NOTICE OF STOCKHOLDER ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT

DATE FIRST MAILED TO STOCKHOLDERS: SEPTEMBER 3, 2015

To our Stockholders:

This Notice and the accompanying Information Statement are being furnished to the stockholders of Vince Holding Corp., a Delaware corporation (the Company), to notify stockholders of the actions taken by our Board of Directors (the Board) at its meeting held on September 1, 2015 and by the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock by written consent dated September 1, 2015, approving (1) a one-time stock option exchange program (the Option Exchange), to permit the Company to cancel certain stock options held by some of our employees and executive officers, referred to in this Information Statement as Eligible Participants, in exchange for new, or replacement, options, and (2) an amendment (the ESPP Amendment) to the 2013 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the ESPP) to allow the issuance of shares of common stock under the ESPP at a discount of 10% to market price of such shares at the end of the offer period and to make certain other administrative changes to the ESPP.

The primary purpose of the Option Exchange is to increase the retention and motivational value of the outstanding equity awards held by Eligible Participants by providing such individuals the opportunity to exchange equity awards which are significantly underwater, i.e., the exercise price is significantly greater than the current market trading price of our common stock. None of the former executive officers and senior members of the Company who have departed in the recent months, including Jill Granoff, our former Chief Executive Officer, is eligible to participate in the Option Exchange. Our Interim Chief Executive Officer and Interim Chief Financial Officer are also not eligible to participate in the Option Exchange. The Company expects to commence the Option Exchange on or about September 3, 2015 by filing applicable tender offer documents with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Option Exchange will close and any replacement options will be issued on or about the 20th business day after the Option Exchange commencement, unless the Option Exchange is extended by the Company (and in any event, no earlier than 20 calendar days after the Company mails this Notice and Information Statement to stockholders).

In addition, we are amending the ESPP, which was originally adopted by the Board and approved by the stockholders on November 21, 2013. The ESPP currently provides eligible employees of the Company and its subsidiaries the opportunity to acquire our common stock at the end of certain offering periods, at a discount of 5% to market price of such common stock either at the beginning or end of the offering period, whichever is lower. The ESPP Amendment will allow the purchase of shares of our common stock under the ESPP by participating eligible employees at a discount of 10%, and the discount will be measured at the end of the offering periods. We have not previously commenced an offering period under the ESPP but we may do so in the near future. The ESPP Amendment is expected to become effective on September 23, 2015, the 20th calendar day after the mailing of this Notice and the accompanying Information Statement.

As the matters set forth in this Information Statement have been duly authorized and approved by the written consent of the holders of more than a majority of our voting securities, your vote or consent is not requested or required to approve these matters. The Information Statement is provided solely for your information, and also serves the purpose of informing stockholders of the matters described herein pursuant to Section 14(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder, including Regulation 14C, and serves as the notice required by Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law of the taking of a corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent of our stockholders. You do not need to do anything in response to this Notice and the Information Statement.

Summary of the Corporate Actions

Option Exchange

The holders of a majority of the Company's issued and outstanding shares of common stock (the Majority Stockholders ) have approved, by written consent dated September 1, 2015, a one-time stock option exchange program (the Option Exchange ) as described in detail in Item 1. Certain of our current U.S. employees and executive officers ( Eligible Participants ) holding eligible options to purchase shares of our common stock ( Eligible Options ) may participate in the Option Exchange. The Option Exchange will allow Eligible Participants to elect to surrender for cancellation certain options currently held by such participants in exchange for the grant of new, or replacement, options ( Replacement Options ). Former employees, directors or service providers are not eligible to participate. Stockholder approval is required for the Option Exchange described in this Information Statement under the listing rules of the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE Rules ) and the terms of the Company's 2013 Omnibus Incentive Plan (the 2013 Plan ). Such approval has been received by written consent dated September 1, 2015.

Options granted under the Company's 2010 Option Plan (the 2010 Plan ) are not Eligible Options and cannot be exchanged in the Option Exchange.

To implement the Option Exchange, the Company expects to commence an exchange offer to the Eligible Participants upon the terms and subject to the conditions of a written offer set forth in a tender offer statement on Schedule TO, including the exhibits thereto (the Tender Documents ), by filing the Tender Documents with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC ) on or about September 3, 2015. In no event will the Option Exchange close, or the replacement options be granted, prior to the date that is 20 business days after the Option Exchange commencement

(and, in any event, no earlier than the 20th calendar day after the Company mails this Notice and Information Statement to stockholders).

