Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 10, 2015, the United States Senate confirmed the nomination of Richard Howorth to serve a new term on the TVA Board of Directors. Director Howorth's new term will begin after the Presidential commissioning and certain administrative matters have been completed and he has been sworn in. The new term will expire in May 2020. Director Howorth is the chair of the People and Performance Committee and also serves on the Finance, Rates, and Portfolio Committee and the Nuclear Oversight Committee.

Director Howorth, age 64, is a resident of Oxford, Mississippi. He is the owner of Square Books, an Oxford independent bookstore he founded in 1979. Director Howorth served two terms as the mayor of Oxford, from 2001 to 2009, during which time he was chairman of the authority overseeing the Oxford Electric Department. From 2001 to 2009, he also served as a director and officer of the North Mississippi Industrial Development Association, an economic development consortium made up of power association directors and mayors of cities in 29 Mississippi counties in the TVA service area.

Director Howorth is not a party to, and does not have a direct or indirect material interest in, any transactions or arrangements with TVA other than in connection with his employment as described in this report.

Director Howorth is entitled to the benefits and arrangements applicable to his office as identified in Item 11 of TVA's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2015.
