Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On August 21, 2012, Harris Corporation (the Company) entered into a Separation Agreement and Release of All Claims with Jeffrey S. Shuman (the Separation Agreement), as contemplated in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on July 26, 2012, in which the Company reported that Mr. Shuman would no longer serve as Senior Vice President, Chief Human Resources and Administrative Officer and would be leaving the Company to pursue other opportunities and that it was anticipated that the Company and Mr. Shuman would discuss a mutual separation arrangement in the near future.

Under the Separation Agreement, the Company and Mr. Shuman agreed that (1) the Company would continue to pay Mr. Shuman through August 31, 2012 (the Separation Date) his annual base salary at the rate currently in effect; (2) the Company would pay Mr. Shuman the lump sum cash payment he is entitled to receive under the terms of his December 12, 2008 Addendum to Offer Letter from the Company dated July 5, 2005 in respect of a Company-directed separation, as determined based on his current annual base salary and pro-rated annual incentive compensation, which severance amount is equal to $477,793; (3) the restricted stock units held by Mr. Shuman would remain outstanding and continue to vest following the Separation Date as if Mr. Shuman had remained employed by the Company through completion of the applicable restricted period, rather than being paid out on a pro-rated basis; (4) the outstanding performance shares and performance share units held by Mr. Shuman would remain outstanding and continue to vest as if Mr. Shuman had remained employed by the Company, but subject to the attainment of applicable performance metrics; and (5) during the period from the Separation Date through January 31, 2013, Mr. Shuman would make himself available to facilitate the transition of responsibilities and to perform such other services as reasonably requested, and for such services Mr. Shuman would receive advisory fees in an aggregate amount of $130,000. These payments and the other benefits provided are subject to the terms and conditions of the Separation Agreement, which include a release of all claims by Mr. Shuman, confidentiality restrictions, a two-year non-solicitation restriction and other restrictive covenants.

The foregoing description of the terms and conditions of the Separation Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by, and should be read in conjunction with, the complete text of the Separation Agreement, which the Company expects to file as an exhibit to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 28, 2012.