ESPP Amendment

The Majority Stockholders have also approved, by written consent dated September 1, 2015, an amendment (the ESPP Amendment ) to the Company s 2013 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the ESPP ) to allow the issuance of shares of common stock under the ESPP at a discount of 10% to market price of such shares at the end of the offer period and to make certain other administrative changes to the ESPP. The ESPP Amendment is described in more detail in Item 2. Stockholder approval is required for the ESPP Amendment pursuant to the terms of the ESPP. Such approval has been received by written consent dated September 1, 2015.

The ESPP Amendment is expected to become effective on September 23, 2015, the 20th calendar day after the Company mails the Notice and this Information Statement to Stockholders. We have not previously commenced an offering period under the ESPP but we may do so in the near future.

Voting and Vote Required

The Company is not seeking consent, authorizations or proxies from you. Under the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), the Company's amended and restated certificate of incorporation, the Company's amended and restated bylaws and the NYSE Rules, the Option Exchange and the ESPP Amendment may be approved, without a meeting of stockholders, by a resolution of our Board of Directors (the "Board"), followed by the written consent of stockholders representing a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of our common stock. As of the Record Date, the Company had 36,775,443 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Each share of our common stock is entitled to one vote. The written consent was executed by the Majority Stockholders, holding 20,050,409 shares of common stock, representing a majority of the voting power of our common stock. Accordingly, the written consent was executed by stockholders holding sufficient voting power to approve the actions contemplated by the written consent and no further stockholder action is required.

Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal

The DGCL does not provide dissenters' rights of appraisal to the Company's stockholders in connection with the matters approved by the written consent.

Notice Pursuant to the Company's Bylaws and Delaware General Corporation Law

Pursuant to Article II, Section 13(b) of our amended and restated bylaws and Section 228(e) of the DGCL, the Company is required to provide prompt notice of the taking of a corporate action by written consent to the Company's stockholders who have not consented in writing to such action. As of September 1, 2015, our current directors and executive officers (11 persons) as a group held unexercised options to purchase an aggregate of 212,134 shares of our common stock under the 2013 Plan, which represented approximately 43% of the shares subject to all outstanding options under the 2013 Plan. The percentages in the table

APPROVAL OF A ONE-TIME STOCK OPTION EXCHANGE PROGRAM

The Board and the Majority Stockholders have approved the Option Exchange, under which Eligible Participants who hold Eligible Options will be given a one-time opportunity to exchange the Eligible Options for the grant of an equal number of Replacement Options with lower exercise prices, which will be granted under the 2013 Plan.

We believe the Option Exchange, as designed, is in the best interest of our stockholders and the Company and positions us well for the future. If consummated, we believe the Option Exchange would enable us to:

assure that the existing equity awards provide meaningful compensatory opportunity to the Eligible Participants;

motivate and engage the Eligible Participants to continue to build stockholder value; provide an increased level of retention of our Eligible Participants in relation to the expense recorded with respect to the Eligible Options; and avoid increase in overhang and other expenses associated with granting incremental equity awards.

The Board approved, upon recommendation of the compensation committee of the Board (the Compensation Committee), the Option Exchange on September 1, 2015, and the Majority Stockholders approved the Option Exchange by written consent dated September 1, 2015. To implement the Option Exchange, we expect to commence an exchange offer to the Eligible Participants upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Tender Documents, by filing the Tender Documents with the SEC on or about September 3, 2015. Eligible Participants will be given at least 20 business days in which to accept the offer of the Replacement Options in exchange for the surrender of their Eligible Options. The surrendered Eligible Options will be cancelled immediately upon the expiration of this election period and the Replacement Options will be granted under the 2013 Plan, on the date of cancellation of the surrendered Eligible Options (the Option Exchange Date). The exercise price of the Replacement Options will be the closing price of our common stock on the Option Exchange Date. We expect the Option Exchange Date to occur on or about October 2, 2015. Eligible Participants, as well as stockholders and members of the public, are able to review the offer to exchange and other related documents filed by us with the SEC free of charge on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

Stockholder approval of the Option Exchange was required under the NYSE Rules and the terms of the 2013 Plan.

