Dear Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Slade's Ferry Bancorp. (Slade's Ferry) to be held at the Advanced Technology and Manufacturing Center (ATMC), 151 Martine Street, Fall River, Massachusetts 02723 on January 17, 2008 at 10:00 a.m., local time. At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve a merger agreement (the merger agreement) under which Slade's Ferry will merge with and into Independent Bank Corp. (Independent).

If the merger agreement is approved and the merger is subsequently completed, each share of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive either $25.50 in cash or 0.818 shares of Independent common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. Subject to election and proration procedures described in this document, you will be entitled to elect to receive your merger consideration in the form of Independent common stock, cash or a combination of both. All elections are subject to adjustment to ensure that 25% of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash, and 75% of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive Independent common stock. Independent common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the trading symbol INDB. On December 4, 2007, the closing price of Independent common stock was $27.83 per share.

The merger cannot be completed unless the shareholders of Slade's Ferry approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Slade's Ferry's board of directors unanimously adopted and approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Slade's Ferry and its shareholders, and accordingly unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

This document serves as the proxy statement for the special meeting of shareholders of Slade's Ferry and the prospectus for the shares of Independent common stock to be issued in the merger, and includes detailed information about the special meeting, the merger, and the documents related to the merger. We urge you to read this entire document carefully, including the discussion in the section titled Risk Factors beginning on page []. You can also obtain information about Slade's Ferry and Independent from documents that have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Your vote is important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card or by submitting a proxy through the Internet or by telephone as described on the enclosed proxy card. If you submit a properly signed proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote FOR approval of the merger agreement. The failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Sincerely,

Mary Lynn D. Lenz
President and Chief Executive Officer

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
To Be Held On January 17, 2008

A special meeting of shareholders of Slade s Ferry Bancorp. will be held at the Advanced Technology and Manufacturing Center (ATMC), 151 Martine Street, Fall River, Massachusetts 02723 on January 17, 2008 at 10:00 a.m., local time, for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 11, 2007, by and among Independent Bank Corp., Rockland Trust Company, Slade s Ferry Bancorp. and Slade s Ferry Trust Company, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to the accompanying document, and the transactions contemplated thereby;
2. To consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of that meeting, to approve the merger agreement; and
3. To consider and act upon any other matters as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of that meeting.

The Slade s Ferry board of directors has fixed the close of business on December 7, 2007 as the record date for the special meeting. Accordingly, only shareholders of record on that date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. The affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Slade s Ferry common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Slade s Ferry believes that, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 156D, Section 13.02 of the Massachusetts General Laws, shareholders of Slade s Ferry are not entitled to dissent to the merger and assert appraisal rights under Sections 13.01 to 13.03 of Chapter 156D. If you do not vote in person or by proxy, the effect will be a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Peter G. Collias

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

Q: Why am I receiving this document?

A: Independent Bank Corp. and Slade's Ferry Bancorp. have agreed to the acquisition of Slade's Ferry by Independent under the terms of a merger agreement that is described in this document. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this document as Appendix A. In order to complete the merger, Slade's Ferry shareholders must vote to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Slade's Ferry will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to obtain this approval. This document contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, the special meeting of Slade's Ferry shareholders, and other related matters, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed voting materials for the special meeting allow you to vote your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock without attending the special meeting.

Q: What will happen in the merger?

A: In the proposed merger, Slade's Ferry will merge with and into Independent, with Independent being the surviving corporation. In addition, Slade's Ferry Trust Company, Slade's Ferry's banking subsidiary (Slades Bank), will merge with and into Rockland Trust Company, Independent's banking subsidiary (Rockland Trust), with Rockland Trust being the surviving entity.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: You will receive merger consideration in a per share amount equal to either $25.50 in cash or 0.818 shares of Independent common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. You may elect to receive your merger consideration in cash, Independent common stock, or a combination of both. However, the form of merger consideration you actually receive may differ from the form of consideration you elect to receive. This is because the consideration to be received by Slade's Ferry shareholders is subject to allocation procedures, which are intended to ensure that 25% of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash, and 75% of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive Independent common stock. As a result, if more Slade's Ferry shareholders make valid elections to receive either Independent common stock or cash than is available as merger consideration under the merger agreement, those Slade's Ferry shareholders electing the over-subscribed form of consideration will have the over-subscribed consideration proportionately reduced and will receive a portion of their consideration in the other form, despite their election.

Q: Will I receive any fractional shares of Independent common stock as part of the merger consideration?

A: No. Fractional shares of Independent common stock will not be issued in the merger. Instead, Independent will pay you the cash value of a fractional share measured by the average of the closing sale prices of Independent common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the five trading days ending on the day before the completion of the merger.

Q: How do I make an election as to the form of merger consideration I wish to receive?

A: No later than 20 business days prior to the anticipated election deadline (which will be a date mutually agreed upon by Slade's Ferry and Independent), we will mail to you separately an election form and letter of transmittal for the surrender of your Slade's Ferry stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration. Along with those documents, you will receive detailed instructions describing the procedures you must follow to make your election. We also will publicly announce the election deadline, which will be before the closing date for the merger.

We are not making any recommendation to you as to whether or not you should elect to receive cash, shares of Independent common stock or a combination of each in the merger. You should evaluate your own specific circumstances and investment preferences in making your election.

Table of Contents

Q: Can I elect to receive my merger consideration in the form of cash with respect to a portion of my Slade's Ferry shares and Independent common stock with respect to the rest of my Slade's Ferry shares?

A: Yes. The election form and letter of transmittal will permit you, subject to the proration procedures described in this document, to receive at your election:

all of your merger consideration in the form of shares of Independent common stock;

all of your merger consideration in the form of cash; or a portion of your merger consideration in cash and the remaining portion in shares of Independent common stock.

Please see the examples set forth in the section of this document titled The Merger Agreement Election Procedures beginning on page [] of this document.

Q: Will I be able to trade the shares of Independent common stock that I receive in the merger?

A: You may freely trade the shares of Independent common stock issued in the merger, unless you are an affiliate of Slade's Ferry. The shares will be quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol INDB. Persons who are considered affiliates (generally directors, officers and 10% or greater shareholders) of Slade's Ferry must comply with Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933 if they wish to sell or otherwise transfer any of the shares of Independent common stock that they receive in the merger. We will notify you if we believe you are an affiliate of Slade's Ferry.

Q: What will happen to shares of Independent common stock in the merger?

A: Each share of Independent common stock outstanding will remain outstanding as a share of Independent common stock, and the rights of each share of common stock will not change as a result of the merger. After the merger, however, the current shareholders of Independent as a group will own approximately 83.9% of Independent, a percentage ownership of the combined organization smaller than such shareholder's percentage ownership of Independent before the merger. Because of this, Independent's current shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Independent than they have before the merger.

Q: What are the material federal income tax consequences of the merger to me?

A: In general, if you are a U.S. holder (as defined under Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page [] of this document) and exchange all of your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock for shares of Independent common stock, you will not recognize either gain or loss for federal income tax purposes, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Independent common stock.

If you are a U.S. holder and exchange your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock for a combination of cash and Independent common stock, you generally will recognize gain, but not loss, for federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of cash you receive in the merger; or (2) the amount, if any, by which the sum of the fair market value, as of the effective time of the merger, of any shares of Independent common stock that you receive, and the amount of cash you receive in the merger, exceeds your adjusted tax basis in your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock.

Edgar Filing: INDEPENDENT BANK CORP - Form S-4/A

If you exchange all of your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock solely for cash in the merger, you will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and your tax basis in the Slade's Ferry common stock surrendered. Any capital gain or loss recognized generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if you held the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock for more than one year at the time the merger is completed. Long-term gain of an individual generally is subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax of 15%.

v

For a more detailed discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger and certain requirements, see Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page [] of this document.

The above described tax treatment may not apply to all Slade s Ferry shareholders. We strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Q: What are the conditions to completion of the merger?

A: The obligations of Independent and Slade s Ferry to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain closing conditions contained in the merger agreement, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals, tax opinions and approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby by Slade s Ferry shareholders.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We will complete the merger when all of the conditions to completion contained in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, including obtaining customary regulatory approvals and the approval of the merger agreement by Slade s Ferry shareholders at the special meeting. We currently expect to complete the merger during the first calendar quarter of 2008. However, because fulfillment of some of the conditions to completion of the merger, such as receiving required regulatory approvals, is not entirely within our control, we cannot predict the actual timing.

Q: What shareholder approvals are required to complete the merger?

A: For Slade s Ferry, the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Slade s Ferry common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. For Independent, no approval of shareholders is needed and no vote will be taken.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting of shareholders of Slade s Ferry will be held at the Advanced Technology and Manufacturing Center (ATMC), 151 Martine Street, Fall River, Massachusetts 02723 on January 17, 2008 at 10:00 a.m., local time.

Q: What will happen at the special meeting?

A: At the special meeting, Slade s Ferry shareholders will consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and consider and act upon any other matters as may properly come before the special meeting. If, at the time of the special meeting, there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, we may ask you to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, so that we can solicit additional proxies.

Q: Does Slade s Ferry s board of directors recommend voting in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby?

A: Yes. After careful consideration, Slade s Ferry s board of directors unanimously recommends that Slade s Ferry shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Q: Are there any risks that I should consider in deciding whether to vote for approval of the merger agreement?

A: Yes. You should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth in the section in this document titled Risk Factors beginning on page [].

Table of Contents

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: You should carefully read and consider the information contained in or incorporated by reference into this document, including its appendices. It contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, Independent and Slade s Ferry. After you have read and considered this information, you should complete and sign your proxy card and return it in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope or submit a proxy through the Internet or by telephone as soon as possible so that your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock will be represented and voted at the special meeting.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, bank or other nominee, will my broker, bank or other nominee automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker, bank or other nominee will not vote your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock unless you provide instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote. You should fill out the voter instruction form sent to you by your broker, bank or other nominee with this document.

Q: What if I fail to submit my proxy card or to instruct my broker, bank or other nominee?

A: If you fail to submit your proxy card or to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock and you do not attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person, your shares will not be voted and this will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Q: Can I attend the special meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. Although the Slade s Ferry board of directors requests that you return the proxy card accompanying this document, all Slade s Ferry shareholders are invited to attend the special meeting. Shareholders of record on December 7, 2007 can vote in person at the special meeting. If your shares are held by a broker, bank or other nominee, then you are not the shareholder of record and you must bring to the special meeting appropriate documentation from your broker, bank or other nominee to enable you to vote at the special meeting.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have submitted my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. If you have not voted through your broker, bank or other nominee, you can change your vote at any time after you have submitted your proxy card and before your proxy is voted at the special meeting.

You may deliver a written notice bearing a date later than the date of your proxy card to the clerk/secretary of Slade s Ferry, stating that you revoke your proxy.

You may sign and deliver to the clerk/secretary of Slade s Ferry a new proxy card relating to the same shares and bearing a later date.

You may properly cast a new vote through the Internet or by telephone at any time before the closure of the Internet voting facilities and the telephone voting facilities.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this document and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should carefully read this entire document and the other documents to which this document refers to fully understand the merger and the related transactions. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page [] of this document. Most items in this summary include a page reference directing you to a more complete description of those items.

Unless the context otherwise requires, throughout this document, Independent refers to Independent Bank Corp., Slade s Ferry refers to Slade s Ferry Bancorp., Rockland Trust refers to Rockland Trust Company and Slades Bank refers to Slade s Ferry Trust Company; and we, us and our collectively refer to Independent and Slade s Ferry. Also we refer to the merger between Independent and Slade s Ferry as the merger, the merger between Rockland Trust and Slades Bank as the bank merger and the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 11, 2007, by and among Independent, Rockland Trust, Slade s Ferry and Slades Bank as the merger agreement.

The Merger (see page [])

The terms and conditions of the merger are contained in the merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus. Please carefully read the merger agreement, as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

Slade s Ferry Will Merge into Independent

We propose a merger of Slade s Ferry with and into Independent. Independent will survive the merger. In addition, Slades Bank will merge with and into Rockland Trust, with Rockland Trust surviving the bank merger.

Table of Contents

Merger Consideration (see pages []-[])

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Slade s Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive either:

$25.50 in cash (which is referred to as the cash consideration); or

0.818 shares of Independent common stock, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share (which is referred to as the stock consideration).

You will have the opportunity to elect the form of consideration that you receive in the merger in exchange for your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock. You may elect to receive a portion of your merger consideration in cash and the remaining portion in shares of Independent common stock. However, your right to receive the form of consideration that you elect for your shares will be subject to allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement. These allocation procedures are intended to ensure that 25% of the outstanding shares of Slade s Ferry common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive cash, and 75% of these shares of Slade s Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive Independent common stock.

Independent will not issue fractional shares. Instead, Slade s Ferry shareholders who receive Independent common stock will receive the value of any fractional share in cash based on the average of the last sale prices of a share of Independent common stock, as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, for the five trading days preceding the closing date of the merger, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

Election Procedures (see pages []-[])

The shares of Slade s Ferry common stock that you hold will be exchanged for cash, Independent common stock or a combination of cash and Independent common stock as chosen by you, subject to the allocation procedures described in the merger agreement. Prior to the closing date of the merger, you will be sent an election form and detailed instructions to permit you to choose your preferred consideration. You have the following choices:

you may elect to receive $25.50 per share in cash in exchange for all shares of Slade s Ferry common stock that you hold;

you may elect to receive 0.818 shares of Independent common stock in exchange for all shares of Slade s Ferry common stock that you hold, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share;

you may elect to receive the cash consideration with respect to a portion of the shares of Slade s Ferry common stock that you hold, and the stock consideration with respect to your remaining shares; or you may make no election with respect to the consideration to be received by you in exchange for your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock.

You will have a limited period of time in which to complete the election form and return it as instructed. The election form will be mailed to you at least 20 business days prior to the anticipated election deadline (which will be a date mutually agreed upon by Slade s Ferry and Independent). Since the actual election deadline is not currently known, Independent will publicly announce the date of the election deadline as soon as practicable after it is determined. You will need to surrender your Slade s Ferry stock certificates to receive the appropriate consideration, but you should not send us any certificates now. You will receive detailed instructions on how to exchange your stock certificates along with your election form. If you do not submit an election form, you will receive instructions on where to surrender your Slade s Ferry stock certificates after the merger is completed.

If your shares or a portion of your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock are held in street name by a broker, bank or other nominee, an election form will be mailed to the broker, bank or other nominee with respect to those shares.

Table of Contents

If you hold a portion of your shares in an individual retirement account and the remaining portion of your shares is held directly in your name, you will receive two election forms: one for your shares held in the individual retirement account and one for the shares held directly in your name.

Allocation Procedures (see page [])

The merger agreement provides for overall limitations on the amount of cash and shares of Independent common stock available in the merger as follows:

25% of the total number of outstanding shares of Slade s Ferry common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive the cash consideration; and

75% of these shares of Slade s Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration.

As a result, whether you receive the amount of cash and/or stock you request in your election form will depend in part on the elections of other Slade s Ferry shareholders. You may not receive exactly the form of consideration that you elect in the merger, and you may instead receive a pro rata amount of cash and Independent common stock.

If you have a preference for receiving either cash or Independent common stock for your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock, you should return the election form indicating your preference. Slade s Ferry shareholders who make an election will be accorded priority over those shareholders who make no election in instances where the cash consideration or stock consideration must be re-allocated in order to achieve the required ratio of Slade s Ferry shares being converted into the right to receive cash and Independent common stock. If you do not make an election, you will be allocated cash and/or Independent common stock depending on the elections made by other Slade s Ferry shareholders. Please see the examples set forth in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled The Merger Agreement Allocation Procedures beginning on page []. However, even if you do make an election, the form of merger consideration you actually receive may differ from the form of merger consideration you elect to receive.

The market price of Independent common stock will fluctuate between the date of this document, the date of your election and the effective time of the merger. Because the exchange ratio is fixed, such fluctuations will alter the value of the shares of Independent common stock that you may receive in the merger. In addition, because the tax consequences of receiving cash will differ from the tax consequences of receiving Independent common stock, you should carefully read the section in this proxy statement/prospectus titled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page [].

What Holders of Slade s Ferry Stock Options Will Receive (see page [])

Immediately before we complete the merger, any outstanding Slade s Ferry stock options will be cancelled, and each option holder will be entitled to receive cash equal to the number of Slade s Ferry shares subject to that holder s option(s), multiplied by the excess, if any, of $25.50 over the per-share exercise price of that holder s option, less any required withholding taxes.

Dividend Policy of Independent; Dividends from Slade s Ferry (see page [])

The holders of Independent common stock receive dividends as and when declared by Independent s board of directors. Independent declared quarterly cash dividends of $0.16 per share of common stock for each quarter in 2006 and dividends of $0.17 per share of common stock for each of the first three quarters of 2007. Following the completion of the merger, subject to approval and declaration by Independent s board of directors, Independent expects to continue paying quarterly cash dividends on a basis consistent with past practices.

Prior to completion of the merger, Slade s Ferry shareholders will continue to receive any regular quarterly dividends declared and paid by Slade s Ferry, at a rate not to exceed $0.09 per share of Slade s Ferry common stock.

Table of Contents

Source of Funds

Independent's obligation to complete the merger is not conditioned upon Independent obtaining financing. Independent anticipates that approximately $27.6 million will be required to pay the aggregate cash merger consideration to Slade's Ferry shareholders and option holders. Independent intends to finance the cash component of the transaction through internal cash resources, including existing borrowing capabilities or other sources of liquidity available to Rockland Trust.

Slade's Ferry's Financial Advisor Has Provided an Opinion as to the Fairness of the Merger Consideration, from a Financial Point of View, to Slade's Ferry Shareholders (see pages [])

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW), has provided an opinion to Slade's Ferry's board of directors, dated as of October 11, 2007, that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the consideration to be received by the holders of Slade's Ferry common stock in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders. We have attached to this proxy statement/prospectus the full text of KBW's opinion as Appendix B, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW in connection with its opinion. We urge you to read the opinion in its entirety. KBW's opinion is addressed to Slade's Ferry's board of directors, is directed only to the consideration to be paid in the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how that shareholder should vote on the merger agreement. Pursuant to an engagement letter between Slade's Ferry and KBW, Slade's Ferry has agreed to pay KBW a fee, a substantial portion of which is payable only upon completion of the merger.

Slade's Ferry's Board of Directors Recommends that Slade's Ferry Shareholders Vote FOR Approval of the Merger Agreement (see page [])

Slade's Ferry's board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Slade's Ferry and its shareholders and accordingly unanimously recommends that Slade's Ferry shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

In determining whether to approve the merger agreement, Slade's Ferry's board of directors consulted with certain of its senior management and with its legal and financial advisors. In arriving at its determination, Slade's Ferry's board of directors also considered the factors described under The Merger Recommendation of Slade's Ferry's Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger.

Interests of Slade's Ferry's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger (see pages []-[])

Some of the directors and executive officers of Slade's Ferry have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of other Slade's Ferry shareholders generally. These interests include rights of executive officers under employment agreements and change of control agreements with Slade's Ferry, rights under Slade's Ferry's equity-based benefit programs and awards, and rights to continued indemnification and insurance coverage by Independent after the merger for acts and omissions occurring before the merger. In addition, Independent entered into non-competition agreements with Mary Lynn D. Lenz, Slade's Ferry's President and Chief Executive Officer, and Deborah A. McLaughlin, Slade's Ferry's Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer/Chief Financial Officer, under which Ms. Lenz and Ms. McLaughlin will each be paid $100,000 by Independent on the effective date of the merger.

Slade's Ferry's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement.

Slade s Ferry Directors and Certain Executive Officers Have Agreed to Vote in Favor of the Merger Agreement
(see page [])

On October 11, 2007, the directors and certain executive officers of Slade s Ferry had sole or shared voting power over 301,442 shares, or 7.4%, of the outstanding shares of Slade s Ferry common stock and

Table of Contents

449,882 shares, or approximately 10.5%, of the fully diluted shares of Slade's Ferry common stock. These directors and officers have agreed with Independent to vote their shares of Slade's Ferry common stock in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Boards of Directors after the Merger (see page [])

Contingent upon consummation of the merger, one current Slade's Ferry director will be elected to the boards of directors of Independent and Rockland Trust. Independent will select the director in its sole discretion. He or she will become a member of the class of Independent's and Rockland Trust's boards that has the longest term remaining.

Non-Solicitation (see pages []-[])

Slade's Ferry has agreed that it will not solicit or knowingly encourage any inquiries or proposals regarding any acquisition proposals by third parties. Slade's Ferry may respond to unsolicited proposals in certain circumstances if required by Slade's Ferry's board of directors' fiduciary duties. Slade's Ferry must promptly notify Independent if it receives any acquisition proposals.

Conditions to Complete the Merger (see pages []-[])

Each of Independent's and Slade's Ferry's obligations to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of mutual conditions, including:

the approval of the merger agreement by Slade's Ferry shareholders;

the approval of the listing of Independent common stock to be issued in the merger on the NASDAQ Global Select Market;

the effectiveness of the registration statement with respect to the Independent common stock to be issued in the merger under the Securities Act of 1933, and the absence of any stop order or proceedings initiated or threatened by the Securities and Exchange Commission for that purpose;

the receipt and effectiveness of all regulatory approvals, registrations and consents (none of which shall contain a burdensome condition, as defined below), and the expiration of all waiting periods required to complete the merger; and the absence of any statute, regulation, rule, decree, injunction or other order in effect by any court or other governmental entity that prohibits completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Each of Independent's and Slade's Ferry's obligations to complete the merger is also separately subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including:

the receipt by the party of a legal opinion from its counsel with respect to certain federal income tax consequences of the merger;

the other company's representations and warranties in the merger agreement being true and correct, in all material respects, and the performance by the other party in all material respects of its obligations under the merger agreement.

Independent's obligation to complete the merger is further subject to the conditions that:

the number of outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock shall not exceed 4,062,353, except to the extent increased as a result of the exercise of stock options;

each Slade's Ferry director and executive officer must deliver to Independent an agreement to vote the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock beneficially owned by him or her in favor of the merger agreement;

Table of Contents

Slade s Ferry must deliver to Independent releases from certain employees regarding the termination of their employment and the satisfaction of all payments due to them;

Mary Lynn D. Lenz and Deborah A. McLaughlin must deliver to Independent non-competition agreements; and the environmental assessments contemplated by the merger agreement shall be completed and shall not indicate the existence of a condition or matter the cost of which is reasonably likely to exceed $50,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate.

