Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events.

By Order dated May 2, 2016, the United States District Court, District of Nevada fully and finally approved the Derivative Action Settlement Agreement (the "DASA") entered into by and between Cool Technologies, Inc. (the "Company"), Spirit Bear Limited, Timothy J. Hassett, Quentin D. Ponder, Judson W. Bibb, and Theodore H. Banzhaf in HPEV, Inc. v. Spirit Bear Limited 13-cv-01548 (JAD) (GWF)(D. NEV.). The final approval and Order also dismissed, with prejudice, the derivative case filed against the Company by Spirit Bear.

Pursuant to the terms of the DASA dated January 28, 2015, as amended effective May 1, 2015, an Independent Directors Committee consisting of directors Christopher McKee, Richard J. "Dick" Schul and Donald Bowman will review the allegations made by Spirit Bear to determine a proper corporate response. The Court specifically found, among other things, that:

1. "The DASA is fundamentally fair, reasonable, and adequate to the company and its shareholders; and that it is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion among, the negotiating parties;"
2. "The submission of the allegations contained in the derivative action to an Independent Directors Committee (the "IDC") as required by the DASA advances the general corporate principle that '(i)n managing the corporation's affairs, the board of directors may generally decide whether to take legal action on the corporation's behalf.' Shoen v. Sac Holding Corp., 122 Nev. 621, 632-633, 137 P.3d 1171, 1179, 2006 Nev. LEXIS 77, 18, 122 Nev. Adv.Rep. 57 (Nev. 2006);"
3. McKee, Schul and Bowman "were duly elected to the Board of HPEV by an election occurring on August 19, 2015 in which they each received the affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares in the company;" and,
4. "Within the context of the allegations set forth in the derivative complaint, the IDC members are both independent and disinterested."

The Company's Form 8-K filed May 5, 2016 also included the following disclosure: "Also pursuant to the terms of the DASA, Spirit Bear no longer has the right to appoint any nominees to the Board of Directors of the Company. The Company also agreed to file a registration statement on Form S-1 covering an aggregate of 14,845,072 shares of common stock, preferred stock and warrants on behalf of Spirit Bear and its assignees" This amendment corrects that disclosure. Those terms are set forth in the Settlement and Release Agreement effective May 1, 2015 by and between Spirit Bear Limited and its Assignees on the one hand and the Company on the other hand rather than in the DASA.

A complete and accurate copy of the fully executed January 28 settlement agreement, including a complete and accurate copy of the fully executed Derivative Action Settlement Agreement, was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an attachment to the Schedule 13D/A filed by Spirit Bear on March 13, 2015.
