Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

(a) On December 19, 2005, Dex Media, Inc. (the Company) entered into a letter agreement (the Second Burnett Letter Agreement) with George A. Burnett, the Company s President and Chief Executive Officer, which amended Mr. Burnett s employment agreement (the Burnett Employment Agreement), as amended by that certain letter agreement (the First Burnett Letter Agreement) between Mr. Burnett and the Company, dated October 2, 2005 and to be effective immediately prior to the consummation of the transactions (the Merger) contemplated by that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated October 3, 2005, by and among the Company, R.H. Donnelly and Forward Acquisition Corp. The First Burnett Letter Agreement was described in Item 1.01(b) of the Current Report on Form 8-K filed on October 6, 2005 (the October Form 8-K), as amended as set forth in Item 1.01(b) of the Current Report on Form 8-K/A filed on October 18, 2005 (the October Form 8-K/A).

The Second Burnett Letter Agreement amends the Burnett Employment Agreement and the Burnett First Letter Agreement to provide that in the event that if, upon the advice of the Company s counsel, the Company determines that any of the severance payments to be provided to Mr. Burnett under the First Burnett Letter Agreement is or may be subject to the additional tax under Section 409A(a)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) or any other taxes or penalties imposed under Section 409A of the Code (Section 409A) if provided at the time otherwise required under the First Burnett Letter Agreement, then: (i) the payment of such severance payments shall be delayed until such date that is six months after Mr. Burnett s separation from service with the Company, or such shorter period that, in the opinion of counsel, is sufficient to avoid the imposition of taxes under Section 409A and (ii) the severance payments that are subject to the payment delay described in the preceding clause will be increased by an amount equal to interest on such payments for the period during which the payment of the severance payments is delayed at a rate equal to the short-term Applicable Federal Rate published by the Internal Revenue Service that is applicable during such payment delay period. The Second Burnett Letter Agreement will be effective immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger. A copy of the Second Burnett Letter Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by this reference.

(b) On December 19, 2005, the Company entered into a letter agreement (the Second Pomeroy Letter Agreement) with Scott A. Pomeroy, the Company s Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, which amended Mr. Pomeroy s employment agreement (the Pomeroy Employment Agreement), as amended by that certain letter agreement (the First Pomeroy Letter Agreement) between Mr. Pomeroy and the Company, dated October 2, 2005. The First Pomeroy Letter Agreement was set described in Item 1.01(d) of the October Form 8-K, as amended as set forth in Item 1.01(d) of the October Form 8-K/A.

The Second Pomeroy Letter Agreement amends the Pomeroy Employment Agreement and the Pomeroy First Letter Agreement to provide that in the event that if, upon the advice of the Company s counsel, the Company determines that any of the severance payments to be provided to Mr. Pomeroy under the First Pomeroy Letter Agreement is or may be subject to the additional tax under Section 409A(a)(1)(B) of the Code or any other taxes or penalties imposed under Section 409A if provided at the time otherwise required under the First Pomeroy Letter Agreement, then: (i) the payment of such severance payments shall be delayed until such date that is six months after Mr. Pomeroy s separation from service with the Company, or such shorter period that, in the opinion of counsel, is sufficient to avoid the imposition of taxes under Section 409A and (ii) the severance payments that are subject to the payment delay described in the preceding clause will be increased by an amount equal to interest on such payments for the period during which the payment of the severance payments is delayed at a rate equal to the short-term Applicable Federal Rate published by the Internal Revenue Service that is applicable during such payment delay period. The Second Pomeroy Letter Agreement will be effective immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger. A copy of the Second Pomeroy Letter Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.2 and incorporated herein by this reference.

(c) On December 19, 2005, the Company entered into letter agreements (the Second SVP and VP Letter Agreements) with each of the Company's Senior Vice Presidents (Linda Martin, Margaret Le Beau, Scott Bontempo, Kristine Shaw, Frank Eichler, Francis Barker and Helen Cousins) and Vice Presidents (Robert Houston, Michael Mansbridge, John Fischer, Cathy Crump, Tony Basile, Simon Greenman, Mark van Duren and John Meyer) (each such Senior Vice President or Vice President, an executive), which amended each executive's employment agreement (collectively, the SVP and VP Employment Agreements), as amended by each executive's letter agreement (collectively, the First SVP and VP Letter Agreements) between each executive and the Company, dated October 2, 2005. Forms of the First SVP and VP Letter Agreements were set forth in Items 1.01 (e) and (f) of the October Form 8-K, as amended as set forth in Items 1.01 (e) and (f) of the October Form 8-K/A.

Each Second SVP and VP Letter Agreement amends the applicable SVP and VP Employment Agreement and the SVP and VP First Letter Agreement to provide that in the event that if, upon the advice of the Company's counsel, the Company determines that any of the severance payments to be provided to the executive under the First SVP and VP Letter Agreement is or may be subject to the additional tax under Section 409A(a)(1)(B) of the Code or any other taxes or penalties imposed under Section 409A if provided at the time otherwise required under the First SVP and VP Letter Agreement, then: (i) the payment of such severance payments shall be delayed until such date that is six months after such executive's separation from service with the Company, or such shorter period that, in the opinion of counsel, is sufficient to avoid the imposition of taxes under Section 409A and (ii) the severance payments that are subject to the payment delay described in the preceding clause will be increased by an amount equal to interest on such payments for the period during which the payment of the severance payments is delayed at a rate equal to the short-term Applicable Federal Rate published by the Internal Revenue Service that is applicable during such payment delay period. The Second SVP and VP Letter Agreements will be effective immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger. A copy of the form of the Second SVP and VP Letter Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3 and incorporated herein by this reference.

(d) On December 19, 2005, the Company entered into a Letter Agreement with Robert M. Neumeister, Jr. (the Neumeister Letter Agreement). The Neumeister Letter Agreement provides that in consideration for the cancellation of certain payments due to Mr. Neumeister under Section 3.2 of the Retirement and General Release Agreement, made and entered into as of October 5, 2005 by and between the Company and Mr. Neumeister (the Retirement Agreement), the Company will make a lump sum payment of $1,096,875 to him on or before December 31, 2005. Such lump sum payment shall fully satisfy any and all obligations of the Company to Mr. Neumeister pursuant to Section 3.2 of the Retirement Agreement, and the Company shall have no further obligations to make any severance payments to Mr. Neumeister pursuant to the Retirement Agreement or otherwise. The Retirement Agreement was described in Item 1.01(a) of the October Form 8-K. A copy of the Neumeister Letter Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.4 and incorporated herein by this reference.
