Management Change and Compensatory Arrangement

On April 27, 2015, Daniel M. Fitzpatrick notified the Company of his plan to retire from the positions of Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company. Following Mr. Fitzpatrick's notice, the Company entered into a letter agreement with Mr. Fitzpatrick, dated as of April 29, 2015 (the Fitzpatrick Letter Agreement ), pursuant to which Mr. Fitzpatrick will remain employed as the Company's Chief Financial Officer for a period ending on October 29, 2015 (the Transition Period ). The Company may extend the Transition Period by up to four months and may terminate it at any time upon notice to Mr. Fitzpatrick. In addition, during the Transition Period, the Company is permitted to change Mr. Fitzpatrick's role to that of Senior Advisor. Under the terms of the Fitzpatrick Letter Agreement, Mr. Fitzpatrick will resign his position as Chief Financial Officer, and all other positions with the Company, when his employment ends.

The Fitzpatrick Letter Agreement provides that during the Transition Period, Mr. Fitzpatrick will continue to receive his current cash compensation and participate in the Company's employee benefit plans. During the Transition Period, he will also receive the 2015 awards of equity-based compensation that were previously approved by the Compensation Committee, but have not yet been granted due to the Company's late filing status, which awards consist of 6,750 restricted stock units and a stock option to purchase 15,000 shares. Furthermore, if the Company terminates Mr. Fitzpatrick's employment during the Transition Period other than for cause, Mr. Fitzpatrick will be entitled to a lump sum payment equal to the base salary he would have been paid through the remainder of the Transition Period.

During the 18-month period following the Transition Period, Mr. Fitzpatrick will serve as a consultant to the Company in exchange for a monthly fee equivalent to his current monthly base salary and continued vesting of his equity-based awards. The Company and Mr. Fitzpatrick entered into an Amendment to Equity Award Agreements to reflect that continued vesting. Pursuant to the Fitzpatrick Letter Agreement, Mr. Fitzpatrick has agreed that during such 18-month period, he will not compete with the Company or solicit its customers or employees. The Fitzpatrick Letter Agreement also includes confidentiality and cooperation provisions and requires Mr. Fitzpatrick to execute a release of claims against the Company. Mr. Fitzpatrick will not be entitled to receive any other severance pay or other separation benefits in connection with his resignation, but the Company will pay him a lump sum equal to the cost of 18 months of COBRA coverage following his execution of the release.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Fitzpatrick Letter Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1, and the Amendment to Equity Award Agreements, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.2, to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are incorporated herein by reference.

Modany, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, entered into an amendment (the "Amendment") to the letter agreement between Mr. Modany and the Company dated August 4, 2014 (the "Modany Letter Agreement"). Pursuant to the Amendment, the parties agreed to extend the Applicable Period (as provided for and defined in the Modany Letter Agreement) to May 29, 2015. The foregoing description of the Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amendment, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
