PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Dynex Capital, Inc. ("Company") is unable to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000 in a timely manner without unreasonable effort or expense. In September 2000, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 140, "Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishment of Liabilities" ("FAS No. 140"). FAS No. 140 replaces the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 125 "Accounting for the Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishment of Liabilities" ("FAS No. 125"). FAS No. 140 revises the standards for accounting for securitization and other transfers of financial assets and collateral and requires certain disclosure, but it carries over most of FAS No. 125 provisions without reconsideration. Each of FAS No. 125 and FAS No. 140 set forth standards related to gain-on-sale accounting. While the Company has not accounted for its securitizations using gain-on-sale accounting, FAS No. 140 may impose certain additional disclosure requirements for the Company related to its securitized investment portfolio. The Company is currently in the process of evaluating the additional information requirements of FAS No. 140 along with its independent auditors, Deloitte & Touche, LLP. Such additional quantitative disclosure will be included in Footnote 4 to the Company's consolidated financial statements to the extent that the Company is required to make such disclosure.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).

[ X ] Yes [ ] No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operation from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Edgar Filing: DYNEX CAPITAL INC - Form NT 10-K

[ X ] Yes [ ] No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

In a press release issued April 2, 2001, the Company reported a net loss of $91.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2000, versus a net loss of $75.1 million for the year ended December 31, 1999. The Company reported that the loss for 2000 contained a number of non-recurring items, and that its primary focus throughout 2000 was the sale or resolution of assets to pay down associated debt, letters of credit or similar obligations. During 2000, the Company reported that it reduced on-balance sheet recourse borrowings by $403 million and was released from approximately $180 million of letters of credit obligations. The Company also reported that it had incurred non-recurring losses of $67.5 million related to the sale or resolution of assets to reduce its recourse obligations and charges of $11.0 million relating to the divesting of the Company's remaining investment in auto loans. The Company reported that net interest margin on the Company's investment portfolio was negatively impacted by the almost 20% decline in interest earning assets, increases in short-term interest rates, as well as a higher provision for credit losses. The higher credit losses were primarily due to the deteriorating market conditions in the manufactured housing market during the fourth quarter, which negatively impacted the recovery rate on the sale of repossessed manufactured housing units relating to the Company's portfolio of manufactured housing loans.
