In addition, each outstanding option to purchase shares of TFC s common stock under any of TFC s stock plans vested at the effective time of the TFC Merger pursuant to its terms and was converted into an option to acquire the number of shares of CBTC s common stock equal to the number of shares of common stock underlying the option multiplied by the TFC Exchange Ratio. The exercise price of each option was adjusted accordingly.

Effective May 31, 2008, at 11:59 p.m., CBTC consummated the merger by and between the Company and BOE Financial Services of Virginia, Inc. (BOE) pursuant to the terms of that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 13, 2007 (the BOE Agreement), by and between the Company and BOE providing for the merger of BOE with and into CBTC (the BOE Merger). In addition, each outstanding option to purchase shares of BOE s common stock under any of BOE s stock plans vested at the effective time of the BOE Merger pursuant to its terms and was converted into an option to acquire the number of shares of CBTC s common stock equal to the number of shares of common stock underlying the option multiplied by the BOE Exchange Ratio. Employment Agreements

In addition, effective as of May 31, 2008, the Company entered into employment agreements with George M. Longest, Jr. and Bruce E. Thomas. Effective as of the date of the BOE merger and pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Longest, previously BOE's President and Chief Executive Officer, serves as President of the Company at a salary determined by the board of directors of the Company. Effective as of the date of the BOE merger and pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Thomas, previously BOE's Chief Financial Officer, serves as Chief Financial Officer of the Company at a salary determined by the board of directors of the Company. The term of each of Mr. Longest and Mr. Thomas' employment agreements is for three years after the merger date. On each anniversary of the merger date, upon the review and approval of the board of directors, the term of the agreement will be extended by an additional year unless CBTC or the employee give written notice at least 30 days prior to an anniversary date that no further extensions should occur. The employment agreement provides for the payment of two months salary upon the death of the executive.

In the case of termination by CBTC without cause or by the employee for good reason, each of Messrs. Longest and Thomas' employment agreements requires that the employee receive his base salary and certain health benefits for 24 months following the date of termination. For the purposes of Messrs. Longest and Thomas' employment agreements, good reason means the continued assignment to the employee of duties inconsistent with the employee's position as contemplated in the agreement, any action taken by the Company that results in a substantial reduction in the employee's status, the relocation of the employee to any other primary place of employment that might require the employee to move his residence which includes any reassignment to a place of employment located more than 35 miles from the employee's initially assigned place of employment (which includes both Tappahannock and Richmond, Virginia) without the employee's written consent, and any failure by the Company, or any successor following a change in control, to comply with the compensation and benefit requirements of the employment agreement. Each agreement also provides that within two years following a change in control, if employment is terminated by the surviving corporation without cause or by the employee for good reason within 120 days after the occurrence of good reason, the employee will be entitled to accrued obligations, a salary continuance benefit equal to 2.99 times the employee's final compensation and health care continuance.

The employment agreement imposes certain limitations on the employee, precluding the employee from soliciting the Company's or bank's employees and customers and, without prior written consent of the Company, competing with the Company or the bank by forming, serving as an organizer, director, officer or consultant to, or maintaining more than one percent passive investment in a depository financial institution or holding company if such entity has one or more offices or branches located within a 10-mile radius of the headquarters or any branch banking office of the Company or bank. These limitations will be for a period of two years from the date on which the employee ceased to be an employee of the Company except that in the case of a termination without cause or for good reason following a change in control, the non-compete and customer solicitation restrictions will be in force for only one year.

In addition, on May 27, 2008, TFC entered into employment agreements with each of Bruce B. Nolte, Patrick J. Tewell and M. Andrew McLean, and by its signature thereto the Company acknowledged that it would succeed to all of the rights and obligations of TFC thereunder when the TFC merger became effective. Effective as of the date of the TFC merger and pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Nolte, previously TFC's President and Chief Executive Officer, serves as Chief Executive Officer of the Company at a salary of $205,000 per year with base salary increases and incentive, bonus compensation or other compensation in the amounts determined by the board of directors. Effective as of the date of the TFC merger and pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Tewell, previously TFC's Chief Financial Officer, serves as Chief Accounting Officer of the Company at a salary of $140,000 per year with base salary increases and incentive, bonus compensation or other compensation in the amounts determined by the board of directors. Effective as of the date of the TFC merger and pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. McLean continues to serve as President of TransCommunity Bank, N.A. at a salary of $185,000 per year with base salary increases and incentive, bonus compensation or other compensation in the amounts determined by the board of directors. The term of Mr. Nolte's employment agreement is until December 31, 2009. The term of each of Messrs. Tewell and McLean's employment agreements is until May 27, 2011. Each employment agreement provides for the payment of the salary which otherwise would be payable through the end of the month in which the death occurs upon the death of the executive.

