneficially owning 10% or more of Chesapeake Utilities outstanding common stock.

Dissenters Rights

Dissenters rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction.

Gatherco shareholders are entitled to certain dissenters rights pursuant to Sections 1701.84(A) and 1701.85 of the OGCL. Section 1701.85 generally provides that Gatherco shareholders will not be entitled to such rights without strict compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 1701.85, and failure to take any one of the required steps may result in the termination or waiver of such rights. Specifically, any Gatherco shareholder who is a record holder of Gatherco common shares on February 24, 2015, the record date for the Gatherco special meeting and whose shares are not voted in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement may be entitled to be paid the fair cash value of such Gatherco common shares after the effective time of the merger. To be entitled to such payment, a shareholder must deliver to Gatherco a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares held by such shareholder before the vote on the merger proposal is taken, the shareholder must not vote in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement, and the shareholder must otherwise comply with Section 1701.85. Any written demand must specify the shareholder's name and address, the number of Gatherco common shares held on the Gatherco record date, and the amount claimed as the fair cash value of such Gatherco common shares. See the text of Section 1701.85 of the OGCL attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus for specific information on the procedures to be followed in exercising dissenters rights.

If Gatherco so requests, dissenting shareholders must submit their share certificates to Gatherco within 15 days of such request, for endorsement on such certificates by Gatherco that a demand for fair cash value has been made. Failure to comply with such request will terminate the dissenting shareholders rights. Such certificates will be promptly returned to the dissenting shareholders by Gatherco. If Gatherco and any dissenting shareholder cannot agree upon the fair cash value of such dissenting shareholder's Gatherco common shares, either may, within three months after service of demand by the shareholder, file a petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Wayne County, Ohio, for a determination of the fair cash value of such dissenting shareholder's Gatherco common shares. The fair cash value of a Gatherco common share to which a dissenting shareholder is entitled to under Section 1701.85 will be determined as of the day prior to the vote of the Gatherco shareholders.

If a Gatherco shareholder exercises his or her dissenters rights under Section 1701.85, all other rights with respect to such shareholder's Gatherco common shares will be suspended until Gatherco purchases the shares, or the right to receive the fair cash value is otherwise terminated. Such rights will be reinstated should the right to receive the fair cash value be terminated other than by the purchase of the shares.

The foregoing description of the procedures to be followed in exercising dissenters' rights available to holders of Gatherco's common shares pursuant to Section 1701.85 of the OGCL may not be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Section 1701.85 attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPANIES

Chesapeake Utilities

Chesapeake Utilities is a Delaware corporation formed in 1947. It is a diversified energy company engaged, through its operating divisions and subsidiaries, in various energy and other businesses. Chesapeake Utilities operates primarily on the Delmarva Peninsula and throughout Florida, providing natural gas distribution and transmission, electric distribution and propane distribution service. The core of its business is regulated utilities, which provide stable earnings from their utility operations. Chesapeake Utilities' unregulated businesses provide opportunities to achieve returns greater than those of a traditional utility.

Chesapeake Utilities' regulated businesses consist of its natural gas distribution operations in Delaware, Maryland and Florida, its electric distribution operation in Florida and its natural gas transmission operations on the Delmarva Peninsula and in Florida. Chesapeake Utilities' natural gas and electric distribution operations, which are local distribution companies, generate revenues based on tariff rates approved by the public service commission of each state in which they operate. The public service commissions, however, have authorized Chesapeake Utilities to negotiate rates, based on approved methodologies, with customers that have competitive alternatives. Chesapeake Utilities' interstate natural gas transmission subsidiary bills its customers based upon the tariff rates approved by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), and the FERC has also authorized such subsidiary to negotiate rates above or below the FERC-approved tariff rates. Chesapeake Utilities' Florida intrastate pipeline subsidiary, which is subject to regulation by the Florida public service commission, has negotiated contracts with third-party customers and with certain affiliates. Chesapeake Utilities' rates are designed to provide it with the opportunity to generate revenues to recover all prudently incurred costs and provide a return on rate base sufficient to pay interest on debt and a reasonable return for its stockholders.

Chesapeake Utilities' unregulated businesses provide propane distribution, propane wholesale marketing, natural gas marketing services and other unregulated energy-related services to customers. Revenues generated from the unregulated businesses are not subject to any federal, state or local pricing regulations. Chesapeake Utilities' unregulated businesses typically complement its regulated businesses by offering propane as a fuel source where natural gas is not readily available or providing natural gas marketing service to customers who are able to procure their own supplies. Through competitive pricing and supply management, these businesses provide the opportunity to generate returns greater than those of a traditional utility.

Chesapeake Utilities businesses primarily include the following:

Chesapeake Utilities distributes natural gas to approximately 58,000 residential and commercial customers in Delaware and Maryland.

Sandpiper Energy distributes propane and natural gas to approximately 11,000 residential and commercial customers in Worcester County, Maryland.

Florida Public Utilities Company (and Chesapeake Utilities' Florida division) distributes natural gas to approximately 72,000 residential and commercial customers; electricity to 31,000 customers; and propane to 16,000 customers across Florida.

Eastern Shore Natural Gas Company owns and operates a 442-mile interstate pipeline that transports natural gas from various points in Pennsylvania to customers in Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania.

Peninsula Pipeline Company, Inc. provides natural gas transportation services in Florida.

Sharp Energy distributes propane to 37,000 customers in Delaware, the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia, and southeastern Pennsylvania.

Xeron, Inc. markets propane to large petrochemical companies, resellers and retail propane companies in the southeastern United States.

Peninsula Energy Services Company, Inc. provides natural gas supply and supply management services to 3,100 customers in Florida and 27 customers on the Delmarva Peninsula.

In total, Chesapeake Utilities currently serves approximately 225,000 distribution customers with either natural gas, propane or electricity in Delaware, Maryland, Florida, Virginia and Pennsylvania. Chesapeake Utilities employs more than 750 people and generated $35.7 million in net income for the twelve months ended September 30, 2014.

Chesapeake Utilities employees have worked tirelessly over the last eight years to transform opportunities into profitable growth for Chesapeake Utilities, including completing several natural gas expansions to provide service to new residential, commercial and industrial customers, as well as consummating several acquisitions that have expanded Chesapeake Utilities service offerings and footprint. All of these efforts contributed to Chesapeake Utilities growth and position it for continued growth in the future. Over the last five years, Chesapeake Utilities has increased its market capitalization by 141 percent to over $724.5 million as of December 31, 2014. The combination of stock price appreciation and dividends for the twelve months ended December 31, 2014 produced a total return to stockholders of 27 percent. Over the last ten years, Chesapeake Utilities has delivered a total return to stockholders of 294 percent. Chesapeake Utilities has consistently achieved top performance relative to its peer group in terms of total shareholder return over the three, five, and ten year periods ended December 31, 2014. Chesapeake Utilities has achieved 78th and 97th percentile performance relative to its peer group over the one and twenty year periods ended December 31, 2014, respectively.

Additional information about Chesapeake Utilities and its subsidiaries is included in documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information.

Gatherco

Gatherco is a privately held, natural gas infrastructure company providing natural gas midstream services, including gathering, processing, and transportation services for producers with wells in the shallow formations of the Utica Shale region. Gatherco was established in 1997 in conjunction with the acquisition of Columbia Gas Transmission's natural gas gathering assets in Ohio. Gatherco has operations in 40 counties throughout Ohio and its assets include 16 gathering systems and over 2,000 miles of pipelines in Central and Eastern Ohio. Gatherco provides natural gas gathering services and natural gas liquid processing services to over 300 producers. It also serves as a supplier of natural gas to Columbia Gas of Ohio and regional marketers of natural gas, as well as over 6,000 customers in Ohio through the Coop, an independent, nonprofit entity which Gatherco manages under a long-term operating agreement. Additionally, Gatherco has established gas processing services to manage natural gas liquids production, such as propane, from its clients.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following discussion describes the material provisions of the merger agreement. We urge you to read the merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A and incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, carefully and in its entirety. The description of the merger agreement in this proxy statement/prospectus has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties made by and to the parties thereto as of specific dates. The statements embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of that contract between the parties and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of that contract. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to shareholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts.

Structure of the Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, at the completion of the merger, Gatherco will merge with and into Merger Sub, a newly formed, wholly owned subsidiary of Chesapeake Utilities, with Merger Sub surviving the merger as the Surviving Entity and operating the Gatherco business under the name of Aspire Energy of Ohio, LLC. As a result of the merger, the separate existence of Gatherco will terminate.

Merger Consideration

In the merger, each outstanding Gatherco common share (other than those shares held by shareholders exercising and perfecting dissenters' rights) will be converted into the right to receive that amount of cash and that number of shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock (together with associated rights under Chesapeake Utilities' stockholder rights plan) determined pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. Subject to certain adjustments described in the merger agreement, the aggregate merger consideration payable for all of Gatherco's common shares outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be $57,500,000 minus the option merger consideration payable to the Gatherco option holders as more fully discussed below.

The aggregate merger consideration payable for the Gatherco common shares at closing will be subject to deductions for certain transaction expenses paid or payable in connection with the merger, including fees and expenses of Gatherco's legal and financial advisors, to the extent that such expenses have not been paid before the closing date, and certain estimated fees of the paying agent. Additionally, the cash consideration otherwise payable to the Gatherco shareholders at closing will be reduced by (i) $5,750,000 that will be held in escrow for a limited period of time to secure and fund the payment of claims, if any, by Chesapeake Utilities and related parties for indemnification in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, including, if applicable, certain environmental remediation costs at identified sites, and (ii) $250,000 that will be held in escrow to pay the fees and expenses of the shareholder agent as described below. The closing payment made to the holders of Gatherco common shares will consist of (i) shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock with an aggregate market value determined as described in the merger agreement equal to 60% of the total consideration less the option merger consideration and (ii) the balance in cash. The exact amount of the closing payment that will be made in the merger for each Gatherco common share will not be determined until the closing.

The estimated aggregate stock consideration issuable in the merger is 593,005 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock and the estimated aggregate cash consideration payable in the merger is $19,932,092. Based on the assumptions that (i) the aggregate amount of the cash consideration adjustments at closing is $1,550,000 (without taking into account the deduction for the cash consideration to be held in the escrow accounts) and (ii) the aggregate amount of the option merger consideration is $7,669,769, each Gatherco common share would be converted into the right to receive approximately $1,070.10 in cash and 34.5212 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock. Based on such assumptions and taking into account the deduction for the cash consideration to be held in the escrow accounts, the closing payment for each Gatherco common share would be approximately $720.81 in cash and 34.5212 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock. The actual amount of the cash consideration adjustments at closing may be more or less than $1,550,000 and the actual amount of the option merger consideration payable at closing may be more or less than $7,669,769, which would result in an increase or decrease in the amount of cash and Chesapeake Utilities common stock each Gatherco shareholder would receive.

The merger agreement provides that the number of shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued in the merger will be calculated based on a Chesapeake Utilities stock price of $50.4180 per share, which was the average of the closing sale prices of Chesapeake Utilities' common stock on the NYSE for the 15 consecutive trading days ending the day before the date of the merger agreement. The market value of the Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued in the merger will depend on the market price of Chesapeake Utilities common stock on the NYSE. On February 24, 2015, a recent practicable date for which information was available before this proxy statement/prospectus was printed, the closing price of Chesapeake Utilities common stock on the NYSE was $47.77. The market price of Chesapeake Utilities common stock on the NYSE fluctuates on a daily basis. See Risk Factors Risks Relating to the Merger.

Based on the number of Gatherco common shares outstanding as of the record date, Chesapeake Utilities anticipates issuing a total of approximately 593,005 shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock to Gatherco shareholders in connection with the merger.

Holders of Gatherco common shares may be entitled to receive additional cash consideration as more fully described in the merger agreement, contingent upon whether Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity receives during a specified period of time certain revenue from the operation of any new or existing repurposed pipeline (i) that is constructed or repurposed by Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity after the closing date of the merger and becomes operational prior to the fifth anniversary of such closing date, (ii) of which at least 5% of the length is located on the rights of way owned by Gatherco as of such closing date, and (iii) that is utilized by Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity to transport oil, natural gas or natural gas liquids that originated from a specified area of the Utica Shale formation. This additional contingent consideration consists of the right of the Gatherco shareholders who received merger consideration to receive their pro rata share (based upon their ownership of Gatherco common shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger) of up to 5% of any such revenue; provided, that the aggregate amount of such additional contingent consideration will not exceed $15,000,000 in order to ensure that the merger does not lose its federal tax characterization as a reorganization within the meaning of the Code (such amount does not represent either Chesapeake Utilities' or Gatherco's expectation of the actual amount of such additional contingent consideration to be paid to the Gatherco shareholders).

Escrows

A portion of the cash consideration in an aggregate amount equal to $5,750,000 will be held in escrow for 12 months following the merger for the purpose of securing and funding the Gatherco shareholders' indemnification

obligations to Chesapeake Utilities under the merger agreement. To the extent any of the escrowed amount is not subject to indemnification claims within the 12-month period following the merger, it will be distributed to the Gatherco shareholders as soon as is practicable following the end of that period. It is possible that none of the escrow amount will be distributed to Gatherco shareholders. Except for certain limited circumstances, the escrow will be Chesapeake Utilities' sole and exclusive remedy for indemnification claims against Gatherco shareholders.

In the course of its due diligence, Chesapeake Utilities identified sites along Gatherco's 2,400 miles of rights of way and at certain of Gatherco's facilities that may require remediation under applicable environmental laws. Pursuant to the merger agreement, the Gatherco shareholders have agreed to indemnify Chesapeake Utilities for such remediation costs if it is reasonably likely that any releases requiring remediation occurred prior to the closing date of the merger and unless Gatherco can demonstrate that the releases requiring remediation did not arise from Gatherco's operations. Any such indemnification would be subject to the $431,250 threshold applicable to general breaches of non-fundamental representations of Gatherco, would be paid from the escrow fund and would be separately capped at $1,650,000. If Chesapeake Utilities exercises its rights with respect to this special indemnity provision, the escrow funds that could otherwise be distributed to the Gatherco shareholders after 12 months would be reduced.

In order to pay for the fees and expenses of the shareholder agent, including the fees expenses of legal counsel, accountants or other third parties retained by the shareholder agent on the shareholders' behalf, an amount equal to $250,000 will be withheld from the cash consideration otherwise payable to the Gatherco shareholders at the closing. Any remaining portion of this amount will be distributed to the Gatherco shareholders after the shareholder agent's services are no longer required, which period could extend for a number of years after closing in order to address potential disputes regarding any additional contingent consideration payable to the Gatherco shareholders.

Treatment of Gatherco Options

Chesapeake Utilities will not assume any options to purchase Gatherco common shares, with each such option referred to herein as a Gatherco option. Effective at or prior to the effective time of the merger, each outstanding Gatherco option that is outstanding and unexercised prior to the effective time of the merger (whether vested or unvested) will be either (i) exercised or terminated prior to the effective time of the merger in accordance with the terms of the Gatherco stock option plan under which it was granted and the applicable option grant agreement or (ii) cancelled as of the effective time of the merger to the extent in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (subject to the obligations of the Surviving Entity described in the following paragraph).

Each holder of a Gatherco option with an exercise price that is less than $2,798.05, referred to herein as a Gatherco in-the-money option, that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be entitled to be paid by the Surviving Entity, in exchange for the cancellation of such Gatherco option, an amount in cash (without interest, and subject to deduction for any required withholding tax), with respect to each Gatherco common share subject to such Gatherco option, equal to the excess of (i) the per share amount payable with respect to such common share, determined by multiplying $57,500,000 by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of Gatherco common shares underlying Gatherco in-the-money options and the denominator of which is the sum of the number of Gatherco common shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and the common shares issuable upon the exercise of Gatherco in-the-money options, over (ii) the per share exercise price of such Gatherco in-the-money option. The aggregate amount of consideration payable to the holders of in-the-money options in the merger is referred to as the option merger consideration. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, all of the outstanding Gatherco options are in-the-money options.

Each holder of a Gatherco option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and that is not a Gatherco in-the-money option will not receive any option merger consideration or other consideration with respect to such option.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates; Fractional Shares

Conversion. The conversion of Gatherco common shares into the right to receive the merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger.

Exchange Procedures. Prior to the completion of the merger, Chesapeake Utilities will (1) authorize its transfer agent, which we refer to as the paying agent for purposes of the merger, to deliver shares, in book-entry form unless a physical certificate is requested or is otherwise required by applicable law, representing the shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued under the merger agreement and (2) deposit with the paying agent cash payable as part of the merger consideration and instead of any fractional shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued under the merger agreement. Promptly after the effective time of the merger, the paying agent will exchange certificates representing Gatherco common shares for merger consideration to be received in the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. No interest will accrue or be paid with respect to any property to be delivered upon surrender of Gatherco share certificates.

If any merger consideration is to be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the Gatherco share certificate surrendered in exchange for the merger consideration is registered, the person requesting the exchange must pay any transfer or other taxes required by reason of such payment to a person other than the registered holder of the Gatherco share certificate surrendered, or must establish to the satisfaction of Chesapeake Utilities that any such taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

Dividends and Distributions. Until your Gatherco common share certificates are surrendered for exchange, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time with respect to Chesapeake Utilities common stock into which Gatherco common shares may have been converted will accrue but will not be paid. When such certificates have been duly surrendered, Chesapeake Utilities will pay any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest. After the effective time, there will be no transfers on the share transfer books of Gatherco of any Gatherco common shares. If certificates representing Gatherco common shares are presented for transfer after the completion of the merger, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration into which the Gatherco common shares represented by that certificate have been converted.

Withholding. The paying agent and Chesapeake Utilities will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the merger consideration payable to any Gatherco shareholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any other law. If any amounts are so withheld, such amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger as having been paid to the shareholders from whom they were withheld. In order to avoid having amounts withheld, Gatherco's shareholders will be required to deliver a properly executed IRS Form W-8 or W-9, as applicable, or any similar information to the paying agent.

No Fractional Shares Will Be Issued. Chesapeake Utilities will not issue fractional shares of Chesapeake Utilities common stock in the merger. There will be no dividends or voting rights with respect to any fractional common shares. For each fractional share of common stock that would otherwise be issued, Chesapeake Utilities will pay cash in an amount equal to the fraction of a whole share that would otherwise have been issued, multiplied by $50.4180 (which is the average of the closing sale prices per share of Chesapeake Utilities common stock for the 15 trading days immediately preceding the date of the merger agreement). No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash.

Lost, Mutilated or Destroyed Gatherco Common Share Certificates. If you have lost a certificate representing Gatherco common shares, or it has been mutilated or destroyed, the paying agent or Chesapeake Utilities will issue to you the common stock and cash payable under the merger agreement if you submit an affidavit and indemnity agreement and, if required by the paying agent or Chesapeake Utilities, you post bond in such amount as may be directed by the paying agent or Chesapeake Utilities as indemnity against any claim that may be made in respect of the lost, mutilated or destroyed certificate.

For a description of Chesapeake Utilities common stock and a description of the differences between the rights of Gatherco shareholders and Chesapeake Utilities stockholders, see Description of Chesapeake Utilities Capital Stock and Comparison of Stockholder/Shareholder Rights.