Slade s Ferry s obligation to complete the merger is further subject to the condition that Independent s board of directors has approved a donation in the amount of $100,000 by Independent to a charity or charities of Slade s Ferry s choice.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (see page [])

Independent and Slade s Ferry may mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger, even if Slade s Ferry shareholders have approved the merger agreement. Also, either of Independent or Slade s Ferry can terminate the merger agreement in various circumstances, including the following:

if any regulatory approval necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is not obtained;

if the merger is not completed by April 30, 2008;

if the other party breaches the merger agreement in a way that would entitle the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of the breaching party to cure the breach by the earlier of 30 days following written notice or two business days before April 30, 2008 (unless it is not possible due to the nature or timing of the breach for the breaching party to cure the breach); or if Slade s Ferry s shareholders do not approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Additionally, Independent may terminate the merger agreement if:

Slade s Ferry has materially breached its non-solicitation obligations described under The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions beginning on page [];

Slade s Ferry s board fails to recommend in this proxy statement/prospectus the approval of the merger agreement;

Slade s Ferry s board of directors recommends, proposes or publicly announces its intention to recommend or propose, to engage in an Acquisition Transaction with any party other than Independent or a subsidiary of Independent; or

Slade s Ferry breaches its obligation to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of shareholders for the purpose of approving the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Slade s Ferry may also terminate the merger agreement if Independent s average daily closing stock price falls below $24.56 for the ten trading days prior to receipt of the final regulatory approval necessary for consummation of the merger, and the decrease in the trading price of Independent common stock over a specified period exceeds by 20% or more the decrease in the trading prices of an index group over that period. If Slade's Ferry exercises this right, Independent will have the option to increase the ratio of Independent common stock to be exchanged for Slade's Ferry common stock or to augment stock consideration with cash consideration, in which case no termination will be deemed to have occurred.

Slade's Ferry may also terminate the merger agreement if it enters into a Superior Proposal as described under The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions, so long as it pays a termination fee of $3.5 million.

Table of Contents

Termination Fee (see page [])

Slade s Ferry has agreed to pay a termination fee of $3.5 million to Independent if the merger agreement is terminated under any of the circumstances described in The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement.

Slade s Ferry Will Hold a Special Meeting of Shareholders on January 18, 2008 (see page [])

Slade s Ferry will hold a special meeting of shareholders at the Advanced Technology and Manufacturing Center (ATMC), 151 Martine Street, Fall River, Massachusetts 02723 on January 17, 2008 at 10:00 a.m., local time. Slade s Ferry shareholders will be asked:

to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;

to vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies; and

to consider and act upon any other matters as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

You can vote at the Slade s Ferry special meeting if you owned Slade s Ferry common stock at the close of business on December 7, 2007. On that date, there were [] shares of Slade s Ferry common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, approximately []% of which were owned and entitled to be voted by Slade s Ferry directors and executive officers and their affiliates. You can cast one vote for each share of Slade s Ferry common stock you owned on that date. In order to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Slade s Ferry common stock entitled to vote must vote in favor of doing so.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (see pages [])

Completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is subject to various regulatory approvals, including approval from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Board of Bank Incorporation of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Independent and Slade s Ferry have completed, or will complete, filing all of the required applications and notices with regulatory authorities. Although we do not know of any reason why we would not be able to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if we will receive them.

Rights of Independent Shareholders Differ From Those of Slade s Ferry Shareholders (see pages []-[])

When the merger is completed, those Slade s Ferry shareholders who receive Independent common stock as consideration in the merger will automatically become Independent shareholders. The rights of Independent shareholders differ from the rights of Slade s Ferry shareholders in important ways. Many of these differences relate to provisions in Independent s articles of organization and bylaws that differ from those of Slade s Ferry. Some of these provisions are intended to make a takeover of Independent harder if Independent s board of directors does not approve it.

The Merger Generally Will Be Tax-Free to Holders of Slade s Ferry Common Stock to the Extent They Receive Independent Common Stock (see pages [])

The exchange by U.S. holders of Slade s Ferry common stock for Independent common stock has been structured to be generally tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except that:

U.S. holders of Slade s Ferry common stock that receive both cash and Independent common stock generally will recognize gain, but not loss, to the extent of the cash received; the gain recognized will be equal to the lesser of the excess, if any, of the sum of the cash and the fair market value of the Independent common stock received in the merger, over the tax basis in the shares of Slade s Ferry common stock surrendered by the U.S. holder in the merger, or the amount of cash received;

Table of Contents

U.S. holders of Slade s Ferry common stock that receive only cash generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and their tax basis in the Slade s Ferry common stock surrendered; and

U.S. holders of Slade s Ferry common stock generally will recognize gain or loss with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Independent common stock that the former Slade s Ferry shareholders would otherwise be entitled to receive.

Holders of Slade s Ferry common stock should consult with their own tax advisors as to the tax consequences of the merger in their particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Comparative per share market price information (see page [])

Independent common stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol INDB and Slade s Ferry common stock trades on the NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol SFBC. The following table presents the closing sale prices of Independent common stock and Slade s Ferry common stock on October 11, 2007, the last trading day before we announced the merger agreement and December 4, 2007, the last practicable trading day prior to mailing this document. The table also presents the equivalent value of the merger consideration per share of Slade s Ferry common stock on those dates, calculated by multiplying the closing price of Independent common stock on those dates by 0.818, which represents the fraction of a share of Independent common stock that Slade s Ferry shareholders electing to receive Independent common stock would receive in the merger for each share of Slade s Ferry common stock, assuming no proration.

Date	Independent Closing Price	Slade s Ferry Closing Price	Equivalent per Share Value
October 11, 2007	$ 30.25	$ 15.30	$ 24.74
December 4, 2007	$ 27.83	$ 23.07	$ 22.76

The market prices of both Independent common stock and Slade s Ferry common stock will fluctuate prior to the merger. You should obtain current stock price quotations for Independent common stock and Slade s Ferry common stock.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including Independent's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, Slade's Ferry's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 and the matters addressed under the heading Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page [] of this document, you should carefully consider the following risk factors and uncertainties in deciding whether to vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement. See also the section entitled, Where You Can Find More Information on page [] before voting.

Slade's Ferry shareholders may receive a form of consideration different from what they elect. While each Slade's Ferry shareholder may elect to receive all cash, all Independent common stock, or a combination of cash and Independent stock in the merger, the pools of cash and Independent common stock available for all Slade's Ferry shareholders will be fixed amounts (subject to the provisions of the merger agreement). Seventy-five percent of the total number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock shall be converted into stock consideration and twenty-five percent shall be converted into cash consideration. As a result, if either a cash or stock election proves to be more popular among Slade's Ferry shareholders, and you choose the election that is more popular, you might receive a portion of your consideration in the form you did not elect.

Slade's Ferry shareholders cannot be sure of the value of the merger consideration they will receive, because Slade's Ferry shareholders will not control the form of merger consideration they receive and the market price of Independent common stock will fluctuate. Upon completion of the merger, each share of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive merger consideration consisting of shares of Independent common stock and/or cash pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. Because Independent is issuing its shares at a fixed exchange ratio as part of the merger consideration, if you receive your consideration in stock form, any change in the market price of Independent common stock prior to completion of the merger will affect the value of the merger consideration that you will receive. Any number of factors can cause a change in stock price, including general market and economic conditions, changes in the businesses of Independent and/or Slade's Ferry, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond our control. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Independent common stock and for shares of Slade's Ferry common stock. Even with these estimates, however, at the time of the election deadline, Slade's Ferry shareholders will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the value of the stock they would receive upon completion of the merger due to the possibility of further fluctuation. The date that you will receive your merger consideration depends on the completion date of the merger, which is uncertain. The completion date of the merger might be later than expected due to unforeseen events, such as delays in obtaining regulatory approvals.

Slade's Ferry will have the option to terminate the merger agreement if, as described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, the price of Independent stock drops by a certain agreed upon margin and there is not a corresponding drop in value of the NASDAQ Bank Index. If these conditions are both met, and Slade's Ferry elects to terminate the agreement, Independent will then have the option to make an upward adjustment to the amount of consideration that Slade's Ferry shareholders would receive. There is no guarantee, however, that Independent will choose to make such an upward adjustment.

The tax consequences of the merger for Slade's Ferry shareholders will be dependent upon the merger consideration received. The tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the merger consideration received by you. You generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock solely into shares of Independent common stock. However, you generally will be taxed to the extent you receive cash in exchange for your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock or instead of any fractional share of Independent common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive. For a more detailed discussion of the tax consequences of the merger to you, see the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page [] of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Slade s Ferry executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Slade s Ferry shareholders. Executive officers of

Table of Contents

Independent and Slade's Ferry negotiated the terms of the merger agreement, and Independent's and Slade's Ferry's boards of directors unanimously approved this agreement. In considering these facts and the other information contained in this document, you should be aware that Slade's Ferry's executive officers and directors are expected to receive certain compensation and benefits in connection with the merger, including payments and benefits resulting from the settlement of existing employment agreements and defined contribution supplemental executive retirement agreements, the vesting of defined benefit supplemental executive retirement agreements, the entry into non-competition agreements with certain executive officers and the vesting of unvested restricted stock awards. See Interests of Slade's Ferry's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger on page [] for more information.

We may fail to realize all of the anticipated benefits of the merger, particularly if the integration of Independent's and Slade's Ferry's businesses is more difficult than we expect. The success of the merger will depend, in part, on our ability to successfully combine the businesses of Independent and Slade's Ferry. We may fail to realize some or all of the anticipated benefits of the transaction if the integration process takes longer than expected or is more costly than expected. Furthermore, any number of unanticipated adverse occurrences for either the business of Slade's Ferry or Independent may cause us to fail to realize some or all of the expected benefits. The integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. Each of these issues might adversely affect either Independent, Slade's Ferry, or both during the transition period, resulting in adverse effects on Independent following the merger. As a result, revenues may be lower than expected or prices may be higher than expected and the overall benefits of the merger may not be as great as anticipated.

The fairness opinion obtained by Slade's Ferry from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances between signing the merger agreement and the merger. The fairness opinion of Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc., Slade's Ferry's financial advisor, does not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion. Changes in the operations and prospects of Independent or Slade's Ferry, general market and economic conditions and other factors which may be beyond the control of Independent and Slade's Ferry, and on which the fairness opinion was based, may alter the value of Independent or Slade's Ferry or the prices of shares of Independent common stock or Slade's Ferry common stock by the time the merger is completed.

The merger agreement limits Slade's Ferry's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger. The merger agreement requires Slade's Ferry and its subsidiaries to cease any prior discussions relating to acquisition or merger proposals and not to solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage, discuss or negotiate any inquiry or proposal that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, as defined by the merger agreement, except in limited circumstances provided in the merger agreement. Except in limited circumstances provided in the merger agreement, Slade's Ferry's board of directors may not withhold, withdraw or modify its recommendation in favor of the merger or approve or recommend any Acquisition Proposal and may not allow Slade's Ferry to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or other agreement relating to any Acquisition Proposal. Slade's Ferry's board of directors may withdraw its recommendation and take other actions specified by the merger agreement if it receives a competing Acquisition Proposal that it reasonably believes is credible and if the board determines in good faith that the terms of the proposal are more favorable from a financial point of view to Slade's Ferry's shareholders than the merger, that the transaction contemplated by such proposal is reasonably likely to be consummated on the terms set forth and for which the financing, to the extent required, is committed. In all other instances, however, any solicitation in violation of the merger agreement would entitle Independent to terminate the merger agreement. These non-solicitation provisions might discourage a potential acquiror from making an offer to Slade's Ferry.

Certain provisions of Independent's articles of organization and bylaws may prevent or delay future transactions or other changes that shareholders in the combined company may believe are desirable. Following completion of the merger, the rights of former Slade s Ferry shareholders who receive the stock consideration will be governed by Independent s articles of organization and bylaws, in addition to the provisions of Massachusetts law. The articles of organization and bylaws of Independent contain provisions that are in addition to, or different from, the provisions set forth in Slade's Ferry's articles of incorporation and bylaws. These provisions could prevent or delay future transactions or other changes that the combined company's shareholders may believe to be in their best interests. These additional or different provisions include: the percentage of shareholders needed to call a special meeting, the maximum age and minimum number of directors, the possibility of an additional class of directors to be elected by preferred shareholders, the ability of shareholders to repeal bylaws and provisions for approval of business combinations. See Comparison of Rights of Shareholders of Slade's Ferry and Independent on page [] for more information regarding the differences between the rights of Independent shareholders and Slade's Ferry shareholders.

Slade's Ferry's shareholders will have less influence as shareholders of Independent than as shareholders of Slade's Ferry. Slade's Ferry's shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of Slade's Ferry and on other matters affecting Slade's Ferry. After the merger, the shareholders of Slade's Ferry as a group will own approximately 16.1% of Independent. When the merger occurs, each Slade's Ferry shareholder who receives shares of Independent common stock will become a shareholder of Independent with a percentage ownership of the combined organization much smaller than such shareholder's percentage ownership of Slade's Ferry. Because of this, Slade's Ferry's shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Independent than they now have on the management and policies of Slade's Ferry.

The unaudited pro forma financial data included in this document is preliminary and Independent's actual financial position and results of operations after the merger may differ materially from the unaudited pro forma financial data included in this document. The unaudited pro forma financial data in this document are presented for illustrative purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of what the combined company's actual financial position or results of operations would have been had the merger been completed on the dates indicated. These data reflect adjustments, which are based upon preliminary estimates, to allocate the purchase price to Slade's Ferry's net assets. The purchase price allocation reflected in this document is preliminary, and final allocation of the purchase price will be based upon the actual purchase price and the fair value of the assets and liabilities of Slade's Ferry as of the date of the completion of the merger. In addition, subsequent to the merger completion date, there may be further refinements of the purchase price allocation as additional information becomes available. Accordingly, the final purchase accounting adjustments may differ materially from the pro forma adjustments reflected in this document. See Summary Historical and Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information on page [] for more information.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consents and approvals from government entities that may impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on Independent. Before the merger may be completed, various approvals or consents must be obtained from the various bank regulatory and other authorities in the United States and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. These governmental entities, including the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Federal Reserve Board, and Division of Banks of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. While Independent and Slade's Ferry do not currently expect that any such conditions or changes would be imposed, there can be no assurance that they will not be, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of Independent following the merger, any of which might have a material adverse effect on Independent following the merger. Independent is not obligated to complete the merger if the regulatory approvals received in connection with the completion of the merger include any conditions or restrictions that would constitute a Burdensome Condition as defined in the merger agreement. See The Merger Regulatory Approvals Required to Complete the Merger on page [] of this proxy statement/prospectus for more information.

- (1) Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Interpretation (FIN) No. 46 Revised. Consolidation of Variable Entities an Interpretation of Accounting Research Bulletin FIN. 51 (FIN 46R) required the Company to deconsolidate its two subsidiary trusts (Independent Capital Trust III and Independent Capital Trust IV) on March 31, 2004. The result of deconsolidating these subsidiary trusts is that trust preferred securities of the trusts, which were classified between liabilities and equity on the balance sheet (mezzanine section), no longer appear on the consolidated balance sheets of the Company. The related minority interest expense also is no longer included in the consolidated statement of income. Due to FIN 46R, the junior subordinated debentures of the parent company that were previously eliminated in consolidation are now included in the consolidated balance sheets within total borrowings. The interest expense on the junior subordinated debentures is included in the calculation of net interest margin of the consolidated company, negatively impacting the net interest margin by approximately 0.13% for the twelve months ending December 31, 2004 on an annualized basis and 0.16% for the fiscal years to follow. There is no impact on net income as the amount of interest previously recognized as minority interest is equal to the amount of interest expense.
- (2) Calculated by dividing total stockholders equity by the net outstanding shares as of the end of each period.
- (3) Calculated by dividing stockholders equity less goodwill and core deposit intangible by the net outstanding shares as of the end of each period.
- (4) In 2002, prior to the adoption of FIN 46R, the write-off of trust preferred issuance costs were recorded directly to equity and shown on the income statement as a reduction to Net Income to calculate Net Income Available to Common Shareholders. These ratios were determined using Net Income.
- (5) Ratios for the nine-month periods are reported on an annualized basis.
- (6) Including credit quality discount for the year 2002.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2007 and unaudited pro forma condensed combined consolidated statements of income for the year ended December 31, 2006 and for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 combine the historical financial statements of Independent and Slade's Ferry. The unaudited pro forma financial statements give effect to the proposed merger of Slade's Ferry with and into Independent as if the merger occurred on September 30, 2007 with respect to the balance sheet, and on January 1, 2007 and January 1, 2006 with respect to the statements of income for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 and the year ended December 31, 2006, respectively. The unaudited pro forma financial statements give effect to the proposed merger under the purchase method of accounting.

The purchase method of accounting requires that all of Slade's Ferry assets and liabilities be adjusted to their estimated fair values as of the date of acquisition. For purposes of the unaudited pro forma financial statements, fair value of September 30, 2007 assets and liabilities has been estimated by Independent's management using market information available on September 30, 2007. Accordingly, these adjustments are only approximations. This information may not necessarily be indicative of the financial position or results of operations that would have occurred if the merger had been consummated on the date or at the beginning of the periods indicated or which may be obtained in the future. Upon consummation of the merger, Independent will make adjustments as of the date of consummation based on appraisals and estimates.

The unaudited pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect benefits of expected cost savings or opportunities to earn additional revenue and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have been had our companies been combined during this period.

Proposal to Approve Adjournment of the Special Meeting

Slade s Ferry is submitting a proposal for consideration at the special meeting to authorize the named proxies to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting. Even though a quorum may be present at the special meeting, it is possible that Slade s Ferry may not have received sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement by the time of the special meeting. In that event, Slade s Ferry would need to adjourn the special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies. The adjournment proposal relates only to an adjournment of the special meeting for purposes of soliciting additional proxies to obtain the requisite shareholder vote to approve the merger agreement. Any other adjournment of the special meeting (e.g., an adjournment required because of the absence of a quorum) would be voted upon pursuant to the discretionary authority granted by the proxy. If the special meeting is adjourned for 30 days or less, Slade s Ferry is not required to give notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting if the new time and place is announced at the meeting before adjournment, unless the board of directors fixes a new record date for the special meeting.

The adjournment proposal relates only to an adjournment of the special meeting occurring for purposes of soliciting additional proxies for approval of the merger agreement proposal in the event that there are insufficient votes to approve that proposal. Each of the Slade s Ferry board of directors and the presiding officer of the special meeting retains full authority to the extent set forth in Slade s Ferry s bylaws and under Massachusetts law to adjourn the special meeting for any other purpose, or to postpone the special meeting before it is convened, without the consent of any Slade s Ferry shareholders.

THE MERGER

General

Under the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Slade's Ferry will be merged with and into Independent, with Independent being the surviving corporation. At the effective time of the merger, each share of Slade's Ferry common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the shareholder, be converted into the right to receive either:

$25.50 in cash (which is referred to as the cash consideration); or

0.818 shares of Independent common stock (which is referred to as the stock consideration).

You will have the opportunity to elect the form of consideration to be received for all shares of Slade's Ferry common stock that you hold, subject to proration procedures set forth in the merger agreement. You may elect to receive a portion of your merger consideration in cash and the remaining portion in shares of Independent common stock. The proration procedures included in the merger agreement are intended to ensure that twenty-five percent of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock will be exchanged for cash and seventy-five percent will be exchanged for shares of Independent common stock.

Background of the Merger

Slade's Ferry's board of directors and senior management have regularly reviewed Slade's Ferry's strategic alternatives and assessed various opportunities for increasing long-term shareholder value, including opportunities for enhancing earnings internally, opportunistic de novo branching, and acquiring and/or affiliating with other financial institutions. Although the board of directors and management have generally pursued the goal of increasing long-term shareholder value by remaining an independent financial institution focused on profitable growth, the board and management have also been acutely aware in recent years of changes in the financial services industry and the competitive challenges facing smaller financial institutions. These challenges have included increasing government regulation, increasing expense burdens and commitments for technology and training, expenses related to Sarbanes-Oxley Act compliance, an interest rate environment resulting in the compression of net interest margin and increasing customer expectations for sophisticated products and services. The reviews of Slade's Ferry's strategic alternatives included periodic assessments by outside financial advisors of Slade's Ferry's financial performance and return to shareholders, stock trading patterns, and trends in the financial marketplace, including merger and acquisition activity, both local and nationwide. Often, these reviews included discussions of the board of directors' fiduciary duties with Slade's Ferry's legal counsel and its financial advisor.

As part of Slade's Ferry's periodic reviews and updates, the board of directors conducted a strategic planning session on June 11, 2007. The strategic planning session was coordinated by EPG, Inc., a consulting firm that provides asset and liability management, investment and strategic planning advice to Slade's Ferry. At the session, Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW), Slade's Ferry's financial advisor, delivered a presentation that generally discussed market conditions and strategic alternatives and Thacher Proffitt & Wood llp (Thacher Proffitt), Slade's Ferry's legal counsel, delivered a presentation regarding strategic alternatives and fiduciary duties in connection therewith. The board of directors did not resolve to embrace any specific course of action, and determined that further discussions regarding Slade's Ferry's business plan, market conditions and strategic alternatives were appropriate. Thereafter, another strategic planning session was scheduled to be held on July 26, 2007.

At the July 26, 2007 strategic planning session, KBW and Thacher Proffitt delivered updated presentations to the board of directors. Representatives of EPG, Inc. also attended the strategic planning session. KBW's presentation provided a general overview of Slade's Ferry's banking franchise, described certain financial institutions that could have an interest in acquiring Slade's Ferry should the board of directors decide to take steps in that direction, and generally described certain New England transactions that would be comparable to an acquisition of Slade's Ferry. Thacher Proffitt's presentation detailed the considerations that the board of directors and management should focus on in the context of a merger or acquisition. At the conclusion of the planning session, the board of directors resolved to take steps towards exploring a potential sale of Slade's Ferry and narrowed the list of potential acquirors to four of the financial institutions included in the KBW presentation. The board of directors also authorized the engagement of KBW to act as Slade's Ferry's financial advisor in connection with exploring a potential transaction.