Overview

We have recently experienced a significant decline in our stock price and our stock price remains at a relatively low level compared to its previous price levels. As a result, our outstanding stock options have exercise prices significantly above the recent trading prices of our common stock. We believe these underwater stock options no longer provide meaningful compensatory opportunity to the option holders and, accordingly, are no longer effective as incentives to retain and motivate our key contributors. We believe that many option holders perceive these options to have little or no value, therefore reducing the options value as a means to align the incentives of our key contributors with our stockholders. In addition, although these stock options are not likely to be exercised as long as our stock price is lower than the applicable exercise price, unless they are surrendered or cancelled they will remain outstanding with the potential to dilute stockholders interests for up to the full term of the options, while delivering little or no retentive or incentive value.

The objective of our equity incentive programs has been, and continues to be, to link the personal interests of equity incentive plan participants to those of our stockholders, and we believe that the Option Exchange is an important component in our efforts to achieve that goal.

Table of Contents

Moreover, because of the large number of underwater options, granting additional, incremental equity awards without cancelling any previous awards would further increase our overhang and further dilute stockholder interests and increase our non-cash operating expenses because we would need to expense both the Replacement Options and any remaining unrecognized compensation expense related to the Legible Options, which would decrease our results of operations and could negatively affect our stock price.

We have granted options at varying times, having a broad range of exercise prices. As of September 1, 2015, options to purchase an aggregate of 491,034 shares of our common stock were outstanding under the 2013 Plans, and 2,887,691 shares of our common stock remained available for future issuance under the 2013 Plan. Of these, options to purchase an aggregate of 445,178 shares of our common stock were held by Eligible Participants and would be Eligible Options for purposes of the Option Exchange. All of the outstanding stock options under the 2013 Plans have a weighted average exercise price of $24.24 and a weighted average remaining life of 2.7 years, while the Eligible Options have a weighted average exercise price of $23.79 and a weighted average remaining life of 2.8 years.

Options granted under the 2010 Plan are not Eligible Options and cannot be exchanged in the Option Exchange.

None of the former executive officers and senior members of the Company who have departed in the recent months, including Jill Granoff, our former Chief Executive Officer, is eligible to participate in the Option Exchange. Our Interim Chief Executive Officer and Interim Chief Financial Officer are also not eligible to participate in the Option Exchange.

Summary of Material Terms of Option Exchange

Eligible Options

The Option Exchange will be open to all persons who hold Eligible Options. Eligible Options are options to purchase shares of our common stock:

granted under the 2013 Plan; and held by an Eligible Participant who is still employed by us as an employee or executive officer as of the commencement of the Option Exchange and who remains employed by us through the Option Exchange Date.

The options granted under the 2010 Plan are not eligible options and cannot be exchanged in the Option Exchange.

Terms of the Option Exchange

If the Option Exchange is consummated, on the Option Exchange Date, each Eligible Option will be exchanged for the grant of a Replacement Option under the 2013 Plan. The terms of the Replacement Options are as follows:

One-for-One Exchange. Each Eligible Option tendered for exchange will be exchanged, on a one-for-one basis, for the grant of a Replacement Option to purchase the same number of shares of common stock as were subject to the Eligible Option. For example, if an Eligible Participant tenders an Eligible Option to purchase 1,000 shares of common stock for exchange, such Eligible Participant will receive a Replacement Option to purchase 1,000 shares of common stock.

New Grant Date. The grant date for the Replacement Options will be the Option Exchange Date.

New Exercise Price. Each Replacement Option will have an exercise price equal to the closing stock price of our common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on the Option Exchange Date.

Table of Contents

New Vesting Schedules. All Replacement Options will vest over four years, vesting on each of the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the Option Exchange Date, subject to your remaining continuously employed with the Company through each such vesting date. For example, an Eligible Option with a three-year vesting schedule vesting on November 1, 2015, November 1, 2016 and November 1, 2017 would be exchanged for a Replacement Option scheduled to vest over four years commencing from October 2, 2015, assuming the Option Exchange Date occurs on that date, with the first vesting date being October 2, 2016. Each Replacement Option will have the new vesting schedule regardless of whether the surrendered option was partially vested.

New Ten-Year Term. Each Replacement Option will have a ten-year term from the Option Exchange Date.

