April 4, 2002

Dear Shareholder:

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders of El Paso Electric Company will be held at the Stanton Tower Building, located at 100 N. Stanton, El Paso, Texas 79901, on Thursday, May 9, 2002, at 10:00 a.m., Mountain Daylight Time.

The purpose of the Annual Meeting is to give shareholders an opportunity to vote on the election of Class III Directors and a Class I Director.

Information concerning this matter is set forth in the accompanying notice of the meeting and Proxy Statement. Your Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR the proposal as explained in the attached Proxy Statement.

Your vote is important. To ensure your representation, even if you cannot attend the Annual Meeting, please mark, sign, date and return promptly the enclosed Proxy.

Sincerely,

Gary R.
Hedrick

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

To the Shareholders of El Paso Electric Company:

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders of El Paso Electric Company will be held at the Stanton Tower Building, located at 100 N. Stanton, El Paso, Texas 79901, on Thursday, May 9, 2002, at 10:00 a.m., Mountain Daylight Time, for the following purposes:

- (1) To elect five members of the Board of Directors for three-year terms and one member of the Board of Directors for a one year term; and
- (2) To transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting and any adjournment thereof.

The Board of Directors knows of no matter, other than the election of Class III Directors and a Class I Director (which is discussed at greater length in the accompanying Proxy Statement), that will be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting.

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on March 11, 2002 as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Please mark, date and sign the enclosed Proxy and return it promptly in the envelope provided for your convenience. If you attend the meeting and decide to vote in person, you may revoke your Proxy. Shareholders attending the meeting whose shares are registered in the name of a broker and who intend to vote in person should bring an affidavit of ownership from the broker so that beneficial ownership can be verified without delay on the meeting date. The prompt return of your Proxy will save the postage expense of additional mailings.

PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
To Be Held on May 9, 2002

GENERAL

The accompanying proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of El Paso Electric Company (the Company) for use at its 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Annual Meeting) to be held on Thursday, May 9, 2002, at the Company's principal offices, and at any adjournments thereof. The Company's principal offices are located at the Stanton Tower Building, 100 N. Stanton, El Paso, Texas 79901.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition to the use of the mails, proxies may be solicited by personal interview, telephone, fax, or other electronic means by the directors, officers, employees and agents of the Company. The Company will reimburse brokers, banks and other persons for reasonable expenses in sending proxy materials to beneficial owners. To assist in the distribution of proxy material and solicitation, the Company has engaged Georgeson Shareholder Communications, Inc. for a fee of $5,000 plus out-of-pocket expenses.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy are first being mailed to shareholders of the Company on or about April 4, 2002.

SHARES OUTSTANDING, VOTING RIGHTS AND REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

At the close of business on March 11, 2002, the record date for determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting, the Company had outstanding 50,288,779 shares of its common stock (the Common Stock).

Each outstanding share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. The holders of at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock must be represented in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting for a quorum to be present and business to be conducted. The vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting is required for the election of each Class III Director and the Class I Director.

A shareholder having the right to vote may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder. A telegram, telex, cablegram or similar transmission by a shareholder or photographic, photostatic, facsimile or similar reproduction of a writing executed by the shareholder, shall be treated as an execution in writing.

A shareholder who signs and returns a proxy may revoke that proxy at any time before the Annual Meeting or by ballot at the meeting. The shares represented by a proxy given and not so revoked will be voted and, where the shareholder specifies a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon and for which a ballot is provided in the proxy form, the shares will be voted in accordance with the specification so made. If a proxy is returned, but no choice is specified, the shares will be voted FOR the election of the five nominees described below as Class III Directors and the one nominee as a Class I Director. If no proxy is returned, the shares represented by such proxy will not be voted.

The election of Class III Directors and the Class I Director are the only matters the Board of Directors knows will be presented at the Annual Meeting. If, however, any other matters are properly presented at the Annual Meeting, the proxy holder will have discretionary authority to vote the shares represented by properly executed proxies in accordance with the proxy holder's discretion and judgment as to the best interests of the Company.

