Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On December 30, 2005, Royal Gold Inc. (Royal Gold) completed its acquisition of two royalties from Kennecott Minerals Company (Kennecott) for $25 million pursuant to a Purchase Agreement, dated as of December 22, 2005, between and among Royal Gold and Kennecott Minerals Company, Kennecott Montana Company, Kennecott Holdings Corporation, Kennecott Rawhide Mining Company and Kennecott Nevada Copper Company.

The first royalty is a 3% net smelter return (NSR) royalty on the Robinson mine, which is located in eastern Nevada. The Robinson mine is an open pit copper mine with significant gold and molybdenum credits. The mine was originally operated by Kennecott and later owned by BHP Billiton and was subsequently sold to Quadra Mining Ltd. (Quadra) in 2004.

Quadra has reported that as of December 31, 2004, proven and probable reserves include 142.6 million tons (129.4 million tonnes) of ore, at an average grade of 0.0085 ounces per ton gold (0.29 grams per tonne) and 0.69% copper, containing approximately 1.2 million ounces of gold and 2.0 billion pounds of copper. The operator estimates that calendar year 2006 production will be in the range of 55,000 to 65,000 ounces of gold and 145 to 150 million pounds of copper. Quadra also stated that its molybdenum circuit is near completion, which is expected to produce in the range of 1.0 to 1.6 million pounds of molybdenum in calendar 2006.

Royal Gold will begin receiving revenue from its 3.0% NSR royalty at the Robinson mine after a $20.0 million reclamation trust account is fully funded which, at the end of October 2005, totaled approximately $14.7 million. The account is expected to be fully funded in calendar 2006. Upon completion of that funding, this 3% NSR royalty will then be paid to Royal Gold.

Quadra Mining Ltd. (TSX:QUA) is a Vancouver, British Columbia-based corporation and is a copper producing company whose principal asset is the Robinson Mine in Nevada.

The second royalty is a sliding-scale NSR royalty on the Mulatos mine in Sonora, Mexico. The Mulatos project was previously owned by a joint venture between Placer Dome and Kennecott Minerals, and is now owned and operated by Alamos Gold, Inc. (Alamos). The Mulatos mine is an open pit, heap leach gold mine, which is nearing completion of construction. According to Alamos, commercial production is expected in early calendar 2006.

The operator estimates that proven and probable reserves, as of June 1, 2004, include 40.1 million tons (36.4 million tonnes) of ore, at an average grade of 0.048 ounces per ton gold (1.64 grams per tonne), containing approximately 1.9 million ounces of gold. Alamos anticipates that once full production is reached, yearly production is expected to average 150,000 ounces of gold. The Mulatos mine sliding-scale royalty, capped at two million ounces of gold production, is as follows:

Royalty Schedule Mulatos Mine

| Gold Price Range | NSR Royalty Rate |
|----------------------------|-------------------------|
| $0.00/oz to $299.99/oz | 0.30% |
| $300.00/oz to $324.99/oz | 0.45% |
| $325.00/oz to $349.99/oz | 0.60% |
| $350.00/oz to $374.99/oz | 0.90% |
| $375.00/oz to $399.99/oz | 1.20% |
| $400.00/oz or higher | 1.50% |

Alamos Gold Inc. (TSX: AGI), headquartered in Toronto, Canada, is completing development of the Mulatos gold deposit in Sonora, Mexico.
