Statements contained in this prospectus and any accompanying prospectus supplement about the provisions or contents of any agreement or other document are not necessarily complete. If the SEC rules and regulations require that an agreement or document be filed as an exhibit to the shelf registration statement, please see that agreement or document for a complete description of these matters. The registration statement may be read at the SEC website or at the SEC office mentioned under the section of this prospectus titled “Where You Can Find More Information.”

You should rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus and any prospectus supplement. ### A WARNING ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, any accompanying prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated by reference contain or incorporate statements that are considered “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of United States securities laws. Forward-looking statements typically are identified with use of terms such as “may,” “will,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “potential,” “could,” and similar words, although some forward-looking statements are expressed differently. Our ability to predict results or the actual effect of future plans or strategies is inherently uncertain. You should be aware that the Company’s actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements due to a number of factors, including, but not limited to: burdens imposed by federal and state regulation; changes in accounting regulation or standards of banks; credit risk; exposure to general and local economic conditions; risks associated with rapid increase or decrease in prevailing interest rates; consolidation within the banking industry; competition from banks and other financial institutions; our ability to attract and retain relationship officers and other key personnel, and technological developments; and other risks discussed in more detail in the section titled “Risk Factors” below.

Edgar Filing: ENTERPRISE FINANCIAL SERVICES CORP - Form S-3

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements, which reflect management's analysis and expectations only as of the date of the statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and the Company does not intend, and undertakes no obligation, to publicly revise or update forward-looking statements after the date of this prospectus, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law. Any investor in the Company should also consider all risks and uncertainties disclosed in our SEC filings described below under the section of this prospectus titled "Where You Can Find More Information," all of which are accessible on the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>. You should understand that it is not possible to predict or identify all risk factors. Consequently, you should not consider such disclosures to be a complete discussion of all potential risks or uncertainties.

OUR COMPANY

The following summary does not contain all of the information that may be important to you or that you should consider before deciding to purchase the securities, and is qualified in its entirety by the more detailed information appearing elsewhere or incorporated by reference in this prospectus. ### RISK FACTORS

An investment in our securities involves a high degree of risk. Before purchasing any of our securities, you should carefully consider the risks described in the section "Risk Factors" contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, which has been filed with the SEC and incorporated herein by reference, and the other information contained in this prospectus, any applicable prospectus supplement, or otherwise incorporated by reference herein. Any of these risks could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, or ability to make distributions to our stockholders. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently deem to be immaterial may also materially and adversely affect us. We will not receive any proceeds from any sale of the securities by the selling stockholders pursuant to this prospectus. The selling stockholders will receive all such proceeds and will pay any underwriting discounts and commissions and expenses incurred by the selling stockholders for the brokerage, accounting, tax or legal services or any other expenses incurred by the selling stockholders in disposing of the securities covered by this prospectus. We will bear the costs, fees and expenses incurred in effecting the registration of the securities covered by this prospectus, including, without limitation, all registration and filing fees and fees and expenses of our counsel and our accountants.

DESCRIPTION OF COMMON STOCK

The following is a description of the material features and rights of our common stock. This summary does not purport to be exhaustive and may not contain all the information that is important to you. Therefore, you should read our certificate of incorporation (as amended and together with all certificates of designations) and bylaws which have been filed with the SEC.

General

Under our certificate of incorporation, as amended, the Company has authority, without further shareholder action, to provide for the issuance of up to 30,000,000 shares of common stock, par value of $.01 per share, and 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value of $.01 per share. As of March 1, 2010, there were 35,000 shares of our preferred stock issued and outstanding (all of which consisted of our Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A, liquidation preference amount $1,000 per share (the "Series A Preferred Stock"), which was issued to the United States Department of the Treasury on December 19, 2008 pursuant to the Treasury's Capital Purchase Program. Our outstanding shares of common stock are, and the shares of common stock to be issued in this offering will be, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable. As of March 1, 2010, there were 14,851,609 shares of our common stock outstanding, held by approximately 662 stockholders of record. In addition, 803,735 shares of the EFSC's common stock were reserved for issuance upon the exercise of options that have been granted under our existing stock option plans.

