In addition, each non-employee director automatically receives an option to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock on January 1 of each year, provided the director has been a member of the Board for at least six months. The exercise price of each option granted under the Director Plan is equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. The 20,000 share grant vests at a rate of one-eighth of the option shares upon the end of the first six-month period after the date of grant and one-forty-eighth of the remaining option shares per month thereafter, provided the optionee remains a director of the Company. The second option grant provides Mr. Rice with the option to acquire 1,000,000 shares (the Performance-Based Option). Six and three-tenths percent (6.3%) of the shares subject to the Performance-Based Option will vest at the end of each fiscal quarter in which the Company achieves financial goals established by the Board of Directors. If the Company does not achieve such financial goals, the allotted shares will not vest and Mr. Rice will have no right to exercise the option with respect to the allotted shares except in accordance with the following. If there is a change in control of the Company (as defined in the employment agreement), a percentage of the unvested portion of the Performance-Based Option will vest equal to the multiple of the exercise price received by the Company as consideration in the change in control. For example, if the per share consideration received by the Company in the change in control is twice the exercise price of the Performance-Based Option, fifty percent of the unvested portion of the Performance-Based Option will vest.

Mr. Rice's employment agreement provides that if his employment is terminated by the Company without cause (as defined in the agreement), or by Mr. Rice under circumstances where the Company reduced Mr. Rice's duties without his consent, Mr. Rice would be entitled to immediate vesting of all of his unvested Company stock options (other than the Performance-Based Option) and severance pay equal to twice his annual base salary. The Company and Mr. Rice entered into an amendment to Mr. Rice's employment agreement in July 2003 under which Mr. Rice and the Company agreed that a change in Mr. Rice's position and title to Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors would not trigger Mr. Rice's right to terminate the employment agreement and receive the enhanced separation benefits. The agreement was further amended to extend Mr. Rice's employment to December 31, 2004 and to provide that any options vested in Mr. Rice at the termination of his employment would remain exercisable by Mr. Rice for a period of three years thereafter. Also in 2003, the Company entered into a termination protection agreement with Mr. Rice which provides that Mr. Rice would be entitled to receive a payment equal to three times his base salary and all outstanding options issued to Mr. Rice would vest and become exercisable in the event that Mr. Rice's employment is terminated under certain circumstances following a change in control of the Company.