Effective Time of the Merger

We plan to complete the merger on a business day that is within five business days after the satisfaction or waiver of the last remaining conditions to the merger, other than those routine conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions. The time the merger is completed is the effective time of the merger. See Conditions to Completion of the Merger.

We anticipate that we will complete the merger during the quarter ending June 30, 2015. However, completion could be delayed. There can be no assurances as to when the merger will be completed. If we do not complete the merger by June 30, 2015, either party may terminate the merger agreement without penalty unless the failure to complete the merger by this date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to fulfill its obligations under the merger agreement. See Conditions to Completion of the Merger.

Acquisition Proposals by Third Parties; Change in Gatherco Board Recommendation

Gatherco has agreed that it will not solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any other acquisition proposal for Gatherco or its businesses. Gatherco has also agreed that it will not engage in any discussions or negotiations concerning any other such acquisition proposal, or provide any information to any person relating to any other such acquisition proposal.

However, if Gatherco receives an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal:

by a qualified bidder;

that did not result from or arise in connection with a breach of its non-solicitation obligations;

that was received prior to the Gatherco shareholders meeting; and that the Gatherco board of directors has determined, in its good faith judgment (after consultation with Gatherco's financial advisors and outside legal counsel), is or is reasonably likely to result in an acquisition proposal superior to the terms of the merger, then Gatherco may engage in discussions and negotiations with, and furnish information to, such qualified bidder if, and only to the extent that, the Gatherco board of directors has determined, in its good faith judgment (upon consultation with Gatherco's outside legal counsel), that the failure to do so would violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law; provided, that:

prior to taking any such action, Gatherco has obtained from such qualified bidder an executed confidentiality agreement containing terms substantially similar to, and no less favorable to Gatherco than, the terms of the confidentiality agreement with Chesapeake Utilities;

at least 48 hours prior to providing any information to such qualified bidder or entering into any discussions or negotiations with such qualified bidder, Gatherco promptly notifies Chesapeake Utilities in writing of (i) its intent to so furnish information or enter into discussions and negotiations with such qualified bidder,

(ii) the name of such qualified bidder and (iii) the material terms and conditions of any such acquisition proposal (and attaching any agreement and all material related documentation providing for such acquisition proposal); and

Gatherco simultaneously provides or makes available to Chesapeake Utilities any information concerning Gatherco or its subsidiaries provided or made available to such qualified bidder that was not previously provided or made available to Chesapeake Utilities.

At any time prior to the Gatherco shareholders meeting, the Gatherco board of directors may withdraw or change its recommendation of the merger agreement if and only if (i) from and after the date of the merger agreement, Gatherco has complied with its obligations under the merger agreement regarding such shareholders meeting and its non-solicitation obligations under the merger agreement with respect to third party acquisition proposals, and (ii) the Gatherco board of directors has determined in good faith, upon consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to take such action would violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law; provided, that the Gatherco board of directors may not effect such a withdraw or change in its recommendation of the merger agreement unless:

Gatherco has received an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal from a qualified bidder and the Gatherco board of directors has concluded in good faith (after consultation with Gatherco's financial advisors and outside legal counsel) that such acquisition proposal is superior to the terms of the merger, after taking into account any amendment or modification to the merger agreement agreed to or proposed by Chesapeake Utilities;

Gatherco has provided prior written notice to Chesapeake Utilities at least five business days in advance of taking such action, which notice advises Chesapeake Utilities that the Gatherco board of directors has received a superior proposal, specifies the material terms and conditions of such superior proposal (and attaches any agreement and all material related documentation providing for such superior proposal), and identifies the qualified bidder making the superior proposal);

during such five-day period, Gatherco has negotiated with Chesapeake Utilities in good faith (to the extent Chesapeake Utilities desires to so negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the merger agreement so that such superior proposal ceases to constitute a superior proposal; and Gatherco has concluded in good faith (after consultation with Gatherco's financial advisors and outside legal counsel) that, after considering the results of such negotiations and giving effect to any proposals, amendments or modifications offered or agreed to by Chesapeake Utilities, if any, that such third party acquisition proposal continues to constitute a superior proposal.

Other Agreements

In addition to the agreements we have described above, we have also agreed in the merger agreement to take several other actions, including the following:

we agreed to use reasonable best efforts to take all appropriate action and to do all things reasonably necessary, proper or advisable to satisfy the conditions to the other party's obligation to consummate the merger set forth in the merger agreement, including using reasonable best efforts to promptly obtain all permits, consents, approvals, authorizations, qualifications and orders of governmental authorities as are necessary for the consummation of the merger;

we agreed that Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco will give notice to the other party of:

the discovery that any of its representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement was, when made, or has subsequently become or is reasonably likely to become, untrue or inaccurate in any material respect;

any failure to comply with or satisfy any covenant or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under the merger agreement;

the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event the occurrence or non-occurrence of which has caused or is reasonably likely to cause any condition to the obligations of any party to effect the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement not to be satisfied;

any notice or other communication from any person alleging that the consent of such person is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

any notice or other communication from any governmental authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and as to Gatherco, any other material development relating to it;

we agreed that Gatherco will (i) promptly advise Chesapeake Utilities in writing of any litigation threatened, commenced or asserted against it or any of its shareholders, directors, officers or affiliates relating to the merger agreement, the merger, or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and (ii) give Chesapeake Utilities the opportunity to reasonably participate in the defense or settlement of any such litigation;

we agreed that Gatherco will convene a special meeting of its shareholders as promptly as practicable after Chesapeake Utilities has obtained the SEC's declaration of effectiveness of its registration statement for the Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued in the merger, to consider and vote on the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger;

we agreed that Chesapeake Utilities will:

use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of its common stock and the attached rights to be issued in the merger to be authorized for listing on the NYSE (subject to official notice of issuance) before the effective time of the merger;

reserve a sufficient number of shares of its common stock and rights to fulfill its obligations under the merger agreement with respect to the payment of the merger consideration; and use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or blue sky permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

we agreed that:

Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco will promptly prepare this proxy statement/prospectus;

Chesapeake Utilities will promptly prepare and file with the SEC the registration statement for the Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued in the merger;

Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco will use their respective reasonable best efforts to have such registration statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing; and

Gatherco will promptly thereafter mail or deliver this proxy statement/prospectus to its shareholders;

we agreed that:

Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco will:

cooperate with each other and use their respective reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental authorities that are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (including the merger), and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties or governmental authorities;

have the right to review in advance, and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable laws, all the information relating to Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco, as the case may be, that appears in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any governmental authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and consult with the other in advance of any meeting or conference with any governmental authority and, to the extent permitted by such governmental authority, give the other party and/or its counsel the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences;

none of the foregoing or any other provision of the merger agreement will require Chesapeake Utilities or any its affiliates to:

sell, hold, divest, discontinue or limit, before or after the effective time of the merger, any assets, businesses or interests of Chesapeake Utilities or any of its affiliates;

take or commit to take any other actions in connection with obtaining such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations, or agree to or suffer any condition or restriction on it or any of its affiliates in connection therewith, that would or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect or materially and adversely impact the economic or business benefits to Chesapeake Utilities of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; or agree to any material modification or waiver of the terms and conditions of the merger agreement;

we agreed that:

Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco will, upon request, furnish to the other all information concerning itself, its subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with this proxy statement/prospectus, the registration statement for the Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued in the merger, or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Chesapeake Utilities, Gatherco or any of their respective subsidiaries to any governmental authority in connection with the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

none of the information supplied or to be supplied by Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the registration statement for the Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued in the merger will, at the time such registration statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (ii) this proxy statement/prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to the Gatherco shareholders and at the time of the special meeting of the Gatherco shareholders to consider and vote on the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which such statement was made, not misleading; and if Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco becomes aware that any information furnished by it would cause any of the statements in the registration statement for the Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued in the merger or this proxy statement/prospectus to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, it will promptly inform the other party thereof and take appropriate steps to correct the registration statement or the proxy statement/prospectus;

we agreed that Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco will promptly advise the other upon receiving any communication from any governmental authority the consent or approval of which is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any regulatory approval required for the consummation of the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval may be materially delayed;

we agreed that Gatherco will provide Chesapeake Utilities, and Chesapeake Utilities' officers, employees, agents and other representatives, reasonable access during normal business hours to Gatherco's officers, employees, agents, representatives, assets and properties, offices, systems and other facilities, contracts, accounts, deeds, title papers, insurance policies, minute books and other books and records, and Gatherco will furnish Chesapeake Utilities with such financial, operating and other data and information as

Chesapeake Utilities may reasonably request (provided that such investigation does not unreasonably interfere with Gatherco's business or operations);

we agreed that:

Chesapeake Utilities will have the right to conduct such due diligence investigations and environmental assessments of Gatherco's property, systems, pipeline easements and other properties and assets prior to the effective time of the merger as Chesapeake Utilities deems necessary or desirable, in its sole discretion, and

Gatherco will make available to Chesapeake Utilities or its designees, for inspection and copying, at any time during regular business hours and upon reasonable notice, any reports regarding the assessment, investigation, testing, sampling or remediation of soil, surface water or groundwater on, at, in, under or migrating from Gatherco's property, the underlying real property, systems, pipeline easements and other properties and assets;

with respect to Gatherco's employees and related matters, we agreed that:

those Gatherco employees who continue to be employed by the Surviving Entity upon completion of the merger, which is contemplated to be all of the Gatherco employees, will be provided benefits comparable to those provided to other similarly situated employees of Chesapeake Utilities or its subsidiaries, as applicable;

those Gatherco employees who continue to be employed by the Surviving Entity upon completion of the merger will receive credit for their continuous employment with Gatherco from their most recent hire date by Gatherco through the completion date of the merger for purposes of eligibility to participate, vesting and vacation entitlement (but not benefit accrual) under any Chesapeake Utilities employee benefit plan that is extended to such employees (but no credit will be required that would result in a duplication of benefits);

Chesapeake Utilities will use reasonable best efforts to cause to be waived any limitations on benefits relating to any pre-existing conditions to the extent required by applicable law and recognize, for purposes of annual deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket limits under its medical and dental plans, deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses paid by the Gatherco employees who continue to be employed by the Surviving Entity upon completion of the merger under an employee plan that is a medical or dental plan, respectively, in the respective plan year in which the merger occurs;

each employee of Gatherco and the Coop who remains employed continuously by Chesapeake Utilities, the Surviving Entity and/or the Coop, as the case may be, for two years following the completion date of the merger will be entitled to receive a bonus payment in cash equal to 15% of such employee's annual base salary in effect as of the second anniversary of such completion date, payable in a single lump sum cash payment; and contingent upon the completion of the merger, Gatherco shall adopt such resolutions and/or amendments to terminate its 401(k) plan and other tax-qualified savings plans, if any, after first adopting any amendments required by law to maintain the Gatherco 401(k) plan's tax-qualified status;

we agreed that, upon completion of the merger, all rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation by Gatherco now existing in favor of any current or former officer or director of Gatherco as and to the extent provided in the Gatherco articles of incorporation and code of regulations as in effect on the date of the merger agreement will be assumed by the Surviving Entity and will survive the merger and remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms;

we agreed that, for a period of six years following the effective time of the merger, Chesapeake Utilities will use its reasonable best efforts to provide directors' and officers' liability insurance that serves to reimburse the present and former officers and directors of Gatherco with respect to claims against such directors and officers arising from actions or omissions in their capacity as such occurring before the effective time, which insurance will contain at least the same coverage and amounts, and contain terms and conditions no less advantageous to such indemnified persons, as that coverage provided by Gatherco as of the date of the merger agreement; provided that in no event will Chesapeake Utilities be required to expend, on an annual basis, an amount in excess of 150% of the annual premiums paid as of the date of the merger agreement by Gatherco for any such insurance;

we agreed that neither Chesapeake Utilities nor Gatherco will complete another transaction or enter into an agreement with respect to another transaction or take any other action if the intent or reasonably likely anticipated consequence of such transaction or action is, or would be, to cause any governmental authority to delay or not grant approval of, or to take legal action to seek to prevent, the consummation, in whole or in part, of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

we agreed that, in consultation with Chesapeake Utilities, Gatherco will use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all appropriate action, and to do, or cause to be done, all things reasonably necessary, proper or advisable to give all notices to, and obtain all consents or approvals required by it from, third parties other than governmental authorities in order to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as promptly as practicable;

we agreed that Chesapeake Utilities (i) will take all commercially reasonable action necessary to cause Merger Sub to perform its obligations under the merger agreement and to complete the merger on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement and (ii) unconditionally guarantees the full and complete performance by Merger Sub or the Surviving Entity, as applicable, of their respective obligations under the merger agreement;

we agreed that, (i) prior to the effective time of the merger, Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco will consult with each other and obtain the consent of the other party before issuing any press release or otherwise making any public statements with respect to the merger agreement or the merger, and (ii) for a period of three months after the effective time of the merger, Chesapeake Utilities and the shareholder agent will consult with each other and obtain the consent of the other party before issuing any press release or otherwise making any public statements with respect to merger agreement or the merger, except in each case to the extent disclosure is legally required, in which case the applicable parties will consult with each other and use reasonable best efforts to agree upon the text prior to any such disclosure, to the extent reasonably feasible under the circumstances;

with respect to certain tax matters, we agreed that:

the Gatherco shareholders will be liable for and will pay (and will indemnify and hold harmless Chesapeake Utilities against) all sales, use, stamp, documentary, filing, recording, transfer or similar fees or taxes or governmental charges as levied by any governmental authority, including any interest and penalties, in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as they relate to the Gatherco shareholder;

Chesapeake Utilities will prepare and file all tax returns for Gatherco that are filed after the closing date of the merger and will (i) permit the shareholder agent to review and comment on each such tax return that relates to a period ending on or before, or including, the completion date of the merger, and (ii) make such revisions to any such tax return that relates to such period as is reasonably requested by the shareholder agent provided such revisions (A) are consistent with the past practices of, and the tax positions taken by, Gatherco and its subsidiaries, (B) are consistent with applicable law, and (C) are not reasonably likely to have a material adverse impact to Chesapeake Utilities or any of its affiliates on and after the completion date of the merger;

the shareholder agent and Chesapeake Utilities will, after the completion of the merger until expiration of the statute of limitations applicable for taxable periods ending on or before, or including, the completion date of the merger, cooperate fully with each other, as and to the extent reasonably requested by the other, in connection with the filing of any tax returns for taxable periods ending on or before, or including, such completion date and any audit, litigation or other proceedings in respect of taxes;

the shareholder agent and Chesapeake Utilities will (i) retain all books and records with respect to tax matters relating to any taxable period beginning before the completion date of the merger until the expiration of the statute of limitations of the respective tax periods, and abide by all record retention agreements entered into with any governmental authority, and (ii) give the other reasonable written notice prior to transferring, destroying or discarding any such books and records and, if the other party so requests, will allow such other party to take possession of such books and records;

Chesapeake Utilities will control all examinations, audits or other administrative or judicial proceedings regarding any tax return or taxes of Gatherco from and after the effective time of the merger;

in the case of any taxes that are imposed on a periodic basis and are payable for a period that includes but does not end on the date of completion of the merger, the portion of such tax which relates to the period on or prior to such date of completion will (i) in the case of any taxes other than taxes based upon or related to income, receipts or payroll, be deemed to be the amount of such tax for the entire taxable period multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the period ending on or before the date of completion of the merger, and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire taxable period, and (ii) in the case of any tax based upon or related to income, receipts or payroll, be deemed equal to the amount which would be payable if the relevant taxable period ended on the date of completion of the merger; and

Chesapeake Utilities will not (i) amend any of Gatherco's tax returns filed with respect to any taxable period ending on or before, or including, the date of completion of the merger, or (ii) make any tax election that would have retroactive effect to any such taxable period, in each case without the prior written consent of the shareholder agent;

we agreed that, subject to applicable law, Gatherco will cooperate with Chesapeake Utilities to facilitate the integration of the parties and their respective businesses effective as of the date of completion of the merger or such later date as may be determined by Chesapeake Utilities;

we agreed that if either of the tax opinions referred to below (see Conditions to Completion of the Merger) cannot be rendered (as reasonably determined by Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP or Baker & Hostetler LLP, respectively) as a result of the merger potentially failing to satisfy the continuity of interest requirements under applicable federal income tax principles relating to reorganizations under Section 368(a) of the Code, then Chesapeake Utilities will increase the stock consideration to be issued in the merger (applying the closing price of shares of the Chesapeake Utilities common stock on the last trading day prior to the date of completion of the merger) to the minimum extent necessary to enable the relevant tax opinion to be rendered and make corresponding adjustments to the amount of the cash consideration to be issued in the merger, the per share escrow amount and/or the amount of any additional consideration as appropriate; and we agreed that, with respect to certain specified sites along Gatherco's 2,400 miles of rights of way and certain specified Gatherco facilities, Chesapeake Utilities will use its reasonable best efforts to determine in good faith as promptly after the date of the merger agreement as reasonably practicable (i) whether remediation is required under applicable environmental laws to address a release and (ii) to estimate the cost of any such remediation.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

The obligations of Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the Chesapeake Utilities common stock that is to be issued in the merger must be authorized for listing on the NYSE;

Gatherco shall have delivered to Chesapeake Utilities:

certified copies of resolutions of the Gatherco board of directors and shareholders authorizing the merger agreement and the completion of merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and

If additional regulatory approvals necessary to complete the merger are required, no assurance can be provided as to if, or when they will be obtained, or whether all of the other conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived by the party permitted to do so. As discussed below, if the merger is not completed on or before June 30, 2015, either Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco may terminate the merger agreement, unless the failure to complete the merger by that date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to fulfill any of its obligations under the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated by either Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco at any time prior to the effective time of the merger:

by our mutual consent;

if the merger is not completed on or before June 30, 2015, unless the failure to complete the merger by this date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to fulfill any of its obligations under the merger agreement; provided, that neither party may terminate the merger agreement for this reason during the pendency of any legal proceeding initiated by either party seeking specific performance of the merger agreement;

if any governmental authority that must grant a regulatory approval has denied approval of the merger by final and nonappealable action or if there is any law or final and nonappealable governmental order in effect prohibiting completion of the merger;

if the other party has breached a representation, warranty or covenant contained in the merger agreement that would cause any condition to the terminating party's obligation to complete the merger contained in the merger agreement not to be satisfied;

if any of the conditions to the terminating party's obligation to complete the merger contained in the merger agreement become incapable of fulfillment as of the effective time of the merger, unless the terminating party's failure to fulfill any obligation under the merger agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, the failure of such condition to be capable of fulfillment; or if Gatherco's shareholders fail to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger.