Non-Qualified Stock Options. Each Eligible Option is a non-qualified stock option under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code ) and each Replacement Option will continue to be treated under the Code as a non-qualified stock option following the Option Exchange.

Other Terms Governed by the 2013 Plan. The terms and conditions of the Replacement Options will, other than the terms discussed above, have terms and conditions substantially similar to the surrendered Eligible Options and will be governed by the terms and conditions of the 2013 Plan and the stock option agreements entered into thereunder evidencing such Replacement Options.

Eligibility

If implemented, the Option Exchange will be open to all persons who are employed by us on the date of commencement of the Option Exchange. To be an Eligible Participant, such persons must remain employed by us through the Option Exchange Date. As of September 1, 2015, we estimate there were approximately 55 Eligible Participants. If an option holder is no longer an employee with us for any reason on the Option Exchange Date, even if such option holder had elected to participate and had tendered the Eligible Options for exchange, such holder's tender will automatically be deemed withdrawn and the holder will not participate in the Option Exchange. Such option holder will retain the outstanding options in accordance with their original terms and conditions, and the holder may exercise them during a limited period of time following termination of service in accordance with their terms and to the extent that they are vested.

None of the former executive officers and senior members of the Company who have departed in the recent months, including Jill Granoff, our former Chief Executive Officer, Lisa Klinger, our former Chief Financial Officer, Karin Gregersen, our former President and Chief Creative Officer, our former general counsel and our former senior vice president of retail operations, is eligible to participate in the Option Exchange. Our Interim Chief Executive Officer and Interim Chief Financial Officer are also not eligible to participate in the Option Exchange.

Election to Participate

Participation in the Option Exchange will be voluntary. Under the Option Exchange, Eligible Participants will not be permitted to elect which of their Eligible Options they wish to exchange for Replacement Options on a grant-by-grant basis. Instead, Eligible Participants will be required to surrender all of their Eligible Options if they elect to participate in the Option Exchange.

Return of Eligible Options Surrendered

The Eligible Options surrendered for exchange will be cancelled and all shares of common stock that were subject to such surrendered Eligible Options will again become available for future awards under the 2013 Plan pursuant to the terms of the 2013 Plan.

Although the final terms of the Option Exchange are expected to be materially similar to the terms described in this item, our Board may, in its sole discretion, change the terms of the Option Exchange to take into account a change in circumstances and may determine not to implement the Option Exchange.

Table of Contents

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a summary of the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of participating in the Option Exchange. A more detailed summary of the applicable tax considerations to participating holders are provided in the Tender Documents filed with the SEC. The Option Exchange should be treated as a non-taxable exchange for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and we and our participating optionees should recognize no income for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the issuance of the Replacement Options.

Accounting Impact

If the Option Exchange is not consummated, we will continue to be obligated to recognize approximately $3.32 million of additional stock-based compensation expense with respect to Eligible Options over the remaining estimated life of the original awards, even if the stock options are never exercised. As a result of the Option Exchange, we believe we will incur approximately $0.94 million in additional compensation expense attributable to the incremental fair value of the Replacement Options granted to Eligible Participants in exchange for surrendered Eligible Options, measured as of the date such awards are granted. The incremental compensation expense associated with the Replacement Options under the Option Exchange will be recognized over the expected life of the new awards. As a result of the Option Exchange, we would expect to recognize a total non-cash accounting charge of approximately $4.26 million over the expected life of the Replacement Options.

Potential Modification to Terms to Comply with Governmental Requirements

The terms of the Option Exchange will be described in the Tender Documents filed with the SEC. Although we do not anticipate that the SEC would require us to modify the terms materially, it is possible that we will need to alter the terms of the Option Exchange to comply with potential SEC comments.

Benefits of the Option Exchange to Eligible Participants

Because the decision whether to participate in the Option Exchange is completely voluntary, we are not able to predict which Eligible Participants will participate.

Effect on Stockholders

The Option Exchange was designed to provide renewed incentives and motivate the Eligible Participants to continue to create stockholder value. We are unable to predict the precise impact of the Option Exchange on our stockholders because we are not able to predict which Eligible Participants will participate.

