Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(a) Resignation of Chief Executive Officer

Effective April 8, 2015, Don Mattrick resigned as Chief Executive Officer of Zynga Inc. (Zynga), as a member of the Board of Directors (the Board) and from all other positions with Zynga. Zynga entered into a Separation Agreement and General Release, dated April 8, 2015 (the Separation Agreement), with Mr. Mattrick to memorialize the parties mutual desire to separate employment. The Separation Agreement provides, among other things:

Mr. Mattrick resigned from his position as Zynga s Chief Executive Officer and all other positions he had with Zynga s subsidiaries and affiliates, including as a director of Zynga.

Mr. Mattrick will receive a severance payment of $4,000,000, as provided in his offer letter. The severance amount will be paid ratably over the 24 months following Mr. Mattrick s resignation. The Company will accelerate the vesting of 5,111,081 unvested restricted stock units and unvested options to purchase 189,552 shares of Class A common stock previously granted to Mr. Mattrick. The vested awards will remain exercisable for 24 months following Mr. Mattrick s resignation.

Mr. Mattrick will receive a lump sum cash payment equal to the lesser of (i) the annual cash bonus, if any, that he would have been paid pursuant to Zynga s cash incentive plan for 2015 and (ii) $1,000,000, in each case, pro-rated for the days he worked for Zynga in fiscal 2015. Any such bonus would be paid on the date that annual bonuses are paid to then-current employees of Zynga.

If Mr. Mattrick makes a timely election to continue coverage under COBRA, Zynga will pay the COBRA premiums to continue coverage for Mr. Mattrick and his eligible dependents for up to eighteen months after the date of his resignation.

Mr. Mattrick will also receive up to $25,000 to reimburse attorneys fees and costs that he may incur for legal advice relating to his resignation.

Zynga and Mr. Mattrick agreed to terminate all other agreements between them other than Mr. Mattrick s employee invention assignment agreement, including Mr. Mattrick s offer letter, all outstanding but unvested equity awards and Zynga s other plans and arrangements for the benefit of employees.

Mr. Mattrick and Zynga each agreed not to disparage the other in in any manner likely to be harmful to their respective business or personal reputation.

Mr. Mattrick agreed to a release of claims related to Mr. Mattrick's employment and other relationships with Zynga and Zynga's affiliates, and the termination of Mr. Mattrick's employment and other relationships with Zynga and Zynga's affiliates. Payment of the severance and accelerated vesting described above is contingent upon Mr. Mattrick executing and not revoking the release of claims.

Certain of Mr. Mattrick's obligations, such as those in relation to intellectual property, non-solicitation and confidentiality, remain in effect.

The foregoing summary of the Separation Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Separation Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

(b) Appointment of Chief Executive Officer

The Board appointed Mark Pincus, Zynga's Chairman of the Board, as Zynga's Chief Executive Officer, effective April 8, 2015. Mr. Pincus is our Founder and had previously served as Zynga's Chief Executive Officer from April 2007 to July 2013. In addition, he served as Chief Product Officer from April 2007 to April 2014 and has served as Chairman of the Board since April 2007.

In 2014 Mr. Pincus founded superlabs, a product lab focused on developing products that connect and empower people. Mr. Pincus also founded Zynga.org in 2009, a non-profit organization dedicated to using social games for social good. In 2003, he launched Tribe.net, one of the first social networks in the industry. He served as Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of tribe.net from 2003-2007. From 1997 to 2000, he served as Chairman of Support.com, Inc. (NASDAQ: SPRT), a help desk automation software company he founded, and he served as Chief Executive Officer and President from December 1997 to July 1999. From 1996 to 1997, he served as Chief Executive Officer of FreeLoader, Inc., a web-based news company he founded. He holds an M.B.A. from Harvard Business School and a B.S. in Economics from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business.

There are no family relationships between Mr. Pincus and any director or executive officer of Zynga.

Mr. Pincus will receive an annual salary of $1 in connection with his appointment as Chief Executive Officer. The preceding description of Mr. Pincus's compensatory arrangements is qualified in its entirety by reference to his offer letter, which is filed hereto as Exhibit 10.1. No other new compensatory arrangements were entered into with Mr. Pincus in connection with his appointment as Chief Executive Officer.

(c) Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

At a meeting of the Compensation Committee (the Committee) of the Board held on April 7, 2015, the Committee unanimously approved the grant of restricted stock awards to each of David Lee, Zynga's Chief Financial Officer and Chief Accounting Officer and Devang Shah, Zynga's General Counsel, Secretary and Vice President, for 500,000 shares of Zynga's Class A common stock, which awards will be granted on April 8, 2015, commence vesting on April 15, 2015 and will vest ratably each quarter over a four year period, in each case subject to continued service to Zynga.

Item 8.01. Other Events.