EFSC may amend its certificate of incorporation from time to time to increase the number of authorized shares of its common stock. Any such amendment would require the approval of the holders of a majority of EFSC's stock entitled to vote and, in certain circumstances discussed in Voting Rights below, would also require the vote or consent of holders of at least 66 2/3% of the Series A Preferred Stock. EFSC's common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "EFSC."

Certain Restrictions on Capital Securities

We are subject to various regulatory policies and requirements relating to the payment of dividends, including requirements to maintain adequate capital above regulatory minimums. The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or the Federal Reserve Board, is authorized to determine, under certain circumstances relating to the financial condition of a financial holding company such as us, that the payment of dividends would be an unsafe or unsound practice and to prohibit payment thereof. In addition, we are subject to Delaware state laws relating to the payment of dividends.

We depend on dividends, distributions and other payments from our banking subsidiary, Enterprise Bank, to fund dividend payments on our common and preferred stock. Missouri state banking laws and regulations limit the amount of dividends or other capital distributions that Enterprise Bank may pay generally based on current operating earnings and regulatory capital requirements.

In addition, Enterprise Bank is also subject to regulation and supervision by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or FDIC. The FDIC has the authority, after notice and a hearing, to prevent a depository institution under its jurisdiction from engaging in an unsafe or unsound practice. Depending on the financial condition of the depository institution, the payment of dividends could constitute an unsafe or unsound practice. Under the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991, a depository institution may not pay any dividend if payment would cause it to become undercapitalized or if it already is undercapitalized. The federal agencies have also issued policy statements that provide that bank holding companies and insured banks should generally only pay dividends out of current operating earnings.

Dividends

Generally speaking, holders of shares of our common stock will be entitled to receive dividends, if and when they are authorized and declared by the Company's board of directors, out of assets that the Company may legally use to pay dividends. However, the ability of the Company to pay dividends on our common stock will be subject to the preferential rights of any outstanding shares of our preferred stock. Under the terms of our Series A Preferred Stock, we may not increase the dividend paid on our common stock above $0.0525 per share per quarter without the consent of the United States Department of the Treasury until the earlier to occur of (i) December 19, 2011, (ii) the date on which all Series A Preferred Stock is redeemed in whole, or (iii) the United States Department of the Treasury has transferred all of the Series A Preferred Stock to third parties. In addition, our ability to declare or pay dividends or distributions on, or repurchase shares of our common stock, will be subject to restrictions in the event we fail to declare and pay full dividends on our Series A Preferred Stock (or set aside a sum sufficient for payment thereof).

Any future determination relating to dividend policy will be made at the discretion of EFSC's board of directors and will depend on a number of factors, including, without limitation, our future earnings, capital requirements, financial condition, future prospects and such other factors as EFSC's board of directors may deem relevant.

Voting Rights

Except as otherwise required by law and except as provided by the terms of any other class or series of stock, holders of our common stock have the exclusive power to vote on all matters presented to EFSC's stockholders, including the election of directors; provided, that holders of our preferred stock may have the exclusive right to elect directors in certain circumstances, including, without limitation, if we fail to make certain dividend payments. Holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote per share, provided that holders of our common stock have the right to cumulate votes in the annual election of directors.

The terms of the Series A Preferred Stock provide that we must obtain the approval of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of the Series A Preferred Stock in order to effect or validate:

- any amendment or alteration to our certificate of incorporation or the certificate of designation for the Series A Preferred Stock to authorize or create or increase the authorized amount of, or issue, any shares of, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for shares of, any class or series of stock ranking senior to the Series A Preferred Stock with respect to either or both the payment of dividends and/or the distribution of assets upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up;
- any amendment, alteration or repeal of any provision to our certificate of incorporation or the certificate of designation for the Series A Preferred Stock that would adversely affect the rights, preferences, privileges or voting powers of holders of the Series A Preferred Stock; and/or
- any merger, exchange or similar transaction which would adversely affect the rights of holders of the Senior A Preferred Stock.

