On September 13, 2005, the board of directors of LSI Logic Corporation (the Company ) approved and the Company announced, plans to adopt a fabless manufacturing model and expand its working relationships with major foundry partners. The Company also intends to sell its Gresham, Oregon manufacturing facility. The Company cannot predict with certainty the expected completion date of the sale of the Gresham, Oregon manufacturing facility. The Company estimates that it will record restructuring and other charges of approximately $75,000,000 to $110,000,000 in the third quarter of 2005 for fixed asset write-downs, severance and other expenses associated with the planned sale of the manufacturing facility. The Company also anticipates incurring related restructuring charges of less than $3 million per quarter in the fourth quarter of 2005 and the first two quarters of 2006. The Company is not able to estimate the separate major costs associated with this activity at this time.
