PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

In connection with the preparation of its financial statements for the three month period ended April 2, 2016, Perrigo Company plc (the "Company") identified indicators of impairment associated with certain indefinite-lived intangible assets and goodwill acquired in conjunction with its acquisition of Omega Pharma N.V. As announced on May 12, 2016, as a result of its impairment assessment, the Company recorded an indefinite-lived intangible asset impairment and estimated goodwill impairment within Impairment charges on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations within its Branded Consumer Healthcare segment for the three month period ended April 2, 2016. The Company was unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended April 2, 2016 (the "Form 10-Q") within the prescribed time period as it is still in the process of finalizing the tax impact related to these impairment charges. On May 12, 2016, the Company provided results of operations and earnings guidance on a preliminary GAAP and non-GAAP basis in its press release included as Exhibit 99.1 to the Form 8-K filed on such date. The Company does not expect the final determination of this tax amount to impact the non-GAAP results and non-GAAP guidance.

PART IV - OTHER INFORMATION

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

Judy L. Brown (269) 673-8451
(Name) (Area Code) (Telephone Number)

Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or (2) Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company anticipates that its results of operations for the three months ended April 2, 2016 to be included in the Form 10-Q will be significantly different than its results of operations from the corresponding period in 2015. Below are the Company's consolidated statements of operations, through Loss before income taxes, for the three months ended April 2, 2016 and March 28, 2015. As the Company is still in the process of finalizing the tax impact of the impairment charges noted in Part III above, at this time, it is unable to provide amounts for income tax benefit, net loss or net loss per share for the three months ended April 2, 2016.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this filing are “forward-looking statements.” These statements relate to future events or the Company’s future financial performance and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievements of the Company or its industry to be materially different from those expressed or implied by any forward-looking statements. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as “may,” “will,” “could,” “would,” “should,” “expect,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “potential” or the negative of those terms or other comparable terminology. The Company has based these forward-looking statements on its current expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections. While the Company believes these expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections are reasonable, such forward-looking statements are only predictions and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the Company’s control, including the timing, amount and cost of share repurchases, future impairment charges, its ability to achieve its guidance and the ability to execute and achieve the desired benefits of announced initiatives. These and other important factors, including those discussed under “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Form 10-KT for the six-month period ended December 31, 2015, and Form 10-Q for the quarter ended April 2, 2016, as well as the Company’s subsequent filings with the SEC, may cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements in this filing are made only as of the date hereof, and unless otherwise required by applicable securities laws, the Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
