The following is an email that was sent to AT&T employees:

Team: Today, we announced solid second-quarter financial results, driven by terrific wireless subscriber numbers and strong U-verse® growth. The big takeaway is how our move to simple pricing and no-device-subsidy plans is repositioning the wireless business model. The result – our best postpaid net adds in nearly five years and our best-ever churn.

	2Q 2014	2Q 2013	Diff
Total Revenues	$32.6B	$32.1B	+1.6%
Total Expenses	$27.0B	$26.0B	+3.8%
Diluted EPS	$0.68	$0.71	-4.2%
Adjusted EPS	$0.62	$0.67	-7.5%

Our performance reflects your hard work:

We added more than 1 million postpaid customers, most of them smartphones. Customers love our new Mobile Share ValueSM plans and AT&T NextSM, which lets them upgrade their devices as often as every year. Postpaid churn was a best-ever 0.86 percent and down from 1.02 percent a year ago. Total wireless revenues grew 3.7 percent.

Strong U-verse results continued to fuel growth in wireline consumer. Total U-verse revenues, including business, grew 24.8 percent year over year. U-verse annualized revenues are approaching $15 billion.

ABS continues to see no lift from the economy. However, revenues from strategic business services – such as VPN,

Postpaid net additions in 2Q, best in nearly 5 years
0.86 percent postpaid churn, best ever
Wireless revenues up 3.7 percent

U-verse High Speed Internet customers
- Added 488K High Speed Internet customers
- Added 190K new TV customers

Annualized revenues from strategic business services
Up 13.5 percent versus a year ago
Now more than 27 percent of wireline business revenues

Ethernet, cloud, U-verse, hosting and other advanced IP services - were up 13.5 percent from the year ago quarter. These highlights only tell part of our growth story.

During the quarter, we announced our acquisition of DIRECTV to strengthen our position as a video provider, boost our ability to bundle broadband, mobility and video services, and allow us to reach 70 million customer locations with broadband.

Our Project VIP network investment plan continues to deliver. We now cover more than 290 million people with our nation's most reliable 4G LTE network.* Our expanded deployment of IP broadband and fiber is the foundation for continued U-verse and strategic business services growth.

Thank you for all of your hard work. I see it every day. And the results certainly bear this out. I'm counting on all of you to stay focused during the second half of this year on doing what we do best: delivering an effortless customer experience.