During the next two weeks, KBW and Slade's Ferry prepared certain financial and other non-public information regarding Slade's Ferry that would be delivered to the four potential acquirors. On August 9, 2007, KBW was authorized to contact certain potential acquirors to gauge their interest in a transaction with Slade's Ferry.

Between August 13 and August 16, 2007, four potential acquirors entered into confidentiality agreements with KBW, as agent for Slade's Ferry, and KBW delivered a confidential information memorandum to those potential acquirors. The four potential acquirors were: Independent, Company A, Company B, and Company C.

During the morning of August 22, 2007, Mary Lynn D. Lenz, Slade's Ferry's President and Chief Executive Officer, and Deborah A. McLaughlin, Slade's Ferry's Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer/Chief Financial Officer, met with representatives of Company C and during the afternoon met with representatives of Independent to discuss Slade's Ferry's business.

On August 28, 2007, KBW received letters containing initial indications of interest in acquiring Slade's Ferry from Independent, Company A, and Company B. Each of the indications of interest was subject to due diligence investigations of Slade's Ferry by the potential acquirors and their representatives. Company C declined to submit an indication of interest for undisclosed reasons.

Independent proposed a transaction in which Independent would acquire Slade's Ferry in a merger transaction for a mixture of cash and Independent stock. The purchase price would equal $24.50 per share, seventy five percent of which would be paid in Independent common stock and twenty five percent would be paid in cash.

Company A proposed a transaction in which Company A would acquire Slade's Ferry in a merger transaction for $27.00 per share in cash.

Company B proposed a transaction in which Company B would acquire Slade's Ferry in a merger transaction for a mixture of cash and Company B common stock. The purchase price would be in the range of $22.00 to $24.00 per share, with approximately seventy five percent paid in Company B common stock and twenty five percent paid in cash.

On August 29, 2007, Slade's Ferry's board of directors held a meeting to review the indications of interest from Independent, Company A, and Company B. Representatives of KBW attended the meeting and Thacher Proffitt participated via teleconference. KBW updated the board of directors on the financial performance and market performance of the three companies and reviewed the price, form of consideration, and other transaction details as outlined in their respective indications of interest. The board of directors voted to instruct KBW to explore whether Independent would be willing to increase its bid to a level the board considered to be competitive with Company A's bid. The board further determined that if Independent was unable to do so, then Slade's Ferry would invite Company A only, and not Independent, to conduct due diligence.

Following conversations with KBW, Independent on August 29, 2007 increased its bid but, in the opinion of Slade's Ferry's board of directors, that increase was insufficient to make the bid competitive with Company A's bid. As a result, Company A was invited to conduct due diligence on Slade's Ferry, and management and Thacher Proffitt were authorized to begin negotiations with Company A. Company A conducted due diligence on Slade's Ferry between August 30, 2007 and September 18, 2007. Company A's due diligence review continued even after the initial draft merger agreement was delivered to Thacher Proffitt by Company A s counsel on September 17, 2007.

Table of Contents

The draft merger agreement contained what Slade's Ferry believed to be the final terms of Company A's offer. The draft merger agreement contemplated a transaction in which Slade's Ferry would be acquired in exchange for $27.00 per share in cash.

During the afternoon of September 18, 2007, Company A's financial advisor informed KBW that Company A was decreasing the merger consideration it was offering to $24.00 per share in cash. Company A's financial advisor claimed that the decrease in merger consideration offered was based on certain aspects of Company A's due diligence review of Slade's Ferry. KBW communicated this information to Paul C. Downey, Slade's Ferry's lead independent director, Ms. Lenz, Ms. McLaughlin, and representatives of Thacher Proffitt. A series of discussions regarding Company A's offer were then held between Slade's Ferry and its advisors and Company A and its advisors. These discussions were terminated the morning of September 19, 2007.

On September 19, 2007, Slade's Ferry's executive committee, along with representatives of KBW and Thacher Proffitt, held a telephonic meeting and the executive committee authorized KBW to contact Independent in order to ascertain whether Independent remained interested in a possible acquisition of Slade's Ferry at the level of consideration reflected in its revised proposal on August 29, 2007.

A representative of Independent informed KBW that Independent remained interested in a potential transaction if Slade's Ferry agreed to enter into an exclusivity agreement for a period of time. Slade's Ferry and Independent thereafter entered into an exclusivity agreement that was effective as of September 24, 2007 pursuant to which Slade's Ferry agreed to negotiate exclusively with Independent and not solicit other acquisition proposals until after the exclusivity period ended on October 18, 2007.

On September 24, 2007 Independent delivered to KBW a revised indication of interest. The revised indication of interest contemplated a transaction in which Independent would acquire Slade's Ferry for a mixture of cash and Independent common stock. Twenty five percent of Slade's Ferry's outstanding common stock would receive cash consideration of $26.00 per share. Seventy five percent would receive Independent common stock based on a fixed exchange ratio that, based on the closing price of Independent stock on September 21, 2007 (the last trading day prior to the date of the indication of interest), equaled approximately $26.20 worth of Independent common stock per share.

Independent and Slade's Ferry began their due diligence review of each other during the week that began on Monday, September 24, 2007 and continued their due diligence investigation through Wednesday, October 10, 2007. On October 2, 2007, Thacher Proffitt received the initial draft of the merger agreement from Independent's counsel. The first draft of the merger agreement stated that twenty five percent of the aggregate purchase price would be paid in cash at $25.80 per share and seventy five percent of the aggregate purchase price would be paid in Independent common stock. The first draft of the merger agreement stated that the exact number of shares of Independent common stock would be based on a fixed exchange ratio that, at the time, equaled $25.71 per share of Slade's Ferry common stock (based on Independent's October 1, 2007 closing price), but would fluctuate based on Independent's stock price. The reduction in the per share price from Independent's revised indication of interest reflected an updated number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock outstanding.

Over the next week, the parties and their advisors negotiated the terms of the merger agreement. On October 10, 2007, Independent and its financial advisor informed Slade's Ferry and KBW that, based upon the results of its due diligence review, Independent would need to decrease its offer. A series of discussions ensued between the parties and their representatives and, while a specific price was not given, Independent and its financial advisor indicated that the purchase price would possibly be as low as $25.00 per share. Following extensive negotiation among the parties and their representatives, the parties agreed, subject to approval by their respective boards of directors, to a purchase price of $25.50 per share and a fixed exchange ratio of 0.818 shares of Independent common stock for each share of Slade's Ferry common stock. All final open items in the merger agreement were resolved on October 11, 2007.

On October 11, 2007, a special meeting of Slade's Ferry's board of directors was held. Thacher Proffitt provided for the board of directors a detailed review of the terms of the Agreement, as well as the voting agreements to be entered into by each of the members of the board of directors and senior management, and the legal duties of the board of directors to Slade's Ferry's shareholders and potential conflicts of interest issues. KBW delivered a presentation which discussed the financial terms of the merger in detail. KBW then stated to the board of directors that it would render a written fairness opinion stating that, based upon and subject to the considerations described in its opinion, the per share merger consideration offered by Independent was fair from a financial point of view to Slade's Ferry shareholders. The board of directors then unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Shortly thereafter, the parties executed the merger agreement and issued a joint press release publicly announcing the transaction after markets closed that day.

Between the date of the merger agreement and the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, neither Slade's Ferry nor its representatives have been contacted by any party other than Independent with respect to a potential acquisition of Slade's Ferry.

Recommendation of Slade's Ferry's Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

After careful consideration, Slade's Ferry's board of directors determined that the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Slade's Ferry and its shareholders. Accordingly, Slade's Ferry's board of directors adopted and approved the merger agreement, and unanimously recommends that Slade's Ferry shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

In reaching its determination that the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Slade's Ferry and its shareholders, Slade's Ferry's board consulted with senior management and Slade's Ferry's financial and legal advisors, drew on its knowledge of the business, operations, properties, assets, financial condition, operating results, historical market prices and prospects of Slade's Ferry and Independent. In connection with its review and approval of the merger agreement and in the course of its deliberations, Slade's Ferry's board of directors also considered numerous factors, including the following positive and negative factors:

Positive Factors.

The value of the merger consideration being offered as compared to the book value, earnings per share and historical trading prices of Slade's Ferry's common stock.

The fact that Slade's Ferry shareholders who receive shares of Independent common stock should experience an increase in the liquidity for their shares as Independent's common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and, historically, has a much larger volume of shares traded on a daily basis than trades in Slade's Ferry common stock.

Slade's Ferry's positive perception about Independent due to its understanding of, and review of information concerning, the business, results of operations, financial condition, competitive position and future prospects of Independent, including the results of its due diligence review of Independent.

The fact that Slade's Ferry shareholders who receive Independent common stock in the merger will likely receive dividend income from such investment in the future, which dividend income on an exchange basis is currently $0.56 per Slade's Ferry share on an annual basis.

Slade's Ferry's board of directors' belief that, given the current prospective environment in which Slade's Ferry operates, including the economic, competitive and regulatory conditions facing financial institutions generally and the trend toward consolidation in the banking and financial services industries, pursuing the merger with Independent would be more beneficial to shareholders than continuing to operate as an independent financial institution.

There is no financing contingency on the part of Independent to complete the merger, nor is approval by Independent's shareholders required.

The perceived ability of Independent to receive the requisite regulatory approvals in a timely manner.

Table of Contents

The terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the parties' respective representations and warranties, the conditions to closing and termination provisions which the board believed provided adequate assurances about the current operations of Independent.

The transaction eliminates the necessity and business risks associated with Slade's Ferry undertaking the additional capital investment necessary to expand Slade's Ferry's product offerings as well as the expansion of its technology infrastructure in order to continue to grow the business franchise and shareholders value.

Negative Factors.

The provisions in the merger agreement limiting the amount of Slade's Ferry common stock that will be exchanged for cash and for stock which may result in some shareholders receiving a form of merger consideration other than that which they actually elected.

The merger agreement provides for Slade's Ferry's payment of a $3.5 million termination fee to Independent if the merger agreement is terminated under certain limited circumstances, although this factor was mitigated somewhat by the fact that such circumstances would generally involve the receipt of an acquisition proposal with a third party.

The merger agreement limits Slade's Ferry's ability to solicit or discuss alternative transactions during the pendency of the merger, although this was mitigated by the fact that Slade's Ferry's board is permitted, in certain circumstances in the exercise of its fiduciary duties, to engage in discussions with parties who submit an unsolicited proposal.

Some of Slade's Ferry's officers and directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger, described under Interests of Slade's Ferry's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger beginning on page [] of this document, that are in addition to or different from their interests as Slade's Ferry shareholders generally. This discussion of the information and factors considered by Slade's Ferry's board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by the board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by Slade's Ferry's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, Slade's Ferry's board of directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. Slade's Ferry's board of directors evaluated the factors described above, including asking questions of Slade's Ferry's management and Slade's Ferry's legal and financial advisors, and reached the unanimous decision that the merger was in the best interests of Slade's Ferry and its shareholders, its employees, its customers and the communities served by Slade's Ferry. In considering the factors described above, individual members of Slade's Ferry's board of directors may have given different weights to different factors. Slade's Ferry's board of directors considered these factors as a whole, and overall considered them to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

Opinion of Slade's Ferry's Financial Advisor

Slade's Ferry engaged KBW to render financial advisory and investment banking services to Slade's Ferry. KBW agreed to assist Slade's Ferry in assessing the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger with Independent to the shareholders of Slade's Ferry. Slade's Ferry selected KBW because KBW is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and is familiar with Slade's Ferry and its business. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of financial services companies and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

As part of its engagement, representatives of KBW attended the meeting of the Slade s Ferry board held on October 11, 2007, at which the Slade s Ferry board evaluated the proposed merger with Independent. At this meeting, KBW reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered an opinion that, as of such date, the consideration to Slade s Ferry shareholders in the merger was fair from a financial point of view. The Slade s Ferry board approved the merger agreement at this meeting.

The full text of KBW's written opinion is attached as Appendix B to this document and is incorporated herein by reference. Slade's Ferry shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW. The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

KBW's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion is directed to the Slade's Ferry board and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration offered to the Slade's Ferry shareholders. It does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any Slade's Ferry shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at the Slade's Ferry special meeting on the merger or any related matter.

In rendering its opinion, KBW:

reviewed, among other things:

the merger agreement,

Annual Reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Independent,

Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Independent,

Annual Reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Slade's Ferry, and

Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Slade's Ferry;

held discussions with members of senior management of Slade's Ferry and Independent regarding:

past and current business operations,

regulatory relationships,

financial condition, and

future prospects of the respective companies;

reviewed the market prices, valuation multiples, publicly reported financial condition and results of operations for Slade's Ferry and Independent and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies that KBW deemed to be relevant;

compared the proposed financial terms of the merger with the financial terms of certain other transactions that KBW deemed to be relevant; and performed other studies and analyses that it considered appropriate.

In conducting its review and arriving at its opinion, KBW relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to or otherwise made available to KBW or that was discussed with, or reviewed by KBW, or that was publicly available. KBW did not attempt or assume any responsibility to verify such information independently. KBW relied upon the management of Slade's Ferry and Independent as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections (and assumptions and bases therefor) provided to KBW. KBW assumed, without independent verification, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for Independent and Slade's Ferry are adequate to cover those losses. KBW did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals of any assets or liabilities of Independent or Slade's Ferry, nor did it examine or review any individual credit files.

The projections furnished to KBW and used by it in certain of its analyses were prepared by Slade's Ferry's and Independent's senior management teams. Slade's Ferry and Independent do not publicly disclose internal management projections of the type provided to KBW in connection with its review of the merger. As a result, such projections were not prepared with a view towards public disclosure. The projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, which are inherently uncertain, including factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the projections.

Table of Contents

For purposes of rendering its opinion, KBW assumed that, in all respects material to its analyses:

the merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement;

the representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement are true and correct;

each party to the merger agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;

all conditions to the completion of the merger will be satisfied without any waivers; and in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the merger, including the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the merger.

KBW further assumed that the merger will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America, and that the conversion of Slade's Ferry's common stock into Independent common stock will be tax-free for Independent and Slade's Ferry. KBW's opinion is not an expression of an opinion as to the prices at which shares of Slade's Ferry common stock or shares of Independent common stock will trade following the announcement of the merger or the actual value of the shares of common stock of the combined company when issued pursuant to the merger, or the prices at which the shares of common stock of the combined company will trade following the completion of the merger.

In performing its analyses, KBW made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of KBW, Slade's Ferry and Independent. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by KBW are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, the KBW opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the Slade's Ferry board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the Slade's Ferry board with respect to the fairness of the consideration.

The following is a summary of the material analyses presented by KBW to the Slade's Ferry board on October 11, 2007, in connection with its fairness opinion. The summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the KBW opinion or the presentation made by KBW to the Slade's Ferry board, but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, KBW did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. Accordingly, KBW believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

Summary of Proposal. The terms of the merger agreement call for each outstanding share of Slade's Ferry common stock to be converted into the right to receive $25.50 in cash or 0.818 shares of Independent. Slade's Ferry shareholders will have the right to elect either stock or cash with the constraint that the overall transaction must be consummated with 75% of the Slade's Ferry shares being exchanged for Independent stock and 25% being exchanged for cash.

Certain financial data prepared by KBW, and referenced in the tables presented below, may not correspond in immaterial respects to the data presented in Slade's Ferry's and Independent's historical financial statements, as a result of different periods, assumptions and methods used by KBW to compute the financial data presented.

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to Slade s Ferry, Independent or the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Financial Impact Analysis. KBW performed pro forma merger analyses that combined projected income statement and balance sheet information of Independent and Slade s Ferry. Assumptions regarding the accounting treatment, acquisition adjustments and cost savings were used to calculate the financial impact that the merger would have on certain projected financial results of Independent. In the course of this analysis, KBW used earnings estimates for Independent for 2007 and 2008 from a nationally recognized earnings estimate consolidator and used earnings estimates for Slade s Ferry for 2007 and 2008 from Slade s Ferry management. This analysis indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive to Independent s estimated earnings per share and cash earnings per share in 2008. Cash earnings were estimated by adding the anticipated core deposit intangible amortization expense to GAAP earnings. The analysis also indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive to book value per share and dilutive to tangible book value per share for Independent and that Independent would maintain well capitalized capital ratios. For all of the above analyses, the actual results achieved by Independent following the merger will vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. KBW performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range of the present values of after-tax cash flows that Slade s Ferry could provide to equity holders through 2012 on a stand-alone basis. In performing this analysis, KBW used earnings estimates for Slade s Ferry for 2008 from Company management and applied a range of long-term growth rates from 4.0% to 12.0% thereafter. The range of values was determined by adding (1) the present value of projected cash dividends to Slade s Ferry shareholders from 2008 to 2012, assuming an annual dividend payout ratio (percentages of earnings per share payable to shareholders) of approximately 40% and

(2) the present value of the terminal value of Slade's Ferry's common stock. In calculating the terminal value of Slade's Ferry, KBW applied multiples ranging from 13.0x to 21.0x to 2013 forecasted earnings. The dividend stream and the terminal value were discounted back to present value terms using 11% discount rate. This resulted in a range of values of Slade's Ferry from $10.78 to $23.40 per share.

KBW stated that the discounted cash flow present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology but noted that it relies on numerous assumptions, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of Slade's Ferry.

Other Analyses. KBW reviewed the relative financial and market performance of Slade's Ferry and Independent to a variety of relevant industry peer groups and indices. KBW also reviewed earnings estimates, balance sheet composition, historical stock performance and other financial data for Independent.

The Slade's Ferry board has retained KBW as an independent contractor to act as financial adviser to Slade's Ferry regarding the merger. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of banking businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, KBW has experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, KBW may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Slade's Ferry and Independent. As a market maker in securities KBW may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Slade's Ferry and Independent for KBW's own account and for the accounts of its customers.

Slade's Ferry and KBW have entered into an agreement relating to the services to be provided by KBW in connection with the merger. Slade's Ferry agrees to pay KBW a cash fee of $100,000 concurrently with the execution of a definitive agreement contemplating the consummation of a transaction, and a cash fee of $100,000 promptly after the mailing of any proxy statement or registration statement relating to the transaction. Finally, Slade's Ferry will pay to KBW at the time of closing of the transaction a cash fee (Contingent Fee) equal to 1.00% of the market value of the aggregate consideration offered in exchange for the outstanding shares of common stock of Slade's Ferry in the Transaction. The fees paid prior to the Contingent Fee payment will be credited against the Contingent Fee. Pursuant to the KBW engagement agreement, Slade's Ferry also agreed to reimburse KBW for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Independent's Reasons for the Merger

The Independent board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger because it determined that the merger should strengthen Independent's existing franchise and increase long term shareholder value. The merger is consistent with Independent's geographic expansion strategy and should help Independent to accelerate loan and deposit growth in the contiguous markets where Slades Bank is now located. The merger should, in particular, significantly improve Independent's deposit market share in Bristol County, Massachusetts. The transaction is financially attractive to Independent and its shareholders because it allows Independent to add Slade's Ferry's loan and deposit base to that of Independent while simultaneously providing Independent with the opportunity to maintain and deepen relationships with Slade's Ferry's customers with Independent's deeper set of products. The Independent board of directors believes that the combined company should have the potential to realize a stronger competitive position and improved long-term operating and financial results, including revenue and earning enhancements.

After taking into account these and other factors, the Independent board of directors determined that the merger agreement and the merger were in the best interests of Independent and its shareholders and that Independent should enter into the merger agreement and complete the merger. Independent's board of directors evaluated the factors described above, including asking questions of Independent's management and Independent's legal and financial advisors, and reached the unanimous decision that the merger was in the best interests of Independent and its shareholders, its employees, its customers and the communities served by Independent. This discussion of the factors considered by Independent's board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by the board. Independent's board of directors considered these factors as a whole, and overall considered them to be favorable to, and to support, its determination. Independent's board of directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. In considering the factors described above, individual members of Independent's board of directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Regulatory Approvals Required to Complete the Merger

The merger is subject to the condition that all consents and approvals of any governmental authority required to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement shall have been obtained and remain in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired or been terminated. The merger also is subject to the condition that none of such regulatory approvals shall impose a Burdensome Condition, which is defined in the merger agreement to mean any term, condition or restriction upon Independent or any of its subsidiaries that Independent reasonably determines would prohibit or materially limit the ownership or operation by Slade's Ferry or any of its subsidiaries, or by Independent or any of its subsidiaries, of all or any material portion of the business or assets of Slade's Ferry or any of its subsidiaries or Independent or its subsidiaries, or compel Independent or any of its subsidiaries to dispose of or hold separate all or any material portion of the business or assets of Slade's Ferry or any of its subsidiaries or Independent or any of its subsidiaries.

The consents and approvals of governmental authorities that Independent and Slade's Ferry believe are required to consummate the merger are as follows:

the FDIC's approval of the merger of Slades Bank with and into Rockland Trust;

the approval of the Board of Bank Incorporation of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to merge Slade's Ferry with and into Independent, with Independent being the surviving entity;

the approval of the Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks:

to merge Slades Bank with and into Rockland Trust, with Rockland Trust being the surviving entity; and for Rockland Trust to pay a special dividend to Independent to fund the aggregate Cash Consideration and certain expenses;

confirmation from the Massachusetts Housing Partnership Fund (the Housing Partnership Fund) that Independent has made arrangements satisfactory to the Housing Partnership Fund; and the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 or a waiver from the requirements of the Bank Holding Company Act.

The parties have filed all applications and notice materials necessary to obtain these regulatory approvals or nonobjections, including a request for a waiver from the requirements of the Bank Holding Company Act. The merger cannot be completed until such approvals and nonobjections have been obtained, are in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof have expired. The merger may not be consummated until 30 days after approval of the FDIC (or such shorter period as the FDIC may prescribe with the concurrence of the United States Department of Justice, but not less than 15 days), during which time the Department of Justice may challenge the Bank Merger on antitrust grounds. The commencement of an antitrust action by the Department of Justice would stay the effectiveness of the FDIC approval of the merger unless a court specifically orders otherwise. In reviewing the merger, the Department of Justice could analyze the merger's effect on competition differently than the FDIC, and it is possible that the Department of Justice could reach a different conclusion than the FDIC regarding the merger's competitive effects.

