Internet Gold's Smile.Media Expanding Focus On Israel's Arab-Speaking Population

Monday June 5, 1:00 am ET

Recent Activities: Acquisition of 70% of Hadaf Arab-language Sports Portal & -
Securing of BBC as Arab-language Content Feed

PETACH TIKVA, Israel, June 5 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Internet Gold, (Nasdaq NMS: IGLD - News) today announced that its subsidiary Smile.Media Ltd. (formerly GoldMind) has embarked on a program to expand the traffic of yahala.co.il, the Arab-language portal in which it holds a 51% ownership interest.

Yahala yesterday acquired a 70% ownership interest in hadaf.co.il, one of Israel's most popular Arab language sports portals. Hadaf offers a broad variety of sports-related content, including online coverage of sports events, teams and personalities popular with the Arab population. As part of the transaction, Hadaf's founder will become Yahala's Sports Editor and its Community and Content Director.

In addition, Yahala has recently signed an agreement with the BBC under which www.bbcarabic.com, the BBC's Arab-language portal, will feed a broad variety of content to the Yahala portal.

Commenting on the news, Doron Turgeman, Internet Gold's and Smile.Media's Deputy CEO, said, "We are continuing to expand our focus on Israel's Arab speaking sector, . an important segment accounting for 20% of the population. Since acquiring a controlling interest in Yahala, we have worked closely with its management to increase its traffic and revenues, and are very pleased with the results so far. We believe our recent initiatives, including this acquisition of the Hadaf sports portal and the content-feeder agreement with the BBC, will take Yahala to the next level, giving it an even larger market share and a growing level of revenues."
