ITEM 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On November 21, 2006, the Board of Directors of First Community Corporation amended Article 2, Section 4 of the company's bylaws to authorize electronic delivery of notice to shareholders. The following language was added to the end of Article 2, Section 4:

Electronic notice may be communicated to a shareholder by email or any other form of wire or wireless communication permitted by the South Carolina Business Corporation Act, so long as the form of notice has been consented to in writing by the shareholder. In addition, so long as the Corporation is a public corporation (as defined in the South Carolina Business Corporation Act), a notice to a shareholder which accompanies a proxy statement or information statement is effective when it is addressed and mailed or transmitted in any manner which satisfies the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission requiring delivery of a proxy statement including, without limitation, rules regarding delivery to shareholders sharing an address and implied consent to such delivery.

A complete copy of the company's amended and restated bylaws is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.2.