Abstentions are included in the determination of the number of shares represented at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present and are counted as a vote AGAINST when determining whether a proposal has been approved. Broker non-votes are not included in the determination of the number of shares represented at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present and are not counted for purposes of determining whether a proposal has been approved.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF CLASS III AND I DIRECTORS

Article III, Section 2 of the Company's Bylaws divides the Board of Directors into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, each of which is elected for a three-year term. Following the appointment of Mr. Hedrick to the Board, Class III contained six directors and Classes I and II each contained four directors. Accordingly, the Board of Directors is nominating one of the current Class III Directors, Mr. Harris, to serve instead as a Class I Director. Mr. Harris will stand for election at the Annual Meeting for a one year term expiring at the annual meeting of shareholders in 2003 or until his successor is elected and qualified. In this way, two of the classes will have five directors and the other class will have four directors. The remaining Class III Directors, consisting of the five nominees shown below, will stand for election at the Annual Meeting for three-year terms expiring at the annual meeting of shareholders in 2005 or until their successors are elected and qualified.

The shares represented by the accompanying proxy will be voted to elect the five nominees as Class III Directors and the one nominee as a Class I Director as recommended by the Board of Directors, who are shown below as nominees for each such class, unless authority to do so is withheld. Each nominee has agreed to the nomination and has agreed to serve if elected. Should any nominee become unavailable for election, the proxies will be voted for the election of such other person as the Board of Directors may recommend in place of such nominee.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF MESSRS. HEITZ, PARKS, SIEGAL, HAINES AND HEDRICK AS CLASS III DIRECTORS AND MR. HARRIS AS A CLASS I DIRECTOR.

DIRECTORS MEETINGS, COMPENSATION AND COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors held seven meetings during calendar year 2001. All directors attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and the committees on which they served.

Compensation of Directors

The compensation for non-employee members of the Board of Directors during 2001 consisted of the following: (a) $20,000 per year for four meetings of the Board of Directors or committees thereof per year and an additional $1,000 for each meeting beyond four; and (b) in accordance with the terms of the 1999 El Paso Electric Company Long-Term Incentive Plan, 3,500 shares of restricted Common Stock. In addition, the Board of Directors awarded Mr. Edwards, in consideration of his service as Chairman of the Board of Directors during 2001, 25,000 shares of Common Stock that are restricted as to sale until May 9, 2002 and awarded Mr. Haines, for his service as Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors during a portion of the year, 6,250 shares that are restricted as to sale until May 9, 2002. Further, the Company has at times called upon directors for special expertise for which it pays an hourly consulting fee. In 2001, eight directors were paid such consulting fees which in aggregate amounted to $9,800.

During 2002, non-employee directors will receive the same compensation as in 2001, except for Mr. Edwards, Chairman of the Board of Directors and Mr. Haines, Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors will each receive 12,500 shares for their service. The shares awarded will be subject to restrictions on sale or transfer for one year and, in general, will vest if the director remains continuously in the service of the Company as a non-employee director during such period.

The Board of Directors has the following standing committees: Audit/Ethics, Civic and Charitable Affairs, Compensation/Benefits, Executive/Nominating, Palo Verde Oversight, Environmental, and International Business.

During 2001 the Audit/Ethics Committee was composed of directors Yamarone, Parks, Holland-Branch and Cicconi. The Audit/Ethics Committee, which held ten meetings in 2001, is responsible for the appointment of the independent auditors of the Company, reviewing all recommendations of the Company's independent auditors and the Company's internal auditors, reviewing and approving non-audit services performed by accountants and other consultants retained by the Company, reviewing the Company's periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and otherwise overseeing the Company's financial reporting system. The Audit/Ethics Committee also reviews and updates the Company's Code of Ethical Conduct (the Code) and determines whether management has established a system to enforce the Code and to promote the accuracy and completeness of the Company's financial statements and other publicly disclosed information.

During 2001 the Civic and Charitable Affairs Committee was composed of directors Cardwell, Holland-Branch, Guzman and Haines. The Civic and Charitable Affairs Committee, which held three meetings in 2001, is responsible for setting policy and reviewing an annual budget for civic and charitable contributions by the Company in the communities it serves.

During 2001 the Compensation/Benefits Committee was composed of directors Heitz, Cadman, Cicconi and Yamarone. The Compensation/Benefits Committee, which held six meetings in 2001, is responsible for evaluating and approving the compensation of executive officers. It also reviews and approves recommended Company-wide increases for employees, as well as approving the adoption of contracts with union employees. The Compensation/Benefits Committee is also responsible for evaluating, adopting and administering benefit plan programs.

