The Reporting Person expressly disclaims beneficial ownership of the 45,669 shares of Common Stock held by the Reporting Person's spouse. In addition, except to the extent of his fiduciary voting and investment power with respect to the shares of Common Stock held by the Charitable Trust, the Reporting Person has no beneficial interest, and expressly disclaims any beneficial ownership, in the 180,315 shares of Common Stock held by the Charitable Trust.

(e) The Reporting Person ceased to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of the Common Stock on February 14, 2008.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with respect to Securities of the Issuer.

Item 6. is hereby amended as follows:

The Reporting Person has acquired beneficial ownership of shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Performance Compensation Plan, a copy of which is attached to the Schedule 13D originally filed by the Reporting Person. The Reporting Person has acquired and will acquire beneficial ownership of shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Capital Accumulation and the Stock Award Plan, copies of which were attached to the Schedule 13D originally filed by the Reporting Person.

Pursuant to the Capital Accumulation Plan, prior to the Reporting Person's retirement on January 8, 2008, he received a portion of his annual compensation in the form of CAP Units, as established by the Compensation Committee, which CAP Units vest over three years. After a five-year period from the date of grant, the Reporting Person will be entitled to receive a number of freely transferable shares of Common Stock equal to the number of CAP Units then credited to his capital accumulation account plus cash in the amount, if any, of his cash balance account at the end of such period.

Under the Stock Award Plan, the Compensation Committee determined the terms and conditions of options previously granted to the Reporting Person prior to his retirement within the parameters of the Stock Award Plan and the number of shares covered by each option. Options granted to the Reporting Person under the Stock Award Plan have a ten-year term, were granted with exercise prices equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant and become exercisable after three years. The Reporting Person's unexercised options that were exercisable on the date of his retirement will expire on their stated expiration date. The Reporting Person's unexercised options that become exercisable after the date of his retirement shall expire on the second anniversary of the exercise date of such options.

Except as otherwise required by law, CAP Units may not be assigned or transferred except to the Reporting Person's designated beneficiaries upon his death. Subject to limited exceptions set forth in the Stock Award Plan, options are not assignable or transferable except by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. Options do not grant any privileges as a stockholder with respect to any shares of Common Stock until the options are exercised. Holders of CAP Units are entitled to vote the shares of Common Stock underlying the CAP Units.

Shares acquired pursuant to privately negotiated or open market transactions are not subject to any voting or disposition restrictions.

Pursuant to the Corporation's 2008 Trust Agreement (the "Trust Agreement"), a copy of which is attached as Exhibit E, the Corporation established the Trust for the purpose of holding shares of Common Stock underlying awards granted to selected employees and certain key executives under the Capital Accumulation Plan and the Corporation's Restricted Stock Unit Plan. The Corporation has initially funded the Trust with 27,316,339 shares of Common Stock, of which the Reporting Person has the power to direct the voting of 464,160 shares. Pursuant to the Trust Agreement, Wilmington Trust Company, an independent trustee, will vote the shares held in the Trust in accordance with the instructions received from the participants entitled to such awards.
