PART II RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, 11-K or Form N-SAR, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Hillenbrand Industries, Inc. (the Company), as previously announced, expects to record in its results of operations for its fiscal fourth quarter of 2002 a charge relating to the jury verdict against the Company in its antitrust litigation with Kinetic Concepts, Inc. On September 27, 2002, the jury in this litigation matter awarded the plaintiffs $173.6 million in damages, subject to trebling, the addition of attorneys' fees and potential injunctive relief if the jury award is upheld by the court. The court has not entered a final ruling and judgment in the matter and is not expected to do so prior to early February 2003. Because the Company and the plaintiffs are currently involved in settlement discussions concerning this litigation matter, the Company is not able to determine the appropriate amount of the charge at this time. Accordingly, the Company was not in a position to file its Transition Report on Form 10-K for the transition period ended September 30, 2002 on or before the prescribed due date of December 30, 2002. The Company believes that it will be better able to make its determination regarding the appropriate amount of this charge in early January 2003 and will file the Transition Report on Form 10-K on or before the fifteenth day following the prescribed due date for the Form 10-K. There can be no assurance, however, that the litigation matter with Kinetic Concepts, Inc. will be settled prior to the filing of the Transition Report on Form 10-K or thereafter. The Company expects that, aside from the effects of this litigation matter, the fourth quarter results of operations that will be reflected in the Form 10-K when filed will not differ from the expected fourth quarter results of operations previously announced by the Company in a release on November 21, 2002.
