Infineon with strong second quarter and positive outlook

Neubiberg, Germany April 12, 2010 Infineon Technologies AG today announces that result and revenues for the second quarter of the 2009/10 financial year (ending September 30, 2010) are better than expected, and informs of a positive outlook.

For the second quarter of 2009/10, Infineon expects to see revenues rise sequentially by approximately 10 percent. In addition, Infineon expects a Segment Result margin of just over 10 percent for the quarter just ended.

In the third quarter of the current financial year Infineon expects continuing growth in revenues and a significant increase in the Segment Result.

Infineon expects to raise the forecast for the full 2009/10 financial year. The company will go into specifics when presenting the figures for the second quarter 2010 on April 28.

The leading market positions and strict cost management are the basis for this gratifying performance. It is supported by a favorable market environment , said Peter Bauer, CEO of Infineon Technologies AG.

In the forecast for the 2009/10 financial year that was published on January 29, 2010, the company expected a year-on-year growth in revenues of over 20 percent and a high single-figure Segment Result margin. For the second quarter of the current financial year, Infineon expected revenues at the same level as in the first quarter or even slightly lower due to seasonality.

DISCLAIMER

This press release includes forward-looking statements and assumptions about the future of Infineon's business and the industry in which we operate. These include statements and assumptions relating to general economic conditions, future developments in the world semiconductor market, our ability to manage our costs and to achieve our savings and growth targets, the resolution of Qimonda's insolvency proceedings and the liabilities we may face as a result of Qimonda's insolvency, the potential disposition or closure of our ALTIS joint venture, the benefits of research and development alliances and activities, our planned levels of future investment, the introduction of new technology at our facilities, our ability to continue to offer commercially viable products, and our expected or projected future results.

These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of uncertainties, including broader economic developments, including the sustainability of recent improvements in the market environment; trends in demand and prices for semiconductors generally and for our products in particular, as well as for the end-products, such as automobiles and consumer electronics, that incorporate our products; the success of our development efforts, both alone and with partners; the success of our efforts to introduce new production processes at our facilities; the actions of competitors; the continued availability of adequate funds; the outcome of antitrust investigations and litigation matters; and the outcome of Qimonda's insolvency proceedings; as well as the other factors mentioned in this press release and those described in the "Risk Factors" section of our most recent annual report on Form 20-F on file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

As a result, Infineon's actual results could differ materially from those contained in these forward-looking statements. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Infineon does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements in light of developments which differ from those anticipated.