During 2001 the Executive/Nominating Committee was composed of directors Haines, Wertheimer, Siegel, Harris and Parks. The Executive/Nominating Committee, which held nine meetings in 2001, is the administrative and policy-making committee of the Board of Directors, and may exercise all powers of the Board of Directors (except as prohibited by the Texas Business Corporation Act) between meetings. In addition, the Executive/Nominating Committee's responsibilities include analyzing and making recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding the maximization of shareholder value. The Executive/Nominating Committee is responsible for conducting peer reviews and evaluations of the members of the Board of Directors. The Committee will consider nominees for the Board, submitted in writing, by a shareholder in accordance with the notice provisions provided in the Company's Bylaws.

During 2001 the Palo Verde Oversight Committee was composed of directors Cadman, Guzman, Siegel and Cardwell. The Palo Verde Oversight Committee, which held two meetings in 2001, is responsible for reviewing and assessing the activities and operations of the Palo Verde Nuclear Generating Station, in which the Company is a participant.

During 2001 the Environmental Committee was composed of directors Cardwell, Harris, Wertheimer and Heitz. The Environmental Committee, which held three meetings in 2001, is responsible for overseeing the affairs and operations of the Company to determine whether the Company has operated Company facilities in compliance with applicable environmental laws and regulations, and identifying existing and potential environmental issues facing the Company under federal, state and local law.

During 2001 the International Business Committee was composed of directors Holland-Branch, Cardwell and Wertheimer. The International Business Committee, which held four meetings in 2001, is responsible for assisting management in formulating a business development strategy for Mexico and evaluating business opportunities in Mexico.

The compensation covered by the Retirement Income Plan is the annual salary paid to the participant, which is reflected in the column titled Base Salary in the Summary Compensation Table. The estimated credited years of service for each of Messrs. Haines, Hedrick, Bassham, Bates, Rodriguez, Blough and Ms. Knopp at December 31, 2001, was 6, 26, 6, 30, 22, 20, and 13, respectively. The benefits are computed based on straight-life annuity amounts and are not subject to any deduction or offset for social security benefits or other amounts. Pursuant to applicable federal regulations, for periods after December 31, 1992, the maximum amount of compensation on which the benefits can be based was reduced to $150,000 per year. The maximum amount of compensation upon which benefits can be based may be adjusted annually in $10,000 increments, but in no event can such benefits be based on an adjusted maximum compensation in excess of that allowed by the Internal Revenue Service in connection with qualified retirement plans. For the year 2001 the maximum amount of compensation on which benefits may be based is $170,000. Participants in the Retirement Income Plan will receive the greater of the accrued benefit at December 31, 1992, or the benefits accrued using the compensation limitation.

Employment Agreements and Related Matters

The Company and Mr. Haines were parties to a five-year employment agreement that was entered into in May 1996 and amended and extended for up to two additional years on December 15, 2000 (the Employment Agreement). Under the Employment Agreement, Mr. Haines was paid an annual base salary of $425,000. In addition, in 1996 Mr. Haines was awarded 100,000 shares of restricted Common Stock and options covering 800,000 shares, all of which have vested. In connection with the extension of the Employment Agreement, Mr. Haines was granted options to acquire 150,000 shares of Common Stock, which vested in full upon the appointment of Mr. Hedrick as President and Chief Executive Officer.

Each Named Executive Officer and certain other officers of the Company have entered into a Change of Control Agreement (the Agreement) requiring such person to remain in the employ of the Company for two years following a change in control. In the event the Named Executive Officer is terminated during such period, other than for cause or certain other reasons, the Agreement provides that such person would receive 2.99 times annual base salary plus bonuses, the actuarial equivalent of vested benefits under the Company's retirement plan calculated with three additional years of service, continuation of welfare benefits for two years and outplacement services for one year.

COMPENSATION/BENEFITS COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

General. The Compensation/Benefits Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors is comprised entirely of non-employee directors. The Committee is responsible for reviewing and approving the compensation of all executive officers of the Company, including the Named Executive Officers and for administering the 1996 Long-Term Incentive Plan and the 1999 Long-Term Incentive Plan. Following review and approval by the Committee, all significant issues pertaining to executive compensation are submitted to the full Board of Directors for approval.

