Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 31, 2006, Teleflex Incorporated (the "Company") entered in to an amendment (the "Amendment") to the agreement, dated March 7, 2005 (the ("Agreement")), between the Company and John J. Sickler.

The Amendment primarily provides for certain benefits to be paid to Mr. Sickler or his estate in the event of his death or disability. More specifically, in the event of Mr. Sickler's death (a) while employed by the Company, the Company shall make a lump sum payment to his estate equal to three times his annual salary in effect on the date his death or (b) after termination of his employment with the Company or his disability, the Company shall make a lump sum payment to his estate equal to the amount of the retainer fees he would have been entitled to receive during the remainder of the 3 year period following his termination of employment by the Company. In the event Mr. Sickler becomes disabled during the term of his employment with the Company, he is entitled to receive the retainer fees and benefits he would have been entitled to receive under the Agreement after termination of his employment with the Company.

In addition to the foregoing, the Amendment added certain provisions regarding conformity with Section 409(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.