Based on the assumptions described above, if all Eligible Options are exchanged, options to purchase 445,178 shares of common stock will be surrendered and cancelled and Replacement Options covering an equal number of shares will be granted. Following the Option Exchange, if all Eligible Options are exchanged, options to purchase 445,178 shares will be outstanding, with a weighted average remaining term of 2.8 years. As of September 1, 2015, the total number of shares of our common stock outstanding was 36,775,443.

Options granted under the 2010 Plan are not Eligible Options and cannot be exchanged in the Option Exchange.

APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT TO 2013 EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

On September 1, 2015, the Board approved, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, the ESPP Amendment to allow the issuance of shares of common stock under the ESPP at a discount of 10% to market price at the end of the offer period. The Majority Stockholders approved the ESPP Amendment by written consent on the same day.

The ESPP was originally adopted by the Board on November 21, 2013 and was approved by the stockholders on the same date. Set forth below are the summary of the ESPP Amendment and the summary of the material terms of the ESPP as currently in effect. The summary of the ESPP is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the ESPP, as amended, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A. No offering period has been authorized to commence to date under the ESPP.

The ESPP Amendment

The ESPP Amendment will allow the issuance of shares of common stock under the ESPP at a discount of 10% to market price of such shares at the end of the offer period. The ESPP originally allowed issuance of shares of common stock at a discount of 5% to market price of such shares (i) at the end of the offer period or (ii) on the first day of the offer period, whichever was lower.

The ESPP Amendment also added that the ESPP Committee (as defined below) may limit the aggregate payroll deductions per option period as well as the maximum number of shares to be purchased by each participant per option period to the extent that such limitations are lower than the thresholds under the ESPP.

Summary of Material Terms of ESPP

General

Our ESPP is designed to encourage employees to become stockholders and to increase their ownership of our common stock to align their interests with stockholders. The ESPP is designed to qualify as an employee stock purchase plan under Section 423 of the Code.

Eligibility

Any full-time or part-time employee of the Company or its subsidiary who customarily works for the Company for a minimum of twenty hours a week (each an ESPP Eligible Employee ) is eligible to participate in the ESPP. As of September 1, 2015, the Company had approximately 491 ESPP Eligible Employees.

Administration

Our Board or a subcommittee thereof (the ESPP Committee ) has the authority to administer the ESPP and the ESPP Committee shall have the authority to administer the ESPP and to make and adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of the ESPP or the Code. The ESPP Committee may from time to time delegate some or all authority to an employee as a plan manager. The compensation committee of the Board (the Compensation Committee) acts as the ESPP Committee.

Common Stock Issuance Under the ESPP

The maximum number of shares of common stock of the Company available for sale under the ESPP is 1,000,000 shares, of which up to 500,000 shares may be purchased under the ESPP per offering period. These shares may be newly issued shares, existing treasury shares or new purchases in the open market, as determined by the ESPP Committee in its sole discretion.

Offering Periods

Under the ESPP, the ESPP Committee shall designate an offering period not to exceed 27 months. Unless otherwise determined by the ESPP Committee, each offering period will be a six-month period commencing on each April 1 and October 1 following the effective date of the ESPP. No offering period has been authorized to commence to date under the ESPP.

Participation

An ESPP Eligible Employee who will have at least 90 days of continuous service at the start of an offering period may participate in the ESPP by completing designated enrollment procedures. No ESPP Eligible Employee may participate if such person possesses 5% or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of stock of the Company or any subsidiary. The ESPP Committee may exclude certain highly compensated employees or officers to the extent such exclusion is applied in an identical manner.

A participant may contribute between 1% and 10% of their base pay during an offering period. A participant may not increase their contribution during the offer period, but may decrease it not more than once per offering period. A participant may change the contribution for any subsequent offering period by filing a notice with the Company prior to the date the applicable offering period commences. A participant that withdraws during the offering period may again become a participant for a subsequent offering period upon completion of enrollment procedures designated pursuant to the terms of the ESPP.

Share Purchases

Shares of common stock are purchased on the applicable exercise date(s), which is the last date of the offering period. After the effectiveness of the ESPP Amendment, the purchase price of the shares shall be 90% of the market price as of the last date of the offering period.

On each exercise date, the amount in a participant's account shall be charged with the aggregate price of the largest number of whole shares of common stock that can be purchased with such amount, subject to individual and aggregate share limitations under the applicable offering period established by the ESPP. No fractional shares will be issued.