Compensation Program. In 2000, the Company retained an international benefits and compensation firm to advise the Committee and the Board of Directors in designing an overall executive compensation program. That firm analyzed the base salaries, annual incentives and expected values of long-term incentives of Company executives. That information was first compared to data of a similar type obtained from companies of approximately the same size as the Company and operating in the same general industry. The firm then compared the Company information to data of a similar type obtained from companies of approximately the same size as the company, operating in the same general industry, and located in the same geographic region as the Company. In 1996, the Company had retained another firm to conduct a similar analysis.

Additionally, the Company's internal staff regularly provides the Committee information compiled by the Edison Electric Institute (EEI). The Committee limits its consideration of EEI data to information on the smaller electric service providers with annual revenues of between $500 million and $1 billion. Thus, the EEI comparative group is smaller than the EEI 100 index used to prepare the performance graph that appears later in this Proxy Statement. It is, however, broader than the EEI Index since the Committee believes that the deregulated environment the Company will face in the near future mandates that the Company compete for executive talent against non-utility companies.

The Committee believes that the executive compensation program should include a base salary that is at or near the mean for peer utilities (as described above), adjusted as appropriate for regional price and compensation levels and trends, and short-term and long-term incentive compensation that aligns the interests of the executive with the total return to the Company's shareholders. The incentive components of compensation are intended to provide total compensation that is commensurate with a broader industry group as well as with utilities. The use of stock-based compensation that vests over time has the additional effect of retaining quality talent.

Based on the above parameters, the Committee and Board of Directors continue to believe a total compensation program for executives should be comprised of three elements: base salary, short-term incentives, and long-term incentives.

Base Salary. Each executive officer position is assigned a salary grade with minimum, midpoint and maximum ranges based upon salary information from comparable companies as described above. Once the range is established for a particular position, the base salary of each executive officer is determined by his or her skills, experience, and potential impact on the Company's operations. Base salary adjustments are directly related to the officer's performance and success in achieving specific corporate and individual goals. The Chief Executive Officer reviews the performance of the other executive officers and makes recommendations to the Committee based on each officer's performance. Based on the information available to it, the Committee believes that the base salaries of the officers are generally near the median for comparable electric utilities.

Short-Term Incentives. Each executive officer other than the Chief Executive Officer may earn an incentive bonus of up to 55% of his or her base compensation if the Company achieves specific annual goals that are established in advance by the Committee and the Board of Directors. All short-term incentive awards are paid in restricted Common Stock and vest equally over a four year period with 20% vesting once the goal is achieved and 20% vesting on each anniversary of such date for the next four years. It is anticipated that the annual performance goals will be stretch goals based on the achievement of corporate objectives (such as earnings, customer satisfaction, etc.) that will lead to enhanced shareholder value. In 2001, the performance goals included goals related to safety, customer satisfaction and earnings per share. Executive officers earned a 2001 short-term incentive award of 12.8% of base salary for partial achievement of the earnings per share and performance goals. For the 2002 incentive plan, goals have been established for safety, customer satisfaction and earnings per share. No short-term incentive awards will be granted, however, unless the earnings per share goal is met.

Long-Term Incentives. During 1998 each current Named Executive Officer other than Mr. Haines and Ms. Knopp, who was not employed by the Company in 1998, was granted options to acquire 100,000 shares of Common Stock at a price 7% greater than the market price on the date of grant. The stock options vest in equal 20% increments over five years. Each Named Executive Officer other than Mr. Haines, Mr. Bassham and Ms. Knopp, who were not employed by the Company in 1996, was also awarded stock options, covering 100,000 shares in 1996. The 1996 options have an exercise price equal to 100% of the market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant and vest in equal increments over 5 years. In 1999, Ms. Knopp was awarded a stock option grant to acquire 100,000 shares of Common Stock and in 2000, Mr. Bassham was awarded a stock option grant to acquire 25,000 shares of Common Stock. Additionally, in 2001, when they were elected President and Chief Executive Officer, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial and Administrative Officer, and Executive Vice President Transmission & Distribution and Chief Operations Officer, respectively, Messrs. Hedrick, Bassham and Bates were each awarded stock option grants to acquire shares of Common Stock in the amounts of 250,000, 100,000 and 100,000, respectively. The options have an exercise price of 100% of the market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant and vest in equal increments over 5 years. The options were designed as both a retention plan as well as a long-term incentive plan, and the number of options granted was by reference to both the base salaries and the Committee's view of appropriate incentives in an industry moving to greater competition. The long-term incentive plan is intended to promote long-term growth and stability and to allow executive officers to acquire the Company's Common Stock and directly align the executive officers' personal interest with that of other shareholders.