Independent and Slade's Ferry cannot assure you that all required regulatory approvals or nonobjections will be obtained, when they will be obtained or whether there will be conditions in the approvals or any litigation challenging the approvals. Independent and Slade's Ferry also cannot assure you that the United States Department of Justice or the Massachusetts State Attorney General will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds, or what the outcome will be if such a challenge is made. Independent and Slade's Ferry are not aware of any other government approvals or actions that are required prior to the parties' consummation of the merger. It is currently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals or actions are required, such approvals or actions will be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any such additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

Stock Exchange Listing

Listing of Independent Common Stock. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Independent must obtain approval for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market the shares of Independent common stock to be issued to Slade's Ferry shareholders in the merger.

Delisting and Deregistration of Slade's Ferry Common Stock. If the merger is completed, Slade's Ferry's common stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ Capital Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

INTERESTS OF SLADE'S FERRY'S EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS IN THE MERGER

In considering Slade's Ferry's board of directors' recommendation to vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement, you should be aware that Slade's Ferry's executive officers and directors may have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of other Slade's Ferry shareholders generally. The Slade's Ferry board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when it approved the merger agreement.

Equity Plans

The merger agreement provides that immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each outstanding Slade's Ferry stock option that remains unexercised, whether or not vested, will be cancelled. On the closing date, the holders of those options will be entitled to receive an amount of cash equal to (1) the number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock provided for in the option multiplied by (2) the excess of $25.50 over the exercise price per share. The cash payment will be subject to any required withholding taxes. Since all outstanding Slade's Ferry stock options owned by Slade's Ferry directors and executive officers are currently vested and exercisable, none will vest and become exercisable by virtue of the merger. In addition, any unvested shares of Slade's Ferry restricted stock will become fully vested on the closing date. At that time, holders of Slade's Ferry restricted stock will be entitled to receive either $25.50 in cash or 0.818 shares of Independent common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. The value of restricted stock upon vesting will be subject to any required withholding taxes.

The following table sets forth the total number of options held by the named executive officers of Slade's Ferry, the executive officers of Slade's Ferry as a group and all non-employee directors of Slade's Ferry as a group, as well as the value of cash payments to be received therefore. In addition, the following table reflects the number of unvested shares of restricted stock held by the named executive officers of Slade's Ferry, the executive officers of Slade's Ferry as a group and all non-employee directors of Slade's Ferry as a group which will vest as a result of the merger, as well as the value of exchanging such unvested restricted stock for cash. The number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock subject to stock options held by the executive officers and non-employee directors as of October 11, 2007 was 148,460 with a projected cash-out value of $1,027,637. The number of unvested shares of restricted stock held by executive officers and non-employee directors as of October 11, 2007 was 47,000 with a projected cash-out value of $1,198,500.

Termination Agreement and Releases

In connection with the merger, termination agreements (that include waiver and release provisions) have been entered into with Mary Lynn D. Lenz, Slade's Ferry's President and Chief Executive Officer, Deborah A. McLaughlin, Slade's Ferry's Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer/Chief Financial Officer, and Manuel J. Tavares, Slade's Ferry's Senior Vice President, which settle their pre-existing employment agreements and certain other benefit plans.

The termination agreements for Ms. Lenz, Ms. McLaughlin and Mr. Tavares provide that in settlement of certain portions of their employment agreements with Slade's Ferry and any defined contribution supplemental executive retirement plans, a lump sum cash payment will be made at closing to those executives. Such payments are currently estimated to be approximately $1,681,349 for Ms. Lenz, $412,829 for Ms. McLaughlin and $292,013 for Mr. Tavares. The amounts payable to Ms. McLaughlin and Mr. Tavares will be reduced, if necessary, to ensure that no portion of the amounts payable to them would be subject to excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or would be non-deductible to the payor by reason of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, Ms. Lenz will be provided with an indemnification payment for the excise taxes imposed under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code so that, after payment of the excise tax and all income and excise taxes imposed on the indemnification payments, Ms. Lenz will retain the same or approximately the same net-after tax amounts that she would have retained if there were no 20% excise tax imposed under Section 280G. The amount of this indemnification payment is currently estimated to be approximately $949,552.

Ms. Lenz and Mr. Tavares will also be provided with certain continuations of health and life insurances following the merger. The company car currently provided to Ms. Lenz by Slade's Ferry will also be transferred to her. The estimated value of this vehicle transfer is approximately $35,265.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans

Independent has agreed to honor the Defined Benefit Supplemental Executive Retirement Agreements (the Defined Benefit SERPs) between Slades Bank and each of Ms. Lenz and Mr. Tavares. The Defined Benefit SERPs provide for monthly payments of $3,000 and $1,500 to Ms. Lenz and Mr. Tavares, respectively, for 120 months following retirement and further provide for the provision of certain medical insurance benefits to Ms. Lenz and Mr. Tavares and their spouses.

Change of Control Agreements

Independent has agreed to honor the change of control agreements between Slades Bank, Slade's Ferry and four of their officers. The change of control agreements provide that for one year following a change of control, if the officer is discharged without cause or if the officer resigns for good reason, the officer will be entitled to a lump sum payment equal to one times his or her salary as well as continued health and welfare benefits throughout the remaining term of the change of control agreement. A termination is deemed to occur with cause if the termination is due to personal dishonesty, willful misconduct, breach of fiduciary duty involving personal profit, intentional failure to perform stated duties, willful violation of any banking law, rule or regulation, conviction of a felony or final cease and desist order issued in response to conduct of the officer determined to be substantially deleterious to Slade's Ferry or Slades Bank or any material breach of the change of control agreement. The officer's resignation is deemed for good reason if the effective date of resignation occurs during the term of the change of control agreement, but on or after the effective date of a change of control. The cash payments which could be owed under these change of control agreements are currently estimated to be approximately $481,105 in aggregate.

Non-Competition Agreements

In connection with the merger, Independent entered into non-competition agreements with each of Ms. Lenz and Ms. McLaughlin. The non-competition agreements provide for standard non-competition, confidentiality, non-solicitation and non-interference provisions for a period of one year following the merger. In exchange for these non-competition agreements, each of Ms. Lenz and Ms. McLaughlin will be paid a lump sum of $100,000 on the effective date of the merger by Independent.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that Independent will indemnify and hold harmless the present and former officers and directors of Slade's Ferry and its subsidiaries against costs or expenses, judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the merger, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective date of the merger, to the extent such indemnified party would have been indemnified, as a director or officer of Slade's Ferry or any of its subsidiaries under Slade's Ferry's bylaws. Independent will also continue to cover those persons for a period of six years following the effective date of the merger arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the merger, except that Independent is not required to expend more than 225% per year of the current amount expended by Slade's Ferry to maintain such insurance (less any premium credit that Slade's Ferry is entitled to on account of the merger) and that if Independent is unable to maintain or obtain such insurance it will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain as much comparable insurance.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary describes certain aspects of the merger, including material provisions of the merger agreement. This summary is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this document and is incorporated into this document by reference. You should read the merger agreement in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing the merger.

The Merger

Each of Slade's Ferry's board of directors and Independent's board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement, which provides for the merger of Slade's Ferry with and into Independent. Independent will be the surviving corporation in the merger. Each share of Independent common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will remain issued and outstanding as one share of common stock of Independent, and each share of Slade's Ferry common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be converted into either cash or Independent common stock, as described below. See Consideration To Be Received in the Merger below.

Independent's articles of organization will be the articles of organization, and Independent's bylaws will be the bylaws, of the combined company after the completion of the merger. The merger agreement provides that Independent may change the structure of the merger if consented to by Slade's Ferry (but Slade's Ferry's consent cannot be unreasonably withheld). No such change will alter the kind or amount of merger consideration to be provided under the merger agreement, or materially delay or jeopardize receipt of any required regulatory approvals or otherwise materially delay the consummations of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Simultaneously with the merger, Slades Bank (Slade's Ferry's bank subsidiary) will be merged with and into Rockland Trust (Independent's bank subsidiary). Following the bank merger, the corporate existence of Slades Bank will cease and Rockland Trust will be the surviving entity of the bank merger.

Effective Time and Completion of the Merger

The merger will be completed and will become effective upon the acceptance for filing by the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts of the articles of merger related to the merger. However, we may agree to a later time for completion of the merger and specify that later time in the articles of merger in accordance with Massachusetts law.

We currently expect that the merger will be completed in the first quarter of 2008, subject to Slade's Ferry's shareholders' approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals and the expiration of all regulatory waiting periods. However, completion of the merger could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the required regulatory approvals or in satisfying any other conditions to the merger. There can be no assurances as to whether, or when, Slade's Ferry and Independent will obtain the required approvals or complete the merger.

Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation

Prior to completion of the merger, Independent's board of directors will increase by one the number of directors constituting the entire board of directors, effective as of and contingent upon the occurrence of the effective time of the merger. Independent will elect from among those serving on Slade's Ferry's board of directors an individual to fill the vacancy and thereby become a director of Independent, effective as of and contingent upon the occurrence of the effective time of the merger. Independent may select the individual to be elected in its sole discretion. The new Independent director will become a member of the class of Independent's board of directors that has the longest time remaining until its directors' terms expire.

Consideration To Be Received in the Merger

In the merger, each outstanding share of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder, either:

$25.50 in cash (which is referred to as the cash consideration); or

0.818 shares of Independent common stock (which is referred to as the stock consideration), plus cash in lieu of any fractional share, subject to the allocation and proration procedures described below. Also subject to these procedures, you may elect to receive a portion of your merger consideration in cash and the remaining portion in shares of Independent common stock.

No fractional shares of Independent common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, each Slade's Ferry shareholder will receive an amount of cash, in lieu of any fractional share, based on the average per share closing price of Independent common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market over the five trading days immediately preceding the closing date of the merger, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

Table of Contents

No interest will be paid with respect to any portion of the cash consideration payable in connection with the merger.

The merger agreement provides for overall limitations on the amount of cash and shares of Independent common stock available in the merger as follows:

25% of the total number of outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive the cash consideration; and

75% of the total number of outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration.

As a result, whether you receive the amount of cash and/or stock requested in your election form will depend in part on the elections of other Slade's Ferry shareholders. You may not receive exactly the form of consideration you elected in the merger, and you may instead receive a pro rata amount of cash or Independent common stock.

Election Procedures

No more than 40 and no less than 20 business days prior to the anticipated election deadline, each holder of record of Slade's Ferry common stock will be sent an election form and other appropriate and customary transmittal materials which will permit each Slade's Ferry shareholder:

to elect to receive $25.50 per share in cash in exchange for all shares of Slade's Ferry common stock held by the shareholder;

to elect to receive 0.818 shares of Independent common stock per share, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share, in exchange for all shares of Slade's Ferry common stock held by the shareholder;

to elect to receive the cash consideration with respect to a portion of the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock held by the shareholder and the stock consideration with respect to the remaining shares of Slade's Ferry common stock held by the shareholder; or to make no election with respect to the consideration to be received in exchange for the shareholder's shares of Slade's Ferry common stock, which are referred to as non-election shares.

If your shares or a portion of your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock are held in street name by a broker, bank or other nominee, an election form will be mailed to the broker, bank or other nominee with respect to those shares.

If you hold a portion of your shares in an individual retirement account and the remaining portion of your shares directly in your name, you will receive two election forms: one for your shares held in the individual retirement account and one for the shares held directly in your name.

An election form must be either accompanied by the Slade's Ferry stock certificates as to which the election form is being made, or must be accompanied by an appropriate guarantee of delivery of those stock certificates.

In order to be effective, a properly completed election form, together with stock certificates (or a properly completed notice of guaranteed delivery) must be submitted to the exchange agent on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on a date mutually agreed upon by Independent and Slade's Ferry, which date will be no later than the fifth business day prior to the closing date. Independent will issue a press release announcing the date of the election deadline as promptly as practicable after the election deadline is determined.

If a Slade's Ferry shareholder either:

does not submit a properly completed election form in a timely fashion; or revokes his, her or its election form prior to the deadline for the submission of the election form and does not resubmit a properly completed election form by the election form deadline,

the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock held by the shareholder will be designated non-election shares. The exchange agent will have reasonable discretion in determining whether any election revocation or change was properly or timely made and to disregard any immaterial defects in the election form.

If you have a preference for receiving either cash or Independent common stock for your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock, you should return the election form indicating your preference. Slade's Ferry shareholders who make an election will be accorded priority over those shareholders who make no election in instances where the cash consideration or stock consideration must be re-allocated in order to achieve the required ratio of Slade's Ferry shares being converted into the right to receive cash and Independent common stock. If you do not make an election, you will be allocated cash and/or Independent common stock depending on the elections made by other Slade's Ferry shareholders. However, even if you do make an election, the form of merger consideration that you actually receive may differ from the form of merger consideration that you elect to receive due to the allocation procedures described below.

The market price of Independent common stock will fluctuate between the date of this document, the date of your election and the effective time of the merger. Because the ratio of shares of Independent common stock to be exchanged for shares of Slade's Ferry common stock is fixed, such fluctuations will alter the value of the shares of Independent common stock that you may receive in the merger. In addition, because the tax consequences of receiving cash will differ from the tax consequences of receiving Independent common stock, you should carefully read the section in this document titled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page [] of this document.

Generally, an election may be revoked or changed, but only by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline accompanied by a properly completed and signed revised form of election. If an election is revoked, or the merger agreement is terminated, and any certificates have been transmitted to the exchange agent, the exchange agent will promptly return those certificates to the shareholder who submitted those certificates via first-class mail or, in the case of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock tendered by book-entry transfer in the exchange agent's account at the Depository Trust Company, or DTC, by crediting such shares to an account maintained by such shareholder within DTC promptly following the termination of the merger or revocation of the election. Slade's Ferry shareholders will not be entitled to revoke or change their election following the election deadline. As a result, if you have made an election, you will be unable to revoke your elections or sell your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock during the interval between the election deadline and the date of completion of the merger. All election forms will be automatically revoked, and all Slade's Ferry stock certificates returned, if the exchange agent is notified in writing by Independent and Slade's Ferry that the merger agreement has been terminated.

The exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the cash consideration or cash in lieu of fractional shares, cash dividends or distributions payable to any Slade's Ferry shareholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under any federal, state, local or foreign tax law. If the exchange agent withholds any amounts, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger as having been paid to the shareholders from whom they were withheld.

Allocation Procedures

A shareholder's ability to elect to receive cash or shares of Independent common stock in exchange for shares of Slade's Ferry common stock in the merger is subject to allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement. These allocation procedures are designed to ensure that 25% of the total number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into cash, and 75% of these shares will be converted into shares of Independent common stock. As a result, whether you receive the amount of cash and/or stock you request in your election form will depend in part on the elections of other Slade's Ferry shareholders. You may not receive exactly the form of consideration that you elect in the merger, and you may instead receive a pro rata amount of cash and Independent common stock.

Through the use of examples, we illustrate below the possible adjustments to elections in connection with these allocation procedures. The first of our three examples assumes you make an effective stock election with respect to all of your Slade s Ferry shares. The second example assumes you make no election with respect to your Slade s Ferry shares. Finally, the third example assumes that you make an effective cash election with respect to all of your Slade s Ferry shares. You should note, however, that you are not required to elect to receive only cash or only Independent common stock. You may instead elect to receive cash with respect to a portion of your Slade s Ferry shares and shares of Independent common stock with respect to the rest of your Slade s Ferry shares.

Allocation if Too Many Shares of Independent Common Stock are Elected. If Slade s Ferry shareholders elect to receive more Independent common stock than Independent has agreed to issue in the merger, then all Slade s Ferry shareholders who elected to receive cash or who have made no election would receive the cash consideration with respect to their Slade s Ferry shares, and all Slade s Ferry shareholders who elected to receive Independent common stock would receive a pro rata portion of the available shares of Independent common stock calculated in the manner described below.

EXAMPLE #1: Assume that (1) 4,000,000 shares of Slade s Ferry common stock are outstanding immediately prior to the merger, (2) holders of 3,600,000 shares of Slade s Ferry common stock have made effective stock elections, (3) holders of 300,000 shares of Slade s Ferry common stock have made effective cash elections and (4) holders of 100,000 shares of Slade s Ferry common stock have made no election with respect to their shares. You hold 1,000 Slade s Ferry shares and have made an effective election to receive the stock consideration for those shares. In this example, pro-ration would be required with respect to the Slade s Ferry shareholders who elected the stock consideration because holders of more than 75% of the outstanding Slade s Ferry shares have elected to receive Independent common stock in the merger.

EXPLANATION #1:

Step 1. Derive the stock conversion number: the stock conversion number is the number of shares of Slade s Ferry common stock that are to be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The stock conversion number is equal to 75% of the number of shares of Slade s Ferry common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The stock conversion number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$4,000,000 \text{ shares} \times 0.75 = 3,000,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 2. Derive the stock fraction: the stock fraction equals the stock conversion number divided by the aggregate number of Slade s Ferry shares for which an effective stock election was made, and represents the fraction to be used in prorating the stock consideration. The stock fraction for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{stock conversion number}}{\text{stock election shares}} = \frac{3,000,000 \text{ shares}}{3,600,000 \text{ shares}} = 0.833$$

Step 3. Derive the stock consideration: the prorated stock consideration is the product of the stock fraction multiplied by the number of Slade s Ferry shares as to which you have made an effective stock election. This amount is then multiplied by the exchange ratio of 0.818. The prorated stock consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$0.833 \times 1,000 = 833$$

$$833 \times 0.818 = 681.4 \text{ shares of Independent common stock}$$

Because no fractional shares of Independent common stock will be issued in the merger, you would receive 681 shares of Independent common stock and cash for the additional 0.4 fractional share.

Step 4. Derive the cash consideration: the cash consideration that you will receive for your Slade's Ferry shares is the product of $25.50, multiplied by the remaining number of Slade's Ferry shares as to which you made an effective stock election. The cash consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$$25.50 \times (1,000 - 833) = $25.50 \times 167 = $4,258.50$$

Table of Contents

Thus, in this example, if you own 1,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock and have made an effective stock election for all of those shares, you would receive (subject to rounding):

681 shares of Independent common stock;

cash for the 0.4 fractional share of Independent common stock; and

$4,258.50 in cash.

Allocation if Too Few Shares of Independent Common Stock are Elected. If Slade's Ferry shareholders elect to receive less Independent common stock than the merger agreement provides for Independent to issue in the merger, then all shares with respect to which Slade's Ferry shareholders have elected to receive stock consideration would be converted into the right to receive Independent common stock, and the shares for which Slade's Ferry shareholders have elected to receive cash or with respect to which no election was made would be treated in the manner illustrated below.

EXAMPLE #2: Assume that (1) 4,000,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock are outstanding immediately prior to the merger, (2) holders of 2,900,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made effective stock elections, (3) holders of 900,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made effective cash elections and (4) holders of 200,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made no election with respect to their shares. You hold 1,000 Slade's Ferry shares and have made no election with respect to those shares. In this example, proration would be required with respect to the shareholders who made no election with respect to their Slade's Ferry shares because holders of less than 75% of the outstanding Slade's Ferry shares have elected to receive Independent common stock in the merger, and the shortfall is less than the number of non-election shares.

EXPLANATION #2:

Step 1. Derive the stock conversion number: the stock conversion number is the number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock that are to be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The stock conversion number is equal to 75% of the number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The stock conversion number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$4,000,000 \text{ shares} \times 0.75 = 3,000,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 2. Derive the shortfall number: the shortfall number is the amount by which the stock conversion number exceeds the aggregate number of Slade's Ferry shares with respect to which the stock consideration was elected. The shortfall number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$3,000,000 - 2,900,000 = 100,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 3. Determine whether the shortfall number is less than or equal to the number of non-election shares: In this example, the shortfall number (100,000 shares) is less than the number of non-election shares (200,000 shares). As a result, all Slade's Ferry shares with respect to which an effective cash election was made would be converted into the right to receive the cash consideration, and the holders of non-election shares would receive a mix of stock consideration and cash consideration.

Step 4. Derive the stock fraction: the stock fraction equals the shortfall number divided by the aggregate number of Slade's Ferry shares for which no election was made, and represents the fraction to be used in pro-rating the stock consideration. The stock fraction for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{shortfall number}}{\text{non-election shares}} = \frac{100,000 \text{ shares}}{200,000 \text{ shares}} = 0.5$$

Step 5. Derive the stock consideration: the prorated stock consideration is the product of the stock fraction multiplied by the number of Slade s Ferry shares as to which you have made no election. This amount is then multiplied by the exchange ratio of 0.818. The prorated stock consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$0.5 \times 1,000 = 500$$

$$500 \times 0.818 = 409 \text{ shares of Independent common stock}$$

Because the number of shares of Independent common stock to be issued to you is not a fraction, you would not receive any cash in lieu of fractional shares.

Step 6. Derive the cash consideration: the cash consideration that you will receive for your Slade's Ferry shares is the product of $25.50, multiplied by the remaining number of Slade's Ferry shares as to which you made no election. The cash consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$$25.50 \times (1,000 - 500) = $25.50 \times 500 = $12,750$$

Thus, in this example, if you own 1,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock and made no election with respect to those shares, you would receive (subject to rounding):

409 shares of Independent common stock;

no cash in lieu of fractional shares;

$12,750 in cash.

EXAMPLE #3: Assume that (1) 4,000,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock are outstanding immediately prior to the merger, (2) holders of 2,800,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made effective stock elections, (3) holders of 1,100,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made effective cash elections and (4) holders of 100,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made no election with respect to their shares. You hold 1,000 Slade's Ferry shares and have made an effective election to receive the cash consideration for those shares. In this example, proration would be required with respect to the shareholders who made cash elections with respect to their Slade's Ferry shares because holders of less than 75% of the outstanding Slade's Ferry shares have elected to receive stock in the merger, and the shortfall is more than the number of non-election shares.