The merger agreement may also be terminated by Chesapeake Utilities at any time before the effective time of the merger:

if Gatherco's board of directors (i) submits the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval or (ii) withdraws, qualifies or modifies, or proposes publicly to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Chesapeake Utilities, such recommendation for approval or takes any action, or makes any public statement, filing or release inconsistent with the such recommendation;

if Gatherco has breached any of its covenants (i) to submit the merger agreement to the Gatherco shareholders, (ii) to take all action necessary to duly convene a meeting of its shareholders to consider and vote upon approval and adoption of the merger agreement, (iii) to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain its shareholders' approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, (iv) to adjourn the shareholders' meeting to consider and vote upon approval and adoption of the merger agreement if necessary in order to obtain a quorum, or (v) not to solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any acquisition proposal, in circumstances not permitted under the merger agreement, as described above under Acquisition Proposals by Third Parties; Change in Gatherco Board Recommendation ; or if the number of dissenting shares exceeds 10% of the outstanding Gatherco common shares.

The merger agreement also provides that Gatherco must pay Chesapeake Utilities a termination fee in certain situations. In particular, Gatherco will pay Chesapeake Utilities a fee of $2,000,000:

(i) if (A) any of the following occurs:

Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco terminates the merger agreement because the merger is not completed on or before June 30, 2015;

Chesapeake Utilities terminates the merger agreement because of a breach of the merger agreement by Gatherco that would allow Chesapeake Utilities not to complete the merger; or

Chesapeake Utilities or Gatherco terminates the merger agreement because Gatherco's shareholders fail to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger; and prior to any such termination, there has been publicly announced a proposal by a third party to acquire Gatherco or its businesses or an intention to make such a proposal, and (B) within 12 months of such termination Gatherco either (1) completes a transaction for the acquisition of Gatherco or its businesses or (2) enters into any agreement contemplating or otherwise relating to any such transaction or proposal therefor, whether or not such transaction or proposal is subsequently completed; or

(ii) if Chesapeake Utilities terminates the merger agreement because:

Gatherco's board of directors withdraws, qualifies or adversely modifies its recommendation to the Gatherco shareholders that they adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger; or

Gatherco fails to comply with its obligations not to solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any proposal by a third party for the acquisition of Gatherco or its businesses, in circumstances not permitted under the merger agreement.

Waiver and Amendment of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be amended, modified or waived (a) prior to the effective time of the merger, by Chesapeake Utilities and Gatherco, by action taken by or authorized by their respective boards of directors, if such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of an amendment, by Gatherco and Chesapeake Utilities or, in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is to be effective and (b) after the effective time of the merger, by Chesapeake Utilities and the shareholder agent if such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of an amendment, by Chesapeake Utilities and the shareholder agent or, in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is to be effective; provided that, after the Gatherco shareholders have approved the merger agreement, no such amendment shall be made without approval of the Gatherco shareholders except as allowed under applicable law.

Stock Exchange Listing

Chesapeake Utilities has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to list the Chesapeake Utilities common stock to be issued in the merger on the NYSE. It is a condition to the completion of the merger that those shares be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance. Following the merger, Chesapeake Utilities expects that its common stock will continue to trade on the NYSE under the symbol CPK.

Dissenters' Rights of Gatherco Shareholders

To the extent permitted by the OGCL, Gatherco common shares that are issued and outstanding as of the date fixed by the Gatherco board of directors for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of the shareholders' meeting to consider and vote upon the merger agreement and the merger and that are held by any Gatherco shareholder who is entitled to demand and properly demands payment of the fair value of such common shares pursuant to, and that complies in all respects with, Section 1701.85 of the OGCL (such shares referred to as dissenting shares) will not be converted into, or represent the right to receive, the merger consideration. Such shareholders will be entitled to payment of the fair value of such dissenting shares in accordance with and subject to Section 1701.85 of the OGCL; provided, however, that if any holder of dissenting shares fails to perfect or withdraws or loses such holder's right to be paid fair value under Section 1701.85 of the OGCL, then the right of such holder to be paid fair value for such dissenting shares will cease and such dissenting shares will be deemed to have been converted into, and to have become exchangeable for, as of the effective time of the merger, the right to receive the merger consideration as provided in the merger agreement.

Indemnification

The merger agreement provides that Gatherco shareholders, severally and not jointly, will defend, indemnify, and hold Chesapeake Utilities and its affiliates and representatives harmless, in an aggregate amount up to the amount of each shareholder's pro rata share of the escrow amount (with certain exceptions), for any losses, damages, liabilities, claims, judgments, settlements, fines, costs, or expenses (in excess of a threshold amount in certain circumstances and net of certain tax benefits and insurance proceeds, if any) that are incurred by Chesapeake Utilities or any of its affiliates or representatives by reason of or for:

any inaccuracy or breach by Gatherco of a representation or warranty contained in the merger agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to the merger agreement;

Gatherco's failure to perform or comply with any covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement;

any payment in respect of any dissenting shares in excess of the merger consideration that would have been payable in respect of such shares if they were not dissenting shares in accordance with the merger agreement, and reasonable out-of-pocket costs or expenses incurred by Chesapeake Utilities in respect of any claims relating to dissenting shares;

any claim made by any person that such person is or was entitled to receive any amount or property in such person's capacity as a holder of capital stock of or other equity interests in Gatherco in excess of the merger consideration to be received by such person pursuant to the merger agreement, other than any claim in respect of dissenting shares;

any transaction expenses incurred by Gatherco in connection with the merger agreement to the extent not paid by Gatherco at or prior to the completion of the merger, or if paid by Chesapeake Utilities or the Surviving Entity at, prior to or after the completion of the merger, to the extent not deducted in the determination of closing cash consideration payable to the Gatherco shareholders upon completion of the merger;

all environmental remediation costs if it is reasonably likely that the releases requiring such remediation occurred prior to the closing date of the merger, the remediation is required by applicable environmental law and unless Gatherco can demonstrate that the releases requiring remediation did not arise from Gatherco's operations; or all taxes of Gatherco relating to all taxable periods ending on or before the date of completion of the merger and the portion of taxes of Gatherco attributable to any period that includes (but does not end on) the date of completion of the merger (other than taxes that (i) have not yet been paid but are accrued on the audited balance sheet of Gatherco as of June 30, 2014 or (ii) are attributable to Gatherco's operations since June 30, 2014).

Certain representations and warranties subject to the escrow agreement survive for a period of 12 months. With respect to these representations and warranties, Chesapeake Utilities may not make a claim against the escrow until all of its aggregate losses exceed a threshold amount of $431,250 and then may only make claims to the extent its losses exceed the threshold amount.

Any indemnification for environmental remediation costs as described above would also be subject to the $431,250 threshold, would be paid from the indemnification escrow fund and would be separately capped at $1,650,000.

Certain representations and warranties are deemed to be fundamental representations. These include representations regarding Gatherco's existence as a corporation, the validity of its organizational documents, its capitalization, its authority to enter into the merger agreement and the fact that no one is entitled to a broker or finder's fee other than Jefferies. Neither the threshold amount nor the escrow limit Chesapeake Utilities' right to recovery for breaches of the fundamental representations, and some of such fundamental representations survive beyond 12 months.

Any payment to Chesapeake Utilities in accordance with the indemnification provision of the merger agreement will be treated for tax purposes as an adjustment to the consideration for the Gatherco common shares.

Shareholder Agent

By approving the merger agreement or by executing and delivering a letter of transmittal in connection with the exchange of Gatherco common shares for the merger consideration, the Gatherco shareholders will be deemed to have authorized and appointed Christian S. Gerig as the shareholder agent for each such shareholder, as the agent and attorney-in-fact for and on behalf of such shareholder to act on behalf of such shareholder with respect to the merger agreement, the escrow agreement and the exchange agent agreement to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and to take any and all actions and make any decisions required or permitted to be taken by the shareholder agent pursuant to the merger agreement, the escrow agreement or the exchange agent agreement, including the power to, among other things, (i) give and receive notices and communications under the merger agreement and under the escrow agreement and the exchange agent agreement, (ii) authorize delivery to Chesapeake Utilities of amounts from the escrow fund in satisfaction of indemnification claims by Chesapeake Utilities or any of its affiliates or representatives pursuant to the merger agreement, (iii) object to such deliveries, and (iv) bring actions, agree to negotiate, enter into settlements and compromises of, and demand arbitration and comply with orders of courts and awards of arbitrators with respect to any disputes or other matters relating to the merger agreement, including payment of merger consideration, the determination of contingent consideration, or indemnification claims under the merger agreement.

The shareholder agent may resign at any time so long as the holders of a majority in interest of the escrow fund have first appointed a new shareholder agent. In the event of the death or disability of the shareholder agent, a successor shareholder agent will be appointed by the former Gatherco shareholders who hold a majority in interest of the escrow fund. The shareholder agent may be changed from time to time by holders of a two-thirds interest of the escrow fund and upon not less than 30 days prior notice to Chesapeake Utilities. The shareholder agent will not receive compensation for his services but will be entitled to reimbursement of expenses from the shareholder agent fund.

Any decision, act, consent or instruction of the shareholder agent will constitute a decision of all former Gatherco shareholders, and will be final, binding and conclusive upon each of the former Gatherco shareholders, and the escrow agent, the paying agent and Chesapeake Utilities are entitled to rely conclusively upon any such decision, act, consent or instruction of the shareholder agent as being the decision, act, consent or instruction of each such former Gatherco shareholder.

The shareholder agent will not be liable for any act done or omitted as shareholder agent while acting in good faith. The former Gatherco shareholders will severally indemnify, on the basis of each such holder's pro rata share of Gatherco common shares immediately prior to completion of the merger, the shareholder agent and hold the shareholder agent harmless against any loss, liability or expense incurred without reckless or intentional misconduct or bad faith on the part of the shareholder agent and arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the shareholder agent's duties under the merger agreement, including the reasonable fees and expenses of any legal counsel retained by the shareholder agent.

In order to pay for the fees and expenses of the shareholder agent, including the fees and expenses of legal counsel, accountants or other third parties retained by the shareholder agent on the shareholders' behalf, an amount equal to $250,000 will be withheld from the cash consideration otherwise payable to the Gatherco shareholders at the closing. Any remaining portion of this amount will be distributed to the Gatherco shareholders after the shareholder agent's services are no longer required, which period could extend for a number of years after closing in order to address potential disputes regarding additional consideration payable to the Gatherco shareholders.

FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger; and

FOR the adjournment of the Gatherco special meeting if necessary or appropriate to permit further solicitation of proxies.

Anti-Takeover Considerations

The DGCL and the Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation and bylaws contain a number of provisions that may have the effect of discouraging transactions that involve an actual or threatened change in control of Chesapeake Utilities. For a description of the provisions, see the Chesapeake Utilities information under Comparison of Stockholder/Shareholder Rights Stockholder/Shareholder Rights Plan, Number of Directors; Classification of Board of Directors, Removal of Directors, Voting Rights in an Extraordinary Transaction, Business Combination and Control Share Acquisition Statutes, and Amendments to Governing Documents.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

Computershare Trust Company, N.A. is the transfer agent and registrar for Chesapeake Utilities common stock.

The rights of Chesapeake Utilities stockholders are and will be governed by the DGCL, Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation and its bylaws.

The rights of Gatherco shareholders are governed by the OGCL, Gatherco's articles of incorporation, as amended (referred to as the articles of incorporation), and its code of regulations (referred to as the regulations).

The following is a summary comparison of the respective material rights of holders of Chesapeake Utilities common stock and holders of Gatherco common shares. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the DGCL, the OGCL, Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation and bylaws, and Gatherco's articles of incorporation and regulations. For a more complete understanding of the rights of Chesapeake Utilities stockholders and Gatherco shareholders, including the differences between being a stockholder of Chesapeake Utilities and shareholder of Gatherco, you should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, the relevant provisions of the DGCL and the OGCL, and Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation and bylaws, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Table of Contents

Stockholder/Shareholder Rights Plan

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL does not include a statutory provision expressly validating shareholder rights plans; however, such plans have generally been upheld by decisions of courts applying Delaware law. Chesapeake Utilities has in place a stockholder rights plan, referred to in this paragraph as the Plan, which is designed to protect the value of the investment made by its stockholders. Under the Plan, Chesapeake Utilities stockholders have the right to purchase from Chesapeake Utilities one-fiftieth of a share of Chesapeake Utilities Series A Participating Cumulative Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share, for each share of Chesapeake Utilities common stock, par value $0.4867, owned by the stockholders (referred to in this paragraph as the Right). The Rights are not exercisable until the Distribution Date (as defined in the Plan). Each Right may be exercised at a purchase price of $105 per share, subject to adjustment as provided in the Plan. The issuance of Rights has no dilutive effect, does not affect reported earnings per share, is not taxable to the stockholder, and does not change the way in which Chesapeake Utilities shares are currently traded.

The Gatherco shareholders will receive one Right with respect to each share of Chesapeake Utilities common stock received in connection with the merger.

Gatherco

Gatherco does not have a shareholder rights plan.

Number of Directors; Classification of Board of Directors

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL provides that a corporation's board of directors must consist of one or more individuals, with the number fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the bylaws, unless the certificate of incorporation fixes the number, in which case a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment of the certificate. The DGCL further provides that directors need not be stockholders of the corporation unless the corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws so provide. The certificate of incorporation and bylaws may also prescribe other qualifications for directors.

The Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation provides that the number of directors will not be less than 5 nor more than 15, as may be fixed from time to time by the board. Chesapeake Utilities currently has 13 directors. Chesapeake Utilities directors are required to own Chesapeake Utilities common stock.

The DGCL permits, but does not require, a classified board of directors, pursuant to which the directors can be divided into two or three classes with staggered terms of office, with only one class of directors standing for election each year.

Pursuant to the Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation, Chesapeake Utilities board of directors is classified, with the board divided into three classes, Class I, Class II and Class III. Each director serves from the time of election and qualification until the third annual meeting following election and until a successor has been elected and qualified or until his or her earlier resignation, disqualification, disablement or removal from office. As a result, approximately one-third of the board positions are up for election each year. The Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation provides that the number of directors in each class will be equal to the whole number contained in the quotient arrived at by dividing the number of directors fixed by the Chesapeake Utilities board by three and if a fraction is also contained in such quotient and if such fraction is one-third, the extra director will be a member of Class III, and if the fraction is two-thirds, one of the directors will be a member of Class III and the other will be a member of Class II.

Gatherco

The OGCL provides that a corporation's board of directors must consist of one or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or regulations. The OGCL further provides that the number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to, or in the manner provided in, the articles of incorporation or the regulations.

The Gatherco regulations provide that, except as may be otherwise fixed, the number of Gatherco directors will be seven. Gatherco currently has seven directors. The directors need not be Gatherco shareholders. Gatherco's regulations provide for the annual election of directors.

Table of Contents

Vacancies on the Board

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL provides that, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws, vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws provide that vacancies on the board resulting from death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal or other cause will be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, even though less than a quorum, and such person shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders, at which such person shall stand for election to serve until the next election of the class for which he or she is chosen and until a successor is elected and qualified.

Gatherco

The OGCL provides that, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, vacancies, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors, be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum, or by the shareholders.

The Gatherco regulations provide that vacancies on the board resulting from death, resignation, removal, disqualification or other cause, or an increase in the number of directors, will be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, even though less than a quorum. Any director elected to fill a vacancy on the board will hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

Removal of Directors

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL provides that, in the absence of cumulative voting, any director or the entire board of directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors, except that in the case of a corporation that has a classified board, directors may be removed from office only for cause, unless the certificate of incorporation provides otherwise.

Chesapeake Utilities has a classified board and its certificate of incorporation provides that no director may be removed by the stockholders unless the director to be removed (i) is disabled or incapacitated to such an extent that such director is unable to perform his or her duties as a director, (ii) has been convicted of a felony and such conviction is no longer subject to appeal or (iii) has been adjudged to be liable for misconduct in the performance of his or her duties to Chesapeake Utilities and such adjudication is no longer subject to direct appeal.

Gatherco

The OGCL provides that if the shareholders have the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors, then unless the articles of incorporation or the regulations provide otherwise, shareholders may remove a director with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power entitling them to elect directors in place of those to be removed. A director may be removed only if the number of votes cast to remove the director exceeds the number of votes cast not to remove him or her.

Gatherco's shareholders have the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors, as cumulative voting is the default standard under the OCGL. The Gatherco regulations provide shareholders may remove a director with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of not less than a majority of the voting power entitling them to elect directors in place of those to be removed. A director may be removed only if the number of votes cast to remove the director exceeds the number of votes cast not to remove him or her.

Quorum for Meetings of Stockholders/Shareholders

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL generally provides that a quorum for a stockholders meeting consists of a majority of shares entitled to vote present in person or represented by proxy at such meeting, unless the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation provide otherwise.

The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws provide that, except as otherwise provided by law or the certificate of incorporation or elsewhere in the bylaws, at any meeting of stockholders, the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote thereat, either present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business. In the absence of a quorum, the presiding officer of the meeting or the majority of the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, may adjourn the meeting until a quorum is obtained. Even if a quorum exists, the presiding officer of the meeting, for good cause, or the majority of the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, may adjourn the meeting. At the adjourned meeting Chesapeake Utilities may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

The OGCL generally provides that a quorum for a shareholders meeting consists of the shareholders present in person, by proxy or by the use of communications equipment, unless the articles of incorporation or the regulations provide otherwise.

The Gatherco regulations provide that, at any meeting of shareholders, the holders of a majority of common shares of the corporation then outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum. The holders of a majority of the common shares represented at a meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, or the chairman of the board, the president, or the officer of the corporation acting as chairman of the meeting, may adjourn a meeting. If a quorum is present at such adjourned meeting, any business may be transacted as if the meeting had been held as originally called.

Voting Rights and Required Vote Generally

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL provides that unless otherwise provided in a corporation's certificate of incorporation, each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of capital stock held by such stockholder. The DGCL further provides that unless a corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws otherwise provides, directors of a corporation are elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote in the election at a stockholders meeting at which a quorum is present (i.e., the nominees for director receiving the highest number of affirmative votes, up to the number of directors to be elected, are elected). Except as otherwise required by the DGCL or by the certificate of incorporation or bylaws, under the DGCL, all matters brought before a stockholders meeting require the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at a stockholders meeting at which a quorum is present.

Pursuant to the Chesapeake Utilities bylaws, in all matters other than the election of directors, the vote of a majority of the stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the matter shall decide any question brought before a meeting unless the question is one upon which by express provision of the certificate of incorporation or of the bylaws, or by law, a different vote is required. The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws further provide that directors shall be elected, by ballot, by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the election of directors.

Gatherco

The OGCL provides that unless the articles of incorporation or the OGCL provides otherwise, each outstanding share, regardless of class, is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders. The OGCL further provides that unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Pursuant to the OGCL, if a quorum exists, action on a matter (other than the election of directors) by the shareholders is approved if the votes cast favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the articles of incorporation or the OGCL requires a greater number of affirmative votes.

The Gatherco regulations provide at all elections of directors the candidates receiving the greatest number of votes shall be elected. The OGCL provides that, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each shareholder has the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors. Any other matter submitted to the shareholders for their vote shall be decided by the vote of such proportion of the shares as required by the OGCL, the articles of incorporation or the regulations. The Gatherco articles of incorporation provide for a majority vote on all matters subject to the vote of the shareholders.