A participant may withdraw from the ESPP at any time by filing notice of withdrawal prior to the close of business on the date immediately preceding the applicable exercise date. Upon withdrawal, the entire amount, if any, in the participant's account shall be refunded without interest.

Limitations on Purchase

Participants may not accrue the right to purchase stock under the ESPP (or any other tax-qualified stock purchase plan) at a rate per offering period exceeding the lesser of $25,000 or 10% of the participant's base salary at the commencement of the offering period, in each case at market price of such shares, and such right to purchase stock shall not accrue at a rate which exceeds $25,000 in the aggregate during any calendar year. Furthermore, the maximum number of shares of common stock that may be purchased by each participant in any offering period is 500,000 shares. Pursuant to the ESPP Amendment, the ESPP Committee may establish lower limitation thresholds prior to the commencement of each offering period.

Termination of Eligibility and Transferability

If a participant ceases to be eligible for any reason, the dollar amount and the number of unissued shares in such participant's account will be refunded or distributed to the participant, or in the case of death, the participant's beneficiary or estate. Rights of a participant under the ESPP shall not be transferable.

Adjustments

In the event of any stock dividend, stock split, combination or reclassification of shares or any other increase or decrease in the number of shares of common stock effected without receipt of consideration, the ESPP Committee in its discretion shall make adjustments in the number and class of shares that may be reserved for purchase, or purchased, under the ESPP and the purchase price.

Insufficient Shares

If the aggregate funds available for purchase of shares of common stock would cause an issuance of shares in excess of the shares then available for issuance under the ESPP, the ESPP Committee shall proportionately reduce the number of shares which would otherwise be purchased by each participant to eliminate the excess, and the ESPP shall terminate immediately after the applicable exercise date.

Amendment or Termination of the ESPP

The Board or the Compensation Committee may amend the ESPP from time to time, except that, without shareholder approval, no amendment may increase the aggregate number of shares reserved under the ESPP (other than otherwise set forth under the ESPP), materially increase the benefits accruing to participants or materially modify the requirements as to eligibility for participation in the ESPP. Such amendment must be made in accordance with the Code and any applicable laws or regulations, and shall not cause rights issued under the ESPP to fail to meet the requirements for employee stock purchase plans as defined in Section 423 of the Code. Shareholder approval shall be obtained to the extent necessary to comply with Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, Section 423 of the Code or any other applicable law or regulation.

The ESPP shall continue in effect through and including September 30, 2023, unless otherwise terminated in accordance with the ESPP. In addition, the Board may terminate an offering period in progress and provide in its discretion that participants' then outstanding account balances shall be used to purchase shares pursuant to the terms of the ESPP or returned to the applicable participants.

New Plan Benefits

No purchase rights under the ESPP have been granted on the basis of the ESPP Amendment.

Each executive officer is an ESPP Eligible Employee under the ESPP. The ESPP Committee has not authorized commencement of an offering period under the ESPP. No amount or benefit will be received or allocated to any of our executive officers until such time the ESPP Committee authorizes commencement of an offering period.

Federal Tax Consequences

This section provides a brief summary of certain significant Federal income tax consequences of the ESPP, under existing United States law. This summary is based upon the Code, as well as administrative and judicial interpretations of the Code as in effect on the date hereof. If Federal tax laws, or interpretations of such laws, change in the future, possibly with retroactive effect, the information provided in this section may no longer be accurate. This summary applies to you only if, for United States tax purposes, you are a citizen or resident of the United States and your tax home or abode is in the United States. This summary does not (1) consider state, local, or foreign tax consequences or (2) discuss the effect of gift, estate, or inheritance taxes. Any of these tax considerations not discussed in this section may be significant to you. In addition, this discussion does not apply to every specific transaction that may occur in connection with the ESPP. Therefore, it is important that you consult with your own tax advisor before taking or not taking any action with respect to the ESPP. References to Vince in this section summarizing certain U.S. Federal income tax consequences mean Vince Holding Corp. or its subsidiary that employs the person participating in the ESPP.

Table of Contents

Grant and exercise of options. You will not recognize any taxable income at the time you elect to participate in the ESPP and receive an option to purchase common stock under the ESPP. The amounts deducted from your compensation and contributed to the ESPP during option periods will be included in your taxable ordinary income. These after-tax ESPP contributions will be subject to withholding of all applicable income taxes and other employment taxes.

