This Amendment on Form 10-K/A constitutes Amendment No. 1 to Regis Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, which was previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on September 17, 2003, to include on page 44 the signature of the independent auditors, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, in the Report of Independent Auditors.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Shareholders and Directors of Regis Corporation:

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated balance sheet and the related consolidated statements of operations, of changes in shareholders equity and comprehensive income and of cash flows present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Regis Corporation at June 30, 2003 and 2002, and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended June 30, 2003, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Effective July 1, 2002, as discussed in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets.
