The other information required by Item 2 relating to the identity and background of the Reporting Persons is set forth in Annex 1 hereto.

Item 4. Purpose Of The Transaction.

Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is amended and updated as follows:

As previously reported, on November 7, 2000, the Manager sent to the Company a letter expressing interest in the purchase by the Partnership or an affiliate of the Partnership of all of the Company's interest in certain commercial, residential, mixed use and land development properties (the "Projects") and in two buildings (the "Buildings") in exchange for the transfer to the Company of a portion of the Partnership's interest in Capital Pacific Holdings, L.L.C. (an affiliate of the Company) ("CPH LLC"). One of the two Buildings was recently sold. The Partnership, the Company and two of the Company's shareholders, CPH2, LLC and CPH3, LLC (the "CPH Shareholders") have now entered into an Interest Exchange Agreement dated as of February 15, 2001 (the "Exchange Agreement") pursuant to which, among other things, (i) the Company will transfer all of its indirect ownership interests in the Projects and in one of the Buildings (and in the proceeds from the sale of the other Building) to the Partnership (or to Makallon, LLC (as referenced below) if the Partnership so directs), (ii) the Partnership will transfer to the Company a 25.07% ownership interest in CPH LLC (reducing the Partnership's ownership interest therein from 32.07% to 7%) and all of its ownership interest in certain other companies in which the Company also holds an interest, and (iii) the Company and the Partnership will each have an option (the "Option") to convert the Partnership's remaining 7% ownership interest in CPH LLC into 1,235,000 shares (the "Conversion Shares") of non-voting Common Stock of the Company. The Option may be exercised by the Company or by the Partnership between 90 and 180 days following the closing of these transactions (the "Closing"). The Closing under the Exchange Agreement is conditioned upon, among other things, the receipt of certain third-party consents. The Reporting Persons do not know when or if such consents will be received.

Under the Exchange Agreement, if the Option is exercised, the existing Registration Rights Agreement dated as of October 1, 1997 between the Company and the Partnership automatically will be amended such that (i) the Conversion Shares become subject to the registration rights provided thereunder, (ii) the Partnership shall have three demand registration rights and (iii) the Company shall, within 8 months of Closing, register the Conversion Shares for sale under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and list the Conversion Shares for trading on the exchange or quotation system on which the Company's voting Common Stock is traded.

If the Option is exercised, (i) any distributions made to the Partnership by CPH LLC, or capital contributions made by the Partnership to CPH LLC, during the period from and after the Closing through the date of the exercise of the Option (the "Option Period") will be repaid to CPH LLC or the Partnership, as the case may be, and (ii) the Partnership will receive the benefit of any cash dividend paid by the Company during the Option Period. The number of Conversion Shares issuable upon exercise of the Option will be adjusted for any stock split, stock dividend or similar event during the Option Period.

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL PACIFIC HOLDINGS INC - Form SC 13D/A

Under the Exchange Agreement, the Company has the right to convert the Conversion Shares to voting Common Stock prior to any sale of the Conversion Shares by the Partnership. In addition, the Conversion Shares automatically convert to voting Common Stock if the Partnership exercises its tag-along rights (discussed below) when the CPH Shareholders are selling more than 50% of the Common Stock collectively owned by them. If the Partnership sells the Conversion Shares and they have not so converted into voting Common Stock, then the Company is obligated to pay to the Partnership a cash premium of 5% of the cash sale price received by the Partnership in such sale.

Pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, the Company has consented to Paul Makarechian, a current Executive Vice President and former Director of the Company, leaving his employment with the Company and entering into a joint venture agreement with the Partnership to manage the Projects and the Buildings. On or before the Closing, the Partnership and Paul Makarechian intend to form a limited liability company (called Makallon, LLC) for this purpose. Paul Makarechian will acquire his ownership interest in Makallon, LLC through an entity controlled by him ("Newco"). At the Closing, the Partnership intends to contribute its entire indirect ownership interests in the Projects and the Buildings (both the portion acquired under the Exchange Agreement and the portion the Partnership already held) to Makallon, LLC. Newco will become Managing Member of Makallon, LLC, and will receive from Makallon, LLC a contingent profit participation in the Projects and the Buildings as well as a management fee. Substantially simultaneously with the Closing, certain employees of the Company who have been actively involved in the management and administration of the Projects and Buildings are expected to be offered employment by Newco

Under the Exchange Agreement, at Closing the Company and the Partnership (or certain affiliated entities) will make certain payments to each other to reimburse certain outstanding advances, and to net-out the economic benefit of any capital contributions and distributions made between December 1, 2000 and the Closing. See Section 3.2 of the Exchange Agreement for the full terms and conditions of the reimbursement provisions.

The Exchange Agreement also provides for the termination of the Investment and Stockholders Agreement (the "Stockholders Agreement") dated September 29, 1997 among the Partnership, the Company, CPH LLC, certain subsidiaries of the Company and the CPH

Shareholders. It further provides for the right of the Partnership to "tag-along" on certain sales of Company Common Stock by the CPH Shareholders and the CPH Shareholders' right to "tag-along" on certain sales of Company Common Stock by the Partnership. This provision provides that if the Partnership or the CPH Shareholders wish to sell any of their shares of Company Common Stock to a third party, the non-selling party has the right to sell a pro rata portion of its shares of Company Common Stock to such third party on the same terms and conditions. This tag-along provision is substantially similar to the tag-along provision which has existed in Section 7.01 of the Stockholders Agreement. (See the original Schedule 13D for a description and copy of the Stockholders Agreement).

Also under the Exchange Agreement, the Company or its affiliate, Capital Pacific Homes, Inc., will enter into certain construction agreements, management agreements and other agreements relating to certain Projects and Hadi Makarechian, Chairman and CEO of the Company, will enter into a consulting agreement with Makallon, LLC under which he will provide certain consulting services relating to the Projects.

In addition, so long as the Partnership owns at least 5% of the Company's outstanding voting and non-voting Common Stock (taken together), the Company will not enter into certain affiliate transactions without the consent of the Partnership. See Section 6.7 of the Exchange Agreement for the full terms and conditions of provisions.

The Exchange Agreement also provides that if the Company in the future becomes a private, non-reporting company, then, so long as the Partnership owns at least 5% of the Company's outstanding voting and non-voting Common Stock (taken together), the Company will continue to provide to the Partnership certain information about the Company.

A copy of the Exchange Agreement is annexed as Exhibit M to this Schedule 13D and is incorporated herein by reference.