Voting Rights in an Extraordinary Transaction

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL generally requires that any merger, consolidation or sale of substantially all the assets of a corporation be approved by a vote of a majority of all outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon. Although a Delaware corporation's certificate of incorporation may provide for a greater vote, the Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation does not require a greater vote except that the Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the total voting power of all outstanding shares for the approval of a merger or consolidation with, or a sale of substantially all of Chesapeake Utilities' assets or business to, any person that owns or controls 5% or more of the outstanding Chesapeake Utilities common shares if such transaction (i) was not approved by resolution of the Chesapeake Utilities board prior to the acquisition of ownership or control of 5% of the outstanding Chesapeake Utilities common shares by such person or (ii) such transaction is between Chesapeake Utilities and another corporation 50% or more of the stock of which is owned by Chesapeake Utilities.

Gatherco

The OGCL provides that to effect a merger or consolidation, the merger agreement shall be approved by the directors of the corporation and adopted by the shareholders of the corporation at a meeting of the shareholders held for that purpose. Unless the corporation's articles or code of regulations provide otherwise, the vote required to adopt an agreement of merger or consolidation is the affirmative vote of the holders of shares of that corporation entitling them to exercise at least two-thirds of the voting power of the corporation on such action or such different proportion as the articles may provide, but not less than a majority, and such affirmative vote of the holders of shares of any particular class as required by the articles of incorporation. Gatherco's articles of incorporation require a majority vote on all matters subject to the vote of the shareholders.

Sequestration of Shares

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL provides that the shares of any person in a Delaware corporation may be attached or sequestered for debts or other demands. This provision could be used to assert jurisdiction against a non-resident holder of Chesapeake Utilities' shares, thereby compelling the non-resident holder to appear in an action brought in a Delaware court.

Gatherco

The OGCL has no comparable provision.

Business Combination and Control Share Acquisition Statutes

Chesapeake Utilities

Section 203 of the DGCL is Delaware's business combination statute. Section 203 is designed to protect publicly traded Delaware corporations, such as Chesapeake Utilities, from hostile takeovers, by prohibiting a Delaware corporation from engaging in a business combination with a person beneficially owning 15% or more of the corporation's voting stock for three years following the time that person becomes a 15% beneficial owner, with certain exceptions. A corporation may elect not to be governed by Section 203 of the DGCL.

Chesapeake Utilities has not opted out of the protections of Section 203 of the DGCL; however, these provisions do not apply to the merger with Gatherco.

Gatherco

The OGCL defines control share acquisition as the acquisition, directly or indirectly, by any person of shares of an issuing public corporation that, when added to all other shares of the issuing public corporation in respect of which the person may exercise or direct the exercise of voting power as provided in this division, would entitle the person, immediately after the acquisition, directly or indirectly, alone or with others, to exercise or direct the exercise of the voting power of the issuing public corporation in the election of directors within any of the following ranges of such voting power: (1) one-fifth or more but less than one-third of such voting power; (2) one-third or more but less than a majority of such voting power; or (3) a majority or more of such voting power.

These provisions do not apply to the merger with Chesapeake Utilities because Gatherco is not an issuing public corporation as that term is defined in the OGCL.

Special Meetings of Stockholders/Shareholders

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL provides that special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the board of directors or by such persons as may be authorized by the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws. The DGCL does not require that stockholders be given the right to call special meetings.

The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws provide that special meetings, unless otherwise provided by law or by the certificate of incorporation, may be called by Chesapeake Utilities president and shall be called by Chesapeake Utilities president or secretary at the request in writing of a majority of its board, and not at the request of any other person. Such request must state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting.

Gatherco

The OGCL provides that special meetings may be called by the chairperson of the board of directors, the president, the board of directors, by any person or persons authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or regulations and by holders of not less than 25% of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting, unless a greater percentage not to exceed 50% is required by the articles of incorporation or regulations.

The Gatherco regulations provide that meetings of the shareholders may be called by Gatherco's chairman of the board, president or vice president authorized to exercise the authority of the president; the secretary; the directors by action at a meeting or a majority of directors acting without a meeting; or the holders of at least 25% of all shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting.

Amendments to Governing Documents

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL provides that an amendment to a corporation's certificate of incorporation requires that the board of directors adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and that the stockholders must approve the amendment by a majority of outstanding shares entitled to vote (and a majority of the outstanding shares of each class entitled to vote, if any).

The Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation provides that the provisions of the certificate of incorporation summarized, in part, above under Number of Directors; Classification of Board of Directors, Removal of Directors, Voting Rights in an Extraordinary Transaction and Stockholder/Shareholder Action by Written Consent and the provision of the certificate of incorporation summarized in this paragraph may not be repealed or amended unless such repeal or amendment is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the total voting power of all of Chesapeake Utilities outstanding shares. Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation further provides that except as provided in the preceding sentence, any provision of the certificate of incorporation may be amended, altered, changed or repealed in the manner prescribed by the DGCL.

The DGCL provides that holders of a majority of the voting power of a corporation, and, when provided for in the certificate of incorporation, the board of directors of the corporation, have the power to adopt, amend and repeal the bylaws of a corporation.

The Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation provides the Chesapeake Utilities board with the authority to make, alter, amend and rescind the bylaws subject to the right of the Chesapeake Utilities stockholders to alter, amend or rescind the same. The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws provide that the bylaws may be altered or repealed at any regular meeting of the stockholders or at any special meeting of the stockholders, provided notice of the proposed alteration or repeal is contained in the notice of such special meeting, by the affirmative vote of the holders of 75% or more of outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to vote at such meeting and present or represented at the meeting. The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws further provide that the Chesapeake Utilities board may alter or repeal the bylaws by the affirmative vote of a majority of the entire board at any regular meeting of the board or at any special meeting of the board if notice of the proposed alteration or repeal is contained in the notice of such special meeting.

Gatherco

The OGCL permits the adoption of amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation if those amendments are approved at a meeting held for that purpose by the holders of shares entitling them to exercise two thirds of the voting power of the corporation, or a lesser, but not less than a majority, or greater vote as specified in the articles of incorporation. The Gatherco articles of incorporation provide for a majority vote on all matters subject to the vote of the shareholders.

The OGCL permits adoption of amendments to regulations by an affirmative vote of the majority of shares entitled to vote or by written consent from holders of two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote or by written consent or vote of a greater or lesser proportion as provided in the articles of incorporation or regulations but not less than the majority of voting power.

The Gatherco regulations provide that the regulations may be amended, or new regulations may be adopted, at a meeting of shareholders held for such purpose or by written consent, only by the affirmative vote of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise not less than a majority of the voting power of the corporation on such proposal.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify its officers, directors, employees and agents against liabilities and expenses incurred in proceedings if the person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action, had no reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful. The DGCL further provides that no indemnification is available in respect of a claim as to which the person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that a court determines that in view of all the circumstances, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses that the court deems proper. Under the DGCL, a Delaware corporation must indemnify its present or former directors and officers against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred to the extent that the officer or director has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding brought against him or her by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation.

The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws provide that each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact such person is or was a director or officer of Chesapeake Utilities or is or was serving as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise at Chesapeake Utilities' request, shall be indemnified and held harmless by Chesapeake Utilities to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue as to such person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the person's heirs, executors and administrators. The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws further provide that the right to indemnification described in the immediately preceding sentence includes the right to be paid by Chesapeake Utilities the expenses incurred in defending any action, suit, or proceeding in advance of its final disposition, subject to the receipt by Chesapeake Utilities of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified.

Gatherco

The OGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify directors and officers from liability, other than in an action by or in the right of the corporation, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if such person had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. In the case of an action by or on behalf of a corporation, a person may not be indemnified (a) if the person seeking indemnification is found liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation, unless the court in which such action was brought determines such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification or (b) if liability asserted against such person concerns certain unlawful distributions. The indemnification provisions of the OGCL require indemnification of a director who has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action that he was a party to by reason of the fact that he is or was a director of the corporation. The indemnification authorized by the OGCL is not exclusive and is in addition to any other rights granted to directors under the articles of incorporation or regulations of the corporation or to any agreement between the directors and the corporation.

The Gatherco regulations provide that Gatherco shall indemnify each of its directors and officers who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (including, without limitation, any action threatened or instituted by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer (including persons who serve at its request as directors, officers, or trustees of another organization in which it has any interest, as a shareholder, creditor or otherwise) against all liabilities and expenses, including amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in settlement or as fines, and counsel fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if his act or omission giving rise to any claim for indemnification was not occasioned by his intent to cause injury to the corporation or by his reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation, and in respect of any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. To the extent a director or officer has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, proceeding, claim, issue or matter, he shall be promptly indemnified by the corporation against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith. The Gatherco regulations further provide that expenses incurred in defending any action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding to or on behalf of the director or officer promptly as such expenses are incurred by him, but only if such director or officer first agrees, in writing, to repay all amounts so paid in respect of any claim, issue or other matter asserted in defense of which he shall not have been successful on the merits or otherwise if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence that his relevant act or omission was occasioned by his deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or his reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation, unless, and only to the extent that, the applicable court determines that he is fairly and reasonably entitled to all or part of such indemnification. These indemnification provisions are not exclusive of, and shall be in addition to, any other rights to which a director or officer seeking indemnification may be entitled under the articles of incorporation, regulations, any agreement or otherwise.

Limitation on Personal Liability of Directors

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL provides that a corporation may include in its certificate of incorporation a provision eliminating the liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for a breach of the director's fiduciary duties, except liability for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation's stockholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law, under Section 174 of the DGCL (which deals generally with unlawful payments of dividends, stock repurchases and redemptions), and for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation contains a provision eliminating the liability of directors of Chesapeake Utilities to the fullest extent permitted under the DGCL.

Gatherco

The OGCL generally provides that, with limited exceptions, a director may be held liable in damages for acts or omissions as a director only if it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that the director undertook the act or omission with deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or with reckless disregard for its best interests.

The provisions of the OGCL described above apply to Gatherco, and there are no additional provisions relating to the limitation of liability of directors in either the Gatherco articles of incorporation or bylaws, other than those provisions relating to indemnification of directors.

Dividends and Stock Repurchases

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL provides that, subject to any restrictions in a corporation's certificate of incorporation, dividends may be declared from the corporation's surplus, or, if there is no surplus, from its net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and for the preceding fiscal year. Dividends may not be declared out of net profits, however, if the corporation's capital has been diminished to an amount less than the aggregate amount of all capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets until the deficiency in the amount of capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets is repaired. Furthermore, the DGCL generally provides that a corporation may redeem or repurchase its shares only if the redemption or repurchase would not impair the capital of the corporation.

Subject to the rights, if any, of the holders of any class or series of preferred stock or any class or series of stock having a preference over or the right to participate with the common stock with respect to the payment of dividends, Chesapeake Utilities' certificate of incorporation places no additional restrictions on the ability of its board of directors to declare dividends or redeem or repurchase shares of its capital stock. The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws provide that dividends may be declared by the Chesapeake Utilities board of directors at any regular or special meeting, pursuant to law, and that dividends may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of Chesapeake Utilities capital stock, subject to the provisions of the Chesapeake Utilities certificate of incorporation. The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws further provide that before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any Chesapeake Utilities funds available for dividends such sum or sums as the Chesapeake Utilities board from time to time, in their absolute discretion, think proper as a reserve fund to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any of Chesapeake Utilities property, or for such other purpose as the Chesapeake Utilities board shall think conducive to Chesapeake Utilities interest, and the Chesapeake Utilities board may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Gatherco

The OGCL provides that dividends may be paid to holders of a corporation's common shares provided that (a) no dividend may exceed the combination of the surplus of the corporation and the difference between (i) the reduction in surplus that results from the immediate recognition of the transition obligation under statement of financial accounting standards no. 106 (SFAS No. 106), issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board and (ii) the aggregate amount of the transition obligation that would have been recognized as of the date of the declaration of a dividend if the corporation had elected to amortize its recognition of the transition obligation under SFAS No. 106 and (b) no dividend may be paid when the corporation is insolvent or there is reasonable ground to believe that by such payment it would become insolvent. Furthermore, the OGCL generally provides that a corporation may acquire its own shares and that shares so acquired by the corporation shall constitute treasury shares.

Gatherco's articles of incorporation and regulations place no additional restrictions on the ability of its board of directors to declare dividends or redeem or repurchase its common shares.

Dissenters or Appraisal Rights

Chesapeake Utilities

Under the DGCL, a stockholder of a Delaware corporation such as Chesapeake Utilities who has not voted in favor of, nor consented in writing to, a merger or consolidation in which the corporation is participating generally has the right to an appraisal of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock, subject to specified procedural requirements. However, the DGCL does not confer appraisal rights if the corporation's stock is either (1) listed on a national securities exchange or (2) held of record by more than 2,000 holders. Even if a corporation's stock meets the foregoing requirements, however, the DGCL provides that appraisal rights generally will be permitted if stockholders of the corporation are required to accept for their stock in any merger, consolidation or similar transaction anything other than (1) shares of the corporation surviving or resulting from the transaction, or depository receipts representing shares of the surviving or resulting corporation, or those shares or depository receipts plus cash in lieu of fractional interests, (2) shares of any other corporation, or depository receipts representing shares of the other corporation, or those shares or depository receipts plus cash in lieu of fractional interests, which shares or depository receipts are listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders, or (3) any combination of the foregoing.

Under the DGCL, appraisal rights are not available in the merger for Chesapeake Utilities stockholders.

Gatherco

The OGCL provides that shareholders of an Ohio corporation that is being merged into or consolidated with another corporation are entitled to dissenters' rights. Dissenters' rights are available in the merger for Gatherco shareholders. For more information regarding your right to dissent from the merger, please read The Merger Agreement - Dissenters Rights of Gatherco Shareholders.

Record Date for Determining Stockholders/Shareholders Entitled to Vote

Chesapeake Utilities

As permitted under the DGCL, the Chesapeake Utilities bylaws provide that in order that Chesapeake Utilities may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, the board of directors may fix a record date, which record date will not be more than 60 nor less than 10 days before the date of such meeting. The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws further provide that if no record date is fixed, the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held. Pursuant to the Chesapeake Utilities bylaws, when a determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders has been made as provided in this paragraph, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof; provided, however, that the Chesapeake Utilities board of directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Gatherco

As permitted by the OGCL, the Gatherco regulations provide that the Gatherco board of directors may fix a day not more than 60 days prior to the holding of any shareholder meeting as a day as of which shareholders of record entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting shall be determined, and only shareholders of record on such day shall be entitled to notice of or to vote at such meeting.

Notice of Stockholder/Shareholder Meetings

Chesapeake Utilities

As permitted under the DGCL, the Chesapeake Utilities bylaws provide that written notice of an annual or special meeting must be served upon or mailed to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting at least 10 but not more than 60 days prior to the meeting. Such notice must state the location, date and hour of the meeting. A notice of a special meeting must describe the order of business to be addressed at the meeting.

Gatherco

The OGCL provides that a corporation must notify shareholders of the time, place and purpose of each annual and special shareholders meeting no fewer than 7 or more than 60 days before the meeting date. The Gatherco regulations provide that Gatherco must give written notice of each shareholders meeting, stating the time, place and purpose, by personal delivery or by mail to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereat at least no fewer than 7 nor more than 60 days prior to the date of the meeting.

Chesapeake Utilities

Under the Chesapeake Utilities bylaws, for any business (other than the nomination of directors) to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Chesapeake Utilities secretary. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be received at Chesapeake Utilities principal executive offices not earlier than the close of business on the 120th day and not later than the close of business on the 90th day prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided however, that in the event the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to the date of such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to the date of such annual meeting or, if notice of the meeting is mailed or the first public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is made less than 75 days prior to the date of such annual meeting, the 15th day following the date on which such notice is mailed or such public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by Chesapeake Utilities, whichever occurs first. A stockholder's notice to the secretary must set forth the following information, and must include a representation as to the accuracy of the information: (a) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (b) the name and record address of the stockholder proposing such business, (c) the class and number of Chesapeake Utilities shares that are directly or indirectly, owned beneficially and/or of record by the stockholder, (d) any option, warrant, convertible, security, stock appreciation right, or similar right with an exercise or conversion privilege or a settlement payment or mechanism at a price related to any class or series of Chesapeake Utilities shares or with a value derived in whole or in part from the value of any class or series of Chesapeake Utilities shares, whether or not the instrument or right is subject to settlement in the underlying class or series of capital stock of Chesapeake Utilities or otherwise, each of the foregoing being a derivative instrument, that is directly or indirectly owned beneficially by the stockholder and any other direct or indirect opportunity to profit or share in any profit derived from any increase or decrease in the value of Chesapeake Utilities shares, (e) any proxy, contract, arrangement, understanding, or relationship pursuant to which the stockholder has a right to vote or has granted a right to vote any shares of any security of Chesapeake Utilities, (f) any short interest in any security of Chesapeake Utilities, (g) any rights to dividends on the Chesapeake Utilities shares owned beneficially by the stockholder that are separated or separable from the underlying Chesapeake Utilities shares, (h) any proportionate interest in Chesapeake Utilities shares or derivative instruments held, directly or

The Chesapeake Utilities bylaws provide that nominations for the election of Chesapeake Utilities directors by stockholders must be in writing, and in the form prescribed below, and will be effective when delivered by hand or received by registered first-class mail, postage prepaid, by Chesapeake Utilities' secretary not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to any meeting of the stockholders called for the election of directors; provided, however, that if less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to stockholders, such writing must be received by Chesapeake Utilities' secretary not later than the close of business on the seventh day following the day on which notice of the meeting was mailed to stockholders. Nominations by stockholders must be in the form of a notice that sets forth (a) as to each nominee (i) the name, age, business address and, if known, residence address of such nominee, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of such nominee, (iii) the information described in clauses (c) through (j) in the preceding paragraph as it relates to the nominee, (iv) the consent of the nominee to serve as a director if so elected, (v) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and the nominee, (vi) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and any other person or persons pursuant to which the nomination is to be made by the stockholder, and (vii) any other information relating to the nominee required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or otherwise required pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act, and (b) as to the stockholder giving the notice (i) the name and address, as they appear on Chesapeake Utilities' books, of such stockholder, (ii) the information described in clauses (c) through (j) in the preceding paragraph, and (iii) and any other information as reasonably requested by Chesapeake Utilities. Such stockholder notice must include a representation as to the accuracy of the information set forth in the notice. In addition, each nominee must complete and sign a questionnaire, in a form provided by Chesapeake Utilities, to be submitted with the stockholder's notice, that inquires as to, among other things, the nominee's independence and director eligibility.

Gatherco

Gatherco's articles of incorporation and regulations are silent as to shareholder nominations for directors and shareholder proposals, and the OGCL does not provide shareholders with any specific rights to make director nominations or shareholder proposals.

Stockholder/Shareholder Inspection of Corporate Records

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL provides any stockholder with the right to inspect the corporation's stock ledger, stockholder lists and other books and records for a purpose reasonably related to the person's interest as a stockholder. A complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at a stockholders meeting must be available for stockholder inspection at least 10 days before the meeting. In addition to the inspection rights granted under the DGCL, the Chesapeake Utilities bylaws provide that at least 10 days before every meeting of the stockholders, Chesapeake Utilities secretary will prepare a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at said meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, with the residence of each and the number of voting shares held by each. Such list will be open for 10 days to examination by any stockholder for any purpose germane to the meeting during regular business hours at the place where the meeting is to be held, or at such other place within the city in which the meeting is to be held as shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, and also will be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting, during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present.