EXPLANATION #3:

Step 1. Derive the stock conversion number: the stock conversion number is the number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock that are to be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The stock conversion number is equal to 75% of the number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The stock conversion number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$4,000,000 \text{ shares} \times 0.75 = 3,000,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 2. Derive the shortfall number: the shortfall number is the amount by which the stock conversion number exceeds the aggregate number of Slade's Ferry shares with respect to which the stock consideration was elected. The shortfall number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$3,000,000 - 2,800,000 = 200,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 3. Determine whether the shortfall number is less than or equal to the number of non-election shares: In this example, the shortfall number (200,000 shares) is greater than the number of non-election shares (100,000 shares). As a result, all Slade's Ferry shares with respect to which no election was made would be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration, and the holders of shares with respect to which an effective cash election was made would receive a mix of stock consideration and cash consideration.

Step 4. Derive the stock fraction: the stock fraction equals the amount by which the shortfall number exceeds the total number of non-election shares, divided by the aggregate number of Slade's

Table of Contents

Ferry shares for which an effective cash election was made, and represents the fraction to be used in prorating the stock consideration. The stock fraction for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{shortfall number} - \text{non-election shares}}{\text{cash election shares}} = \frac{(200,000 - 100,000)}{1,100,000} = \frac{100,000}{1,100,000} = 0.091$$

Step 5. Derive the stock consideration: the prorated stock consideration is the product of the stock fraction multiplied by the number of Slade's Ferry shares as to which you have made an effective cash election. This amount is then multiplied by the exchange ratio of 0.818. The prorated stock consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$0.091 \times 1,000 = 91$$

$$91 \times 0.818 = 74.4 \text{ shares of Independent common stock}$$

Because no fractional shares of Independent common stock will be issued in the merger, you would receive 74 shares of Independent common stock and cash for the additional 0.4 fractional share.

Step 6. Derive the cash consideration: the cash consideration that you will receive for your Slade's Ferry shares is the product of $25.50, multiplied by the remaining number of Slade's Ferry shares as to which you made an effective cash election. The cash consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$$25.50 \times (1,000 - 91) = $25.50 \times 909 = $23,179.50$$

Thus, in this example, if you own 1,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock and made an effective cash election for all of those shares, you would receive (subject to rounding):

74 shares of Independent common stock;

cash for the 0.4 fractional share of Independent common stock; and $23,179.50 in cash.

Exchange of Slade's Ferry Stock Certificates for Independent Stock Certificates

On or before the closing date of the merger, Independent will cause to be delivered to the exchange agent certificates representing the shares of Independent common stock to be issued in the merger. In addition, Independent will deliver to the exchange agent an aggregate amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of cash consideration payable in the merger, including an estimated amount of cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Independent common stock. Independent has selected Computershare to act as the exchange agent in connection with the merger.

Slade's Ferry shareholders who surrender their stock certificates and complete transmittal and election forms prior to the election deadline will automatically receive the merger consideration allocated to them promptly following completion of the allocation procedures.

No later than five business days following the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will mail to each Slade's Ferry shareholder of record at the effective time of the merger who did not previously surrender Slade's Ferry stock certificates with an election form, a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in surrendering the shareholder's

Slade s Ferry stock certificates. When such Slade s Ferry shareholders deliver their Slade s Ferry stock certificates to the exchange agent along with a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal and any other required documents, their Slade s Ferry stock certificates will be cancelled and in exchange they will receive, as allocated to them:

an Independent stock certificate representing the number of whole shares of Independent common stock that they are entitled to receive under the merger agreement;

a check representing the amount of cash that they are entitled to receive under the merger agreement; and/or a check representing the amount of cash that they are entitled to receive in lieu of any fractional shares.

No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash constituting merger consideration.

Slade's Ferry shareholders are not entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions on Independent common stock with a record date after the closing date of the merger until they have surrendered their Slade's Ferry stock certificates in exchange for an Independent stock certificate. After the surrender of their Slade's Ferry stock certificates, Slade's Ferry shareholders of record will be entitled to receive any dividend or other distribution, without interest, which had become payable with respect to their Independent common stock.

Independent will only issue a stock certificate for Independent common stock, a check for the cash consideration, or a check for cash in lieu of a fractional share in a name other than the name in which a surrendered Slade's Ferry stock certificate is registered if the exchange agent is presented with all documents required to show and effect the unrecorded transfer of ownership, together with evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid.

Stock Options and Restricted Stock

Stock Options. Immediately before the effective time of the merger, each outstanding option to acquire Slade's Ferry common stock, whether vested or unvested, which has not been previously exercised or cancelled, will be cancelled. In exchange for the cancellation of an option, the holder of that option be entitled to receive a cash payment from Slade's Ferry or Slades Bank in an amount equal to the product of:

the number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock provided in the option; and the excess, if any, of $25.50 over the exercise price per share provided in the option.

The cash payment will be made without interest and will be net of all applicable withholding taxes. Slade's Ferry will obtain prior to the effective time of the merger, from each holder of a then-outstanding option, a written acknowledgement with respect to the termination of and payment for such options as described in this section. As of December 4, 2007, there were outstanding options to purchase 226,710 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock.

Restricted Stock. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all shares of Slade's Ferry restricted stock will fully vest, and all of the related shares will be treated as outstanding Slade's Ferry shares for all purposes under the merger agreement, including for purposes of the holders' right to receive the forms of election, make elections and receive the merger consideration. As of December 4, 2007, there were 53,000 shares of unvested Slade's Ferry restricted stock outstanding.

Shareholder Approval

Slade's Ferry has agreed to convene a special meeting of its shareholders to consider and vote upon approval of the merger agreement and any other matters required to be approved by Slade's Ferry's shareholders in order to permit consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Slade's Ferry will use its best efforts to convene the meeting within 45 days following the time when the registration statement becomes effective. Slade's Ferry has agreed to take all lawful action to solicit shareholder approval of the merger agreement, although under certain circumstances Slade's Ferry's board of directors may recommend to Slade s Ferry s shareholders a Superior Proposal (as defined below) based on its fiduciary duties, as described below under No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions.

Under the merger agreement, Slade s Ferry s board of directors must, at all times prior to and during the special meeting, recommend adoption of the merger agreement by Slade s Ferry s shareholders and may not withhold, withdraw, amend or modify its recommendation in any manner adverse to Independent or take any other action or make any other public statement inconsistent with its recommendation, except as and to the extent described below under No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions. Notwithstanding any change in recommendation, the merger agreement must be submitted to Slade s Ferry s shareholders for their approval.

No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions

Slade s Ferry has agreed that it, its subsidiaries and their officers and directors will not, and Slade s Ferry will use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of its and its subsidiaries representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage any inquiry with respect to, or the making of, any proposal that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal (as defined below);

participate in any negotiations regarding an Acquisition Proposal with, or furnish any nonpublic information relating to a Acquisition Proposal to, any party that has made or, to the knowledge of Slade s Ferry, is considering making an Acquisition Proposal; or engage in discussions regarding an Acquisition Proposal with any party that has made, or, to Slade s Ferry s knowledge, is considering making, an Acquisition Proposal.

However, prior to the time that Slade s Ferry s shareholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, if Slade s Ferry receives a written and unsolicited Acquisition Proposal that Slade s Ferry s board of directors reasonably believes to be credible, which the board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel) is or could reasonably be expected to result in a Superior Proposal, Slade s Ferry may take the following actions:

furnish nonpublic information to the party making such Acquisition Proposal, but only if:

prior to so furnishing such information, Slade s Ferry has entered into a customary confidentiality agreement with such party;

all such information has previously been provided to Independent or is provided to Independent prior to or contemporaneously with the time it is provided to the party making such Acquisition Proposal; and engage or participate in any discussions or negotiations with such party with respect to the Acquisition Proposal.

Slade s Ferry must promptly advise Independent of the receipt of:

any proposal that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal and the material terms of the proposal; and any request for non-public information relating to Slade s Ferry or any of its subsidiaries other than requests for information not reasonably expected to be related to an Acquisition Proposal.

Thereafter, Slade s Ferry must keep Independent reasonably informed on a reasonably current basis of the status of any such Acquisition Proposal (including any material change to the terms thereof).

Except as described in the following paragraph, Slade s Ferry s board of directors may not:

withhold, withdraw or modify (or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw or modify), in a manner adverse to Independent, its recommendation that Slade s Ferry shareholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; or approve or recommend (or publicly propose to approve or recommend) any Acquisition Proposal.

Table of Contents

Slade's Ferry may not, and its board of directors may not allow it to, and Slade's Ferry may not allow any of its subsidiaries to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or other agreement (except for customary confidentiality agreements as described above) relating to any Acquisition Proposal.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, Slade's Ferry's board of directors may, prior to but not after the time Slade's Ferry's shareholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby:

change its recommendation that Slade's Ferry shareholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; or terminate the merger agreement, in either case if and only if the board of directors has determined in good faith, after consulting with its outside counsel, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties. However, the board of directors may not take any such action in connection with an Acquisition Proposal unless:

the Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined below);

prior to terminating the merger agreement, Slade's Ferry provides written notice to Independent at least three business days in advance of its intention to take such action (which notice must specify all material terms and conditions of the Superior Proposal, including documentation related thereto and the identity of the party making the Superior Proposal);

during the three-day notice period, Slade's Ferry must negotiate with Independent in good faith should Independent propose to make adjustments in the terms and conditions of this merger agreement so that the Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Proposal; and the Acquisition Proposal continues to constitute a Superior Proposal after taking into account any amendments that Independent agrees to make to the merger agreement.

As used in the merger agreement, the term "Acquisition Proposal" means any proposal or offer with respect to any of the following involving Slade's Ferry:

any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination or other similar transaction;

any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of assets and/or liabilities that constitute a substantial portion of the net revenues, net income or assets of Slade's Ferry in a single transaction or series of transactions;

any tender offer or exchange offer for 25% or more of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry's capital stock or the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection therewith; or any public announcement by any party of a proposal, plan or intention to do any of the foregoing or any agreement to engage in any of the foregoing.

As used in the merger agreement, the term "Superior Proposal" means any bona fide written proposal made by a third party to acquire, directly or indirectly, including pursuant to a tender offer, exchange offer, merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction, for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities, more than 50% of the combined voting power of the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock then outstanding or all or substantially all of the assets of Slade's Ferry and otherwise:

on terms which Slade's Ferry's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor, to be more favorable from a financial point of view to Slade's Ferry's shareholders than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

Table of Contents

that constitutes a transaction that, in the good faith judgment of Slade s Ferry s board of directors, is reasonably likely to be consummated on the terms set forth, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal; and for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed.

Employee Benefits Matters

Benefit Plans. The merger agreement provides that following the effective date of the merger, Independent will provide those individuals who are employees of Slade s Ferry and its subsidiaries and who continue as employees of Independent or any of its subsidiaries with benefits under employee benefit plans (other than stock options and other equity-based plans) substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to similarly situated employees of Independent and its subsidiaries. Independent will make all commercially reasonable efforts to cause each benefit plan providing medical or dental benefits to continuing employees to waive any preexisting condition limitations relating to any conditions that were covered under the applicable medical or dental plans of Slade s Ferry and its subsidiaries, take into account all eligible expenses incurred for purposes of satisfying the deductible and coinsurance and waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to the continuing employee.

Severance Pay Plan. Independent will assume and honor the Severance Pay Plan of Slades Bank for a period of one year following the effective date of the merger. Under the Severance Pay Plan, an employee with at least one year of service is entitled to receive severance pay, in either a lump sum distribution or salary continuation over the severance period, if the employee s employment is terminated under circumstances constituting an involuntary severance without cause (including certain good reason resignations) within twelve months following, or within three months prior to, a change of control. Specifically, employees are eligible to receive two weeks severance pay for each completed year of service with certain employees to be entitled to a minimum of twelve weeks severance pay; provided, however, that no person shall receive severance pay in excess of twenty-six weeks irrespective of years of service.

In addition to the severance benefits provided above, if an employee elects to be paid severance over time rather than in a lump sum, the employee will also be eligible to receive continued medical and dental coverage for the duration of their severance period at no cost to the employee with any continuation thereafter (if permitted by COBRA) to be paid by the employee. If the employee elects to be paid in a lump sum distribution, the employee will be responsible for paying for any additional continuation of medical and dental coverage to the extent permitted by COBRA.

Conditions to Complete the Merger

Our respective obligations to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of mutual conditions, including:

the approval of the merger by Slade s Ferry shareholders;

the approval of the listing of Independent common stock to be issued in the merger on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, subject to official notice of issuance;

the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this document is a part, with respect to the Independent common stock to be issued in the merger under the Securities Act of 1933, and the absence of any stop order or proceedings initiated or threatened by the Securities and Exchange Commission for that purpose;

the receipt and effectiveness of all regulatory approvals, registrations and consents, and the expiration of all waiting periods required to complete the merger and the bank merger; and the absence of any statute, regulation, rule, decree, injunction or other order in effect by any court or other governmental entity that prohibits completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Each of Slade s Ferry s and Independent s obligations to complete the merger is also separately subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including:

the receipt by the party of a legal opinion from its counsel with respect to certain federal income tax consequences of the merger; and

the other company s representations and warranties in the merger agreement being true and correct in all material respects and the performance by the other party in all material respects of its obligations under the merger agreement.

Slade s Ferry s obligation to complete the merger is further subject to approval by Independent s Board of Directors of the donation in the amount of $100,000 by Independent to a charity or charities of Slade s Ferry s choosing.

Independent s obligation to complete the merger is further subject to the conditions that:

the number of outstanding shares of Slade s Ferry common stock shall not exceed 4,062,353, except to the extent increased as a result of the exercise of stock options outstanding on the date of the merger agreement;

each director and executive officer of Slade s Ferry having executed and delivered an agreement to vote the shares of Slade s Ferry common stock beneficially owned by him or her in favor of the merger agreement described further in the section entitled Voting Agreements beginning on page [] of this document;

delivery by Slade s Ferry to Independent of releases from certain employees of Slade s Ferry regarding the termination of employment of such employees as of the effective time of the merger and the satisfaction of all payments due to such employees including payments due as a result of the merger;

the delivery by Mary Lynn D. Lenz and Deborah A. McLaughlin to Independent of the non-competition agreement described further in the section entitled Interests of Slade s Ferry s Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger beginning on page [] of this document; and the environmental assessments shall be completed and that such assessments shall not indicate the existence of a condition or matter the cost of which is reasonably likely to exceed $50,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate.

We cannot provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. As of the date of this document, we have no reason to believe that any of these conditions will not be satisfied.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

General. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the merger by our mutual consent authorized by each of our boards of directors, as determined by a vote of a majority of its respective members, or by either Independent or Slade s Ferry if:

a governmental entity which must grant a regulatory approval as a condition to the merger or the bank merger denies approval of the merger or the bank merger or any governmental entity has issued an order prohibiting the merger or the bank merger and such action has become final and non-appealable;

the merger is not completed by April 30, 2008 (other than because of a material breach of the Agreement caused by the party seeking termination);

the other party breaches the merger agreement in a way that would entitle the party seeking to terminate the agreement not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of the breaching party to cure the breach by the earlier of: 30 days following written notice or 2 business days before April 30, 2008 (unless it is not possible due to the nature or timing of the breach for the breaching party to cure the breach); or

Slade's Ferry shareholders do not approve the merger agreement.

The merger agreement may also be terminated by Independent if Slade's Ferry has materially breached its non-solicitation obligations; the Slade's Ferry board has failed to recommend in this proxy statement the approval of the merger agreement, withdrawn, modified or qualified, or proposed to withdraw, modify or qualify, in any manner adverse to Independent, its recommendation that its shareholders approve the merger agreement; recommended, proposed or publicly announced its intention to recommend or propose, to engage in an Acquisition Transaction (as defined below under Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement) with any person other than Independent or a subsidiary or affiliate of Independent; or failed to call the special meeting of Slade's Ferry shareholders.

The merger agreement may also be terminated by Slade's Ferry if the average of the daily closing prices of Independent's common stock for the ten consecutive trading days immediately following regulatory approval of the merger is less than $24.56 and the decrease in the trading price of Independent common stock over a specified period exceeds by 20% or more the decrease in the trading prices of an index group over that period, provided that Independent will have the option to increase the ratio of Independent stock to be exchanged for Slade's Ferry common stock pursuant to a formula in the merger agreement or to augment the stock consideration with cash consideration, in which case no termination will be deemed to have occurred. The merger agreement may also be terminated by Slade's Ferry if it enters into a Superior Proposal, so long as it pays the termination fee described under Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement, below.

Effect of Termination. In the event the merger agreement is terminated as described above, the merger agreement will become void and neither Independent nor Slade's Ferry will have any liability under the merger agreement, except that:

both Independent and Slade's Ferry will remain liable for any willful breach of the merger agreement; and designated provisions of the merger agreement, including those relating to the termination fee, the payment of fees and expenses, non-survival of the representations and warranties, and confidential treatment of information will survive the termination.

Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement.

Conditions Requiring Payment of Termination Fee. Slade's Ferry has agreed to pay a termination fee in the amount of $3.5 million to Independent in the following circumstances:

If Slade's Ferry terminates the merger agreement because Slade's Ferry's board of directors has approved, and Slade's Ferry enters into, a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal (as defined above under No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions).

If Independent terminates the merger agreement because:

Slade's Ferry materially breaches its non-solicitation obligations;

Slade's Ferry's board of directors fails to recommend that Slade's Ferry shareholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, or the board withdraws the recommendation or modifies it in a manner adverse to Independent;

Slade's Ferry's board of directors recommends, proposes or publicly announces its intention to recommend or propose, to engage in an Acquisition Transaction (as defined below) with any party other than Independent or a subsidiary or affiliate of Independent; or

Slade's Ferry materially breaches its obligations to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of Slade's Ferry shareholders in order to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Table of Contents

In the event that:

(1) an Acquisition Proposal, whether or not conditional, has been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to Slade's Ferry's senior management or board of directors (or any person has publicly announced, communicated or made known an intention, whether or not conditional, to make an Acquisition Proposal) or (2) Slade's Ferry's board of directors has withheld, withdrawn or modified (or publicly proposed to withhold, withdraw or modify), in a manner adverse to Independent its recommendation, to the extent permitted under the no-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement, prior to or on the date of the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof at which the vote on the merger agreement is held;

the merger agreement is terminated:

by Independent or Slade's Ferry because Slade's Ferry shareholder approval is not obtained;

by Independent or Slade's Ferry because the merger is not completed on or before April 30, 2008; or by Independent because Slade's Ferry breaches the merger agreement in a way that would entitle Independent not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of Slade's Ferry to cure the breach; and within 12 months following the date of termination, Slade's Ferry enters into a definitive agreement with respect to any Acquisition Transaction, or Slade's Ferry consummates any Acquisition Transaction, then Slade's Ferry must pay the termination fee to Independent. The amount paid will be offset by any amount previously paid for expense reimbursement as described below. Slade's Ferry must pay the termination fee prior to the earlier of Slade's Ferry entering into a definitive agreement for or consummating such Acquisition Transaction.

As used in the merger agreement, the term "Acquisition Transaction" means any of the following involving Slade's Ferry:

any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination or other similar transaction;

any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of assets and/or liabilities that constitute a substantial portion of the net revenues, net income or assets of Slade's Ferry in a single transaction or series of transactions; or any tender offer or exchange offer for 25% or more of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry or the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection therewith.

Conditions Requiring Expense Reimbursement. If the merger agreement is terminated, or could have been terminated, by Independent because:

Slade's Ferry shareholder approval is not obtained;

the merger is not completed on or before April 30, 2008; or

Slade's Ferry breaches the merger agreement in a way that would entitle Independent not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of Slade's Ferry to cure the breach;

an Acquisition Proposal, whether or not conditional, has been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to Slade's Ferry's senior management or board of directors (or any person has publicly announced, communicated or made known an intention, whether or not conditional, to make an Acquisition Proposal); or

Slade's Ferry's board of directors has withheld, withdrawn or modified (or publicly proposed to withhold, withdraw or modify), in a manner adverse to Independent its recommendation, to the extent permitted under the no-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement, prior to or on the date of the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof at which the vote on the merger agreement is held,

but the $3.5 million termination fee has not been paid and is not payable because Slade's Ferry has not entered into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummated any Acquisition Transaction, then Slade's Ferry must pay as promptly as possible (but in any event within three business days) following receipt of an invoice therefor up to $750,000 of Independent's reasonably documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including legal fees and expenses) actually incurred by Independent prior to the termination of the merger agreement proximately in connection with the negotiation, execution, delivery and performance of the merger agreement by Independent.

Amendment, Waiver and Extension of the Merger Agreement

Amendment. We may amend the merger agreement at any time prior to completion of the merger. However, after any approval of the merger agreement by the Slade's Ferry shareholders, there may not be, without further approval of the shareholders, any amendment of the merger agreement that requires such further approval under applicable law.

Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the completion of the merger, each of us, by action taken or authorized by our respective board of directors, to the extent legally allowed, may:

extend the time for performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party under the merger agreement;

waive any inaccuracies in the other party's representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement; and waive the other party's compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement.

Fees and Expenses

Except as described above under The Merger Agreement - Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement, each party will bear all expenses incurred by it in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including fees and expenses of its own financial consultants, accountants and counsel.

Restrictions on Resales by Affiliates

Shares of Independent common stock to be issued to Slade's Ferry shareholders in the merger have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, and may be traded freely and without restriction by those shareholders not deemed to be affiliates (as that term is defined under the Securities Act of 1933) of Slade's Ferry. Any subsequent transfer of shares, however, by any person who is an affiliate of Slade's Ferry at the time the merger is submitted for a vote of the Slade's Ferry shareholders will, under existing law, require either:

the further registration under the Securities Act of 1933 of the Independent common stock to be transferred;

compliance with Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, which permits limited sales under certain circumstances; or the availability of another exemption from registration.

An affiliate of Slade's Ferry is a person who directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, Slade's Ferry. These restrictions are expected to apply to the directors and executive officers of Slade s Ferry and the holders of 10% or more of the outstanding Slade s Ferry common stock. The same restrictions apply to the spouses and certain relatives of those persons and any trusts, estates, corporations or other entities in which those persons have a 10% or greater beneficial or equity interest.

Independent will give stop transfer instructions to the exchange agent with respect to the shares of Independent common stock to be received by persons subject to these restrictions, and the certificates for their shares will be appropriately legended.