Liquidation/Dissolution Rights

Generally speaking, the right of holders of our common stock to receive proceeds from the liquidation or dissolution of EFSC will be subordinate to the preferential rights of holders of any preferred stock or other senior securities. In the event EFSC voluntarily or involuntarily liquidates, dissolves or winds up its affairs, holders of our issued and outstanding preferred stock, including, without limitation the Series A Preferred Stock, will be entitled to receive an amount per share equal to a fixed liquidation preference per share applicable to each series of preferred stock, plus any accrued and unpaid dividends, whether or not declared, to the date of payment. Holders of our preferred stock will be entitled to receive such total liquidation amount out of EFSC's assets that are available for distribution to stockholders, after payment or provision for payment of EFSC's debts and other liabilities but before any distribution of assets is made to holders of our common stock. Subject to these preferential rights of our preferred stock and the preferential rights of any other class or series of stock, holders of shares of our common stock are entitled to receive, in cash or in kind, in proportion to their holdings, the assets that EFSC may legally use to pay distributions after EFSC pays or makes adequate provision for all of EFSC's debts and liabilities if EFSC is liquidated, dissolved or its affairs are wound up.

Other Rights

Holders of our common stock do not have preemptive rights under the Delaware General Corporation Law, or EFSC's certificate of incorporation (as amended and together with all certificates of designations) or bylaws. Shares of our common stock are not redeemable and have no subscription or conversion rights.

Transfer Agent

The transfer agent and registrar for the Common Stock is Computershare, Inc., in Canton, Massachusetts.

Restrictions on Ownership

The Bank Holding Company Act requires any “bank holding company,” as defined in the Bank Holding Company Act, to obtain the approval of the Federal Reserve Board prior to the acquisition of 5% or more of our common stock. Any person, other than a bank holding company, is required to obtain prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board to acquire 10% or more of our common stock under the Change in Bank Control Act. Any holder of 25% or more of our common stock, or a holder of 5% or more if such holder otherwise exercises a “controlling influence” over us, is subject to regulation as a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act.

Certain Anti-takeover Effects

EFSC’s certificate of incorporation (as amended and together with all certificates of designations) and bylaws contain various protective provisions that would have the effect of impeding an attempt to change or remove EFSC’s board of directors or to gain control of its outstanding capital stock, as well as provisions that limit liability or provide indemnification for directors and executive officers. These provisions are discussed in more detail below.

- Authorized but Unissued Stock. Authorized but unissued shares of our common stock and our preferred stock are available for future issuance without stockholder approval. These additional shares may be utilized for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings to raise additional capital, corporate acquisitions and employee benefit plans. The existence of authorized but unissued and unreserved common stock and/or preferred stock may enable EFSC’s board of directors to issue shares to persons friendly to current management, which could render more difficult or discourage any attempt to obtain control of EFSC by means of a proxy contest, tender offer, merger or otherwise, and thereby protect the continuity of EFSC’s management.
- Limitations on Liability. EFSC’s certificate of incorporation (as amended and together with all certificates of designations) contains a provision which, subject to the exceptions described below, indemnifies EFSC’s directors from individual liability to EFSC or its stockholders for monetary damages for any breach of such director’s fiduciary duty as a director. This provision does not indemnify the director (i) for violating his or her duty of loyalty to EFSC or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for liability under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law relating to unlawful dividends and distributions, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. In addition, the bylaws of EFSC require EFSC to indemnify any person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of service by such person as a director or officer of EFSC. Such directors and officers are entitled to be indemnified against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding, except that no payments may be made with respect to liability which is not eliminated pursuant to the provision of EFSC’s certificate of incorporation described in the preceding paragraph. Finally, EFSC’s board of directors has the authority to extend to its employees and agents the same indemnification rights held by officers and directors, subject to all the accompanying conditions and obligations.
- Directors. EFSC’s bylaws provide that any or all of EFSC’s directors may be removed from office with or without cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors, subject to applicable provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law.
- Special Meetings of Stockholders. EFSC’s bylaws provide that special meetings of stockholders may be called at any time by the EFSC’s Chairman of the Board, President or board of directors acting pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of EFSC’s board of directors. Special meetings of stockholders may also be called upon the written request of holders of at least fifty percent (50%) of all of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote, provided that they shall make written application to EFSC’s Secretary stating the time, place and purpose or purposes of the special meeting.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

The shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus are being offered by the selling stockholders listed in the table below. EFSC completed the issuance and sale of an aggregate of 1,931,610 shares of its common stock to accredited investors on January 25, 2010 in a private placement that was conducted in compliance with Section 4(2) of, and Rule 506 of Regulation D under, the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

The selling stockholders may from time to time offer and sell pursuant to this prospectus any or all of the common stock listed below. When we refer to the “selling stockholders” in this prospectus, we mean any of those persons listed in the table below, as well as the pledgees, donees, assignees, transferees, successors and others who later hold any of the selling stockholders’ interests. The table below sets forth (i) the name of each of the selling stockholders, (ii) the nature of any position, office, or other material relationship which the selling stockholder has had, within the past three years, with us or with any of our affiliates, (iii) the number of shares of our common stock currently owned by each of the selling stockholders, (iv) the number of shares of our common stock that such selling stockholders may offer pursuant to this prospectus and (v) the number of shares of such common stock to be owned by such selling stockholders after completion of sales pursuant to the registration statement. In accordance with the rules of the SEC, each of the selling stockholders’ beneficial ownership includes:

- all shares the selling stockholder actually owns beneficially of record;
- all shares over which the selling stockholder has or shares voting or dispositive control (such as in the capacity as a general partner of an investment fund); and
- all shares the selling stockholder has the right to acquire within 60 days (such as upon exercise of options that are currently vested or that are scheduled to vest within 60 days).

We do not know if the selling stockholders will actually offer to sell shares pursuant to this prospectus, or the number of shares of our common stock that the selling stockholders may determine to offer. The selling stockholders may offer all, some or none of the shares of common stock indicated below. Because the selling stockholders may offer all or some portion of the shares, we have assumed below that all shares offered hereby will have been sold by the selling stockholders upon termination of sales pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

Some or all of the selling stockholders may have sold or transferred some or all of their shares of our common stock in transactions exempt from the registration requirement of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, since the date on which the information in the table was provided to us. Information concerning the selling stockholders may also change from time to time, and any changed information will be set forth in one or more prospectus supplements or post-effective amendments, as may be appropriate.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, sell shares of common stock on the Nasdaq or in privately negotiated transactions. These sales may be at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale or at negotiated prices. Each of the selling stockholders will act independently of us in making decisions regarding the timing, manner and size of each sale.

The selling stockholders may sell the shares of common stock by one or more of the following methods:

- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;
- block trades, as referenced above, in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
- an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
- settlement of short sales entered into after the date of this prospectus;
- broker-dealer may agree with the selling stockholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;
- through the writing of options on the shares;
- private sales or private transactions; or
- a combination of any of these methods of sale or any other legally available means, whether or not described in this prospectus.

Edgar Filing: ENTERPRISE FINANCIAL SERVICES CORP - Form S-3

The selling stockholders may also sell shares under Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, if available, rather than pursuant to this prospectus. The selling stockholders shall have the sole and absolute discretion not to accept any purchase offer or make any sale of shares if it deems the purchase price to be unsatisfactory at any particular time.

In connection with the sale of shares of common stock, the selling stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions only to the extent permitted by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States. These broker-dealers may in turn engage in short sales of the shares of common stock and deliver shares of common stock to close our such short positions, or loan or pledge shares of common stock to broker-dealers that may in turn sell such securities. The selling stockholders may pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of common stock that it owns and, if it defaults in the performance of its secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares of common stock from time to time pursuant to this prospectus. The selling stockholders may also transfer and donate shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, donees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling stockholders for purposes of this prospectus.

