MYERS INDUSTRIES, INC.

PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Myers Industries, Inc., an Ohio corporation, of the accompanying proxy to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders (Annual Meeting) to be held on April 20, 2005, at 9:00 A.M. (local time), and at any adjournment thereof. The close of business on March 4, 2005, has been fixed as the record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting. On that date Myers had outstanding approximately 34,448,226 shares of common stock, without par value (Common Stock), each of which is entitled to one vote. For information concerning Principal Shareholders of the Company, see the section headed Principal Shareholders, below.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock is necessary to constitute a quorum for the Annual Meeting. Shares of Common Stock represented by signed proxies will be counted toward the establishment of a quorum on all matters even though they are signed but otherwise unmarked, or marked Abstain, Against or Withhold Authority. For the election of directors, if a quorum is present at the meeting, the nominees for election as directors who receive the greatest number of votes cast will be elected as directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the election of directors.

All shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies which are returned and not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions, if any, given therein. If no instructions are provided in a proxy, the shares of Common Stock represented by such proxy will be voted FOR the Board's nominees for director and in accordance with the proxy-holder's best judgment as to any other matters, if any, which may be properly raised at the Annual Meeting. A shareholder who has given a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to its exercise by giving written notice of such revocation to the Assistant Secretary of the Company, executing and delivering to the Assistant Secretary of the Company a later dated proxy reflecting contrary instructions or appearing at the Annual Meeting and taking appropriate steps to vote in person. The inspectors of election for the meeting appointed by the Board shall determine the number of votes cast by holders of Common Stock for all matters.

The mailing address of the principal executive offices of the Company is 1293 South Main Street, Akron, Ohio 44301. This Proxy Statement, together with the related proxy card and the Company's 2004 Annual Report to Shareholders, is being mailed to the shareholders of the Company on or about March 18, 2005.

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING DELIVERY OF SECURITY HOLDER DOCUMENTS

The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) now permits companies to send a single set of annual disclosure documents to any household at which two or more stockholders reside, unless contrary instructions have been received, but only if the company provides advance notice and follows certain procedures. In such cases, such stockholders continue to receive a separate notice of the meeting and proxy card. This householding process reduces the volume of duplicate information and reduces printing and mailing expenses. The Company has not instituted householding for shareholders of record; however, a number of brokerage firms may have instituted householding for beneficial owners of the Company s shares of Common Stock held through such brokerage firms. If your family has multiple accounts holding shares of Common Stock of the Company, you already may have received householding notification from your broker. Please contact your broker directly if you have any questions or require additional copies of the annual disclosure documents. The broker will arrange for delivery of a separate copy of this Proxy Statement or the Company s Annual Report promptly upon your written or oral request. You may decide at any time to revoke your decision to household, and thereby receive multiple copies.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Set forth below for each nominee for election as a director is a brief statement, including the age, principal occupation and business experience for at least the past five years, and the number of shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by such director.

The members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee have recommended, and the independent members of the Board of Directors have nominated, the persons listed below as nominees for the Board of Directors, all of whom presently are directors of Myers. If any nominee should become unavailable for any reason, it is intended that votes will be cast for a substitute nominee designated by the Board of Directors. There is no reason to believe that the nominees named will be unable to serve if elected. Proxies cannot be voted for a greater number of nominees than the number named in the Proxy Statement.

At this time there will be one vacancy on the Board since only eight persons have been nominated and the Board size was fixed at nine by the shareholders. A majority of the Board, pursuant to the Company s Code of Regulations and Ohio general corporate law, could appoint an individual to the Board to fill the vacant position. Such a need could occur, as examples, in the event the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee finds a highly qualified candidate and believes it is important to appoint such person prior to the next Annual Shareholder meeting. Any such person appointed would serve until the next Annual Shareholders meeting.

The Board of Directors recommends the election of the following nominees:

Committees of the Board

The Board of Directors of Myers has three standing committees, the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, and the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, whose members were appointed in April 2004 following the Annual Meeting. The Committees report on their actions as well as make recommendations to the Board of Directors.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is composed of three independent directors, Keith A. Brown, Chairman and Presiding Director, Karl S. Hay, and Jon H. Outcalt. The functions of this Committee, which met seven times in 2004, are to engage and discharge the independent registered public accounting firm, approve all audit and related engagements (audit and non-audit), review the results of the audit and interim reviews, determine the independence of the registered public accounting firm, review with the registered public accounting firm the financial results of the Company prior to their public release and filing of reports with the Commission, direct and supervise special investigations and to oversee the Company's corporate compliance program. The Committee also has oversight of the Company's system of internal auditing functions and controls, as well as the Company's internal control procedures. The Audit Committee regularly meets separately with management and the registered public accounting firm.