VOTING AGREEMENTS

Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, the directors and certain executive officers of Slade's Ferry separately entered into voting agreements with Independent under which they agreed to:

restrict their ability to transfer or dispose of their shares of Slade's Ferry common stock;

appear at the special meeting or otherwise cause their shares of Slade's Ferry common stock to be counted as present thereat for purposes of calculating a quorum;

vote their shares of Slade's Ferry common stock in favor of adoption and approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;

vote their shares of Slade's Ferry common stock against any action or agreement that would result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty, or other obligation or agreement, of Slade's Ferry contained in the merger agreement; and vote their shares of Slade's Ferry common stock against any proposal to acquire Slade's Ferry by any person other than Independent or against any action, agreement or transaction intended to, or could reasonably be expected to, materially impede, interfere or be inconsistent with, delay, postpone, discourage or materially and adversely affect the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The voting agreements were executed as a condition of Independent's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, and as an indication of the directors' and executive officers' support for the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by it and their willingness to vote their shares of Slade's Ferry common stock in favor of the merger agreement at the special meeting.

On October 11, 2007, the date upon which these agreements were executed, these directors and executive officers of Slade's Ferry had sole or shared voting power over 301,442 shares, or approximately 7.4%, of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock and 449,882 shares, or approximately 10.5%, of the fully diluted shares of Slade's Ferry common stock.

No separate consideration was paid to any of the directors or executive officers for entering into these voting agreements. However, the directors and executive officers of Slade's Ferry may be deemed to have interests in the merger as directors and executive officers that are different from or in addition to those of other Slade's Ferry shareholders. See Interests of Slade's Ferry's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger beginning on page [] of this proxy statement/prospectus.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

Independent will use the purchase method of accounting to account for the merger. As of the date of the merger, Slade's Ferry's assets and liabilities will be recorded at their respective estimated fair values. To the extent that the purchase price exceeds the estimated fair value of the net assets acquired, Independent will allocate the excess purchase price to all identifiable intangible assets. Any remaining excess will then be allocated to goodwill. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, the goodwill resulting from the merger will not be amortized to expense, but instead will be reviewed for impairment at least annually. To the extent goodwill is impaired, its carrying value would be written down to its implied fair value and a charge would be made to earnings. Core deposit and other intangibles with definite useful lives will be amortized to expense over their estimated useful lives.

Table of Contents

The financial statements of Independent issued after the merger will reflect the results attributable to the acquired operations of Slade's Ferry beginning on the date the merger is completed. The unaudited pro forma financial information contained in this document has been prepared using the purchase method of accounting. See Summary Historical Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Consolidated Financial Information beginning on page [] of this document.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following section describes the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Slade's Ferry common stock. This discussion addresses only those holders that hold their Slade's Ferry common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Internal Revenue Code, and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders in light of their individual circumstances or to holders that are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

insurance companies;

individual retirement and other tax-deferred accounts;

persons subject to the alternative minimum tax;

persons eligible for tax treaty benefits;

foreign corporations, foreign partnerships and other foreign entities;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers in securities;

persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;

traders in securities that elect to use a mark to market method of accounting;

persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States;

persons that hold Slade's Ferry common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction; and

U.S. holders who acquired their shares of Slade's Ferry common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation.

The following is based upon the Internal Revenue Code, its legislative history, Treasury regulations promulgated pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date of this document, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, and to differing interpretations. Tax considerations under state, local and foreign laws, or federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax, are not addressed in this document.

Holders of Slade s Ferry common stock should consult with their own tax advisors as to the tax consequences of the merger in their particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of Slade s Ferry common stock that is:

a U.S. citizen or resident, as determined for federal income tax purposes;

a corporation, or entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States; or otherwise subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences of a partner in a partnership holding Slade's Ferry common stock generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. We recommend that partners in such a partnership consult their own tax advisors.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

Independent and Slade's Ferry have structured the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is a condition to Independent's obligation to complete the merger that Independent receive an opinion of its counsel, Nutter McClennen & Fish LLP, dated the closing date of the merger, substantially to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is a condition to Slade's Ferry's obligation to complete the merger that Slade's Ferry receive an opinion of its counsel, Thacher Proffitt & Wood LLP, dated the closing date of the merger, substantially to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. In rendering these opinions, counsel may require and rely upon representations contained in letters and certificates to be received from Independent and Slade's Ferry. None of the tax opinions given in connection with the merger or the opinions described below will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service. Neither Independent nor Slade's Ferry intends to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Consequently, no assurance can be given that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of those set forth below. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which those opinions are based is inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

As a result of the merger qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the following material U.S. federal tax consequences will result from the merger:

for a U.S. holder who exchanges all of its shares of Slade's Ferry common stock solely for shares of Independent common stock in the merger, no gain or loss will be recognized, except with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Independent common stock (see the discussion below under Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of Independent Common Stock);

for a U.S. holder who exchanges all of its shares of Slade's Ferry common stock solely for cash in the merger, whether as a result of the U.S. holder's election to receive cash in the merger or otherwise as described in the section The Merger Agreement Allocation Procedures beginning on page [] of this document, capital gain or loss, in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and such holder's tax basis in its Slade's Ferry common stock, generally will be recognized. Any capital gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock for more than one year at the time the merger is completed. Long-term capital gain of an individual generally is subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15%. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. In some cases, such as if the U.S. holder actually or constructively owns Slade's Ferry common stock immediately before the merger, such cash received in the merger could be treated as having the effect of the distribution of a dividend, under the tests set forth in Section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code, in which case such cash received would be treated as ordinary dividend income. These rules are complex and dependent upon the specific factual circumstances particular to each U.S. holder. Consequently, each U.S. holder that may be subject to those rules should consult its tax advisor as to the application of these rules to the particular facts relevant to such U.S. holder;

for a U.S. holder who exchanges its shares of Slade's Ferry common stock for a combination of Independent common stock and cash (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share), gain (but not loss) will be recognized, and the gain recognized will be equal to the lesser of the excess, if any, of (i) the sum of the cash and the fair market value of the Independent common stock the U.S. holder received in the merger, over the tax basis in the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock surrendered by the U.S. holder in the merger, or (ii) the amount of cash received; for a U.S. holder who acquired different blocks of Slade's Ferry common stock at different times and at different prices, realized gain or loss generally must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares exchanged in the merger;

if a U.S. holder has differing bases or holding periods in respect of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock, the U.S. holder should consult its tax advisor prior to the exchange with regard to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of Independent common stock received in the merger; and no gain or loss will be recognized by Independent or Slade's Ferry in the merger.

Tax Basis and Holding Period

A U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the Independent common stock received in the merger, including any fractional share interests deemed received by the U.S. holder under the treatment described below, will equal its aggregate tax basis in the Slade's Ferry common stock surrendered in the merger, increased by the amount of taxable gain or dividend income, if any, recognized in the merger (excluding any gain resulting from the deemed receipt and redemption of a fractional share interest), and decreased by the amount of cash, if any, received in the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share interest). The holding period for the shares of Independent common stock received in the merger generally will include the holding period for the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock exchanged therefor. A U.S. holder who had differing bases and/or holding periods in respect of Slade's Ferry common stock should consult its tax advisor regarding the particular bases and/or holding periods of the Independent common stock received in the merger.

Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of Independent Common Stock

A U.S. holder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Independent common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share of Independent common stock pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share of Independent common stock for cash in a redemption by Independent. In general, this deemed redemption will be treated as a sale or exchange, provided the redemption is not essentially equivalent to a dividend. The determination of whether a redemption is essentially equivalent to a dividend depends upon whether and to what extent the redemption reduces the U.S. holder's deemed percentage stock ownership of Independent. While this determination is based on each U.S. holder's particular facts and circumstances, the IRS has ruled that a redemption is not essentially equivalent to a dividend and will therefore result in sale or exchange treatment in the case of a shareholder of a publicly held company whose relative stock interest is minimal and who exercises no control over corporate affairs if the redemption results in any actual reduction in the stock interest of the shareholder. As a result, the redemption of a fractional share of Independent common stock is generally treated as a sale or exchange and not as a dividend, and a U.S. holder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in its fractional share of Independent common stock as set forth above. This gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for the shares is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Cash payments received in the merger by a U.S. holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding at a rate of 28% of the cash payable to the holder, unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or furnishes its taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Table of Contents

Reporting Requirements

A U.S. holder who receives Independent common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger. U.S. holders who owned at least five percent (by vote and value) of the total outstanding Slade's Ferry common stock before the merger or whose tax basis in the Slade's Ferry common stock surrendered pursuant to the merger equals or exceeds $1.0 million are subject to certain reporting requirements with respect to the merger. U.S. holders are urged to consult with their tax advisors with respect to these and other reporting requirements applicable to the merger.

Independent is authorized to issue up to 30,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, with 13,759,184.46 issued as of December 4, 2007. Independent is also authorized to issue up to 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, none of which was issued as of December 4, 2007. Independent has designated 15,000 shares of preferred stock as Series B Junior Participating Cumulative Preferred Stock, none of which was outstanding as of December 4, 2007. The capital stock of Independent does not represent or constitute a deposit account and is not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or by the Depositors Insurance Fund.

The following description of the Independent capital stock does not purport to be complete and is qualified in all respects by reference to Independent s articles of organization and bylaws, and the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act.

Table of Contents

Common Stock

General. Each share of Independent's common stock has the same relative rights and is identical in all respects with each other share of common stock.

Voting Rights. Each holder of common stock is entitled to one vote in person or by proxy for each share held on all matters voted upon by shareholders. Shareholders are not permitted to cumulate votes in elections of directors.

Preemptive Rights. Holders of common stock do not have any preemptive rights with respect to any shares that may be issued by Independent in the future. Thus, Independent may sell shares of its common stock without first offering them to the then holders of common stock.

Liquidation. In the event of any liquidation or dissolution of Independent, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of Independent's common stock would be entitled to receive pro rata, after payment of all debts and liabilities of Independent (including all deposits of subsidiary banks and interest on those deposits), all assets of Independent available for distribution, subject to the rights of the holders of any preferred stock which may be issued with a priority in liquidation or dissolution over the holders of common stock.

Preferred Stock

The Independent board of directors is authorized, subject to limitations by its articles of organization and by applicable law, to issue preferred stock in one or more series. The Independent board of directors may fix the dividend, redemption, liquidation and conversion rights of each series of preferred stock, and may provide for a sinking fund or redemption or purchase account to be provided for the preferred stock. The board of directors may also grant voting rights to the holders of any series of preferred stock, subject to certain limitations in Independent's articles of incorporation. Specifically, the holders of any series of preferred stock may not be given the right to more than one vote per share on any matters requiring the approval or vote of the holders of Independent's common stock, except as otherwise required by applicable law, the right to elect more than two Independent directors or, together with the holders of all other series of preferred stock, the right to elect in the aggregate more than six Independent directors.

Series B Junior Participating Cumulative Preferred Stock

General. Independent's articles provide for 15,000 shares of non-redeemable Series B Junior Participating Cumulative Preferred Stock (the "Series B Preferred Stock").

Dividends. When and if a quarterly cash dividend is declared by the Board of Directors, the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends in an amount per share described in Independent's articles of organization, subject to the rights of the holders of any shares of any series of preferred stock ranking prior and superior to the Series B Preferred Stock with respect to dividends. The amount per share of the dividend to which the holders of Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled is equal to the greater of (a) $1.00 or (b) 1,000 times the aggregate per share amount of all cash dividends and non-cash dividends or other distributions declared on the common stock since the immediately preceding dividend payment date for the Series B Preferred Stock (other than dividends payable in shares of common stock), subject to adjustment as provided in the articles of incorporation.

Dividends will accrue and be cumulative on outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock as provided in Independent's articles of incorporation. Accrued but unpaid dividends do not bear interest. Dividends paid on the shares of Series B Preferred Stock in an amount less than the total amount of such dividends accrued and payable on such shares shall be allocated pro rata on a share-by-share basis among all such shares outstanding at that time.

Voting Rights. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock shall entitle the holder thereof to 1,000 votes on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders of the Corporation, which number of votes is subject to adjustment from time to time under Independent's articles of incorporation. In general, the holders of shares of

Table of Contents

Series B Preferred Stock and the holders of shares of common stock and any other capital stock of Independent with general voting rights will vote together as one class on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders of the Corporation.

If dividends or distributions payable on the Series B Preferred Stock have not been paid when due, until all accrued and unpaid dividends and distributions, whether or not declared, on shares of Series B Preferred Stock outstanding are paid in full, Independent may not declare or pay dividends on, make any other distributions on, or redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire for consideration any shares of stock ranking junior to the Series B Preferred Stock as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up, may not declare or pay dividends on or make other distributions on any shares of stock ranking on a parity with the Series B Preferred Stock as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up, other than dividends paid ratably on the Series B Preferred Stock and all such parity stock on which dividends are payable or in arrears in proportion to the total amounts to which the holders of all such shares are then entitled. Further, in such a situation, Independent may not redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire for consideration shares of any stock ranking on a parity with the Series B Preferred Stock as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up, unless the shares are exchanged for shares of Independent stock ranking junior to the Series B Preferred Stock as to dividends or upon dissolution, liquidation or winding up and may not purchase or otherwise acquire for consideration any shares of Series B Preferred Stock, or any shares of any stock ranking on a parity with the Series B Preferred Stock as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up, except in accordance with a purchase offer made to all holders of such shares upon terms that the board of directors determines in good faith will result in fair and equitable treatment among the respective series or classes.

Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding-Up. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Independent, the holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall receive an amount equal to accrued and unpaid dividends and distributions thereon, plus an amount equal to the greater of (1) $1,000.00 per share, subject to the adjustment as provided in the articles of incorporation, or (2) an aggregate amount per share equal to 1,000 times the aggregate amount to be distributed per share to the holders of common stock, subject to adjustment as provided in the articles of incorporation, or to the holders of stock ranking on a parity with the Series B Preferred Stock (other than distributions made ratably on the Series B Preferred Stock and all other such parity stock).

Consolidation or Merger. If Independent enters into any consolidation, merger, combination or other transaction in which the shares of Independent common stock are exchanged for or converted into other consideration, the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall at the same time be similarly exchanged for or converted into an amount per share equal to 1,000 times the aggregate amount of consideration into which or for which each share of common stock is exchanged or converted, plus accrued and unpaid dividends, if any, payable with respect to the Series B Preferred Stock, subject to adjustment as provided in Independent's articles of incorporation.

Priority. The Series B Preferred Stock will rank junior to any other series of Independent's preferred stock later issued for the purpose of paying dividends and distributing assets on liquidation, dissolution or winding up, and shall rank senior to the common stock for these purposes.

Amendment. The holders of two-thirds or more of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, voting separately as a class, must affirmatively vote to amend Independent's articles of organization in a manner that would materially alter or change adversely the powers, preferences or special rights of the Series B Preferred Stock.

Other Provisions

The articles of organization and bylaws of Independent contain a number of provisions that may have the effect of discouraging or delaying attempts to gain control of Independent, including provisions:

classifying the Independent board of directors into three classes to serve for three years, with one class being elected annually;

Table of Contents

authorizing the Independent board of directors to fix the size of the Independent board of directors;

limiting for removal of directors by a majority of shareholders to removal for cause; and increasing the amount of stock required to be held by shareholders seeking to call a special meeting of shareholders above the minimum established by statute.

Massachusetts has adopted a business combination statute (Chapter 110F of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Law) that may also have additional anti-takeover effects to provisions in Independent Bank's articles of organization and bylaws. Massachusetts has also adopted a control share statute (Chapter 110D of the Massachusetts Business Corporation Law), the provisions of which Independent has provided in its bylaws shall not apply to control share acquisitions of Independent within the meaning of said Chapter 110D.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS OF SLADE'S FERRY AND INDEPENDENT

This section describes the differences between the rights of holders of Slade's Ferry common stock and the rights of holders of Independent common stock. While we believe that the description covers the material differences between the rights of the holders, this summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should carefully read this entire document and refer to the other documents discussed below for a more complete understanding of the differences between your rights as a holder of Slade's Ferry common stock and your rights as a holder of Independent common stock.

As a shareholder of Slade's Ferry, a Massachusetts corporation, your rights are governed by Massachusetts law, Slade's Ferry's articles of organization, as currently in effect, and Slade's Ferry's bylaws, as currently in effect. When the merger becomes effective, you will become a shareholder of Independent, also a Massachusetts corporation, if you receive the stock consideration for any portion of your Slade's Ferry shares. Independent's common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol INDB. As an Independent shareholder, your rights will be governed by Massachusetts law, Independent's articles of organization, as in effect from time to time, and Independent's bylaws, as in effect from time to time.

The following discussion of the similarities and material differences between the rights of Slade's Ferry shareholders under the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Slade's Ferry and the rights of Independent shareholders under the articles of organization and bylaws of Independent is only a summary of some provisions and is not a complete description of these similarities and differences. This discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to Massachusetts law and the full texts of the articles of organization and bylaws of Slade's Ferry and the articles of organization and bylaws of Independent.

Capitalization

Slade's Ferry. The total authorized capital stock of Slade's Ferry consists of 5,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share. As of December 4, 2007, there were 4,063,333 shares outstanding.

Independent. The total authorized capital stock of Independent consists of 30,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. As of December 4, 2007, there were 13,759,184.46 shares of common stock and no shares of preferred stock outstanding.

15,000 shares of the preferred stock are designated as Series B Junior Participating Cumulative Preferred Stock (Series B Preferred Stock). The holders of the Series B Preferred Stock, in addition to all voting rights required by Massachusetts law, are entitled for each share of such stock to 1,000 votes on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders, subject to adjustment for stock dividends and stock-splits. The board of directors of Independent may issue additional shares of preferred stock without shareholder approval.

Preemptive Rights

A preemptive right allows a shareholder to maintain its proportionate share of ownership of a corporation by permitting the shareholder to purchase a proportionate share of any new stock issuances. Preemptive rights protect the shareholders from dilution of value and control upon new stock issuances. Under Massachusetts law, unless the articles of organization say otherwise, shareholders have no preemptive rights. Neither Slade's Ferry nor Independent has a provision authorizing preemptive rights, and Independent's articles of organization contain a provision specifically denying them. Accordingly, neither Slade's Ferry nor Independent shareholders have preemptive rights.

Dividends and Other Stock Rights

Slade's Ferry. Neither the articles of organization nor the bylaws of Slade's Ferry address dividends. Under Massachusetts law a board of directors may authorize and the corporation may make distributions to its shareholders unless (1) the corporation would not be able to pay its existing and reasonably foreseeable debts, liabilities and obligations, whether or not liquidated, matured, asserted or contingent, as they become due in the usual course of business; or (2) the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus, unless the articles or organization permit otherwise, the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

Additionally, under Massachusetts law, no distribution in liquidation may be made by a corporation unless adequate provision has been made to satisfy: (1) the corporation's existing and reasonably foreseeable debts, liabilities and obligations, whether or not liquidated, matured, asserted or contingent, as they thereafter arise; and (2) the preferential liquidation rights of shares whose preferential rights are superior to such rights of the shares which would receive the distribution. A distribution in liquidation means a distribution made by a corporation in dissolution, or a distribution, or one of a series of related distributions, of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets.

Independent. Independent can also pay dividends on its common stock in accordance with Massachusetts law.

When and if a quarterly cash dividend is declared by the board of directors, the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive dividends in an amount per share described in Independent's articles of organization, subject to the rights of the holders of any shares of any series of preferred stock ranking prior and superior to the Series B Preferred Stock with respect to dividends. The amount per share of the dividend to which the holders of Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled is equal to the greater of (a) $1.00 or (b) 1,000 times the aggregate per share amount of all cash dividends and non-cash dividends or other distributions declared on the common stock since the immediately preceding dividend payment date for the Series B Preferred Stock (other than dividends payable in shares of common stock), subject to adjustment as provided in the articles of incorporation. Dividends will accrue and be cumulative on outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock as provided in Independent's articles of incorporation. Accrued but unpaid dividends do not bear interest. Dividends paid on the shares of Series B Preferred Stock in an amount less than the total amount of such dividends accrued and payable on such shares shall be allocated pro rata on a share-by-share basis among all such shares outstanding at that time.

The shares of Series B Preferred Stock are not redeemable.

Annual Meeting of Shareholders

Slade s Ferry. Slade s Ferry requires that annual meetings be held within 6 months after the end of the fiscal year, on such date and at such time as designated by the board of directors.

Table of Contents

Independent. Independent's bylaws state only that annual meetings shall be held on such date and at such time as designated by the board of directors. Additionally, the bylaws provide that if no annual meeting is held, a special meeting may be held in lieu thereof.

Right to Call Special Meetings of Shareholders

Slade's Ferry. Special meetings may be called:

by the president;

by a majority of the board of directors; and at the direction of holder(s) of at least 40% of the voting capital stock of Slade's Ferry at the time issued and outstanding.

Independent. Special meetings may be called:

by the chairman of the board, if any;

by the president;

by a majority of the directors; and by the clerk or other officer at the written direction of the holders of at least two-thirds of the capital stock of the Independent entitled to vote at the meeting.

For shareholders to call a special meeting, Independent requires the written application of the holders of at least two-thirds of the capital stock, as opposed to the 40% of voting capital stock required by Slade's Ferry.

Therefore, it may be more difficult for Independent shareholders to call a special meeting.

Notice of Shareholder Meetings

Slade's Ferry. Slade's Ferry requires that notice of shareholder meetings be given not less than 7 or more than 60 days before the meeting.

Independent. Independent requires that notice of shareholder meetings be given not less than 7 days before the meeting.

Slade's Ferry and Independent have the same minimum amount of time before a meeting that notice may be given, but Independent does not have a maximum amount of time as does Slade's Ferry.

Additional Business Brought by Shareholders at Meetings

Slade's Ferry. Additional business may be brought by shareholders of record holding at least 40% of the capital stock of Slade's Ferry at the time issued and outstanding. Notice of such additional business must be delivered to the clerk/secretary at least 30 days before the meeting. The notice must contain a written agenda of additional business stating the nature of such additional business

Independent. Additional business may be brought by any shareholder of record who shall have been a shareholder of record at the time of giving the record notice and who shall continue to be entitled at the time of the meeting to vote thereat. Such shareholder must give timely notice.

