(1) Includes shares issuable upon conversion of the Issuer's Series D Preferred Stock and Series E Convertible Preferred Stock ("Series E Preferred Stock") and upon exercise of warrants. The Certificates of Designation authorizing the issuance of the Series D and Series E Preferred Stock provide that the number of shares which a holder may convert at any time may not exceed that number of shares which would result in the holder becoming the beneficial owner of 4.99% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Issuer under Rule 13d-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Beneficial Ownership Limitation"). Notwithstanding the Beneficial Ownership Limitation, holders of the Series D Preferred Stock are entitled to vote together with holders of the common stock as a single class on all matters submitted to stockholders for approval, with each share of Series D Preferred Stock entitled to cast a number of votes equal to the number of shares such holder would be entitled to receive upon conversion, currently 14.084506 shares. Holders of the Series E Convertible Preferred Stock are not entitled to vote, except as specifically provided in the Certificate of designation or as required by law. Each share of Series E Preferred Stock is currently convertible into 20 shares of common stock. In computing the number of shares of common stock beneficially owned it is assumed that all shares of Series D Preferred Stock and Series E Preferred Stock have been converted into common stock. In computing voting power, no effect has been given to shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Series E Preferred Stock.

DecisionPoint Systems Announces Five New Directors,
Rescheduling of Annual Meeting of Stockholders

IRVINE, CA (October 6, 2014) ... DecisionPoint™ Systems, Inc. (OTCQB: DPSI and OTCQB: DPSIP), a leading provider and integrator of Enterprise Mobility and Wireless Applications, announced today a restructuring of its Board of Directors, including the resignations of five former directors and the appointment of five new directors.

Effective as of the close of business on October 3, 2014, James DeSocio, 59, was appointed to the Board and five of the Company's incumbent directors, Lawrence Yelin, Jay B. Sheehy, David M. Rifkin, Marc Ferland and Donald Dalicandro, resigned from the Board, leaving incumbent director Robert Schroeder and Mr. DeSocio on the Board. Thereafter, Mr. Schroeder and Mr. DeSocio appointed four additional new directors, Michael N. Taglich, 49; John Guttilla, 58; Stanley P. Jaworski, Jr., 64; and Paul A. Seid, 66. The Board is now comprised of six directors. Mr. Dalicandro was authorized to serve as a Board observer until the end of the applicable term under his employment agreement with the Company.

Interim Chairman of the Board Robert Schroeder commented, "The new Board is very strong in experience, and very well versed in technology and the enterprise. We believe that DecisionPoint can have a bright future, based on its strong products, its roster of blue-chip customers, and its reputation for systems that deliver what they promise. Our first order of business is to find a new CEO capable of taking the Company forward with strength and determination. We also wish the outgoing directors well, and thank them for their service."

These changes settle differences between the prior Board and the Company's largest stockholders, Michael N. Taglich and Robert F. Taglich. On September 10, 2014, the prior Board filed a proxy statement with the Securities Exchange Commission in preparation for conducting an annual meeting of stockholders on October 15, 2014. The proxy statement proposed the reelection of the prior Board and the election of Mr. DeSocio as a new, additional director. On September 16, 2014, Michael and Robert Taglich filed a preliminary proxy statement with the SEC, contesting the reelection of the five directors who have now resigned and proposing an alternative slate of directors, including all of the six individuals who now comprise the Board.

The outgoing directors said they believe their efforts have contributed to recent operating improvements at the Company. Nevertheless, it is their belief that the alternative board slate that was proposed would inevitably be elected at the coming annual stockholders meeting. Therefore, to avoid expense for the Company and to help contribute to a smooth transition on the Board, the outgoing directors have resigned from the Board. Most of them are Company stockholders and wish the Company every success.

Annual Meeting of Stockholders

The newly restructured Board has determined to reschedule the Company's annual meeting of stockholders from the previously announced October 15, 2014 to October 28, 2014 at 10:00AM EDT. The meeting will be held at the Courtyard by Marriott, New York LaGuardia Airport, 90-10 Grand Central Parkway, East Elmhurst, NY 11369.

The Company expects that, in the near future, it will distribute to its stockholders a revised proxy statement that will propose the election for the coming year of a full slate of directors, including Mr. Schroeder, Mr. DeSocio, Mr. Taglich, Mr. Guttilla, Mr. Jaworski and Mr. Seid.

The new directors are:

James F. DeSocio Jim DeSocio has more than 20 years of international enterprise software sales experience.