The Board of Directors has determined that a majority of the current Audit Committee members would qualify as an audit committee financial expert, and that each member of the Committee is independent under the applicable rules. The Board, however, has determined not to name any single member of the Audit Committee as a financial expert since the Board does not believe such a designation is necessary either for the Audit Committee or Board's effective performance.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee establishes and administers the Company's policies, programs and procedures for compensating its executive officers and Board of Directors. The Committee has the authority to retain outside consultants regarding executive compensation and other matters, but has historically not utilized consultants. The Compensation Committee, which met five times in 2004, has as its members three independent directors, Jon H. Outcalt, Chairman and Presiding Director, Edward W. Kissel, and Richard L. Osborne.

Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee (Governance Committee) is responsible for, among other things, evaluating new director candidates and incumbent directors, and recommending to the independent directors of the Board of Directors, nominees to serve on the Board of Directors as well as members of the Board's committees. The Committee, which met three times in 2004, has as its members seven independent directors, Edward W. Kissel, Chairman and Presiding Director, Keith A. Brown, Karl S. Hay, Richard P. Johnston, Michael W. Kane, Richard L. Osborne, and Jon H. Outcalt.

The Board has adopted a policy regarding the ability of a shareholder to propose a candidate for the Board of Directors prior to the Annual Meeting. The policy is described in this Proxy Statement under Shareholder Nominations, below. There have been no nominees recommended by a shareholder nor has a third party been engaged to assist in the process of identifying or evaluating nominees for the Board of Directors.

Table of Contents

General Board and Committee Matters; Corporate Governance.

The Board has determined that each of the following directors is independent and that each director has no material relationship with the Company which would impact upon their independence: Edward W. Kissel, Keith A. Brown, Karl S. Hay, Richard P. Johnston, Michael W. Kane, Richard L. Osborne, and Jon H. Outcalt. The determination of whether a director is independent is based upon the Board's review of the relationships between each director and the Company, if any, under the Company's Board of Directors Independence Criteria policy adopted by the Board on April 20, 2004, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at <http://www.myersind.com>. The Policy follows the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) rules for determining independence.

Effective in December 2002, the Board adopted a policy requiring the non-management directors, both as to the Board and in their respective Committees, to meet regularly in executive session without any management personnel or employee directors present. During 2004, the Board of Directors and each Committee met regularly in executive session. The non-management directors reported that in 2004 they selected Presiding Directors to preside at these meetings. Edward W. Kissel was selected as the Presiding Director for the executive sessions of the Board, and the Chair of each Committee was selected as the Presiding Director for the executive sessions of the applicable Committee.

The Board of Directors has implemented the corporate governance initiatives required by the NYSE rules and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. These include, among others, Corporate Governance Guidelines as well as a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics for the Company's directors, officers and employees. The Audit Committee (on behalf of the Board and the Company) maintains procedures, including a worldwide telephone hotline, which allows interested persons to report any financial or other concerns anonymously as further detailed under Shareholder Communications with the Board of Directors, below. In 2004, the Company submitted to the NYSE an unqualified Section 12(a) certification by its chief executive officer indicating that he was not aware of any violation by the Company of the NYSE corporate governance listing standards. In addition, the Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2004 filled with the Commission contained the Section 302 certification by the Company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer.

These Corporate Governance policies and procedures are discussed in various places in this Proxy Statement. Each of the corporate governance policies, written charters of the Board Committees and related procedures of the Company and each Committee are available on the Company's website at <http://www.myersind.com> or http://www.myersind.com/corporate_governance.html. Copies are also available upon request to the Company's Assistant Secretary at the Company's address listed herein.

There were a total of 11 regularly scheduled and special meetings of the Board of Directors in 2004. During 2004, all directors attended at least 75% of the aggregate total number of the meetings of the Board and Committees on which they served.

In 2004, as well as for at least the six Annual Shareholder Meetings which preceded it, all of the directors attended the Company's Annual Shareholder Meeting. Although the Company does not have a formal policy requiring directors to attend the annual meeting of shareholders, directors are encouraged to attend.