To be considered timely, a shareholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive office of the corporation (a) not less than 75 nor more than 125 days before the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of the corporation or (b) in the case of a special meeting or in the event that an annual meeting is called for a date more than 75 days prior to such anniversary date, notice must be given so as to be received not later than the close of business on the 20th day following the earlier of: the date on which notice of the date of such meeting was mailed, or public disclosure of the date of such meeting was made. The notice must set forth as to each matter (a) a brief description of the business

desired to be brought before the meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting, (b) the name and record address of the shareholder proposing such business, (c) the class and number of shares of capital stock of the corporation held of record, owned beneficially and represented by proxy by such shareholder as of the record date for the meeting (if such date shall then have been made publicly available) and as of the date of such notice by the shareholder and (d) all other information which would be required to be included in a proxy statement or other filings required to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission if, with respect to any such item of business, such shareholder were a participant in a solicitation subject to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act (the proxy rules). In the event the proposed business to be brought before the meeting by or on behalf of a shareholder relates or refers to a proposal or transaction involving the shareholder or a third party which, if it were to have been consummated at the time of the meeting, would have required of such shareholder or third party or any of the affiliates of either of them any prior notification to, filing with, or any orders or other action by, any governmental authority, then any such notice to the Clerk shall be accompanied by appropriate evidence of the making of all such notifications or filings and the issuance of all such orders and the taking of all such actions by all such governmental authorities.

Because Independent requires only that a shareholder be a shareholder of record entitled to vote, as opposed to Slade s Ferry s requirement of a 40% holding, it is easier for Independent shareholders to bring additional business at shareholder meetings. However, Independent s notice requirements are more detailed.

Special Action

Slade s Ferry. Under Massachusetts law, any action to be taken by shareholders may be taken without a meeting if all shareholders entitled to vote on the matter consent in writing, unless the articles of incorporation of the company otherwise provide. Slade s Ferry has no provision for special actions of shareholders without a meeting.

Independent. Independent s bylaws provide that any action to be taken by shareholders may be taken without a meeting if all shareholders entitled to vote on the matter consent to the action by a writing filed with the records of the meetings of shareholders.

Shareholders of both Independent and Slade s Ferry may take action if all of the shareholders entitled to vote on the matter consent in writing.

Board of Directors Number and Term of Office

Slade s Ferry. Slade s Ferry provides that the board of directors shall consist of not less than seven or more than 25 directors. The directors shall be divided into three classes and no class shall have more than one additional director as compared to any other class. The total number of directors and their division into classes may be fixed, within the limits described, at any meeting of shareholders where such business is properly before the meeting. The board of directors may at any time be enlarged from the size set by the shareholders but within the limits described by a vote of the majority of directors then in office. At each annual meeting of shareholders, the successors the class of directors whose term is expiring shall be elected by a plurality of the shareholders for a term of three years, so that approximately one-third of the board is elected every year. No director shall continue to serve once he or she attains the age of 70. Newly created directorships and vacancies on the board shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office, even though less than a quorum. Any director so elected shall hold office for the remainder of the full term of the class of directors in which the new directorship was created or the vacancy occurred.

Independent. Independent s bylaws and articles of organization provide that the number of directors shall be between three and 25 as fixed from time to time by vote of the board of directors at any regular or special meeting thereof. The board may increase or decrease the number of directors in one or more classes to ensure that the three classes shall be as nearly equal as possible. Preference Stock Directors are those who may be elected by the holders of any class or series of stock having a preference over the common stock as to dividends or upon liquidation. Directors other than Preference Stock Directors shall be divided into three classes as nearly equally as possible, creating a staggered board. At each annual meeting of shareholders, the successors of the class of directors whose term is expiring shall be elected by a plurality of the shareholders for a term of three years. No director shall continue to serve once he or she attains the age of 72. Except for Preference Stock Directors, newly created directorships and vacancies on the board shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office, even though less than a quorum. Any director so elected shall hold office for the remainder of the full term of the class of directors in which the new directorship was created or the vacancy occurred.

The bylaws and articles of organization of both Slade's Ferry and Independent provide for boards of not more than 25 directors, divided into three classes. Independent provides for an additional class of directors, the Preference Stock Directors, elected by preferred stock holders. Independent may have a board of as few as three directors while Slade's Ferry requires a minimum of seven. Independent allows directors to serve until the age of 72, rather than the age of 70 as provided by Slade's Ferry.

Board of Director Nominations

Slade's Ferry. Nominations for election to the board may be made only by or at the Direction of the board of directors; or by any shareholder entitled to vote for the election of directors at the meeting who provides notice to the Clerk/Secretary. Notice must be made in writing not less than 60 days in advance of the date of Slade's Ferry's proxy statement which was released to the shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting of shareholders. The notice shall set forth (i) as to each person whom such shareholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director, all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for the election of directors, and (ii) as to the shareholder giving notice of (x) the name and address, as they appear on Slade's Ferry's books, of such shareholder and (y) the class and number of shares of Slade's Ferry's capital stock that are beneficially owned by such shareholder.

Independent. Nominations for election to the board at the annual meeting of shareholders may be made by or at the direction of the board of directors, the nominating committee, or by any shareholder entitled to vote for the election of directors at the time of the nomination and at the time of the meeting who provides appropriate written notice to the clerk. Notice shall be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the corporation not less than 75 nor more than 125 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of shareholders; provided, however, that in the event that the meeting is called for a date more than 75 days prior to such anniversary date, notice must be so received not later than the close of business on the 20th day following the day on which notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or public disclosure of the date of the meeting was made, whichever first occurs.

The notice shall set forth (a) as to each person whom such shareholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director, (i) the name, age, business address and residence address of the person, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of the person, (iii) the class and number of shares of capital stock of Independent, if any, which are beneficially owned by the person, (iv) any other information regarding the nominee as would be required to be included in a proxy statement or other filings required to be filed pursuant to the proxy rules, and (v) the consent of each nominee to serve if elected; and (b) as to the shareholder giving notice, (i) the name and record address of the shareholder, (ii) the class and number of shares of capital stock of Independent beneficially owned by the shareholder as of the record date for the meeting (if such date has been made publicly available) and as of the date of such notice, (iii) a representation that the shareholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice, (iv) a representation that the shareholder (and any party on whose behalf or in concert with whom such shareholder is acting) is qualified at the time of giving such notice to have such individual serve as the nominee of such shareholder (and any party on whose behalf or in concert with whom such shareholder is acting) if such individual is elected, accompanied by copies of any notification or filings with, or orders or other actions by, any governmental authority which are required in order for such shareholder (and any party on whose behalf such shareholder is acting) to be so qualified, (v) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such shareholder and each such nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by such shareholder

and (vi) such other information regarding such shareholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement or other filings required to be filed pursuant to the proxy rules contained in the securities laws.

The nomination provisions of Slade's Ferry and Independent are similar, but Slade's Ferry requires notice at least 60 days in advance while Independent requires notice to be not less than 75 or more than 125 days in advance. Additionally, the required contents of the notice vary somewhat.

Removal and Resignation of Directors

Slade's Ferry. Slade's Ferry's bylaws provide that a director may resign at any time by giving written notice of his or her resignation to the President, the Secretary or the board of directors.

Independent. Independent does not make specific provision for a method of resignation, but the bylaws do provide that vacancies can arise from resignation. A director may be removed for cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all shares of the Corporation outstanding and then entitled to vote generally in the election of directors.

Both Slade's Ferry and Independent allow directors to resign, however only Independent provides for the removal of directors.

Amendment of Bylaws

Slade's Ferry. Slade's Ferry's bylaws provide that they may be amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the directors, unless at the time of such action there shall be an interested shareholder, in which case action shall also require an affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors. The bylaws may also be amended or repealed by an affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the capital stock of Slade's Ferry at the time outstanding. Article VII of the bylaws, regarding business combinations, has its own rules regarding amendment. Article VII provides that it may be amended, altered, changed or repealed: (i) as to any provision other than the Fair Price provisions only upon the affirmative vote of 80% or more of the stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon at a shareholder's meeting; or (ii) as to the Fair Price provisions, only upon the affirmative vote of 90% or more of the stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon at a shareholder's meeting.

Independent. The bylaws may be amended by the shareholders if appropriate notice has been given setting forth the substance of the proposed change. The bylaws, except those provisions that specify otherwise, may be amended or repealed by the board of directors.

Slade's Ferry's bylaws provide that shareholders may amend or repeal the bylaws. The directors generally may also amend or repeal the bylaws, but must do so by a two-thirds majority rather than the simple majority required for transaction business. Independent's bylaws provide that the shareholders may amend the bylaws, but make no provision for repeal by the shareholders. Independent's bylaws may be amended or repealed by the directors.

Amendment of Articles of Organization

Slade's Ferry. The articles of organization of Slade's Ferry do not address amendment of the articles as a whole. The articles do provide that amendments relating to the classes and terms of directors must be approved by a vote of 80% of the stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Under Massachusetts law, a corporation may authorize, by vote of two-thirds of each class of stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon, any amendment of its articles of organization; provided, only, that any provision added to or changes made in its articles of organization by such amendment could have been included in, and any provision deleted thereby could have been omitted from, original articles of organization filed at the time of such meeting. If any such amendment would adversely affect the rights of any class of stock, the vote in the proportion provided for in or pursuant to this section of such class, voting separately, shall also be necessary to authorize such amendment. Any series of a class which is adversely affected in a manner different from other series of the same class shall, together with any other series of the same class adversely affected in the same manner, be treated as a separate class.

Table of Contents

Independent. Generally, the articles of incorporation of Independent may be amended or repealed only by a majority vote of the shareholders. Sections 4 and 5 of Article VI, dealing with preemptive rights and the amendment of the articles of incorporation, may be amended or repealed only by a two-thirds majority vote of the shareholders. Additionally, the articles of organization of Independent provide that they shall not be amended in any manner which would materially alter or change the powers, preferences or special rights of the Series B Preferred Stock so as to affect them adversely without the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds or more of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, voting separately as a class.

Indemnification

Slade s Ferry. The bylaws of Slade s Ferry provide that Slade s Ferry shall indemnify directors and may indemnify officers or others serving as Trustees or administrators of any employee benefit plan against any expense incurred in relation to any matter with respect to which an allegation is made of willful misconduct, willful default or of gross negligence only if: there is no final adjudication that such person is guilty of or liable for such and one of the following conditions is met: (i) final adjudication that the person is not guilty or liable for such; (ii) a sufficient number of directors who are not involved in the proceeding to constitute a majority of the whole board and there is a determination that such person is free from such willful misconduct, willful default or gross negligence by a vote of the majority of the directors on a ballot in which no director who is involved in the proceeding shall participate; or (iii) there is a determination that such person is free from such willful misconduct, willful default, or gross negligence by a vote of a majority of a committee of seven shareholders, none of whom is involved in the proceeding, chose to determine such matter at a regular or special meeting of the shareholders.

Indemnification may include payment by Slade s Ferry of expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action or proceeding in advance of the final disposition of such action or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by the person indemnified to repay such payment if he or she shall be adjudicated to be not entitled to indemnification. Such undertaking may be accepted without reference to the financial ability of such person to make repayment.

Any such indemnification may be provided although the person to be indemnified is no longer an officer, director, trustee or administrator. No indemnification shall be provided for any person with respect to any matter as to which he or she shall have been adjudicated in any proceeding not to have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that his or her action was in the best interest of the corporation or to the extent that such matter relates to service with respect to any employee benefit plan, in the best interests of the participants or beneficiaries of such employee benefit plan.

Independent. Independent s bylaws and articles of organization provide for the limitation on liability of directors and officers. Under the bylaws a director or officer shall not be personally liable to Independent or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer. However, the bylaws do not eliminate or limit the liability of a director or officer (i) for any breach of the director s or officer s duty of loyalty to the Independent or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for improper distributions under Section 6.40 of Chapter 156D of the General Laws of Massachusetts, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit. The stated intention of the bylaw provision is to limit the liability of a director or officer to the maximum extent allowed by law. To that end, the bylaws further provide that if the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act is amended to authorize the further elimination of, or limitation on, the liability of directors or officers, then the liability of a director or officer of Independent, in addition to the limitation of personal liability provided herein, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by such amendment or amendments.

The bylaws further provide that a director s or officer s conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose he or she reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in, and the beneficiaries of, the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of Independent.

Except in the circumstances described above, Independent may only indemnify a director or officer if so ordered by a court.

The determination of whether an officer or director has met the requirements for indemnification shall be made (i) if there are two or more disinterested directors, by the board of directors by a majority vote of all the disinterested directors, a majority of whom shall for such purpose constitute a quorum, or by a majority of the members of a committee of two or more disinterested directors appointed by vote; (ii) by special legal counsel; (iii) by the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of a Director who at the time does not qualify as a disinterested Director may not be voted on the determination. Independent may, in some circumstances, advance expenses to a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding.

Both Slade s Ferry and Independent provide for the indemnification of directors and officers, but Independent s provisions are more detailed and also provide for a limitation on liability to the greatest extent allowed by law.

Approval of Business Combinations

Slade s Ferry. The bylaws of Slade s Ferry require the affirmative vote of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of voting stock to approve any of the following business combinations with any interested person : (i) any merger or consolidation of Slade s Ferry or a subsidiary of Slade s Ferry with or into an interested person, (ii) any sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition, including without limitation, a mortgage or any other security device, of all or any substantial part of the assets either of the Slade s Ferry or of a subsidiary of Slade s Ferry to an interested person, (iii) any merger or consolidation of an interested person with or into Slade s Ferry or a subsidiary of Slade s Ferry, (iv) any reclassification of securities, recapitalization or other comparable transaction involving Slade s Ferry that would have the effect of increasing the voting power of any interested person with respect to voting stock of Slade s Ferry, or (v) any agreement, contract or other arrangement providing for any of these transactions.

However, such a vote will not be required if the continuing directors, by at least a two-thirds vote (i) have expressly approved in advance the acquisition of the outstanding shares of voting stock that caused such interested person to become such, or (ii) have expressly approved such business combination either in advance of subsequent to such interested person having become such.

The affirmative vote of at least 90% of the outstanding shares of voting stock shall be required to approve any of the business combinations with interested persons listed above if the cash or fair market value of the property, securities, or other consideration to be received per share by holders of voting stock of the corporation is less than the fair price paid by the interested person in acquiring any of its holdings of Slade s Ferry s voting stock.

The voting requirements shall not apply to any transaction with any subsidiary of Slade s Ferry approved by the full board of directors for purposes of internal reorganization.

Independent. The bylaws and articles of organization of Independent do not contain any special provisions relating to the approval of business combinations.

Independent does not contain supermajority voting approval requirements for certain transactions as does Slade s Ferry; therefore, it may be easier for Independent to engage in business combinations with interested persons.

The Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration are sometimes referred to herein collectively as the Merger Consideration.

Section 2.02 Rights as Shareholders; Stock Transfers. All shares of Company Common Stock, when converted as provided in Section 2.01(c), shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each Certificate previously evidencing such shares shall thereafter represent only the right to receive for each such share of Company Common Stock, the Merger Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock in accordance with Sections 2.01(c) and 2.03 and the right to receive any unpaid dividend with respect to the Company Common Stock with a record date occurring prior to the Effective Time. At the Effective Time, holders of Company Common Stock shall cease to be, and shall have no rights as, shareholders of Company, other than the right to receive the Merger Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock as provided under this Article II and the right to receive any unpaid dividend with respect to the Company Common Stock with a record date occurring prior to the Effective Time. After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Company of shares of Company Common Stock, other than transfers of Company Common Stock that have occurred prior to the Effective Time.

Section 2.03 Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, no fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock and no certificates or scrip therefor, or other evidence of ownership thereof, will be issued in the Merger. In lieu thereof, Buyer shall pay to each holder of a fractional share of Buyer Common Stock an amount of cash (without interest) determined by multiplying the fractional share interest to which such holder would otherwise be entitled by the average of the last sale prices of Buyer Common Stock, as reported on The Nasdaq Global Select Market (Nasdaq) (as reported in The Wall Street Journal or, if not reported therein, in another authoritative source), for the five (5) Nasdaq trading days immediately preceding the Closing Date, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

Section 2.04 Election Procedures.

(a) An election form and other appropriate and customary transmittal materials (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of such Certificates to a bank or trust company designated by Buyer and reasonably satisfactory to Company (the Exchange Agent)) in such form as Company and Buyer shall mutually agree (the Election Form), shall be mailed no more than forty (40) and no less than twenty (20) Business Days prior to the anticipated Election Deadline (the Mailing Date) to each holder of record of Company Common Stock. Each Election Form shall permit the holder of record of Company Common Stock (or in the case of nominee record holders, the beneficial owner through proper instructions and documentation) to (i) elect to receive the Cash Consideration for all or a portion of such holder's shares (a Cash Election), (ii) elect to receive the Stock Consideration for all or a portion of such holder's shares (a Stock Election), or (iii) make no election with respect to the receipt of the Cash Consideration or the Stock Consideration (a Non-Election); except as provided in Section 7.01(i), seventy-five percent (75%) of the total number of shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, excluding any Treasury Stock (the Stock Conversion Number), shall be converted into the Stock Consideration and twenty-five percent (25%) of such shares of Company Common Stock shall be converted into the Cash Consideration. A record holder acting in different capacities or acting on behalf of other Persons in any way will be entitled to submit an Election Form for each capacity in which such record holder so acts with respect to each Person for which it so acts. Shares of Company Common Stock as to which a Cash Election has been made are referred to herein as Cash Election Shares. Shares of Company Common Stock as to which a Stock Election has been made are referred to herein as Stock Election Shares. Shares of Company Common Stock as to which no election has been made (or as to which an Election Form is not properly completed and returned in a timely fashion) are referred to herein as Non-Election Shares. The aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock with respect to which a Stock Election has been made is referred to herein as the Stock Election Number.

(b) To be effective, a properly completed Election Form shall be submitted to the Exchange Agent on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on a date no later than the 5th Business Day prior to the Closing Date to be mutually agreed upon by the parties (which date shall be publicly announced by Buyer as soon as practicable prior to such date) (the Election Deadline), accompanied by the Certificates as to which such Election Form is being made or by an appropriate guarantee of delivery of such Certificates, as set forth in the Election Form, from a member of any registered national securities exchange or a commercial bank or trust company in the United States (provided that such Certificates are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent by the time required in such guarantee of delivery; failure to deliver shares of Company Common Stock covered by such guarantee of delivery within the time set forth on such guarantee shall be deemed to invalidate any otherwise properly made election, unless otherwise determined by Buyer, in its sole discretion). For shares of Company Common Stock held in book entry form, Buyer shall establish procedures for delivery of such shares, which procedures shall be reasonably acceptable to Company. If a holder of Company Common Stock either (i) does not submit a properly completed Election Form in a timely fashion or (ii) revokes the holder's Election Form prior to the Election Deadline (without later submitting a properly completed Election Form prior to the Election Deadline), the shares of Company Common Stock held by such holder shall be designated Non-Election Shares. In addition, all Election Forms shall automatically be revoked, and all Certificates returned, if the Exchange Agent is notified in writing by Buyer and Company that this Agreement has been terminated. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and of the Election Form, the Exchange Agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in any Election Form, and any good faith decisions of the Exchange Agent regarding such matters shall be binding and conclusive. Neither Buyer nor the Exchange Agent shall be under any obligation to notify any Person of any defect in an Election Form.

(c) The allocation among the holders of shares of Company Common Stock of rights to receive the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration will be made as follows:

(i) If the Stock Election Number exceeds the Stock Conversion Number, then all Cash Election Shares and all Non-Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration, and, subject to Section 2.03 hereof, each holder of Stock Election Shares will be entitled to receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Stock Election Shares held by such holder equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Stock Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Stock Conversion Number and the denominator of which is the Stock Election Number, with the remaining number of such holder's Stock Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration;

(ii) If the Stock Election Number is less than the Stock Conversion Number (the amount by which the Stock Conversion Number exceeds the Stock Election Number being referred to herein as the Shortfall Number), then all Stock Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration and the Non-Election Shares and the Cash Election Shares shall be treated in the following manner:

(A) if the Shortfall Number is less than or equal to the number of Non-Election Shares, then all Cash Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and, subject to Section 2.03 hereof, each holder of Non-Election Shares shall receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Non-Election Shares held by such holder equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Non-Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Shortfall Number and the denominator of which is the total number of Non-Election Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Non-Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration; or

(B) if the Shortfall Number exceeds the number of Non-Election Shares, then all Non-Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration, and, subject to Section 2.03 hereof, each holder of Cash Election Shares shall receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Cash Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Cash Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount by which (1) the Shortfall Number exceeds (2) the total number of Non-Election Shares and the denominator of which is the total number of Cash Election Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Cash Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration.

Section 2.05 Exchange Procedures.

(a) On or before the Closing Date, for the benefit of the holders of Certificates, (i) Buyer shall cause to be delivered to the Exchange Agent, for exchange in accordance with this Article II, certificates representing the shares of Buyer Common Stock issuable pursuant to this Article II (New Certificates) and (ii) Buyer shall deliver, or shall cause to be delivered, to the Exchange Agent an aggregate amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of cash payable pursuant to this Article II (including the estimated amount of cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Buyer Common Stock) (such cash and New Certificates, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund).

(b) As promptly as practicable, but in any event no later than five (5) Business Days following the Effective Time, and provided that Company has delivered, or caused to be delivered, to the Exchange Agent all information which is necessary for the Exchange Agent to perform its obligations as specified herein, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each holder of record of a Certificate or Certificates who has not previously surrendered such Certificate or

Certificates with an Election Form, a form of letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent) and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the

Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration into which the shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Certificates shall have been converted pursuant to Sections 2.01, 2.03 and 2.04 of this Agreement. Upon proper surrender of a Certificate for exchange and cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, as applicable, (i) a New Certificate representing that number of shares of Buyer Common Stock (if any) to which such former holder of Company Common Stock shall have become entitled pursuant to this Agreement, (ii) a check representing that amount of cash (if any) to which such former holder of Company Common Stock shall have become entitled pursuant to this Agreement and/or (iii) a check representing the amount of cash (if any) payable in lieu of a fractional share of Buyer Common Stock which such former holder has the right to receive in respect of the Certificate surrendered pursuant to this Agreement, and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.05(b), each Certificate (other than Certificates representing Treasury Stock) shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the Merger Consideration provided in Sections 2.01, 2.03 and 2.04 and any unpaid dividends and distributions thereon as provided in paragraph (c) of this Section 2.05. No interest shall be paid or accrued on any cash constituting Merger Consideration (including any cash in lieu of fractional shares) and any unpaid dividends and distributions payable to holders of Certificates.

