Intertape Polymer Group Inc. Announces Melbourne F. Yull To Retire At Upcoming Shareholders' Meeting

Montreal, Quebec and Bradenton, Florida - May 1, 2006 - Intertape Polymer Group Inc. (NYSE, TSX: ITP) announces that Melbourne F. Yull has advised the Company of his intention to retire as CEO and Chairman of the Board at the Company's upcoming shareholders' meeting.

Melbourne F. Yull founded Intertape Polymer Group Inc. in 1981 and has been its Chairman and CEO since January 11, 1995, having been the President and a director of the Company prior thereto. Mel commented, "I am extremely proud of the success achieved by Intertape over the years, especially considering its humble beginnings in 1981. I credit this success to a solid team of talented and dedicated individuals who have been unstinting in their efforts. I leave with full confidence that the future of the Company and its continued growth is in excellent hands."

Thomas E. Costello, the Company's lead director commented, "the board would like to acknowledge Mel's outstanding accomplishments as the principal architect and builder of Intertape into a company that now employs over 3,000 persons with sales of over US$800 million. The remarkable success of the Company is a direct tribute to his leadership and his strong entrepreneurial skills. We will miss Mel but the board has accepted his decision in the knowledge that he leaves a flourishing and solid organization that will continue to further his vision."

The Board will retain a professional executive search firm to identify and assess both internal and external qualified candidates to serve as the Company's successor CEO. During the transition period, H. Dale McSween, the Company's President of Engineered Coated Products Division, will act as interim CEO.

management's projections, estimates and expectations is contained in the Company's SEC filings. The Company undertakes no duty to update its forward-looking statements, including its earnings outlook. This release contains certain non-GAAP financial measures as defined under SEC rules, including adjusted net earnings, EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow. The Company believes such non-GAAP financial measures improve the transparency of the Company's disclosure, provide a meaningful presentation of the Company's results from its core business operations by excluding the impact of items not related to the Company's ongoing core business operations, and improve the period-to-period comparability of the Company's results from its core business operations. As required by SEC rules, the Company has provided reconciliations of those measures to the most directly comparable GAAP measures.