Director Compensation

From January 2004 through June 2004, outside directors were paid a $20,000 annual retainer plus $1,000 for each Board of Directors meeting attended. Directors were also paid $1,000 for each Committee meeting attended. Effective June 24, 2004, the Board and Committee meeting fees for outside directors were increased to $1,500, except for Committee chairs, whose fees were increased to $2,000 for meetings of their Committees. Further, effective January 1, 2005, the annual retainer for Board members was increased to $25,000, except for the Audit Committee chair, who receives an annual retainer of $30,000. On February 17, 2005, the Compensation Committee awarded Keith E. Brown, Chair of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, an additional payment of $10,000 in recognition of the extensive time and effort expended by him in 2004 as Chair of the Audit Committee.

Under the Company's 1999 Stock Option Plan, each non-employee director is awarded annually on the day of the Annual Meeting, a non-qualified stock option to purchase 2,500 shares of Common Stock. The option price per share is 100 percent of the fair market value (being the closing price on the NYSE on the day of grant) of a share of Common Stock.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (1934 Act) requires Myers' directors, officers and persons who own more than ten percent of its Common Stock (Section 16 Filers) to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Commission and to furnish Myers with copies of all such forms they file. These reports can be viewed at the Company's website at <http://www.myersind.com>, at http://www.myersind.com/section_16_reports.html, or at the Commission's website at <http://www.sec.gov>. Myers understands from the information provided to it by the Section 16 Filers for 2004 that they have adhered to all filing requirements applicable to the Section 16 Filers.

Board Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee, which is composed of three independent directors, operates under a written charter adopted by the Committee and ratified by the Board of Directors. A copy of the charter is available on the Company's website. The Committee is responsible, among other duties, for setting and administering the policies which govern executive compensation.

The executive compensation program for the Named Executive Officers, which includes the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), is administered by the Compensation Committee. The Committee's function is to review the performance of the CEO and the other Named Executive Officers in determining the amount and type of compensation to be paid and awarded, and to approve compensation adjustments and bonus awards in these areas. The Compensation Committee primarily bases its decisions on qualitative factors, exercising its discretion and using its judgment after considering those factors it deems relevant.

The CEO's performance and compensation are reviewed and determined annually by the Committee. For the CEO, the Committee has established an evaluation format which it uses to compile the opinions of the Committee on the CEO's performance achieving specific goals and objectives in areas such as strategic planning, financial results (annual and long-term), and succession planning, as well as others. It also uses this format to collect the confidential opinions of the independent board members. This information is then used as the primary criteria for the annual review held by the Committee with the CEO. The Committee's review of the CEO's performance and determination of compensation was also based upon a number of other factors. These include the performance of the Company, comparisons to the compensation paid by companies which have one or more factors which are deemed similar to the Company (such as of similar size by sales and market value, produce and distribute like products, or are located in like geographic areas). For action taken by the Committee effective for 2005 regarding the CEO's compensation, including the cash bonus award, the Committee increased the CEO's compensation due to the significant increase in the obligations of his position and the complexities of the Company.

For the Named Executive Offices other than the CEO, performance and compensation is reviewed and determined annually by the Committee. The primary factor used by the Committee is the recommendation of the CEO. The Committee's review of performance and determination of compensation is also based upon a number of other factors. These include the performance of the Company, comparisons to the compensation paid by companies which have one or more factors which are deemed similar to the Company, such as of similar size by sales and market value, produce and distribute like products, or are located in like geographic areas. For action taken by the Committee effective for 2005 regarding the Named Executive Officers' compensation, including the cash bonus awards, the Committee increased the Named Executive Officers' compensation due to the significant increase in the obligations of their positions and the complexities of the Company.

The Committee has the authority to award cash bonuses, but such awards are fully discretionary. Awards are generally based upon the relative performance of the Company as a whole and upon other qualitative measures. Cash bonus awards for the Named Executive Officers are generally determined by the Committee on or before March 1 of the following year. Unless otherwise noted, bonuses are paid 50% at the time of award, with the balance paid at 25% on each of the following two years. The Committee may designate part of an award to be paid in full, which may be due to extraordinary efforts or conditions. With the exception of normal retirement, any unpaid bonus may be forfeited if the executive officer is not employed by the Company prior to full distribution. The Company does not have a formal written plan regarding the award of cash bonuses to the CEO and Named Executive Officers.

Table of Contents

The Committee has reviewed the qualifying compensation regulations under Code Section 162(m) as issued by the Internal Revenue Service which provide that no federal income tax deduction is allowed for applicable employee remuneration paid by a publicly held corporation to a covered employee to the extent that the remuneration paid to the employee exceeds $1.0 million for the applicable taxable year, unless certain conditions are met. Currently, remuneration is not expected to exceed the $1.0 million base for any covered U.S. employee.
