Item 8.01. Other Information

On March 1, 2017, Retrophin, Inc. (“Retrophin”), one of the partners of Ligand Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company” or “Ligand”), announced, among other things, an update on the regulatory pathway for its late-stage product candidate sparsentan, including plans to initiate a Phase 3 clinical trial in the second half of 2017. Pursuant to the sublicense agreement, dated December 11, 2012, by and between Ligand and Retrophin, Ligand is eligible to receive $1.6 million upon the initiation of a Phase 3 clinical trial of sparsentan and $5,992,500 upon filing of a new drug application for sparsentan in FSGS, in each case net of payments due from Ligand to Bristol-Myers Squibb Company for such milestone events pursuant to the license agreement, dated May 27, 2006 (as amended). Under our license agreement with Retrophin we are entitled to receive potential net milestones in addition to those noted above of over $65 million in the future and 9% net royalties on future worldwide sales by Retrophin.