Interested Director Transactions

Chesapeake Utilities

The DGCL generally permits transactions involving a corporation and an interested director of that corporation if: (i) the material facts as to the director's relationship or interest and as to the transaction are disclosed or are known to the board of directors or a committee thereof, and the board of directors or committee in good faith authorizes the transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors represent less than a quorum; (ii) the material facts as to the director's relationship or interest and as to the transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the transaction is fair to the corporation. The DGCL allows loans to officers and employees whenever, in the judgment of the directors, such loan may reasonably be expected to benefit the corporation.

Gatherco

The OGCL generally permits transactions involving a corporation and an interested director of that corporation if: (i) the fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the board of directors or committee which authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors on the board or the committee; (ii) the fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they approve such contract or transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares entitled to vote; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair to the corporation at the time it is authorized by the board, a committee or the shareholders.

Section 2.01 The Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in Article VIII, and in accordance with the OGCL and the DLLCA, at the Effective Time, the Company shall be merged with and into Merger Sub. As a result of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of the Company shall cease and Merger Sub shall continue its limited liability company existence under the DLLCA with Parent as its sole member (the Surviving Entity).

Section 2.02 Effective Time; Closing. As promptly as practicable after the satisfaction or, if permissible, waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VIII (other than such conditions as may, by their terms, only be satisfied at the Closing or on the Closing Date, subject to such satisfaction or waiver thereof), but in no event later than five Business Days after all such conditions have been satisfied or waived, the parties hereto shall cause the Merger to be consummated by filing a certificate of merger complying with the requirements of the OGCL and the DLLCA with the Ohio Secretary of State. The Merger shall become effective at the time of the acceptance of the certificate of merger by the Ohio Secretary of State or at such later date and time as the Company and Parent may agree upon and as is set forth in such certificate of merger (the Effective Time). Immediately prior to the filing of the certificate of merger, a closing (the Closing) shall be held at the offices of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease, LLP, 52 East Gay Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215, or such other place as the parties shall agree, for the purpose of confirming the satisfaction or waiver, as the case may be, of the conditions set forth in Article VIII. From and after the Effective Time, all such Common Shares shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a Common Share, by virtue of being a holder of such Common Share, shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration therefor in accordance with this Article III upon the surrender of the Certificate(s) representing such Common Shares and the valid execution and delivery of the other documents required under Section 3.04.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Parent Common Stock issued as Stock Consideration shall be in uncertificated book-entry form unless a physical certificate is requested or is otherwise required by applicable Law. The Payment Fund will not be used for any purpose except as expressly provided in this Agreement. The Paying Agent will invest the Payment Fund as directed by Parent, provided such investments shall be limited to (A) direct obligations of the United States of America, (B) obligations for which the full faith and credit of the United States of America is pledged to provide for the payment of principal and interest, (C) commercial paper rated A-1 or P-1 by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. or Standard & Poor's Rating Group, respectively, or (D) certificates of deposit issued by a commercial bank having at least $25 billion in assets. No interest shall be paid or shall accrue on any cash payable upon surrender of any Certificate. In the event that the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name any Certificate is registered, it shall be a condition of payment that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or otherwise in proper form for transfer, that the signatures on such Certificate or any related stock power shall be properly guaranteed and that the Person requesting such payment shall pay any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of such payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or establish to the satisfaction of Parent that such Taxes have been paid or are not applicable. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 3.04, each Certificate shall be deemed at any time from and after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender or transfer the Merger Consideration payable pursuant to Section 3.01(a) in respect of Common Shares theretofore represented by such Certificate, without any interest thereon. Any Merger Consideration paid or payable upon the surrender of any Certificate shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Certificate and the Common Shares formerly represented thereby, other than any contingent or deferred rights to receive additional Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 3.01(a)(ii). If any holder of Common Shares is unable to surrender such holder's Certificates because such Certificates have been lost, mutilated or destroyed, such holder shall deliver in lieu thereof an affidavit and indemnity agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent, and, if required by the Paying Agent or Parent, post a bond in such amount as may be directed by the Paying Agent or Parent, as applicable, as indemnity against any claim that may be made in respect of such Certificate.

(c) At least two Business Days prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall provide to Parent a list of all holders of In-the-Money Options for which payment of Option Merger Consideration is to be made as promptly as practicable after the Effective Time pursuant to Section 3.02, including wire instructions in the case of payments to be made by wire transfer to any such holders or mailing addresses in the case of payments to be made by check. (e) At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed and after the Effective Time there will be no further registration on the books of the Surviving Entity of (i) transfers of Common Shares, or (ii) the exercise of Options that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates representing Common Shares are presented for transfer to the Paying Agent, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for the applicable Merger Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor in accordance with the terms and procedures set forth in this Article III.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender of Certificates for exchange, no dividend or distribution with respect to Parent Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a stockholder of Parent. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Parent shall pay, or shall cause the Paying Agent to pay, to each former Shareholder who otherwise would be entitled to receive such fractional share an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the Average Parent Price by (ii) the fraction of a share (after taking into account all Common Shares held by such holder that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Parent Common Stock to which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Section 3.01(a).

(g) Any portion of the Payment Fund that remains undistributed to the Shareholders six months after the Effective Time will be delivered to the Surviving Entity, upon demand, and any Shareholder that has not previously complied with this Section 3.04 will thereafter look only to the Surviving Entity, as general creditors thereof, for payment of such Shareholder's claim for Merger Consideration, without interest.

Section 3.05 Closing Net Working Capital. No later than the fifth Business Day prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall deliver to Parent an estimated consolidated balance sheet of the Company as of the close of business on the last day of the month immediately preceding the month during which the Closing Date occurs and an estimated statement of the Closing Net Working Capital prepared therefrom (the Estimated Closing Statement), calculated in accordance with GAAP and the methodology set forth in Section 4.33 of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

Section 3.06 Additional Consideration.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Shareholders entitled to receive Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 3.01(a)(i) shall be entitled to receive additional contingent cash consideration for their Common Shares (the Additional Consideration) equal to their Pro Rata Share of up to five percent (5%) of the Gross Gathering Revenue for each Qualifying New Midstream Development; provided, that the aggregate amount of Additional Consideration payable pursuant to this Section 3.06 shall not exceed $15,000,000. The Additional Consideration shall be calculated in accordance with the schedule attached hereto as Exhibit E, which Exhibit also sets forth examples of such Additional Consideration opportunities.

(b) Any Additional Consideration shall be calculated on a quarterly basis, in arrears, commencing the first calendar quarter following the calendar quarter during which any Gross Gathering Revenues are first received by Parent or the Surviving Entity and continuing on a quarterly basis thereafter following any quarter during which Gross Gathering Revenues are actually received by Parent or the Surviving Entity until expiration of the applicable Additional Consideration Period. With respect to each such quarterly calculation, Parent (or its successor or assign) shall deliver a certificate, signed by the chief financial officer or other authorized officer of Parent (or such successor or assign), to the Shareholder Agent setting forth Parent's good faith calculation of the Additional Consideration payable with respect to the applicable quarterly period (each, an Additional Consideration Certificate) and such Additional Consideration shall be paid pursuant to Section 3.06(i) after the amount of such Additional Consideration is finally resolved pursuant to this Section 3.06.

amount, stating the basis thereof with reasonable specificity and setting forth the Shareholder Agent's calculation of the Gross Gathering Revenue and Additional Consideration) to Parent within 30 days following delivery to the Shareholder Agent of any Additional Consideration Certificate (each, an Additional Consideration Objection Period). After Parent's delivery of any Additional Consideration Certificate, the Shareholder Agent shall be given reasonable access to the books and records of Parent and the Surviving Entity and shall be permitted to reasonably inquire of the officers and accountants of the Surviving Entity and Parent who were responsible for the preparation of the Additional Consideration Certificate, in each case to the extent related to questions or otherwise concerning such Additional Consideration Certificate, provided, that such access and inquiries shall be in a manner that does not interfere with the normal business operations of Parent or the Surviving Entity

(d) If the Shareholder Agent does not make such an objection during such Additional Consideration Objection Period, the calculations set forth in the Additional Consideration Certificate with respect to the Additional Consideration and the Gross Gathering Revenue shall be considered final, conclusive and binding upon the parties and each of the Shareholders.

(e) If the Shareholder Agent makes such an objection during the Additional Consideration Objection Period, only those disputed items or amounts specified in the Shareholder Agent's written statement of objections shall be deemed to be in dispute (the Additional Consideration Disputed Items), and all other matters included in the Additional Consideration Certificate shall be considered final, conclusive and binding upon the parties and each of the Shareholders. If the Shareholder Agent makes such an objection during any Additional Consideration Objection Period, Parent and the Shareholder Agent shall seek in good faith to resolve all Additional Consideration Disputed Items set forth in the Shareholder Agent's written statement of objections within 10 Business Days following delivery to Parent of the Shareholder Agent's written statement of objections with respect to such Additional Consideration Certificate or any mutually agreed upon extension thereof (each, an Additional Consideration Resolution Period).

(f) If Parent and the Shareholder Agent cannot agree on all of the Additional Consideration Disputed Items during the Additional Consideration Resolution Period, either Parent (on the one hand) or the Shareholder Agent (on the other hand) may elect, by written notice given to the other within five Business Days after conclusion of such Additional Consideration Resolution Period (the Additional Consideration Election Period), to have such the unresolved Additional Consideration Disputed Items resolved by the Independent Accountant, whose determination shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the parties and each of the Shareholders. For purposes of clarity, the parties may submit to the Independent Accountant any or all of the unresolved Additional Consideration Disputed Items; and the Independent Accountant shall make no investigation or determination regarding any items other than the Additional Consideration Disputed Items submitted to it. If any Additional Consideration Disputed Items is submitted to the Independent Accountant, Parent and the Shareholder Agent shall promptly execute in favor of the Independent Accountant such engagement letters and related agreements, and shall provide all documentation, in each case, reasonably requested by the Independent Accountant, to enable the Independent Accountant to perform its duties under this Section.

(g) If neither Parent nor the Shareholder Agent makes such an election during the Additional Consideration Election Period, the calculations proposed by Parent in the applicable Additional Consideration Certificate and, based thereupon, the amount of Additional Consideration set forth in such Additional Consideration Certificate shall be considered final, conclusive and binding upon the parties and each of the Shareholders.

(h) If either Parent or the Shareholder Agent makes an election during the Additional Consideration Election Period to have the determination made by the Independent Accountant, the Independent Accountant shall make determinations of the Additional Consideration Disputed Items and, based thereupon, the calculations of Gross Gathering Revenues and Additional Consideration using the methodology set forth in Exhibit E attached hereto with respect to the Additional Consideration Certificate in question, which determinations shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the parties and each of the Shareholders. No appeal from any such determination shall be permitted. The Independent Accountant shall be instructed to (i) determine solely with respect to the Additional Consideration Disputed Items submitted to it whether it agrees with Parent's calculations of Gross Gathering Revenues and Additional Consideration or the Shareholder Agent's calculations of Gross Gathering Revenues and Additional Consideration and (ii) use every reasonable effort to make such determination within 10 Business Days (and in any case as soon as practicable) after its receipt of the Additional Consideration Certificate and the Shareholder Agent's written statement of objections to such certificate. The fees and expenses for the services of the Independent Accountant shall be borne by the party against whom the dispute is resolved (and, if the dispute is resolved against the Shareholder Agent, such fees and expenses shall be payable by the Shareholders and the amount thereof shall be offset and taken from the amount of Additional Consideration being paid to the Shareholders pursuant to such Additional Consideration Certificate, if any, and if the amount of any such Additional Consideration shall be insufficient to pay such fees and costs owed by the Shareholders to the Independent Accountant, Parent may, at its sole discretion, withhold and set off such amount against future payments of Additional Consideration, if any, without limiting any other rights and remedies available to Parent at law or in equity). In making its decision, the Independent Accountant shall be limited by the amounts proposed by the parties and shall not award an amount higher than the highest amount proposed by a party or lower than the lowest amount proposed by a party. Judgment upon any award or decision by the Independent Accountant may be enforced by any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(i) Parent shall pay the amount of any quarterly Additional Consideration as finally determined pursuant to this Section 3.06 by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the Paying Agent, with instructions to the Paying Agent to distribute to each Shareholder such Shareholder's Pro Rata Share of such Additional Consideration based on the number of Common Shares for which such Shareholder received Merger Consideration, and with respect to any Common Shares for which the Certificates and other required documents have not been delivered, upon delivery of such Certificates and other documents in accordance with Section 3.04. The Shareholders shall be responsible for all fees, costs and expenses payable to the Paying Agent in connection with its distribution of Additional Consideration to the Shareholders, including fees, costs and expenses associated with maintaining the Exchange Agent Agreement in effect throughout the period during which the Shareholders may be entitled to Additional Consideration.

(j) The Parties acknowledge that the dispute resolution mechanism established pursuant to this Section 3.06 may be applicable simultaneously to more than one Additional Consideration Certificate.

(k) Throughout the period during which the Shareholders may be entitled to Additional Consideration, the Surviving Entity and Parent (including any successor or assign) shall conduct their respective businesses and operations in good faith, in a commercially reasonable manner and without any specific intent to prejudice the Shareholders' right to receive Additional Consideration.

Section 3.07 Withholding Rights. Each of the Paying Agent, Parent, Merger Sub and the Surviving Entity shall be entitled to deduct and withhold, or cause to be withheld, from any amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement such amount as it determines it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any other Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld, such withheld amounts shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Shareholder or Option Holder in respect of whose Common Shares or Options such deduction and withholding was made.

Section 3.08 Escrow Account.

(a) At the Closing, Parent shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, the Holdback Amount with the Escrow Agent in two separate escrow accounts. The parties shall instruct the Escrow Agent to invest the Holdback Amount as directed by Parent and the Shareholder Agent (by mutual agreement), provided such investments shall be limited to direct obligations of the United States of America, obligations for which the full faith and credit of the United States of America is pledged to provide for the payment of principal and interest, commercial paper rated A-1 or P-1 by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. or Standard & Poor's Rating Group, respectively, or certificates of deposit issued by a commercial bank having at least $25 billion in assets; provided, further, that the foregoing investment limitations may be modified by mutual agreement of Parent and the Shareholder Agent.

(i) The Escrow Cash shall be deposited in the Escrow Fund, which shall be used to pay Losses, if any, incurred by any of the Parent Indemnitees.

(ii) The Shareholders' Amount shall be deposited in an account (the Shareholders' Fund), which shall be used to reimburse the Shareholder Agent for out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties hereunder, including fees of attorneys and accountants employed by the Shareholder Agent necessary to discharge his or her duties as Shareholder Agent on behalf of the Shareholders as set forth herein. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shareholder Agent may, at any time in the Shareholder Agent's sole discretion, direct the Escrow Agent to distribute funds from the Shareholders' Fund to the Paying Agent for distribution to the Shareholders, provided that any such distribution shall be made on the basis of each Shareholder's Pro Rata Share in the Shareholders' Fund.

(b) Each of the Escrow Fund and the Shareholders' Fund shall be held as a trust fund and shall not be subject to any Lien, attachment or other judicial process of any creditor of any Person, and shall be held and disbursed solely for the purposes and in accordance with the terms hereof and of the Escrow Agreement.

(c) The interests of the Shareholders in the Escrow Fund and the Shareholders' Fund shall not be assignable or transferable, whether directly, indirectly or by operation of law, except in the event of death of a Shareholder to such Shareholder's estate, personal representative or heirs by will or the laws of descent and distribution; provided, however, that as a condition to any such transfer the transferee(s) shall hold such interests subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Escrow Agreement.

The Company has also heretofore furnished or made available to Parent complete and correct copies of the minutes and other records of all meetings and other proceedings of the Shareholders, the Company Board and all committees of the Company Board (including any actions taken by written consent or otherwise without a meeting), other than minutes and records of proceedings of the Company Board and its committees since January 1, 2014, the subject matter of which is (i) the potential sale of the Company, or (ii) this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein.

Section 4.03 Capitalization and Indebtedness.

(a) The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 30,000 Common Shares.

(b) As of the date of this Agreement, (i) 17,178 Common Shares are issued and outstanding (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding Common Shares held in the treasury of the Company), all of which are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and were issued free of preemptive (or similar) rights and in compliance with applicable Laws, (ii) 2,295 Common Shares are held in the treasury of the Company, and (iii) 3,372 Common Shares are reserved for future issuance pursuant to outstanding Options granted pursuant to the Company Stock Option Plans. To the Company's Knowledge, all issued and outstanding Common Shares are free and clear of all Liens.

(c) Section 4.03(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule sets forth, as of the date hereof, (i) the name and address of each Shareholder of record, (ii) the number of Common Shares held by each such Shareholder and (iii) the date(s) on which the Common Shares held by such Shareholder were issued. granted in compliance with all applicable Laws and all of the terms and conditions of the Company Stock Option Plan pursuant to which it was issued. Each Option was granted with an exercise price per share equal to or greater than the fair market value of the underlying Common Shares on the date of grant and has a grant date identical to the date on which the Company Board actually awarded the Option. Each Option qualifies for the Tax and accounting treatment afforded to such Option in the Company's Tax Returns and the Company's financial statements, respectively, and does not trigger any liability for the Option Holder under Section 409A of the Code. The Company has heretofore provided or made available to Parent true and complete copies of the standard form of option agreement and any stock option agreements that differ from such standard form.

(e) Except for the Options and the Contracts described in Section 4.03(e) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, there are no options, calls, warrants, pre-emptive rights, anti-dilution rights or other rights, rights agreements, stockholder rights plans, Contracts, arrangements or commitments of any character relating to the issued or unissued capital stock, voting securities or securities convertible into or exchangeable for capital stock or other voting securities of the Company, or other right of any Person to acquire, or pursuant to which the Company is obligated to issue or sell, any Common Shares or any other securities of, or equity interests in, the Company. There are no contractual or other obligations of the Company to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any Common Shares or any other securities of, or equity interest in, the Company. (g) The only outstanding Indebtedness of the Company and any Subsidiary thereof (not including capital leases) is the Credit Agreement Debt. The Company's total Indebtedness under the Credit Agreements as of the close of business on the date of this Agreement is set forth in Section 4.03(g) of the Company Disclosure Schedule. Following payment of the Closing Indebtedness Amount at or after Closing, there will be no outstanding Indebtedness (including, without limitation, any pre-payment fees, exit fees, rescheduling fees or penalties, but excluding any capital leases) of the Surviving Entity arising from obligations created by the Company or any Subsidiary thereof prior to the Closing.