The selling stockholders may decide not to sell all or a portion of the common stock offered by it pursuant to this prospectus. In addition, the selling stockholders may transfer, devise or give the common stock by other means not described in this prospectus. Any common stock covered by this prospectus that qualifies or sale pursuant to Rule 144, Rule 144A or Regulation S of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, may be sold under Rule 144, Rule 144A or Regulation S rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

The selling stockholders and any other person(s) participating in the distribution of the common stock will be subject to the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The rules thereof include, without limitation, Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the common stock by the selling stockholders and any such other person(s). In addition, Regulation M may restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the common stock to engage in market-making activities with respect to the particular common stock being distributed for a period of up to five business days prior to the commencement of such distribution. This may affect the marketability of the common stock and the ability to engage in market-making activities with respect to the common stock.

The selling stockholders are responsible for all costs and expenses incurred by them in connection with the sale of shares of common stock, including any underwriting, brokerage or transactions fees as well as all legal fees of counsel retained by such selling stockholders with respect to the registration and sale of the shares of common stock. We will bear the costs, fees and expenses incurred in effecting the registration of the securities covered by this prospectus, including, without limitation, all registration and filing fees and fees and expenses of our counsel and our accountants. We will also make copies of this prospectus available to the selling underwriters, dealers or agents for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which may include delivery through the facilities of the Nasdaq pursuant to Rule 153 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the securities must be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states the securities may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

EFSC is a Delaware corporation. Section 102 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or DGCL, as amended, allows a corporation to eliminate the personal liability of directors of a corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except where the director breached the duty of loyalty, failed to act in good faith, engaged in intentional misconduct or knowingly violated a law, authorized the payment of a dividend or approved a stock repurchase in violation of the DGCL or obtained an improper personal benefit.

Section 145 of the DGCL provides, among other things, that EFSC may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding other than an action by or in the right of EFSC, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, agent or employee of EFSC, or is or was serving at EFSC's request as a director, officer, agent or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if such person acting in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests, or not opposed to the best interests, of EFSC, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The power to indemnify applies to actions brought by or in the right of EFSC as well, but only to the extent of defense expenses, reasonably incurred and not to any satisfaction of judgment or settlement of the claim itself, and with the further limitation that in such actions no indemnification shall be made in the event of any adjudication of liability to EFSC, unless the court believes that in light of all the circumstances indemnification should apply. Furthermore, under the DGCL, if such person is successfully on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Section 174 of the DGCL provides, among other things, that a director, who willfully or negligently approves an unlawful payment of dividends or an unlawful purchase or redemption of stock, may be held liable for such actions. A director who was either absent when the unlawful actions were approved or dissented at the time, may avoid liability by causing his or her dissent to such actions to be entered in the books containing minutes of the meetings of the board of directors at the time such action occurred or immediately after such absent director receives notice of the unlawful acts.

As permitted by the DGCL, EFSC's certificate of incorporation (as amended and together with all certificates of designations) includes a provision to eliminate the personal liability of its directors for monetary damages for breach or alleged breach of their fiduciary duties as directors, subject to limited exceptions. The certificate of incorporation (as amended and together with all certificates of designations) also provides that every person who is or was our director, officer, employee or agent or is or was a director, officer, trustee, employee or agent of any other enterprise, serving as such at EFSC's request, shall be indemnified to the fullest extent permitted by law for all expenses and liabilities in connection with any proceeding involving such person in this capacity.

Item 16. Exhibits

See the Exhibit Index immediately following the signature page of this prospectus, which is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

Item 17. Undertakings

A. Rule 415 Offering

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i), (1)(ii) and (1)(iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of this registration statement.

(2) That, for the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, each post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at the time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) Intentionally omitted.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, to any purchaser:

(i) each prospectus filed by a registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

Edgar Filing: ENTERPRISE FINANCIAL SERVICES CORP - Form S-3

(6) That, for the purpose of determining liability of a registrant under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities:

The undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) the portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

B. Filings Incorporating Subsequent Exchange Act Documents By Reference

The undersigned registrant undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (and, where applicable, each filing of any employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act), that is incorporated by reference in this registration statements shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

H. Request for Acceleration of Effective Date of Filing of Registration Statement on Form S-3

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the indemnification provisions described herein, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-3 and has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the State of Missouri, on March 18, 2010.
