Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 28, 2015, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Teleflex Incorporated (the "Company") approved the Company's entry into executive severance and change-in-control agreements with each of the following executive officers of the Company: T. Anthony Kennedy, Senior Vice President, Global Operations; Karen Boylan, Vice President, Global Regulatory Affairs and Quality Assurance; Cameron P. Hicks, Vice President, Global Human Resources; and James J. Leyden, Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary. The agreements will be on terms substantially similar to those set forth in the executive severance and change-in-control agreements currently in place with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer, subject to the following exceptions:

- under the executive severance agreements, the severance benefits period will be equal to three weeks for each year the executive has been employed by the Company, but in no event will the benefit period be less than nine months or exceed 12 months; and

- under the change in control agreements, the severance benefits period will be equal to 18 months.

Descriptions of the material terms of the agreements are set forth in the Company's 2015 Proxy Statement under the section "Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change of Control." The benefits provided for under the new agreements will replace any severance and change-in-control arrangements previously in place between the Company and the executives.