Stock Ownership Guidelines. Recognizing that stock ownership by executive officers and directors can directly correlate to improved performance and shareholder enhancement, the Committee established stock ownership guidelines for executive officers and directors. The guidelines suggest that the Chief Executive Officer own Common Stock with a value equal to three times his base salary and that other executive officers and directors own Common Stock with a value equal to two times his or her base salary or annual retainer, respectively. The ownership guidelines were set in 1996 with the intention that they be met within 5 years for directors and executive officers at that time or within 5 years from the date a person becomes a director or executive officer. The stock ownership guidelines have been met by all people for whom the 5 year period is applicable.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. The philosophy of the Committee and the Board of Directors is to directly tie the most significant portion of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation to the Company's success in maximizing shareholder value. The shareholders will benefit through the Chief Executive Officer's leadership in establishing and meeting short-term and medium-term financial and operational goals and his initiative in developing and implementing long-term strategy. The need to use cash and the constraints on the Company's ability to enhance revenues from customers through rate increases require that the cash portion of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation initially be fixed. At the same time, the Committee strongly believes that the Chief Executive Officer's total compensation should directly reflect increases in the value of the Common Stock.

The above-described philosophy guided the Board of Directors in establishing Mr. Haines' and Mr. Hedrick's compensation. Mr. Haines' compensation, which was set forth in an employment agreement entered into in 1996, had three elements: a base salary payable in cash, restricted stock, and stock options. Mr. Haines' base salary was $425,000, which was comparable to the cash portion of his compensation in his previous position as a senior officer of a major electric and gas utility and well within the range of salaries of CEOs of electric utilities. Mr. Haines' base salary was not increased as part of the two-year extension of his employment agreement in 2001. Mr. Haines was compensated for the achievement of short and medium-term goals through increases in the value of 100,000 shares of restricted Common Stock, which vested fully in late 2000. Mr. Haines also had been motivated to build long-term value for shareholders through the award of 800,000 stock options on the date he began his service as the Company's chief executive officer and an additional 150,000 stock options upon the two-year extension of his term of employment. All of these options had an exercise price equal to the market price of the Common Stock on the date of grant. The number of restricted shares of Common Stock and options awarded to Mr. Haines was arrived at through negotiation and is consistent with utility industry norms for overall compensation. In 1999 and 2000 Mr. Haines was awarded a bonus of a stock option grant to acquire 50,000 shares of Common Stock at the market price on the date of the grants. The options vested immediately. These option grants were intended to reflect both the Committee's and the Board of Directors' recognition of Mr. Haines' on-going performance and the Company's continuing performance improvement since he joined the Company. The Committee believes that the bias in favor of stock-based compensation would provide the greatest incentive for Mr. Haines to create and implement value enhancing strategies for the benefit of the Company's shareholders.

Mr. Hedrick was elected Chief Executive Officer on November 5, 2001, following a year-long search during which the Executive/Nominating Committee considered and interviewed numerous candidates from both inside and outside the Company to succeed Mr. Haines. In fixing Mr. Hedrick's compensation, the Board of Directors continued its philosophy of directly tying the most significant portion of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation to the Company's success in maximizing shareholder value. Mr. Hedrick's salary was set at $425,000, which is the same salary paid to Mr. Haines since 1996. In addition, on November 5, 2001, the Board of Directors granted Mr. Hedrick 50,000 restricted shares of Common Stock and options to acquire 250,000 shares with an exercise price of $13.59. Mr. Hedrick assumed his new position on November 5, 2001. The restricted shares of Common Stock and options will vest in five equal installments on January 1, 2003 and on each anniversary thereof through January 1, 2007. The total value of these restricted shares of Common Stock and options was determined by an outside compensation consultant to be the economic equivalent of the restricted shares of Common Stock and options granted to Mr. Haines at the commencement of his employment with the Company in May 1996. Mr. Hedrick's total compensation is at the mean for peer utilities and for the broader group of utilities and other companies with which the Company competes for executive talent, as described above. The structure of Mr. Hedrick's compensation, in the view of the Board of Directors, aligns his interests with the total return to shareholders in the same manner successfully applied to Mr. Haines during the past six years.

