ITEM 4. CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT.

On June 28, 2002, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee of Inverness Medical Innovations, Inc. (the "Company"), the Board of Directors of the Company decided to dismiss Arthur Andersen LLP as the Company's independent accountants and to engage Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent accountants.

Arthur Andersen has provided excellent services as independent accountants to the Company since its inception, and the Company has valued its relationship with Arthur Andersen. The Company's decision to change accountants was the result of Arthur Andersen's recent legal difficulties and the resultant personnel departures and Arthur Andersen's decision to discontinue its auditing practice by August 31, 2002.

Arthur Andersen's report on the Company's financial statements for its initial fiscal year (ended December 31, 2001) did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the Company's initial fiscal year and the subsequent interim periods preceding the decision to change independent accountants, the Company had no disagreements with Arthur Andersen on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Arthur Andersen, would have caused Arthur Andersen to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its report on the Company's financial statements. Moreover, there were no reportable events, as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

During the Company's initial fiscal year and the subsequent interim periods preceding the decision to engage Ernst & Young as its independent accountants, neither the Company, nor anyone acting on behalf of the Company, consulted Ernst & Young regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, or any reportable event (as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K).