The ESPP is intended to qualify for the favorable income tax consequences of section 423 of the Code. As such, you will not recognize any taxable income at the time you purchase shares of common stock upon exercise of your option under the ESPP, even though the purchase price is less than the market value of the shares.

You are, however, responsible for reporting as ordinary income the amount of dividends paid on shares of Vince common stock held in your name. Otherwise, there are no tax consequences until you actually sell your stock.

Disposition of shares. Certain tax advantages apply to shares purchased under the ESPP if you continue to hold the shares for at least (a) two years following the grant date of your option, which is the first day of the option period, and (b) one year following the date such shares are purchased upon exercise of your option, and if you remain an employee of Vince at all times from the grant until the exercise of your option, or if you should die while owning the shares.

If the holding period requirements described above are met, you will recognize taxable ordinary income upon disposition of such shares, or death, equal to the lesser of (1) the excess of the fair market value of the shares when the option was granted, which is the first day of the option period, over the option price, or (2) the excess of the fair market value of such shares at the time of such disposition or death over the purchase price paid for the shares. Vince will not be entitled to any tax deduction with respect to such a disposition. Your basis in the common stock, for purposes of computing capital gain or loss on disposition, is equal to your purchase price plus any such ordinary income that you recognize upon disposition of your shares. Any proceeds received for the shares in excess of such adjusted basis will be taxable as capital gain. If you should sell such shares for less than the purchase price that you previously paid upon exercise of your option, you will recognize no ordinary income, and you will have a capital loss equal to the difference between the sale price and the purchase price previously paid.

If you dispose of shares purchased under the ESPP before meeting the requisite holding periods described above, you will be required to report as taxable ordinary income at the time of the disposition the amount by which the fair market value of the shares on the date of purchase (i.e., the exercise date of your option) exceeds your purchase price for the shares. Vince will generally be allowed a tax deduction in the amount of such ordinary income that is included in your taxable income as a result of such a disposition. For purposes of Vince's tax deduction, you will be deemed to have included such amount as ordinary income on your tax return if Vince satisfies applicable Internal Revenue Service Form W-2 reporting requirements with respect to such income by the time Vince files its Federal income tax return claiming the deduction. Your tax basis in the common stock, for purposes of computing capital gain or loss on disposition, is equal to your purchase price plus the amount so reported as taxable ordinary income upon disposition of such shares. Any proceeds received for the shares in excess of their adjusted basis will be taxable as capital gain; if such adjusted basis exceeds the amount received for such shares, such excess will be a capital loss.

Your holding period for any shares purchased under the ESPP will commence on the date your option is exercised. If you have a net capital gain for your taxable year attributable to the sale of any shares purchased under the ESPP, the rate of tax imposed on such net capital gain will depend upon the length of the period that you held such shares and your tax bracket.

Tax withholding obligations. If any income or employment taxes are required to be withheld when you exercise your option, or when shares are issued under the ESPP, or when you dispose of such shares, we may require that you remit to us the amount necessary to satisfy such taxes, or we may make other arrangements, including withholding from your compensation or other amounts due to you, to satisfy such taxes. If applicable, we may condition delivery of certificates evidencing shares purchased under the ESPP on satisfaction of such tax withholding obligations.

Table of Contents*SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table contains information about the beneficial ownership of our common stock as of September 1, 2015:

each person, or group of persons, who beneficially owns more than 5% of our capital stock;

each named executive officer within the meaning of Rule 402(m)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Named Executive Officers");

each of our directors; and all directors and Named Executive Officers as a group.

Beneficial ownership and percentage ownership are determined in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC and include voting or investment power with respect to shares of our common stock. This information does not necessarily indicate beneficial ownership for any other purpose. In computing the number of shares beneficially owned by a person and the percentage ownership of that person, shares of common stock subject to restrictions, options or warrants held by that person that are currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of September 1, 2015 are deemed outstanding. Such shares, however, are not deemed outstanding for the purposes of computing the percentage ownership of any other person. Except as indicated in the footnotes to the following table or pursuant to applicable community property laws, each stockholder named in the table has sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares set forth opposite such stockholder's name.

Our calculation of the percentage of beneficial ownership is based on 36,775,443 shares of our common stock outstanding on September 1, 2015.
