Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 22, 2007, Crescent Real Estate Equities Company, a Texas real estate investment trust (the Company), Crescent Real Estate Equities Limited Partnership, a Delaware limited partnership (the Operating Partnership), Moon Acquisition Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Parent), Moon Acquisition LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (REIT Merger Sub), and Moon Acquisition Limited Partnership, a Delaware limited partnership of which Parent is the sole general partner (Partnership Merger Sub and, together with Parent and REIT Merger Sub, the Buyer Parties), entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which the Buyer Parties, all of which are affiliates of Morgan Stanley Real Estate, will acquire the Company in an all-cash transaction (the Transaction).

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at closing the Company will merge with and into REIT Merger Sub, which will be the surviving entity (the Company Merger), and Partnership Merger Sub will merge with and into the Operating Partnership, which will be the surviving entity (the Partnership Merger and, together with the Company Merger, the Mergers).

Upon the effective time of the Mergers: (i) each outstanding Common Share not owned by the Company or its affiliates or not subject to dissenter's rights, will automatically be canceled and converted into the right to receive cash, without interest, equal to $22.80 per Common Share (the Common Share Consideration), (ii) each outstanding unit of interest in the Operating Partnership other than a Restricted Unit (a Unit) will automatically be canceled and converted into the right to receive cash, without interest, equal to $45.60 per Unit (the Unit Consideration), (iii) each outstanding option to purchase Common Shares or Units (an Option) will automatically be canceled and converted into the right to receive cash equal to the product of (x) the number of Common Shares or Units issuable upon exercise of the Option, and (y) the excess of the Common Share Consideration or Unit Consideration, as applicable, over the exercise price of the Option per Common Share or Unit, respectively, and (iv) each restricted unit issued under the long-term incentive plans of the Operating (a Restricted Unit) will automatically be canceled and converted into the right to receive $45.60 per Restricted Unit, plus accrued and unpaid dividends.

The Transaction was unanimously approved by the Company's Board of Trust Managers, which recommended that the holders of the Common Shares approve the transaction. In addition, Mr. Richard E. Rainwater, Chairman of the Company's Board of Trust Managers, entered into a voting agreement pursuant to which he agreed to vote the Common Shares that he beneficially owns in favor of Company Merger, and the Company and Crescent Real Estate Equities, Ltd., a Delaware corporation and the sole general partner of the Operating Partnership, entered into a voting agreement pursuant to which they agreed to vote their partnership interests in favor of the Partnership Merger, in each case for so long as the Merger Agreement has not been terminated.

The Company, the Operating Partnership and the Buyer Parties have made various representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. Among other things, the Company is subject to restrictions on its ability to solicit third-party proposals, or provide information to and engage in discussions with such third parties. Subject to the terms of the Merger Agreement, however, the Company may provide information and participate in discussions with respect to any unsolicited third party proposal that the Board of Trust Managers, after consultation with its advisors and notice to the Buyer Parties, determines is reasonably likely to be or become a Superior Proposal as defined in the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated by the Company and/or Parent under certain circumstances, including if the Mergers have not been consummated on or before October 31, 2007, if the Company's shareholders do not approve the Transaction, if a party is in breach of the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement such that a condition to closing is incapable of being satisfied, or if the Company has approved a Superior Proposal in accordance with the Merger Agreement. In the event the Merger Agreement is terminated because the Company's Board of Trust Managers decides to recommend a Superior Proposal to the Company's shareholders or if the Company's shareholders do not approve the Transaction and the Company announces an Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) before the Merger Agreement is terminated and enters into an agreement with respect to such proposal within 12 months of the termination of the Merger Agreement, the Company is obligated to pay a fee of $64,200,000 to Parent.

Completion of the Transaction is subject to approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding Common Shares, as well as to the satisfaction of certain customary closing conditions and the possible review and clearance of necessary filings by the Securities and Exchange Commission and other governmental authorities. Morgan Stanley and Morgan Stanley Real Estate Funding II, L.P. have agreed to guarantee the payment obligations of the Buyer Parties under the Merger Agreement in the amount of up to $300,000,000.

The foregoing description of the Mergers and the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 2.01 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

On May 22, 2007, the Company issued a press release announcing the Mergers, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