Each of Messrs. Nolte, Tewell, and McLean's employment agreements provide compensation upon the termination of employment without cause or by the employee for good reason. For the purposes of their employment agreements, good reason means the assignment of duties which result in the executive having significantly less authority or responsibility than he has on the date of the employment agreement without his written consent, requiring the employee to maintain his principal office or offices outside the counties of Henrico or Essex, Virginia unless the Company moves its principal executive offices to the place to which the employee is required to move, a reduction of the employee's base salary, and the Company's failure to comply with any material term of the employment agreement after the employee has given 30 days notice of such noncompliance.

In the case of termination of Mr. Nolte's employment by the Company without cause or by Mr. Nolte for good reason or in the case his employment agreement terminates on December 31, 2009 and he is still employed by the Company, Mr. Nolte's agreement requires that he receive an amount equal to two times the sum of his rate of base salary in effect immediately preceding such termination or immediately preceding December 31, 2009 and the amount of any bonus paid to the employee during the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which the employment terminates or the year prior to the December 31, 2009 termination date, as applicable. In addition, he would receive any bonus or short term incentive compensation earned, but not yet paid, for a year prior to the year in which his employment terminates or the year prior to December 31, 2009 termination date, as applicable, as well as certain health benefits for one year following the date of termination.

In the case of termination of Mr. Tewell's employment by the Company without cause or by Mr. Tewell for good reason, Mr. Tewell's agreement requires that he receive an amount equal to one times the sum of his rate of base salary in effect immediately preceding such termination and the amount of any bonus paid to him during the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which the employment terminates. In addition, he would receive any bonus or short term incentive compensation earned, but not yet paid, for a year prior to the year in which his employment terminates, as applicable, as well as certain health benefits for one year following the date of termination.

In the case of termination of Mr. McLean's employment by the Company without cause or by Mr. McLean for good reason, Mr. McLean's agreement requires that he receive an amount equal to two times the sum of his rate of base salary in effect immediately preceding such termination and the amount of any bonus paid to him during the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which the employment terminates. In addition, he would receive any bonus or short term incentive compensation earned, but not yet paid, for a year prior to the year in which his employment terminates, as applicable, as well as certain health benefits for one year following the date of termination.

Each employment agreement includes certain covenants not to compete, provided employment is not terminated for cause. Mr. Nolte's employment agreement precludes the employee from serving as Chief Executive Officer or other executive officer of any bank or bank holding company within 25 miles of headquarters of the Company or within 25 miles of any bank branch operated by the Company. Mr. McLean's employment agreement precludes the employee from serving as President or Chief Executive Officer of any bank or bank holding company within 25 miles of headquarters of the Company or within 25 miles of any bank branch operated by the Company. In addition, Messrs. Nolte and McLean's respective employment agreements preclude the employee from inducing or soliciting any employee of the Company to terminate his or her relationship with the Company, soliciting or diverting away or attempting to solicit or divert away any customer of the Company for the purpose of selling or providing competitive services for a period of 24 months from the date on which the employee ceased to be an employee of the Company. Mr. Tewell's employment agreement precludes him from inducing or soliciting any employee of the Company to terminate his or her relationship with the Company for a period of 12 months from the date on which he ceased to be an employee of the surviving corporation.

Change in Control Agreements

On May 27, 2008, TFC also entered into change in control agreements with each of Messrs. Nolte, Tewell and McLean, and by its signature thereto the Company acknowledged that it would succeed to all of the rights and obligations of TFC thereunder when the TFC merger became effective. In the event that a change in control occurs during employee's employment and within the period beginning on the date of closing of the change in control and ending one year after, employee's employment with the Company is terminated by the Company without cause or by the employee for good reason, the Company will owe the employee certain severance pay, benefits and vesting of stock awards.

Mr. Nolte's change in control agreement provides for two times the sum of his annual base salary in effect on his termination of employment or the change in control date, whichever is greater, plus the amount of any bonus paid to him during the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which the change in control occurs. The Company will also continue the payment of all premiums due under the long-term care insurance policy purchased for Mr. Nolte until payments under the policy are satisfied. Mr. Tewell's change in control agreement provides for one times the sum of his annual base salary in effect on his termination of employment or the change in control date, whichever is greater, plus the amount of any bonus paid to him during the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which the change in control occurs. The Company will also continue to provide certain health and life insurance benefits to Mr. Tewell for a period up to one year following the date of termination. Mr. McLean's change in control agreement provides for two times the sum of his annual base salary in effect on his termination of employment or the change in control date, whichever is greater, plus the amount of any bonus paid to him during the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which the change in control occurs. The Company will also continue to provide certain health and life insurance benefits to Mr. McLean for a period up to one year following the date of termination.

Each agreement also provides to the extent that the employee has been granted options, stock awards or other equity compensation under the Company's equity compensation plan, that upon a change in control, the employee's interest in such awards be fully exercisable, vested and nonforfeitable as of the date of the change in control.