(c) No dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time with respect to Buyer Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with this Section 2.05. After the surrender of a Certificate in accordance with this Section 2.05, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to shares of Buyer Common Stock represented by such Certificate. None of Buyer, Company or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any Person in respect of any shares of Company Common Stock (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash from the Exchange Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(d) The Exchange Agent and Buyer, as the case may be, shall not be obligated to deliver cash and/or a New Certificate or New Certificates representing shares of Buyer Common Stock to which a holder of Company Common Stock would otherwise be entitled as a result of the Merger until such holder surrenders the Certificate or Certificates representing the shares of Company Common Stock for exchange as provided in this Section 2.05, or, an appropriate affidavit of loss and indemnity agreement and/or a bond in such amount as may be required in each case by Buyer. If any New Certificates evidencing shares of Buyer Common Stock are to be issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate evidencing Company Common Stock surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or accompanied by an executed form of assignment separate from the Certificate and otherwise in proper form for transfer, and that the Person requesting such exchange pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other tax required by reason of the issuance of a New Certificate for shares of Buyer Common Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered or otherwise establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

(e) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of Company for six (6) months after the Effective Time (as well as any interest or proceeds from any investment thereof) shall be delivered by the Exchange Agent to Buyer. Any shareholders of Company who have not theretofore complied with Section 2.05(b) shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Entity for the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect of each share of Company Common Stock such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case without any interest thereon. If outstanding Certificates for shares of Company Common Stock are not surrendered or the payment for them is not claimed prior to the date on which such shares of Buyer Common Stock or cash would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any governmental unit or agency, the unclaimed items shall, to the extent permitted by abandoned property and any other applicable law, become the property of Buyer (and to the extent not in its possession shall be delivered to it), free and clear of all claims or interest of any Person previously entitled to such property.

Neither the Exchange Agent nor any party to this Agreement shall be liable to any holder of shares of Company Common Stock represented by any Certificate for any consideration paid to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. Buyer and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to rely upon the stock transfer books of Company to establish the identity of those Persons entitled to receive the Merger Consideration specified in this Agreement, which books shall be conclusive with respect thereto. In the event of a dispute with respect to ownership of any shares of Company Common Stock represented by any Certificate, Buyer and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deposit any Merger Consideration represented thereby in escrow with an independent third party and thereafter be relieved with respect to any claims thereto.

(f) Buyer (through the Exchange Agent, if applicable) shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of Company Common Stock such amounts as Buyer is required to deduct and withhold under applicable law. Any amounts so deducted and withheld shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of Company Common Stock in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Buyer.

Section 2.06 Anti-Dilution Provisions. In the event Buyer changes (or establishes a record date for changing) the number of, or provides for the exchange of, shares of Buyer Common Stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Buyer Common Stock and the record date therefor shall be prior to the Effective Time, the Exchange Ratio and, if applicable, the Cash Consideration shall be proportionately and appropriately adjusted; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, no such adjustment shall be made with regard to the Buyer Common Stock if (i) Buyer issues additional shares of Buyer Common Stock and receives consideration for such shares in a bona fide third party transaction or (ii) Buyer issues employee or director stock grants or similar equity awards.

Section 2.07 Options. Each option to purchase Company Common Stock (collectively, the Options) granted under Company's 1996 Stock Option Plan or Company's 2004 Equity Incentive Plan (collectively, the Company Option Plan), whether vested or unvested, which is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and which has not been exercised or canceled prior thereto shall, at the Effective Time, be canceled and, on the Closing Date, Company or Company Bank shall pay to the holder thereof cash in an amount equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Company Common Stock provided for in such Option and (ii) the excess, if any, of the Cash Consideration over the exercise price per share of Company Common Stock provided for in such Option, which cash payment shall be made without interest and shall be net of all applicable withholding taxes. Prior to the Closing Date, Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the written acknowledgment of each holder of a then-outstanding Option with respect to the termination of the Option and the payment for such Option in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.07. At the Effective Time, Company Option Plan shall terminate and the provisions in any other plan, program or arrangement providing for the issuance or grant of any other interest in respect of the capital stock of Company shall be of no further force and effect and shall be deemed to be deleted.

Section 5.07 Publicity. Buyer and Company shall consult with each other before issuing any press release with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement without the prior consent of the other party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that a party may, without the prior consent of the other party (but after such consultation, to the extent practicable in the circumstances), issue such press release or make such public statements as may upon the advice of outside counsel be required by law. Without limiting the reach of the preceding sentence, Buyer and Company shall (i) cooperate to develop all public announcement materials; and (ii) make appropriate management available at presentations related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as reasonably requested by the other. Company promptly (and in any event within 48 hours) shall advise Buyer orally and in writing of the receipt of (i) any proposal that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal and the material terms of such proposal (including the identity of the party making such proposal and, if applicable, copies of any documents or correspondence evidencing such proposal), and (ii) any request for non-public information relating to Company or any of its Subsidiaries other than requests for information not reasonably expected to be related to an Acquisition Proposal. Company shall, thereafter, keep Buyer reasonably informed on a reasonably current basis of the status of any such Acquisition Proposal (including any material change to the terms thereof).

(c) Except as provided in Section 5.09(d), Board of Directors of Company shall not (i) withhold, withdraw or modify (or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw or modify), in a manner adverse to Buyer, its recommendation referred to in Section 5.04, or (ii) approve or recommend (or publicly propose to approve or recommend) any Acquisition Proposal (it being understood that Company's Board of Directors may take no position with respect to an Acquisition Proposal that takes the form of a tender offer until the close of business as of the tenth Business Day after the commencement of such tender offer pursuant to Rule 14d-2 under the Exchange Act without such action being considered an adverse modification). (e) Nothing contained in this Section 5.09 shall prohibit Company from (i) complying with its disclosure obligations under U.S. federal or state law with regard to an Acquisition Proposal, including Rule 14a-9, 14d-9

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Buyer (the Indemnifying Party) shall indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of Company, as applicable, determined as of the Effective Time (the Indemnified Parties) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred after the Effective Time in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time, arising in whole or in part out of or pertaining to the fact that he or she was a director or officer of Company or is or was serving at the request of Company as a director, officer, employee or other agent of any other organization or in any capacity with respect to any employee benefit plan of Company, including without limitation matters related to the negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby, to the full extent to which such Indemnified Parties would be entitled under the Bylaws of Company as in effect on the date of this Agreement as though such Bylaws continue to remain in effect after the Effective Time (subject to applicable Law). Buyer's obligations under this Section 5.10(a) shall continue in full force and effect for a period of six years from the Effective Time; provided, however, that all rights to indemnification in respect of any claim asserted or made within such period shall continue until the final disposition of such claim.

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section 5.10, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall promptly notify the Indemnifying Party, but the failure to so notify shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability it may have to such Indemnified Party if such failure does not actually prejudice the Indemnifying Party. In the event of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (i) the Indemnifying Party shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if the Indemnifying Party elects not to assume such defense or counsel for the Indemnified Parties advises that there are issues which raise conflicts of interest between the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel which is reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnifying Party, and the Indemnifying Party shall pay, promptly as statements therefor are received, the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties (which may not exceed one firm in any jurisdiction), (ii) the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such matter, (iii) the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent and (iv) the Indemnifying Party shall have no obligation hereunder in the event that indemnification of an Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by applicable laws and regulations or by an applicable federal or state banking agency or a court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, Company shall and if Company is unable to, Buyer shall cause the Surviving Entity as of the Effective Time to obtain and fully pay the premium for the extension of (i) the Side A coverage part (directors and officers' liability) of Company's existing directors' and officers' insurance policies, and (ii) Company's existing fiduciary liability insurance policies, in each case for a claims reporting or discovery period of at least six (6) years from and after the Effective Time from an insurance carrier with the same or better credit rating as Company's current insurance carrier with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance (collectively, D&O Insurance) with terms, conditions, retentions and limits of liability that are at least as favorable as Company's existing policies with respect to any actual or alleged error, misstatement, misleading statement, act, omission, neglect, breach of duty or any matter claimed against a director or officer of Company or any of its Subsidiaries by reason of him or her serving in such capacity that existed or occurred at or prior to the Effective Time (including in connection with this Agreement or the transactions or actions contemplated hereby) ; provided that in no event shall Company expend, or Buyer or the Surviving Entity be required to expend, for such tail policy a premium amount in excess of an amount (the Maximum D&O Tail Premium) equal to (x) 225% of the annual premiums paid by Company for D & O Insurance in effect as of the date of this Agreement less (y) the premium credit, if any, to which Company is entitled on account of the Merger under the D&O Insurance in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided further, that if the cost of such a tail policy exceeds the Maximum D&O Tail Premium, Company, Buyer or the Surviving Entity shall obtain a tail policy with the greatest coverage available for a cost not exceeding Maximum D&O Tail Premium.

(d) If Buyer or any of its successors or assigns shall consolidate with or merge into any other entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger or shall transfer all or substantially all of its assets to any other entity, then and in each case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Buyer shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 5.10.

Section 5.11 Employees; Benefit Plans.

(a) Buyer shall retain all Company Employees who accept employment with Buyer Bank under the terms and conditions specified by Buyer; provided, that continued retention by Buyer Bank of such employees subsequent to the Merger shall be subject to Buyer Bank's normal and customary employment procedures and practices, including customary background screening and evaluation procedures, and satisfactory employment performance. In addition, Company and Company Bank agree that Buyer may enter into discussions with the Company Employees listed on Schedule 5.11(a) hereto regarding employment, consulting or other arrangements to be effective following the Merger.

(b) Following the Closing Date, Buyer may choose to maintain any or all of Company Benefit Plans in its sole discretion. However, for any Company Benefit Plan terminated for which there is a comparable Buyer Benefit Plan of general applicability, Company Employees shall be entitled to participate in such Buyer Benefit Plan to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of Buyer or Buyer Bank (it being understood that inclusion of Company Employees in the Buyer Benefit Plans may occur, if at all, at different times with respect to different plans). Nothing herein shall limit the ability of Buyer or Buyer Bank to amend or terminate any of the Company Benefit Plans or Buyer Benefit Plans in accordance with their terms at any time.

(c) If employees of Company or any of its Subsidiaries become eligible to participate in a medical, dental or health plan of Buyer or Buyer Bank upon termination of such plan of Company or any of its Subsidiaries, Buyer shall make all commercially reasonable efforts to cause each such plan to (i) waive any preexisting condition limitations to the extent such conditions are covered under the applicable medical, health or dental plans of Buyer or Buyer Bank, (ii) honor under such plans, other than plans funded with insurance, any deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees and their beneficiaries during the portion of the calendar year prior to such participation and (iii) waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to such employee on or after the Effective Time, in each case to the extent such employee had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous Plan prior to the Effective Time for the plan year in which the Effective Time occurs.

(d) With respect to each Company Benefit Plan subject to Section 409A of the Code, Company agrees to amend each such plan or cause each such plan to be amended to the extent, in Buyer's reasonable judgment, such an amendment is necessary to comply with Section 409A of the Code (or to cause such plan, in whole or in part, to avoid the application of Section 409A of the Code by preserving the terms of such plan, and the law in effect, for benefits earned and vested as of December 31, 2004) prior to the earlier of the Effective Time or the deadline imposed by the IRS. Such amendments shall be provided to Buyer and its counsel at least ten days prior to their proposed adoption by Company or Company Bank and shall be subject to the prior approval of Buyer, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(e) During the one-year period commencing as of the date on which the Effective Time occurs, Buyer shall honor with respect to Company employees who commence employment as of the Effective Time with Buyer as contemplated by this Agreement the Severance Pay Plan of Slade s Ferry Bank (the Company Severance Pay Plan) in connection with the termination of employment of any Company Employee (excluding any employee who is party to an employment agreement, change-in-control agreement or any other agreement which provides for severance payments), in such amounts, at such times and upon such conditions as set forth in the Company Severance Pay Plan with respect to involuntary employment terminations for reasons other than cause that occur.

(f) Nothing in this Section 5.11, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any other Person any rights or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Section 5.11. Without limiting the foregoing, no provision of this Section 5.11 will create any third party beneficiary rights in any current or former employee, director or consultant of Company or its Subsidiaries in respect of continued employment (or resumed employment) or any other matter. Nothing in this Section 5.11 is intended (i) to amend any Benefit Plan, (ii) interfere with Buyer's or the Surviving Entity's right from and after the Closing Date to amend or terminate any Benefit Plan or (iii) interfere with Buyer's or the Surviving Entity's right from and after the Effective Time to terminate the employment or provision of services by any director, employee, independent contractor or consultant.

(g) Upon Buyer's reasonable request, Company shall cooperate with Buyer to facilitate the termination, on or after the Closing Date, of each Company Benefit Plan that is an employee pension benefit plan within the meaning of Section 3(2) of ERISA that is subject to Title IV of ERISA, provided that such termination is effected in a manner that does not adversely affect such plan's qualification under Sections 401(a) and 501(a) of the Code. Buyer and Company shall use reasonable best efforts to effect such a termination and the associated distribution of all assets of each such terminated Company Benefit Plan. In no event shall the assets of any Company Benefit Plan terminated pursuant to this Section 5.16(g) be distributed in any form or at any time not approved in writing in advance by Buyer.

(ii) the number obtained by dividing the Average Closing Price by the Reference Price (the Buyer Ratio) is less than the number obtained by dividing the Final Index Price by the Initial Index Price and then multiplying the quotient in this clause by .80 (the Index Ratio).

If Company elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 7.01(i), it shall give written notice to Buyer. During the five-Business-Day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Buyer may, at its sole option (the Fill Option), offer to either (x) adjust the Exchange Ratio to a level equal to a quotient (rounded to the nearest one thousandth), the numerator of which is the product of the Reference Price multiplied by the lesser of the Index Ratio or .80 multiplied by the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and the denominator of which is the Average Closing Price, or (y) augment the Stock Consideration with a cash payment per share of Company Common Stock in the amount equal to (1) if the Index Ratio is greater than or equal to 0.8, the sum obtained by subtracting the Average Closing Price from 80% of the Reference Price multiplied by the Exchange Ratio, or (2) the sum obtained by subtracting (a) the product of the Average Closing Price multiplied by the Exchange Ratio from (b) the product of the Reference Price multiplied by the Index Ratio multiplied by the Exchange Ratio. Buyer may not exercise its Fill Option under clause (y) of the immediately preceding sentence if it would preclude satisfaction of the condition in Section 6.01(f). If Buyer makes either of the elections contemplated by this Section 7.01(i), it shall give prompt written notice to Company of such adjusted Stock Consideration, and any references in this Agreement to Stock Consideration shall thereafter be deemed to refer to the Stock Consideration as adjusted pursuant to this Section 7.01(i).

If Buyer or any company belonging to the Index Group declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of the Agreement and the valuation date, the prices for the common stock of such company will be appropriately adjusted.

Section 7.02 Termination Fee; Reimbursement.

(a) In recognition of the efforts, expenses and other opportunities foregone by Buyer while structuring and pursuing the Merger, Company shall pay to Buyer by wire transfer of immediately available funds a termination fee equal to $3,500,000 (the Termination Fee)

(i) in the event Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(g), in which case Company shall pay the Termination Fee at or prior to the time of such termination, and

(ii) in the event Buyer terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(h), in which case Company shall pay the Termination Fee as promptly as practicable (but in any event within three (3) Business Days).

(b) In the event that (A) (I) an Acquisition Proposal, whether or not conditional, shall have been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to Company's senior management or the Board of Directors of Company (or any Person shall have publicly announced, communicated or made known an intention, whether or not conditional, to make an Acquisition Proposal) or (II) the Board of Directors of

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Buyer under the provisions referred to in clause (B) of Section 7.02(b) (or could have been terminated under such section) and the circumstances referred to in clause (A)(I) or (A)(II) of Section 7.02(b) shall have occurred prior to such termination but the Termination Fee has not been paid and is not payable because the circumstances referred to in clause (C) of Section 7.02(b) shall not have occurred, then Company shall pay at Buyer's direction as promptly as possible (but in any event within three (3) Business Days) following receipt of an invoice therefor up to $750,000 of Buyer's and its Subsidiaries reasonably documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including legal fees and expenses) actually incurred by Buyer and its Subsidiaries prior to the termination of this Agreement proximately in connection with the negotiation, execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Buyer and Buyer Bank (the Buyer Reimbursement Amount).

(d) Company and Buyer each agree that the agreements contained in this Section 7.02 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, Buyer would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if Company fails promptly to pay any amounts due under this Section 7.02 and, in order to obtain such payment, Buyer commences a suit that results in a judgment against Company for such amounts, Company shall pay interest on such amounts from the date payment of such amounts were due to the date of actual payment at the rate of interest equal to the sum of (x) the rate of interest published from time to time in The Wall Street Journal, Eastern Edition (or any successor publication thereto), designated therein as the prime rate on the date such payment was due, plus (y) 200 basis points, together with the costs and expenses of Buyer (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) in connection with such suit.

The Board of Directors
Slade's Ferry Bancorp.
100 Slade's Ferry Avenue
Somerset, MA 02726

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of Slade's Ferry Bancorp. (Slades) of the consideration offered in the proposed merger (the Merger) of Slades and Independent Bank Corp. (Independent), pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 11, 2007 between Slades and Independent (the Agreement). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Slades (the Common Shares) will be converted into 0.818 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Independent, and 25% of the outstanding shares will be converted into $25.50 in cash.

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience in, and knowledge of , the valuation of the banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Slades and Independent, and as a market maker in securities, we may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Slades and Independent for our own account and for the accounts of our customers. To the extent we have any such position as of the date of this opinion it has been disclosed to Slades. We have acted exclusively for the Board of Directors of Slades in rendering this fairness opinion and will receive a fee from Slades for our services.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, analyzed and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of Slades and Independent and the Merger, including among other things, the following: (i) the Agreement; (ii) the Annual Reports to Stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended December 31, 2006 of Slades and Independent; (iv) certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Slades and Independent and certain other communications from Slades and Independent to their respective stockholders; and (v) other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of Slades and Independent furnished to us by Slades and Independent for purposes of our analysis. We have also held discussions with senior management of Slades and Independent regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies and such other matters as we have deemed relevant to our inquiry. In addition, we have compared certain financial and stock market information for Slades and Independent with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry and performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to us or publicly available and we have not assumed any responsibility for independently verifying the accuracy or completeness of any such information. We have relied upon the management of Slades and Independent as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections (and the assumptions and bases therefor) provided to us, and we have assumed that such forecasts and projections reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of such managements and that such forecasts and projections will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such managements. We are not experts in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and we have assumed, with your consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for Slades and Independent are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering our opinion, we have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals of the property of Slades or Independent, nor have we examined any individual credit files.

We have considered such financial and other factors as we have deemed appropriate under the circumstances, including, among others, the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of Slades and Independent; (ii) the assets and liabilities of Slades and Independent; and (iii) the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions involving banks and bank holding companies. We have also taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. Our opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof and the information made available to us through the date hereof.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the consideration offered in the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of the Common Shares.

Very truly yours,

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

ITEM 20. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Independent is a Massachusetts corporation. Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 156D, Part 8, Subdivision E, provides that a corporation may, subject to certain limitations, indemnify its directors, officers, employees and other agents, and individuals serving with respect to any employee benefit plan, and must, in certain cases, indemnify a director or officer for his reasonable costs if he is wholly successful in his defense in a proceeding to which he was a party because he was a director or officer of the corporation. In certain circumstances, a court may order a corporation to indemnify its officers or directors or advance their expenses. Chapter 156D, Section 8.58 allows a corporation to limit or expand its obligation to indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents in the corporation's articles of organization, a bylaw adopted by the stockholders, or a contract adopted by its board of directors or shareholders.

Both Chapter 156D, Section 8.57 and Independent's articles of incorporation provide that the corporation may purchase and maintain insurance against liability incurred by an officer or director in his capacity as officer or director or while serving at Independent's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other entity, or arising out of his status as such. Independent currently maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance, which insures the officers and directors of Independent from any claim arising out of an alleged wrongful act by such person in their respective capacities as officers and directors of Independent.

Under Independent's articles of incorporation and its bylaws, Independent may not indemnify a director or officer unless ordered to do so by a court if his or her conduct: (a) was a breach of the director's or officer's duty of loyalty to Independent or its stockholders, (b) was not in good faith or involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) resulted in an improper distribution under Section 6.40 of Chapter 156D of the Massachusetts General Laws, (d) was conduct from which the Director or Officer derived an improper personal benefit, or (e) was at least not opposed to the best interests of Independent, if the conduct was with respect to an employee benefit plan, for a purpose he or she reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in, and the beneficiaries of, the plan.

The determination of whether the relevant standard of conduct have been met shall be made: (a) if there are two or more disinterested Directors, by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of all the disinterested Directors or by a majority of the members of a committee of two or more disinterested Directors appointed by vote; (b) by special legal counsel selected by a majority vote of all the disinterested Directors or by a majority of the members of a committee of two or more disinterested Directors appointed by vote; (c) if there are fewer than two disinterested Directors, selected by the Board of Directors, in which selection Directors who do not qualify as disinterested Directors may participate; or (d) by the shareholders (but shares owned by or voted under the control of a disinterested Director may not be voted on the determination).

Independent is not obligated under its articles of incorporation to indemnify or advance expenses to a director or officer of a predecessor of Independent, pertaining to conduct with respect to the predecessor, unless otherwise specifically provided.

Independent's articles provide that no amendment or repeal of the indemnification provision of its bylaws or of the relevant provisions of Chapter 156D shall affect or diminish the rights of any indemnified person to indemnification with respect to any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to any actions occurring prior to the final adoption of the amendment or repeal. Independent's articles of organization provide that no amendment or repeal of the provision limiting the liability of directors shall adversely affect the rights and protections afforded to directors of Independent for acts or omissions occurring prior to the amendment or repeal. The articles also provide that if the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act is subsequently amended to increase the scope of permitted indemnification, indemnification under the articles shall be provided to the full extent permitted or required by the amendment.

the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.