AUDIT/ETHICS COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit/Ethics Committee assists the Board of Directors in reviewing the Company's financial reporting process. The roles and responsibilities of the Audit/Ethics Committee are described in a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. Each member of the Audit/Ethics Committee meets the experience and independence requirements of the American Stock Exchange.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Audit/Ethics Committee (1) reviewed and discussed the interim financial information contained in each quarterly earnings announcement with the Company's Chief Financial Officer and independent auditors prior to public release; (2) obtained from the independent auditors a formal written statement describing all relationships between the auditors and the Company that might bear on the auditors' independence consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, discussed with the auditors any relationships that may impact their objectivity and independence, and satisfied itself as to the auditors' independence; (3) discussed with management, the internal auditors and the independent auditors the quality and adequacy of the Company's internal controls and the internal audit function's organization, responsibilities, budget and staffing; and (4) reviewed with both the independent and the internal auditors their audit plans, audit scope, and identification of audit risks.

In addition, the Audit/Ethics Committee discussed and reviewed with the independent auditors all communications required by generally accepted accounting standards, including those described in Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, Communication with Audit Committees and, with and without management present, discussed and reviewed the results of the independent auditors' examination of the financial statements. The Audit/Ethics Committee also discussed the results of the internal audit examinations.

The Audit/Ethics Committee reviewed the audited financial statements of the Company as of and for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, with management and the independent auditors. Management is responsible for the preparation of the Company's financial statements and the independent auditors are responsible for the examination of those statements.

Based on the above-mentioned review and discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Audit/Ethics Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit/Ethics Committee also recommended the reappointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent auditors, and the Board concurred in such recommendation.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS AND NOMINATIONS

Under certain circumstances, shareholders are entitled to present proposals at shareholders meetings. To be eligible for inclusion in the Proxy Statement for the Company's 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, a shareholder proposal must be received at the Company's principal executive offices on or prior to December 1, 2002. The Company will consider only those proposals which meet the requirements of applicable SEC rules. Under the Company's Bylaws, in order for a shareholder proposal that is not included in the Proxy Statement to be properly brought before the annual meeting of shareholders, notice of the proposal must be received at the Company's principal executive offices at least 80 days prior to the scheduled date of the annual meeting. A shareholder's notice should list each proposal and a brief description of the business to be brought before the meeting; the name and address of the shareholder proposing such business; the class and number of shares held by the shareholder; and any material interest of the shareholder in the business. If a shareholder wishes to nominate a director, the shareholder must provide the nomination to the Executive/Nominating Committee in writing at the Company's principal offices pursuant to the notice provisions provided in the Company's By-Laws.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Board of Directors knows of no business, other than the election of Class III Directors and a Class I Director, which will be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the Annual Meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying form of proxy to vote the shares represented thereby on such matters in accordance with their discretion and judgment as to the best interests of the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Representatives of KPMG LLP, the independent auditors of the Company's financial statements, will be present at the Annual Meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will respond to appropriate questions.

Audit Fees

The Company paid KPMG LLP an aggregate of $388,000 for professional services rendered in the audit of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 and review of the Company's financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001.

All Other Fees

The Company paid KPMG LLP $331,000 for audit-related services, including regulatory filings, benefit plan audits, and the Company's subsidiary's financial review during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001. The Company paid KPMG LLP $164,000 for non-audit-related services, principally involving tax matters, during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001.

KPMG LLP determined that these services did not affect its independence under applicable auditing standards and the Audit Committee determined that KPMG LLP's provision of the services described above under "All Other Fees" is compatible with KPMG LLP's independence.

ANNUAL REPORT

The Company's 2001 Annual Report, which includes financial statements, but which does not constitute a part of the proxy solicitation material, accompanies this Proxy Statement.

DELIVERY OF ADDITIONAL COPIES OF PROXY STATEMENT

One Proxy Statement will be sent to shareholders sharing the same address. However, additional copies may be obtained by contacting, via oral or written communication, the Company at (915) 543-5711, 123 W. Mills, El Paso, Texas 79901.