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

Section 7.01 Shareholder Approval. The Company Board has resolved to recommend to the Shareholders that they adopt and approve this Agreement, and the Company will submit to the Shareholders this Agreement and any other matters required to be approved or adopted by the Shareholders in order to consummate the Merger and carry out the intentions of this Agreement. In furtherance of that obligation, the Company will take, in accordance with applicable Law and the Company's Articles and Regulations, all action necessary to duly convene a meeting of the Shareholders (Shareholders Meeting), as promptly as practicable after Parent has obtained the SEC's declaration of effectiveness of the Form S-4, to consider and vote upon approval and adoption of this Agreement. The Company agrees that its obligations pursuant to this Section 7.01 shall not be affected by the commencement, public proposal, public disclosure or communication to the Company of any Acquisition Proposal or Change in Company Recommendation. Subject to the provisions of Section 7.05(d), the Company shall, through the Company Board, recommend to the Shareholders the approval and adoption of this Agreement (the Company Recommendation), and shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the Requisite Shareholder Approval. Notwithstanding any Change in the Company Recommendation permitted by Section 7.05(d), this Agreement shall be submitted to the Shareholders at the Shareholders Meeting for the purpose of obtaining the Requisite Shareholder Approval and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve the Company of such obligation so long as Parent has obtained the SEC's declaration of effectiveness of the Form S-4; provided, however, that if the Company Board shall have effected a Change in the Company Recommendation permitted by Section 7.05(d), then the Company Board shall submit this Agreement to the Shareholders without the recommendation of the Agreement (although the resolutions adopting the Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Company Board may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to the Shareholders in the Proxy Statement or in an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto to the extent required by applicable Law; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the Company may not take any action under the preceding proviso unless it has complied with the provisions of Section 7.05. In addition to the foregoing, neither the Company nor the Company Board shall recommend to the Shareholders or submit to the vote of the Shareholders any Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger. Except as and to the extent permitted in Section 7.05(d), neither the Company Board nor any committee thereof shall withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose publicly to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent, the Company

Recommendation or take any action, or make any public statement, filing or release inconsistent with the Company Recommendation (any of the foregoing being a Change in the Company Recommendation). If the Company is unable to obtain a quorum of the Shareholders at the Shareholders Meeting, the Company shall adjourn the Shareholders Meeting if necessary in order to obtain such a quorum.

Section 7.02 Regulatory Matters.

(a) Parent and the Company shall promptly prepare the Proxy Statement, and Parent shall promptly prepare and file with the SEC the Form S-4 in which the Proxy Statement will be included as a prospectus. Each of Parent and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Form S-4 declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and the Company shall promptly thereafter mail or deliver the Proxy Statement to the Shareholders. Parent shall also use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities Law or Blue Sky permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and the Company shall furnish all information concerning the Company and the Shareholders as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

(b) The parties shall cooperate with each other and use their respective reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities that are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger), and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties or Governmental Authorities. The Company and Parent shall have the right to review in advance, and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable Laws, all the information relating to the Company or Parent, as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries, that appear in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. The parties shall consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each party shall consult with the other in advance of any meeting or conference with any Governmental Authority and to the extent permitted by such Governmental Authority, give the other party and/or its counsel the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, in no event shall the foregoing or any other provision of this Agreement require Parent or any its Affiliates to (i) sell, hold, divest, discontinue or limit, before or after the Closing Date, any assets, businesses or interests of Parent, the Surviving Entity or any of their respective Affiliates, (ii) take or commit to take any other actions in connection with obtaining such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations, or agree to or suffer any condition or restriction on Parent, the Surviving Entity or any of their respective Affiliates in connection therewith, that would or could reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect or materially and adversely impact the economic or business benefits to Parent of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; or (iii) agree to any material modification or waiver of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(c) Each of Parent and the Company shall, upon request, furnish to the other all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Proxy Statement, the Form S-4 or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any Governmental Authority in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each of Parent and the Company agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the Form S-4 will, at the time the Form S-4 and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (ii) the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to the Shareholders and at the time of the Shareholders Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which such statement was made, not misleading. Each of Parent and the Company further agrees that if it becomes aware that any information furnished by it would cause any of the statements in the Form S-4 or the Proxy Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other party thereof and to take appropriate steps to correct the Form S-4 or the Proxy Statement.

(d) Each of Parent and the Company shall promptly advise the other upon receiving any communication from any Governmental Authority the consent or approval of which is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any Requisite Regulatory Approval will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval may be materially delayed.

Section 7.03 New York Stock Exchange Listing: Reservation of Parent Common Stock.

(a) Parent shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to have been authorized for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time.

(b) Parent agrees at all times from the date of this Agreement to reserve a sufficient number of shares of Parent Common Stock to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement with respect to the payment of the Merger Consideration.

Section 7.04 Access to Information: Confidentiality.

(b) In addition, Parent shall have the right to conduct, or cause to be conducted, such due diligence investigations and environmental assessments of the Company Property, Systems, Pipeline Easements and other properties and assets of the Company and any Subsidiary thereof prior to the Effective Time as Parent shall deem necessary or desirable, in the sole discretion of Parent, including zoning and development matters, compliance with Environmental Laws, soils, surface water and groundwater analysis, flood plain and wetland location, availability of sewer, water and other utilities, title, financial, engineering and environmental condition and status of the Company Property, the underlying real property, Systems, Pipeline Easements and other properties and assets of the Company and any Subsidiary thereof. The Company and the Shareholders shall make available to Parent or its designees, for inspection and copying, at any time during regular business hours and upon reasonable notice to the Company, any reports regarding the assessment, investigation, testing, sampling or remediation of soil, surface water or groundwater on, at, in, under or migrating from the Company Property, the underlying real property, Systems, Pipeline Easements and other properties and assets of the Company and any Subsidiary thereof. The Parent and its designees shall have free access to the Company Property, the real property underlying the Company Property, Systems, Pipeline Easements and other properties and assets of the Company and any Subsidiary thereof during regular business hours for the purpose of conducting any such due diligence investigations and assessments. The Company hereby authorizes Parent and its Representatives to consult with any Governmental Authority concerning the Company Property, the underlying real property, Systems, Pipeline Easements and other properties and assets of the Company and any Subsidiary thereof.

(c) All information obtained by Parent or Merger Sub pursuant to this Section 7.04 shall be kept confidential in accordance with the Confidentiality Agreement. No investigation or assessment by Parent or any of its Representatives or other information received by Parent or any of its Representatives pursuant to this Section 7.04 shall operate as a waiver or otherwise affect any representation, warranty or agreement given or made by the Company in this Agreement.

Section 7.05 No Solicitation of Transactions.

(a) Except to the extent set forth in Section 7.05(b), none of the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries shall, and each of them shall cause its respective Representatives not to, directly or indirectly (i) solicit, initiate, encourage, knowingly facilitate (including by way of providing information) or induce any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to, or the making or completion of, any Acquisition Proposal, or any inquiry, proposal or offer that is reasonably likely to lead to any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) enter into, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions, negotiations or other communications regarding, or furnish to any Person or group (as such term is defined in Section 13(d) under the Exchange Act) any information with respect to or in connection with, an Acquisition Proposal, (iii) take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes or may reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, (iv) accept, approve, endorse or recommend, or propose to accept, approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal or any agreement related thereto, (v) enter into any Contract or other instrument (whether or not binding) contemplating or otherwise relating to any Acquisition Proposal, (vi) enter into any Contract or agreement in principle requiring, directly or indirectly, the Company to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby or breach its obligations hereunder, or (vii) propose or agree to do any of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 7.05(a), if the Company or any of its Representatives receives an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal (i) by any Qualified Bidder, (ii) that did not result from or arise in connection with a breach of this Section 7.05, (iii) that was so received prior to the Shareholders Meeting and (iv) that the Company Board has determined, in its good faith judgment (after consultation with the Company's financial advisors and outside legal counsel), is or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, the Company and its Representatives may engage in discussions and negotiations with, and furnish information to, such Qualified Bidder if, and only to the extent that, the Company Board has determined, in its good faith judgment (upon consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel), that the failure to do so would violate its fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided, that, (A) prior to taking any such action, the Company has obtained from such Qualified Bidder an executed confidentiality agreement containing terms substantially similar to, and no less favorable to the Company than, the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement, (B) at least 48 hours prior to providing any information to any such Qualified Bidder or entering into any discussions or negotiations with any such Qualified Bidder, the Company promptly notifies Parent in writing of (1) its intent to so furnish information or enter into discussions and negotiations with such Qualified Bidder, (2) the name of such Qualified Bidder and (3) the material terms and conditions of any such Acquisition Proposal (and attaching any agreement and all material related documentation providing for such Acquisition Proposal), and (C) the Company simultaneously provides or makes available to Parent any information concerning the Company or its Subsidiaries provided or made available to such Qualified Bidder that was not previously provided or made available to Parent.

(c) Without limitation of the Company's obligations under Section 7.05(a) or Section 7.05(b), as promptly as practicable (but in no event more than 24 hours) following receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or any request for information or inquiry with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, the Company shall advise Parent in writing of the receipt of any Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry and the terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry and shall promptly provide to Parent a written summary of the material terms of such Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry (including the identity of the Person or group (as such term is defined in Section 13(d) under the Exchange Act) making the Acquisition Proposal and shall keep Parent promptly apprised of any related developments, discussions and negotiations (including providing Parent with a copy of all material documentation and correspondence relating thereto) on a current basis.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary but without limitation of Sections 9.01(h) and 11.11(b), at any time prior to the Shareholders Meeting, the Company Board may withdraw its recommendation of the Merger Agreement, thereby resulting in a Change in the Company Recommendation, if and only if (x) from and after the date hereof, the Company has complied with Sections 7.01 and 7.05, and (y) the Company Board has determined in good faith, upon consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to take such action would violate its fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided, that the Board of Directors of the Company may not effect such a Change in the Company Recommendation unless:

(A) the Company shall have received an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal from a Qualified Bidder and the Company Board shall have concluded in good faith (after consultation with Company's financial advisors and outside legal counsel) that such Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Proposal, after taking into account any amendment or modification to this Agreement agreed to or proposed by Parent;

(B) the Company shall have provided prior written notice to Parent at least five (5) Business Days in advance (the Notice Period) of taking such action, which notice shall advise Parent that the Company Board has received a Superior Proposal, specify the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal (and attach any agreement and all material related documentation providing for such Superior Proposal), and identify the Qualified Bidder making the Superior Proposal);

(C) during the Notice Period, the Company shall, and shall cause its Representatives to, negotiate with Parent and its Representatives in good faith (to the extent Parent desires to so negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Superior Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Proposal; and

(D) the Company Board shall have concluded in good faith (after consultation with the Company's financial advisors and outside legal counsel) that, after considering the results of such negotiations and giving effect to any proposals, amendments or modifications offered or agreed to by Parent, if any, that such Acquisition Proposal continues to constitute a Superior Proposal.

If during the Notice Period any material amendments or revisions are made to the Superior Proposal (including the financial terms thereof), the Company shall deliver a new written notice to Parent and shall again comply with the requirements of this Section 7.05(d) with respect to such new written notice. In the event the Company Board does not make the determination referred to in clause (D) of this Section 7.05(d) and thereafter seeks to effect a Change in the Company Recommendation to the extent permitted by Section 7.05(d), all of the procedures and limitations set forth Section 7.05(d) shall apply anew and shall also apply to any subsequent Change in the Company Recommendation.

The Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, enter into any confidentiality or similar agreement with any Person that prohibits the Company from providing to Parent any of the information required to be provided to Parent under Section 7.05(b), Section 7.05(c) or Section 7.05(d) within the time periods contemplated thereby.

(g) Without limiting any provision of this Section 7.05, it is agreed that any violation of the restrictions set forth in this Section 7.05 by any Representative or Affiliate of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall constitute a breach and non-compliance of this Section 7.05 by the Company.

(h) As used in this Agreement:

(i) Superior Proposal means any bona fide, unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal made by any Qualified Bidder with respect to which the Company Board determines in its good faith judgment to be more favorable from a financial point of view to the Shareholders than the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, to be reasonably likely of being consummated on the terms proposed, and for which financing, to the extent required, is then fully committed or is reasonably determined by the Company Board to be attainable, in each case after (A) receiving the advice of outside counsel and Jefferies & Co. or another nationally recognized investment banking firm and (B) taking into account all relevant factors (including the likelihood of consummation of such transaction on the terms set forth therein; any proposed changes to this Agreement that may be proposed by Parent in response to such Acquisition Proposal (whether or not during the Notice Period); and all legal (with the advice of outside counsel), financial (including the financing terms of any such proposal), Tax (including the net proceed to Shareholders after Taxes), regulatory and other aspects of such proposal (including any expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to closing)); provided, that for purposes of the definition of Superior Proposal, (1) each of the references to 15% or more in interest of the total outstanding voting securities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (measured by voting power) in clause (A) of the definition of Acquisition Transaction shall be replaced with 100% of the total outstanding equity securities of the Company and (2) the reference to 15% or more in clause (B) of the definition of Acquisition Transaction shall be replaced with 100% ;

Nothing contained in this Section or elsewhere in this Agreement will be deemed to prevent or restrict in any way the right of Parent or its Subsidiaries (including the Surviving Entity) to reassign, promote or demote any of the Continuing Employees or Coop Employees after the Closing Date or to change adversely or favorably the title, powers, duties, responsibilities, functions, locations, salaries, other compensation or terms or conditions of employment of such employees.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable but in no event later than 90 days after the Closing, and consistent with the obligations under applicable collective bargaining agreements in effect at the Closing Date, the Continuing Employees shall be provided benefits comparable to those provided to other similarly situated employees of Parent or its Subsidiaries, as applicable.

(c) Effective as of immediately prior to, and contingent upon, the Closing Date, the Company shall adopt such resolutions and/or amendments to terminate the Gatherco, Inc. 401(k) Plan and the Company's other tax-qualified savings plans, if any, and shall adopt, or cause its Subsidiaries to adopt, such resolutions and/or amendments to terminate any 401(k) plan(s) of the Company's Subsidiaries (collectively, Company 401(k) Plan), after first adopting any amendments required by Law to maintain the Company 401(k) Plan's tax-qualified status, as well as any other plans or arrangements for the provision of benefits to employees that Parent reasonably requests in writing be terminated. The Company shall provide Parent with a copy of the resolutions and/or plan amendments evidencing that the Company 401(k) Plan has been terminated in accordance with its terms. If the Company 401(k) Plan is terminated pursuant to the preceding sentence, following the Closing Date and as soon as practicable following receipt of a favorable determination letter from the IRS on the termination of the Company 401(k) Plan, if such a determination letter is requested in the sole discretion of the Parent, the assets thereof shall be distributed to the participants in accordance with the terms of the Company 401(k) Plan and applicable Law.

(d) Continuing Employees shall receive credit for their continuous employment with the Company or a Subsidiary of the Company from their most recent hire date by the Company or Subsidiary of the Company through the Closing Date (Pre-Closing Service) for purposes of eligibility to participate, vesting and vacation entitlement (but not benefit accrual) under any employee benefit plan, program or arrangement established or maintained by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (including the Surviving Entity) (Parent Plan) that is extended to the Continuing Employees, but no credit for any Pre-Closing Service will be required that would result in a duplication of benefits, such as retirement benefits, or an accrual of a benefit for a period of time prior the Effective Time (or the date the Continuing Employee becomes a participant in the Parent Plan, if later). Notwithstanding the foregoing, such service credit will be provided only to the extent that the Company provides to Parent or its Subsidiary, as applicable, comprehensive and complete records of such Pre-Closing Service that includes the duration of service and the hours worked. (f) The Company, a Subsidiary thereof or an ERISA Affiliate, as applicable, shall make all contributions to each Employee Plan that are required through the Effective Time and the Company and each Subsidiary thereof shall pay all compensation, vacation pay, benefits, etc. due through the Effective Time to its employees, directors, equityholders, officers and independent contractors.

(g) Nothing in this Section 7.06 shall create any third-party beneficiary rights in any Person including any Company Employee or Coop Employee (or any dependent or beneficiary thereof) or require the Company, a Subsidiary thereof, Parent or any Subsidiary of the Parent, including the Surviving Entity, or any of their Affiliates to retain the employment of any Person or, except as set forth in Section 7.06(c), provide, amend or continue any Employee Plan or any other employee plan, policy or program. (a) From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Entity and Parent agree that all rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation by the Company now existing in favor of each Person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date hereof or who becomes prior to the Effective Time an officer or director of the Company (collectively, the D&O Indemnitees) as and to the extent provided in the Articles and Regulations, in each case as in effect on the date of this Agreement, shall be assumed by the Surviving Entity in the Merger and shall survive the Merger and remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

(b) Subject to the following sentence, for a period of six years following the Effective Time, Parent will use its reasonable best efforts to provide directors and officers liability insurance that serves to reimburse the present and former officers and directors of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (determined as of the Effective Time) with respect to claims against such directors and officers arising from actions or omissions in their capacity as such occurring before the Effective Time (including in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement), which insurance will contain at least the same coverage and amounts, and contain terms and conditions no less advantageous to such D&O Indemnitees as that coverage currently provided by Company, as described in Section 7.07(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule; provided that in no event shall Parent be required to expend, on an annual basis, an amount in excess of 150% of the annual premiums paid as of the date hereof by the Company for any such insurance (such amount, the Maximum Premium); provided, further, that if any such annual expense at any time would exceed the Maximum Premium, then Parent will cause to be maintained policies of insurance which provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to the Maximum Premium. At the option of Parent, in consultation with the Company, prior to the Effective Time and in lieu of the foregoing, Parent or the Company may purchase a tail policy for directors and officers liability insurance on the terms described in the prior sentence (including subject to the Maximum Premium) and fully pay for such policy prior to the Effective Time and in such event, Parent and the Surviving Entity shall maintain such tail policy in full force and effect and continue to honor their respective obligations thereunder, in lieu of all other obligations of Parent and the Surviving Entity under the first sentence of this Section 7.07(b) for so long as such tail policy shall be maintained in full force and effect. The Company represents to Parent that the Maximum Premium is as set forth in Section 7.07(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule. Nothing contained in this Section 7.07(b) or otherwise in this Agreement is intended to or shall relieve any of the Company's existing insurance carriers from any obligations that such carriers now have or may in the future have relating to the Company and any of its officers and directors.

(c) Any D&O Indemnitee wishing to claim indemnification under Section 7.07(a), upon learning of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation subject to indemnification pursuant to Section 7.07(a), will promptly notify Parent; provided that failure to so notify will not affect the obligations of the Surviving Entity under Section 7.07(a) unless and to the extent that Parent or the Surviving Entity is actually prejudiced as a consequence.

(d) In addition to the other rights provided for in this Section 7.07, and not in limitation thereof, the Surviving Entity, Parent and the Company agree that all individual indemnity agreements between the Company and any persons who, at or prior to the Effective Time, were officers or directors of the Company or served at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, as in effect on the date hereof, all of which are listed in Section 7.07(d) of the Company Disclosure Schedule and copies of which have been provided to Parent prior to the date hereof, shall survive the Effective Time and continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

(e) The provisions of this Section 7.07 will survive the Effective Time and are intended for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each D&O Indemnitee and his or her heirs and representatives. Parent will pay or cause to be paid all expenses, including reasonable fees and expenses of legal counsel, that a D&O Indemnitee actually incurs in enforcing the indemnity and other obligations provided for in this Section 7.07.

Section 7.08 Notification of Certain Matters: Shareholder Litigation.

