NARRATIVE

Provectus Biopharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company), is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K within the prescribed time period because it requires additional time to ensure adequate disclosure of certain information required to be included in the Form 10-K. As disclosed in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Commission on March 16, 2016 (the Form 8-K), the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors completed its investigation of travel expense advances and reimbursement of travel expenses to H. Craig Dees, Ph.D., the Company's former Chief Executive Officer, Chairman of the Board of Directors and one of the co-founders of the Company, during 2013, 2014 and 2015. As reported in the Form 8-K, the Company is currently proceeding as quickly as possible to complete its quantification and evaluation of the specific impact of the issues identified in the Audit Committee's report on the Company's financial statements. The Company is also evaluating the impact of the Audit Committee's findings on the Company's internal control over financial reporting. The Company currently anticipates that its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 will be filed as soon as practicable and no later than fifteen calendar days following its prescribed due date.
