Explanatory Note: The following communication was issued to employees of McDermott International, Inc.

Colleagues,

Our combination planning effort with CB&I is well underway and we have already achieved several significant milestones.

Recently, senior leaders from both McDermott and CB&I came together for the first time at our Houston headquarters to discuss our transition to a premier, fully integrated EPCI company. The full-day planning meeting went well and we were happy to hear so many excellent and constructive ideas being discussed for our future together.

We also achieved two significant milestones critical to the approval of the combination.

On January 24, we were notified that the Federal Trade Commission granted early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino (HSR) Antitrust Improvements Act for the proposed combination. By waiving the waiting period, the government is essentially giving us a green light to proceed a good sign as we clear a major hurdle ahead of schedule.

Second, we filed a Form S-4 Registration Statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The SEC requires publicly traded companies to file an S4 in connection with a transaction such as the proposed combination with CB&I. At 496 pages, the S-4 provides a wealth of information that shareholders of both companies will use to inform their decision about the combination. The SEC will review the S-4 and provide questions or requests for more information, which we will address as quickly as possible. We are tracking the progress closely and will share updates when appropriate.

We're excited about the progress we've made toward closing the transaction, but there is still a lot of work to do before our combination can be completed. This week, the integration planning teams from both companies will meet again for three days of detailed planning sessions. We will report back to you after those meetings with feedback.

Thank you for your continued hard work and support. Stay focused on our daily business. We'll keep you updated as we move forward.

If you have any questions about the combination of McDermott and CB&I or want to propose a future update topic, please contact questions@mcdermott.com.