(a) From the date hereof until the Closing, the Company shall give prompt written notice to Parent, and Parent shall give prompt written notice to the Company, as applicable, of (a) the discovery that any of its representations or warranties contained in this Agreement was, when made, or has subsequently become or is reasonably likely to become, untrue or inaccurate in any material respect (except with respect to any representations and warranties including the word material, Material Adverse Effect or words of similar import, with respect to which, in each such case, Parent or the Company, as applicable, shall provide such notice if it discovers that such representations and warranties were untrue or inaccurate in any respect); (b) any failure to comply with or satisfy any covenant or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it hereunder; (c) the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event the occurrence or non-occurrence of which has caused or is reasonably likely to cause any condition to the obligations of any party to effect the transactions contemplated hereby not to be satisfied; (d) any notice or other communication from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (e) any notice or other communication from any Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (f) as to the Company, any other material development relating to it. The delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 7.08 shall not limit or otherwise affect any representation, warranty or agreement given or made by any party hereto or remedies available to the party receiving such notice and shall not be deemed to amend or in any way supplement the information provided in the Company Disclosure Schedule.

(b) The Company will (i) promptly advise Parent in writing of any Action threatened, commenced or asserted against it or any of its Shareholders, directors, officers or Affiliates relating to this Agreement, the Merger, or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby, and (ii) give Parent the opportunity to reasonably participate in the defense or settlement of any such Action. No compromise or full or partial settlement of any such Action will be agreed upon without Parent's prior written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(b) None of the parties hereto shall, or shall permit any of their respective Subsidiaries to, consummate another transaction or enter into an agreement with respect to another transaction or take any other action if the intent or reasonably likely anticipated consequence of such transaction or action is, or would be, to cause any Governmental Authority to delay or not grant approval of, or to take legal action to seek to prevent, the consummation, in whole or in part, of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) Parent's and the Company's obligations under this Section 7.09 shall include the obligation to use their respective reasonable best efforts to defend any lawsuits or other legal proceedings, whether judicial or administrative, challenging the consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereby, including using their respective reasonable best efforts to seek to have any stay or other injunctive relief which, if entered, would prohibit or materially delay or impair the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement entered by any court or other Governmental Authority reversed on appeal or vacated.

(d) Without limiting the foregoing, in consultation with Parent, the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all appropriate action, and to do, or cause to be done, all things reasonably necessary, proper or advisable to give all notices to, and obtain all consents or approvals required by it from, third parties other than Governmental Authorities in order to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby as promptly as practicable, including the notices and consents required to be set forth in Section 4.05(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

Section 7.12 Tax Matters.

(a) Transfer Taxes. Each Shareholder shall be liable for and shall pay (and shall indemnify and hold harmless Parent against) all sales, use, stamp, documentary, filing, recording, transfer or similar fees or Taxes or governmental charges as levied by any Governmental Authority, including any interest and penalties, in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as they relate to such Shareholder.

(b) Responsibility for Filing Tax Returns. Parent or the Surviving Entity, as applicable, shall (i) permit the Shareholder Agent to review and comment on each such Tax Return that relates to a Pre-Closing Tax Period, and (ii) make such revisions to any such Tax Return that relates to a Pre-Closing Tax Period as is reasonably requested by the Shareholder Agent provided such revisions (a) are consistent with the past practices of, and the Tax positions taken by, the Company and its Subsidiaries, (b) are consistent with applicable Law, and (c) are not reasonably likely to have a material adverse impact to Parent or any of its Affiliates on and after the Closing Date.

(c) Cooperation. The Shareholder Agent and Parent shall after the date of the Closing, until expiration of the statute of limitations (including any extensions thereof) applicable for taxable periods ending on or before, or including, the Closing Date, cooperate fully with each other, as and to the extent reasonably requested by the other, in connection with the filing of any Tax Returns for taxable periods ending on or before, or including, the Closing Date and any audit, litigation or other proceedings in respect of Taxes. Such cooperation shall include retention and (upon request of the other) the provision of records and information which are reasonably relevant to any such Tax Return or audit, litigation or other proceedings, and making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information and explanation of any material provided hereunder. The Shareholder Agent and Parent shall (i) retain all books and records with respect to Tax matters relating to any taxable period beginning before the Closing Date until the expiration of the statute of limitations (including extensions thereof) of the respective Tax periods, and abide by all record retention agreements entered into with any Governmental Authority, and (ii) give the other reasonable written notice prior to transferring, destroying or discarding any such books and records and, if the other party so requests, the Shareholder Agent or Parent, as the case may be, shall allow the other to take possession of such books and records.

(f) Allocation of Taxes. For purposes of this Agreement, in the case of any Taxes that are imposed on a periodic basis and are payable for a Straddle Period, the portion of such Tax which relates to the Pre-Closing Tax Period will (i) in the case of any Taxes other than Taxes based upon or related to income, receipts (including the Ohio commercial activities tax) or payroll, be deemed to be the amount of such Tax for the entire taxable period multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the Pre-Closing Tax Period, and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire taxable period, and (ii) in the case of any Tax based upon or related to income, receipts (including the Ohio commercial activities tax) or payroll, be deemed equal to the amount which would be payable if the relevant taxable period ended on the Closing Date. Any credits relating to a Straddle Period will be taken into account as though the relevant taxable period ended on the Closing Date.

(g) Tax Treatment of Certain Payments. For all relevant Tax purposes, all indemnification payments paid pursuant to Article X shall be treated as adjustments to the Merger Consideration.

(h) Amended Returns and Retroactive Elections. Except as deemed necessary by Parent to comply with Law or as would not have a material adverse effect on the Shareholders, neither Parent nor the Surviving Entity shall (i) amend any Tax Returns of the Company or its Subsidiaries filed with respect to any taxable period ending on or before the Closing Date or any Straddle Period, or (ii) make any Tax election that would have retroactive effect to any such taxable period or Straddle Period, in each case without the prior written consent of the Shareholder Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned).

Section 7.13 Transition. Commencing following the date hereof, and in all cases subject to applicable Law, the Company shall cooperate with Parent and its Subsidiaries to facilitate the integration of the parties and their respective businesses effective as of the Closing Date or such later date as may be determined by Parent. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, from the date hereof through the Closing Date and consistent with the performance of their day-to-day operations and the continuous operation of the Company in the ordinary course of business, the Company shall cause its Representatives to use their reasonable best efforts to provide support, including support from its outside contractors and vendors, as well as data and records access, take actions and assist Parent in performing all tasks, including conversion planning, equipment installation and training, the provision of customer communications and notices, and other matters reasonably required to result in a successful transition and integration at the Closing or such later date as may be determined by Parent.

(c) Parent acknowledges and agrees that the costs incurred by or on behalf of Parent in connection with any inspection, investigation, study, monitoring, assessment, audit, sampling, testing, laboratory or other analysis, or evaluation to determine whether a Release of Hazard Substances has occurred on any of the Identified Sites shall be Parent's responsibility solely.

(d) Prior to commencing any Remediation for which Parent determines that it is, or may be, entitled to indemnity pursuant to Section 10.01(a)(vi) and for which the estimated cost of Remediation exceeds $20,000, Parent shall provide the Shareholder Agent prior written notice and a reasonable opportunity to determine whether, and if so to demonstrate, that reasonable evidence of the kind described in the definition of Release exists.

prior to such time (which party, in the case of an indemnification claim against the Shareholders that is not limited to the Escrow Fund pursuant to this Article X, shall be deemed to be the Shareholder Agent); provided that such right of indemnity shall continue to survive and shall remain a basis for indemnification hereunder only until the related claim for indemnification is resolved or disposed of in accordance with the terms hereof.

Section 10.02 Indemnification and Escrow Arrangements.

(a) Indemnification. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, by approval and adoption of this Agreement, each of the Shareholders agrees to severally and not jointly (in accordance with their Pro Rata Shares) indemnify, defend, reimburse and hold harmless each of Parent and its Affiliates (including, after the Closing, the Surviving Entity) and Representatives (collectively, the Parent Indemnitees) for claims, losses, liabilities, damages, deficiencies, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, and expenses of investigation and defense incurred or suffered by, or imposed upon, any Parent Indemnitee as a result of, arising out of or for:

(i) any inaccuracy or breach of a representation or warranty of the Company contained herein or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement;

(ii) any failure by the Company to perform or comply with any covenant or agreement contained herein prior to the Effective Time;

(iii) any payment or payments ordered to be made by a court of competent jurisdiction (or agreed upon in settlement in lieu thereof, subject to the prior written consent of the Shareholder Agent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) in respect of any Dissenting Shares in excess of the consideration that would have been payable (or Parent reasonably expects to be paid) in respect of such Shares if they were not Dissenting Shares in accordance with this Agreement, and any other reasonable out-of-pocket costs or expenses incurred by any Parent Indemnitee in respect of any claims relating to Dissenting Shares;

(iv) any claim made by any Person (including any Stockholder or Option Holder) that such Person is or was entitled (by Contract or otherwise) to receive any amount or property in such Person's capacity (or asserted capacity) as a holder of capital stock or other equity interests in the Company or similar synthetic or contractual interests in excess of the consideration to be received by such Person pursuant to this Agreement, other than any claim described in clause (iii) above;

(v) any Company Transaction Expenses to the extent not paid or satisfied by the Company at or prior to the Closing, or if paid by Parent or the Surviving Entity at, prior to or after the Closing, to the extent not deducted in the determination of Closing Net Cash Consideration;

(vi) any out-of-pocket costs and expenses arising from Remediation with respect to Releases of Hazardous Substances on the Identified Sites (together with out-of-pocket costs and expenses arising from any inspection, investigation, study, monitoring, assessment, audit, sampling and testing, laboratory or other analysis, or evaluation relating to any Hazardous Substances performed in conjunction with the conduct of Remediations, including to determine whether the applicable Remediation has been performed or completed), if, and only to the extent that, (A) such Release is reasonably likely to have occurred on or prior to the Closing Date; and (B) Remediation of such Release is required by Environmental Laws, and only to the extent required by such Environmental Laws; and

(vii) any and all Retained Taxes.

Such claims, losses, liabilities, damages, deficiencies, costs and expenses are referred to herein individually as a Loss and collectively as Losses. Any such Losses shall be limited to the amount thereof that remains after deducting therefrom (i) any Tax Benefits actually realized and to the extent utilized by Parent Indemnitees in the computation of their taxable income in the year of the Loss and the first two (2) subsequent years following the year of the Loss and (ii) any insurance proceeds actually received by the Parent Indemnitee in respect of any such claim, less any related costs and expenses, including the aggregate cost of pursuing any related insurance claims and any related increases in insurance premiums or other chargebacks (it being agreed that, promptly after the realization of any insurance proceeds, the Parent Indemnitee shall reimburse the indemnifying party for such reduction in Losses for which the Parent Indemnitee was indemnified prior to the realization of reduction of such Losses). For the avoidance of doubt, the concept of indemnity as used in this Article X is intended to include, among others, claims between or among the parties to this Agreement and not involving any other Person, as well as third-party claims and claims between any Parent Indemnitee and the Shareholders. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the Company contained herein, and the right to indemnification or other remedy of the Parent Indemnitees with respect thereto, shall not be affected by any investigation conducted, or knowledge acquired (or capable of being acquired), by or on behalf of any Parent Indemnitee at any time, whether before or after the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Effective Time or by reason of any waiver of any condition set forth in Article VIII. The adoption and approval of this Agreement by the Shareholders shall constitute approval of the Escrow Agreement and of all of the arrangements relating thereto, including the appointment of the Shareholder Agent.

(b) Escrow Fund. The Escrow Fund shall be available to compensate the Parent Indemnitees for any Losses. The indemnity obligations of the Shareholders for Losses arising under Section 10.02(a) shall be limited to the Escrow Fund and no Shareholder shall be liable to any Parent Indemnitee for Losses arising under Section 10.02(a) for any amount other than its Pro Rata Share of the Escrow Fund from the Escrow Fund; provided, however, that with respect to Losses arising under Section 10.02(a)(vi), the Shareholders' aggregate indemnity obligations shall be the lesser of the Environmental Cap and the then remaining portion of the Escrow Fund; provided, further, however, that Shareholders shall be liable, severally and not jointly, for their Pro Rata Share of Losses in excess of their Pro Rata Share of the Escrow Fund for Losses arising (i) under Section 10.02(a)(i) with respect to a breach of any Fundamental Representation or from intentional or willful misrepresentation of material facts that constitute common law fraud under applicable Law or (ii) under any of clauses (iii), (iv) (v) and (vii) of Section 10.02(a).

(c) Exclusive Remedy. After the Effective Time, the right of the Parent Indemnitees to assert indemnification claims and receive indemnification payments pursuant to this Article X shall be the sole and exclusive right and remedy exercisable by the Parent Indemnitees with respect to any inaccuracy or breach in any representation, warranty, or covenant contained in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, however, that the limitation in this Section 10.02(c) shall not apply to claims (i) arising from intentional or willful misrepresentation of material facts that constitute common law fraud under applicable Law or criminal activity on the part of a party hereto in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (ii) made with respect to Section 3.06.

(d) Certain Limitations. Parent may not receive any amounts from the Escrow Fund for Losses arising under Section 10.02(a)(i) or Section 10.02(a)(vi) unless and until the aggregate amount of all Losses arising under Section 10.02(a)(i) and Section 10.02(a)(vi) exceeds $431,250 (the Basket Amount), subject to the right of the Shareholder Agent to object; and in such case, Parent may recover from the Escrow Fund all of such Losses in excess of the Basket Amount. Unless and until such cumulative Losses exceed the Basket Amount, Parent may not recover any amounts from the Escrow Fund for Losses arising under Section 10.02(a)(i) or Section 10.02(a)(vi). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Basket Amount shall not apply to any (i) claims for Losses made under Section 4.01 (Organization and Qualification; Subsidiary), Section 4.02 (Articles of Incorporation, Regulations and Minutes), Section 4.03 (Capitalization and Indebtedness), Section 4.04 (Authority Relative to this Agreement) and Section 4.27 (Brokers) (the foregoing, collectively, the Fundamental Representations), (ii) claims for intentional or willful misrepresentation of material facts that constitute common law fraud under applicable Law, or (iii) claims for Losses under Section 10.02(a)(vii). For the avoidance of doubt, the Basket Amount shall not apply to any indemnification claims under Sections 10.02(a)(ii) through 10.02(a)(v) or Section 10.02(a)(vii). For the purpose of quantifying a Loss under this Article X or to determine if a breach of a representation or warranty has occurred, any representation or warranty of the Company that is qualified in scope as to materiality (including a Company Material Adverse Effect) shall be deemed to be made or given without such qualifications. There shall be no right of contribution for any Shareholder from any Parent Indemnitee (including the Surviving Entity) with respect to any Loss claimed by any Parent Indemnitee, and in no event shall any Shareholder be entitled to require that any claim be first made or brought against any other Person, including the Surviving Entity. No limit on indemnification in this Section 10.02 shall limit, or be deemed to limit, the rights of any Parent Indemnitee against any Shareholder arising (i) under the letter of transmittal delivered by such Shareholder or the other documents delivered by such Shareholder pursuant to Section 3.04 or (ii) under any other agreement that such Shareholder has with any Parent Indemnitee.

(e) Escrow Period; Distribution upon Termination of Escrow Period. Subject to the following requirements, the Escrow Fund shall be in existence immediately following the Effective Time and shall terminate at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Closing Date (the Escrow Period); provided that the Escrow Period shall not terminate with respect to such amount (or some portion thereof) that is necessary, in the reasonable judgment of Parent and subject to the objection of the Shareholder Agent and the subsequent arbitration of the matter in the manner provided in Section 10.02(i) hereof, to satisfy any unsatisfied Losses concerning claims specified in any Officer's Certificate delivered to the Escrow Agent prior to termination of the Escrow Period, including the costs and expenses of Remediation indemnifiable under Section 10.02(a)(vi), as reasonably estimated by Parent in good faith. As soon as any such Loss has been resolved, the Escrow Agent shall deliver to the Shareholders the remaining portion of the Escrow Fund not required to satisfy any other such unresolved Loss. Deliveries of amounts from the Escrow Fund to the Shareholders pursuant to this Section 10.02(e) shall be made in their respective Pro Rata Share of the amount being distributed from the Escrow Fund.

(f) Protection of Escrow Fund. The Escrow Agent shall hold and invest the Escrow Fund in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Escrow Agreement.

(g) Claims Upon Escrow Fund. Upon receipt by the Escrow Agent at any time before expiration of the Escrow Period of a certificate signed by any officer of Parent (an Officer's Certificate): (i) stating that a Parent Indemnitee has incurred, suffered, paid or properly accrued or reasonably anticipates that it will have to incur, suffer, pay or accrue Losses, and (ii) specifying in reasonable detail the individual Losses included in the non-binding, preliminary good faith estimate of the aggregate dollar amount of actual and potential Losses, the date each such item was incurred, suffered, paid or accrued, or the basis for such anticipated Losses, and the nature of the misrepresentation, breach of warranty or breach of covenant or other claim to which such item is related and to the extent known a reasonable summary of the facts underlying the claim, and if no objection is received from the Shareholder Agent in accordance with Section 10.02(h), the Escrow Agent shall, subject to the provisions of Section 10.02(h) hereof and satisfaction of the Basket Amount, if applicable, deliver to Parent out of the Escrow Fund, as promptly as practicable, an amount equal to (x) such Losses if the Basket Amount is not applicable or (y) such Losses in excess of the Basket Amount if the Basket Amount is applicable. If any Losses cannot be quantified with specificity at the time of sending the Officer's Certificate, Parent shall deliver a supplement to such Officer's Certificate as soon as practicable after such amount is or can be determined (and such supplement shall be deemed delivered as of the date of the original Officer's Certificate relating to such claim).

(h) Objections to Claims. At the time of delivery of any Officer's Certificate (or supplement thereto) to the Escrow Agent, a duplicate copy of such certificate shall be delivered to the Shareholder Agent and for a period of 10 days after such delivery, the Escrow Agent shall make no delivery to Parent of any amounts from the Escrow Fund pursuant to Section 10.02(g) hereof unless the Escrow Agent shall have received written authorization from the Shareholder Agent to make such delivery. After the expiration of such 10-day period, the Escrow Agent shall make delivery of an amount from the Escrow Fund in accordance with Section 10.02(g) hereof, provided that no such payment or delivery may be made on such claim if the Shareholder Agent shall object in a written statement to the claim made in the Officer's Certificate (indicating each disputed item or amount and stating the basis thereof with reasonable specificity), and such statement shall have been delivered to the Escrow Agent prior to the expiration of such 10-day period, and the Shareholder Agent shall simultaneously deliver a duplicate copy of such statement to Parent, provided, further, that (i) the Escrow Agent shall deliver to Parent such portion of the Losses specified in the Officer's Certificate (or supplement thereto) that is not objected to by the Shareholder Agent in the written statement, if any, and (ii) the Shareholder

Agent shall have no right to object, and the Escrow Agent shall make immediate payment without waiting for the expiration of such 10-day period, if the Losses stated as being payable to Parent in the Officer's Certificate shall be pursuant to a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to such claim for Losses.

