Deloitte's audit reports on the Company's financial statements for the two most recent fiscal years did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. Deloitte audit reports on the Company's financial statements for the two most recent fiscal years did contain an explanatory paragraph regarding the fact that the Company was in the Development Stage. The audit reports of Deloitte on management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2005 and 2004 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and in the subsequent interim period from January 1, 2006 through June 14, 2006, there were (i) no disagreements between the Company and Deloitte on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Deloitte, would have caused Deloitte to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in their reports on the financial statements for such years, and (ii) no reportable events as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K. The Company has provided Deloitte with a copy of this disclosure and has requested that Deloitte furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not Deloitte agrees with the above statements. A copy of such letter dated June 19, 2006 from Deloitte is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Form 8-K.
