On October 7, 2016, the Board of Directors of Digimarc Corporation (the “Company”) approved an increase in the size of the Board of Directors from five to seven members and appointed the following individuals to serve in the newly created seats until the next annual meeting of shareholders, at which time the Board of Directors intends to nominate each for election by the Company’s shareholders.

- Andrew Walter
- Gary DeStefano

As non-employee directors of the Company, Mr. Walter and Mr. DeStefano will be compensated according to the Company’s non-employee director compensation practices, which are described under the heading “Director Compensation” in the Company’s proxy statement for its 2016 annual meeting of shareholders, which was filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on March 15, 2016. This compensation consists of annual retainers for service on the Board of Directors in the amount of $50,000, which will be prorated for 2016 based on the length of each new director’s service on the Board of Directors. Additionally, upon their appointment, Mr. Walter and Mr. DeStefano were each granted shares of restricted common stock of the Company having an aggregate value of approximately $200,000. These shares vest over the three-year period commencing on the date of grant, with 1/3 of the shares vesting on each of the first three anniversaries of the date of grant. In addition, the Company will enter into an indemnification agreement with Mr. Walter and Mr. DeStefano in the same form as previously entered into by the Company with its other non-employee directors. There are no arrangements or understandings between either of the new directors and any other persons pursuant to which either director was selected as a director.