(i) Resolution of Conflicts; Arbitration.

(i) In case the Shareholder Agent shall timely object in writing to any claim or claims made in any Officer's Certificate pursuant to Section 10.02(h), the Shareholder Agent and Parent shall attempt in good faith to agree upon the rights and obligations of the respective parties with respect to each such disputed claim. If the Shareholder Agent and Parent should so agree, a memorandum setting forth such agreement shall be prepared and signed by both parties and shall be furnished to the Escrow Agent. The Escrow Agent shall be entitled to rely on any such memorandum and distribute the specified amount from the Escrow Fund in accordance with the terms thereof.

(ii) If no such agreement can be reached after good faith negotiation or the parties fail to reach agreement within 15 days of the date the Shareholder Agent delivered to the Escrow Agent its written objection to the Officer's Certificate, either Parent or the Shareholder Agent may demand arbitration of the matter unless the amount of Losses is at issue in pending litigation with a third party, in which event arbitration shall not be commenced until such amount is ascertained or both parties agree to arbitration. Any matter submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Section 10.02(i) shall be conducted by JAMS before a single arbitrator in accordance with the then-current JAMS Comprehensive Arbitration Rules and Procedures, or, if applicable, the Streamlined Arbitration Rules and Procedures, as applicable. The arbitration shall take place in Columbus, Ohio, before a sole arbitrator; provided, however, if the claim exceeds $250,000, exclusive of interest and attorneys' fees and other fees and costs, the dispute shall be heard and determined by three arbitrators as provided herein. In the event that the arbitration is to be conducted by three arbitrators, Parent and the Shareholder Agent shall each select one arbitrator, and the two arbitrators so selected shall select a third arbitrator. In all cases, each arbitrator shall be independent, and have at least 10 years relevant experience. The arbitration shall be conducted within a reasonable, limited time frame and designed to minimize the scope, cost and time for discovery while allowing the parties a reasonable opportunity to discover relevant information from the opposing parties about the subject matter of the dispute. The decision of a majority of the three arbitrators in the case of three arbitrators or the sole arbitrator, as applicable, as to the validity and amount of any claim in such Officer's Certificate (or supplement thereto) shall be final, binding and conclusive upon the parties to this Agreement and the Shareholders, and notwithstanding anything in Section 10.02(h) hereof, the Escrow Agent shall be entitled to act in accordance with such decision and make or withhold payments out of the Escrow Fund in accordance therewith. Such decision shall be written and shall be supported by written findings of fact and conclusions which shall set forth the award, judgment, decree or order awarded by the arbitrator(s). As to any disputed claim, the arbitrator(s) shall not award less than any amount of Losses conceded by the Shareholder Agent as being properly payable from the Escrow Fund nor any amount in excess of the total Losses sought by Parent in the proceeding, exclusive of interest, fees and costs as applicable (which may be awarded to Parent in addition to the total Losses sought by Parent in the proceeding), and shall in no event award punitive or exemplary damages (unless and to the extent such damages are payable to a third party).

(iii) Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrator(s) pursuant to this Section 10.02(i) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

(iv) The prevailing party in any arbitration under this Section 10.02(i) shall be entitled to recover its fees and costs incurred in the arbitration or proceeding (including attorneys' and arbitration fees and costs) from the non-prevailing party and such costs shall be part of the arbitrator(s) decision. In the absence of a determination of the prevailing party, in the event of three arbitrators, each party shall pay for the fees and costs of its selected arbitrator, and (other than required filing fees or sanctions) the remaining fees and costs of the arbitration and arbitrators shall be shared one-half by Parent and one-half by the Shareholders. Fees and costs to be paid by the Shareholders shall be paid from the Shareholders' Fund, and if such Fund shall be insufficient to pay such fees and costs owed by the Shareholders in full, such fees and costs may, in the sole discretion of Parent, be paid from the Escrow Fund or the Shareholders (severally and not jointly, in accordance with their Pro Rata Shares), and, for the avoidance of doubt, in either such case, the Basket Amount shall not apply to such fees and costs).

(j) Third-Party Claims. In the event Parent becomes aware of a third-party claim that Parent believes may result in an indemnification claim against the Escrow Fund or the Shareholders pursuant to this Article X, Parent shall notify the Shareholder Agent of such claim, and the Shareholder Agent, as representative for the Shareholders, shall be entitled, at the expense of the Shareholders, to participate in any defense of such claim subject to Parent's right to control the defense thereof. Parent shall have the right, upon the consent of the Shareholder Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned), to settle any such third-party claim and, to the extent that Losses arising from such third-party claim are subject to indemnification under this Article X, be indemnified for such settlement amount and all related costs and expenses from the Escrow Fund and/or the Shareholders in accordance with this Article X. The failure to obtain the consent of the Shareholder Agent shall not in any way affect the liability of the Shareholders for Losses from such settlement. In the event that the Shareholder Agent has consented in writing to any such settlement and acknowledged that the claim by Parent is a valid claim against the Escrow Fund, the Shareholder Agent shall have no power or authority to object under any provision of this Article X to the amount of Losses claimed by Parent against the Escrow Fund or the Shareholders with respect to such settlement (or to the extent only a portion of the underlying claim settled related to Losses, any Losses claimed by Parent that are consistent with the portion of such settlement amount attributable to Losses).

ARTICLE XI.

The provisions of this Section, including the power of attorney granted hereby, are independent and severable, are irrevocable and coupled with an interest and shall not be terminated by any act of any one or more Shareholders, or by operation of Law, whether by death or other event.

(b) The Shareholder Agent may resign at any time; provided, however, in no event shall the Shareholder Agent resign without the holders of a majority in interest of the Escrow Fund having first appointed a new Shareholder Agent who shall assume such duties immediately upon the resignation of the Shareholder Agent. In the event of the death or disability of the Shareholder Agent, a successor Shareholder Agent shall be appointed by the Shareholders who hold a majority in interest of the Escrow Fund. Notice of such appointment shall be given to Parent within ten (10) days of the appointment, such appointment to be effective upon the later of the date indicated in such notice or the date such notice is received by Parent; provided, that until such notice is received, Parent and the Surviving Entity shall be entitled to rely on the decisions and actions of the prior Shareholder Agent as described in Section 11.01(a) above. The Shareholder Agent may be changed by the Shareholders from time to time upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to Parent; provided that the Shareholder Agent may not be removed unless holders of a two-thirds interest of the Escrow Fund agree to such removal and to the identity of the substituted agent. Any vacancy in the position of Shareholder Agent may be filled by approval of the holders of a majority in interest of the Escrow Fund, with such new appointment to be effective upon the later of the date indicated in the notice thereof to Parent or the date such notice is received by Parent; provided, that until such notice is received, Parent and the Surviving Entity shall be entitled to rely on the decisions and actions of the prior Shareholder Agent as described in Section 11.01(a) above. No bond shall be required of the Shareholder Agent, and the Shareholder Agent shall not receive compensation for his services. Notices or communications to or from the Shareholder Agent shall constitute notice to or from each of the Shareholders.

(c) The Shareholder Agent has the unlimited authority and power to act on behalf of each Shareholder with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. Any decision, act, consent or instruction of the Shareholder Agent shall constitute a decision of all Shareholders, and shall be final, binding and conclusive upon each of the Shareholders, and the Escrow Agent, the Paying Agent and Parent may rely conclusively upon any such decision, act, consent or instruction of the Shareholder Agent as being the decision, act, consent or instruction of each Shareholder. No Shareholder shall have the right to object to, dissent from, protest or otherwise contest the same. The Escrow Agent, the Paying Agent, Parent and the Surviving Entity are hereby relieved from any liability to any Person for any acts done by them in accordance with such decision, act, consent or instruction of the Shareholder Agent. Parent shall be entitled to deal exclusively with the Shareholder Agent on all matters relating to this Agreement and shall be entitled to rely conclusively (without further evidence of any kind whatsoever) on any document executed or purported to be executed on behalf of any Shareholder by the Shareholder Agent, and on any other action taken or purported to be taken on behalf of any Shareholder by the Shareholder Agent, as being fully binding upon such Person.

(d) The Shareholder Agent shall not be liable for any act done or omitted hereunder as Shareholder Agent while acting in good faith. The Shareholders shall severally indemnify, on the basis of each such holder's Pro Rata Share, the Shareholder Agent and hold the Shareholder Agent harmless against any loss, liability or expense incurred without reckless or intentional misconduct or bad faith on the part of the Shareholder Agent and arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the Shareholder Agent's duties hereunder, including the reasonable fees and expenses of any legal counsel retained by the Shareholder Agent.

(e) The Shareholder Agent represents and warrants to Parent, Merger Sub and the Company as follows: (i) the Shareholder Agent has the right and capacity to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform his obligations hereunder; (ii) neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation or performance of any of the obligations hereunder or under the Escrow Agreement or the Exchange Agent Agreement by the Shareholder Agent will, directly or indirectly (with or without notice or lapse of time), contravene, conflict with, or result in a violation of or breach of any provision of, any Contract to which the Shareholder Agent is bound; and (iii) this Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Shareholder Agent enforceable against the Shareholder Agent in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by Equitable Exceptions.

Section 11.05 Third Party Beneficiaries. Each of the parties further agrees to waive (a) any defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate and (b) any requirements for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with obtaining any such equitable relief.

Section 11.07 Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts executed in and to be performed in that State. Except as provided in Section 3.06 or Section 10.02(i), all Actions arising out of, under or relating to this Agreement or the Merger shall be heard and determined exclusively in a federal or state court sitting in the State of Delaware having jurisdiction over the subject matter only. The parties hereto hereby (a) submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of any federal or state court sitting in the State of Delaware and having jurisdiction over the subject matter only for the purpose of any Action arising out of or relating to this Agreement brought by any party hereto, and (b) irrevocably waive, and agree not to assert by way of motion, defense, or otherwise, in any such Action, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the Action is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the Action is improper, or that this Agreement or the Merger may not be enforced in or by any of the above-named courts.

Each of the parties hereto (a) certifies that no Representative of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not, in the event of litigation, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (b) acknowledges that it and the other parties hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement, by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications in this Section 11.08.

Appendix B

Section 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law

1701.85 Dissenting shareholders - compliance with section - fair cash value of shares.

(A) (1) A shareholder of a domestic corporation is entitled to relief as a dissenting shareholder in respect of the proposals described in sections 1701.74, 1701.76, and 1701.84 of the Revised Code, only in compliance with this section.

(2) If the proposal must be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation involved, the dissenting shareholder shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of a meeting of the shareholders at which the proposal is to be submitted, and such shares shall not have been voted in favor of the proposal.

(3) Not later than twenty days before the date of the meeting at which the proposal will be submitted to the shareholders, the corporation may notify the corporation's shareholders that relief under this section is available. The notice shall include or be accompanied by all of the following:

(a) A copy of this section;

(b) A statement that the proposal can give rise to rights under this section if the proposal is approved by the required vote of the shareholders;

(c) A statement that the shareholder will be eligible as a dissenting shareholder under this section only if the shareholder delivers to the corporation a written demand with the information provided for in division (A)(4) of this section before the vote on the proposal will be taken at the meeting of the shareholders and the shareholder does not vote in favor of the proposal.

(4) If the corporation delivers notice to its shareholders as provided in division (A)(3) of this section, a shareholder electing to be eligible as a dissenting shareholder under this section shall deliver to the corporation before the vote on the proposal is taken a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the shareholder seeks relief. The demand for payment shall include the shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.

(5) If the corporation does not notify the corporation's shareholders pursuant to division (A)(3) of this section, not later than ten days after the date on which the vote on the proposal was taken at the meeting of the shareholders, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment to the dissenting shareholder of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, which demand shall state the dissenting shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the dissenting shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.

(6) If a signatory, designated and approved by the dissenting shareholder, executes the demand, then at any time after receiving the demand, the corporation may make a written request that the dissenting shareholder provide evidence of the signatory's authority. The shareholder shall provide the evidence within a reasonable time but not sooner than twenty days after the dissenting shareholder has received the corporation's written request for evidence.

(7) The dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (A)(3) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 of the Revised Code and a dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (A)(5) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.801 of the Revised Code shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date on which the agreement of merger was adopted by the directors of that corporation. Within twenty days after the dissenting shareholder has been sent the notice provided in section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment with the same information as that provided for in division (A)(4) of this section.

(8) In the case of a merger or consolidation, a demand served on the constituent corporation involved constitutes service on the surviving or the new entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation. In the case of a conversion, a demand served on the converting corporation constitutes service on the converted entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the conversion.

(9) If the corporation sends to the dissenting shareholder, at the address specified in the dissenting shareholder's demand, a request for the certificates representing the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder, within fifteen days from the date of the sending of such request, shall deliver to the corporation the certificates requested so that the corporation may endorse on them a legend to the effect that demand for the fair cash value of such shares has been made. The corporation promptly shall return the endorsed certificates to the dissenting shareholder. A dissenting shareholder's failure to deliver the certificates terminates the dissenting shareholder's rights as a dissenting shareholder, at the option of the corporation, exercised by written notice sent to the dissenting shareholder within twenty days after the lapse of the fifteen-day period, unless a court for good cause shown otherwise directs. If shares represented by a certificate on which such a legend has been endorsed are transferred, each new certificate issued for them shall bear a similar legend, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares. Upon receiving a demand for payment from a dissenting shareholder who is the record holder of uncertificated securities, the corporation shall make an appropriate notation of the demand for payment in its shareholder records. If uncertificated shares for which payment has been demanded are to be transferred, any new certificate issued for the shares shall bear the legend required for certificated securities as provided in this paragraph. A transferee of the shares so endorsed, or of uncertificated securities where such notation has been made, acquires only the rights in the corporation as the original dissenting holder of such shares had immediately after the service of a demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares. A request under this paragraph by the corporation is not an admission by the corporation that the shareholder is entitled to relief under this section.

(B) Unless the corporation and the dissenting shareholder have come to an agreement on the fair cash value per share of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder or the corporation, which in case of a merger or consolidation may be the surviving or new entity, or in the case of a conversion may be the converted entity, within three months after the service of the demand by the dissenting shareholder, may file a complaint in the court of common pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation that issued the shares is located or was located when the proposal was adopted by the shareholders of the corporation, or, if the proposal was not required to be submitted to the shareholders, was approved by the directors. Other dissenting shareholders, within that three-month period, may join as plaintiffs or may be joined as defendants in any such proceeding, and any two or more such proceedings may be consolidated. The complaint shall contain a brief statement of the facts, including the vote and the facts entitling the dissenting shareholder to the relief demanded. No answer to a complaint is required. Upon the filing of a complaint, the court, on motion of the petitioner, shall enter an order fixing a date for a hearing on the complaint and requiring that a copy of the complaint and a notice of the filing and of the date for hearing be given to the respondent or defendant in the manner in which summons is required to be served or substituted service is required to be made in other cases. On the day fixed for the hearing on the complaint or any adjournment of it, the court shall determine from the complaint and from evidence submitted by either party whether the dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair cash value of any shares and, if so, the number and class of such shares. If the court finds that the dissenting shareholder is so entitled, the court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and to recommend a decision on the amount of the fair cash value. The appraisers have power and authority specified in the order of their appointment. The court thereupon shall make a finding as to the fair cash value of a share and shall render judgment against the corporation for the payment of it, with interest at a rate and from a date as the court considers equitable. The costs of the proceeding, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable. The proceeding is a special proceeding and final orders in it may be vacated, modified, or reversed on appeal pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure and, to the extent not in conflict with those rules, Chapter 2505. of the Revised Code. If, during the pendency of any proceeding instituted under this section, a suit or proceeding is or has been instituted to enjoin or otherwise to prevent the carrying out of the action as to which the shareholder has dissented, the proceeding instituted under this section shall be stayed until the final determination of the other suit or proceeding. Unless any provision in division (D) of this section is applicable, the fair cash value of the shares that is agreed upon by the parties or fixed under this section shall be paid within thirty days after the date of final determination of such value under this division, the effective date of the amendment to the articles, or the consummation of the other action involved, whichever occurs last. Upon the occurrence of the last such event, payment shall be made immediately to a holder of uncertificated securities entitled to payment. In the case of holders of shares represented by certificates, payment shall be made only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing the shares for which the payment is made.

(C) (1) If the proposal was required to be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation, fair cash value as to those shareholders shall be determined as of the day prior to the day on which the vote by the shareholders was taken and, in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, fair cash value as to shareholders of a constituent subsidiary corporation shall be determined as of the day before the adoption of the agreement of merger by the directors of the particular subsidiary corporation. The fair cash value of a share for the purposes of this section is the amount that a willing seller who is under no compulsion to sell would be willing to accept and that a willing buyer who is under no compulsion to purchase would be willing to pay, but in no event shall the fair cash value of a share exceed the amount specified in the demand of the particular shareholder. In computing fair cash value, both of the following shall be excluded:

- (a) Any appreciation or depreciation in market value resulting from the proposal submitted to the directors or to the shareholders;
- (b) Any premium associated with control of the corporation, or any discount for lack of marketability or minority status.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the fair cash value of a share that was listed on a national securities exchange at any of the following times shall be the closing sale price on the national securities exchange as of the applicable date provided in division (C)(1) of this section:

(a) Immediately before the effective time of a merger or consolidation;

(b) Immediately before the filing of an amendment to the articles of incorporation as described in division (A) of section 1701.74 of the Revised Code;

(c) Immediately before the time of the vote described in division (A)(1)(b) of section 1701.76 of the Revised Code.

(D) (1) The right and obligation of a dissenting shareholder to receive fair cash value and to sell such shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, and the right and obligation of the corporation to purchase such shares and to pay the fair cash value of them terminates if any of the following applies:

(a) The dissenting shareholder has not complied with this section, unless the corporation by its directors waives such failure;

(b) The corporation abandons the action involved or is finally enjoined or prevented from carrying it out, or the shareholders rescind their adoption of the action involved;

(c) The dissenting shareholder withdraws the dissenting shareholder's demand, with the consent of the corporation by its directors;

(d) The corporation and the dissenting shareholder have not come to an agreement as to the fair cash value per share, and neither the shareholder nor the corporation has filed or joined in a complaint under division (B) of this section within the period provided in that division.

(2) For purposes of division (D)(1) of this section, if the merger, consolidation, or conversion has become effective and the surviving, new, or converted entity is not a corporation, action required to be taken by the directors of the corporation shall be taken by the partners of a surviving, new, or converted partnership or the comparable representatives of any other surviving, new, or converted entity.

(E) From the time of the dissenting shareholder's giving of the demand until either the termination of the rights and obligations arising from it or the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all other rights accruing from such shares, including voting and dividend or distribution rights, are suspended. If during the suspension, any dividend or distribution is paid in money upon shares of such class or any dividend, distribution, or interest is paid in money upon any securities issued in extinguishment of or in substitution for such shares, an amount equal to the dividend, distribution, or interest which, except for the suspension, would have been payable upon such shares or securities, shall be paid to the holder of record as a credit upon the fair cash value of the shares. If the right to receive fair cash value is terminated other than by the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all rights of the holder shall be restored and all distributions which, except for the suspension, would have been made shall be made to the holder of record of the shares at the time of termination.
